- (b) Notification must be submitted to the Administrator/designate at least fourteen (14) days prior to posting the following month's schedule.
- (c) Casual and regular part-time employees, having provided notice in writing as per (a) and (b) above, will be placed on the casual register, in order of seniority, for the following month.
- (d) A casual or regular part-time employee shall be entitled to register for work in any job for which he/she has the qualifications to perform.
- (e) Casual employees have the right to refuse one (1) shift per month. If a casual employee refuses six (6) shifts within a five (5) month period, on the 6th refusal he/she will be dropped from the casual register and be deemed to have terminated his/her employment.

(2) Procedure for Calling Employees for Casual Work

- (a) The Employer shall consider seniority, availability, the equal sharing of available work, the necessity for on-the-job orientation of new employees, the efficiency of assigning blocks of work and the continuity of care required by residents in the calling of casual employees.
- (b) A log will be kept of all calls made for casual call in. The log book shall show:
 - the date
 - employee called
 - the time called
 - the position and shift being called to fill
 - the outcome of the call (accept, decline, no answer, answering machine, message left)
 - the signature of the caller
- (c) If no answer, the caller shall make note in log book and move to next available employee on the casual register as outlined in 2(a) above. If an answering machine is reached or person is available to take a message, the caller shall leave a message saying, "This is Well-Being Seniors Services Ltd. calling, please call regarding an available shift" and note "answering machine" or "message left" in the log book. The caller shall then proceed down the list as outlined in point 2(a) above.
- (d) If an employee returns a call from a message left and the shift remains unfilled, offer it. If the shift vacancy has been filled, advise the employee that the shift is no longer available.
