ARTICLE 4 GRIEVANCES AND ARBITRATION

4.01 Introduction

The parties agree that grievances can frequently be resolved by discussion between the employee and her/his immediate supervisor. In the hope that disputes can be resolved amicably, discussions between the principals to any grievance shall be encouraged at each step. However, after a grievance has proceeded beyond the first step, such discussions will only occur with an Association representative present.

4.02 Definition and Cause

The Employer and the Association recognize that grievances may arise concerning:

- a) differences between the parties respecting the interpretation, application, or any alleged violation of a provision of this Agreement, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration; or
- b) the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee.

4.03 First Step

In general, every employee may seek to settle informally with her/his immediate supervisor any dispute which may arise either with or without her/his local representative in attendance. Such informal settlement shall not be used as a precedent by either party. In the event that the dispute is not settled under this step, the immediate supervisor shall advise the grievor of the name and address of the Employer representative designated to handle grievances at Step 2.

4.04 Second Step

Through the Association, the employee shall submit her/his grievance in writing, describing the nature of her/his complaint and a remedy required, to the Employer's representative designated to handle grievances at this step, within thirty (30) days after the date:

- a) on which he/she was notified orally or in writing of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance; or
- b) on which he/she first became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

A copy of the grievance shall be forwarded to the employee's immediate supervisor if said supervisor is other than the Employer's designated representative. Copies shall also be filed with the Association.

The Employer representative shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of receipt of the grievance in which to give a written reply to the employee and the Association.

4.05 Third Step

If an employee has not received a reply to Step 2 by the due date, or if he/she is not satisfied with the decision at Step 2 and wishes to proceed further, The Association shall submit the grievance to the Executive Director or designate within fourteen (14) days after receipt of the Employer representative's decision or after the due date for the decision. The Executive Director or designate will have thirty (30) days after receipt of the grievance in which to give her/his response to it.

4.06 Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 3, and pursuant to Article 5 of this Agreement, the Association may inform the Employer of its intent to submit the dispute to arbitration for final resolution within thirty (30) days after the Executive Director's decision has been received or became due, whichever is earlier.

4.07 Time Limit Recognition (Postal)

In the case of a decision which must be forwarded by mail, the date of posting as indicated by the post mark shall constitute the date of reply for the purpose of this Article, except during a postal strike or immediately prior to an anticipated strike, where personal service is required.

4.08 Dismissal or Suspension Grievance

In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal or suspension, the grievance may commence at Step 3 of the grievance procedure within thirty (30) days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal or notice of suspension.

4.09 Deviation from Procedure

The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been formally submitted by the Association, the Employer representative will not conduct discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly, with the aggrieved employee without the presence of an Association representative. In the event that, after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavors to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Association agrees that the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned. The parties agree that no procedure will be followed during the grievance or arbitration procedure which will result in a breach of the solicitor/client privilege.

4.10 General Interpretation Grievance

Where either party to this Agreement disputes the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of an Article of the Agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer or the Association, as the case may be, within sixty (60) days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to Arbitration as set out in Article 5.

4.11 Procedural Errors and Time Limits

In the spirit of this Agreement, it is the intent of the parties that a grievance shall not be invalidated due to procedural errors, provided such errors have no essential bearing on the substance of the grievance. Time limits for each step of the grievance procedure, however, may be extended only by mutual agreement in writing between the Association and the Employer. If the Association does not present a grievance to the next higher level within the agreed extended time limit, the grievance will be deemed to be forfeited.

4.12 Supervisory Employee's Responsibility

If a grievance arises as a result of the exercise of managerial or supervisory authority by any employee, the Association recognizes that the first responsibility of such employee is to the Employer, and it will not attempt in any way to influence such employee to act otherwise.

ARTICLE 5 ARBITRATION

5.01 Time Limits

Where a grievance is unresolved after exhausting the grievance procedure provided for in this Agreement it may be submitted for final resolution to Arbitration within the time limit stipulated in clauses 4.06, 4.10 or 6.03 of this Agreement. If the grievance has not been submitted within the time limit mentioned above, it shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

5.02 Procedure

- a) The party submitting the grievance or dispute to Arbitration shall do so by notifying the other party in writing.
- b) Within 15 days from the date upon which a party has, within the time limit mentioned in clause 4.06 of this Agreement, notified the other party of its intention to submit a grievance or dispute to arbitration, the parties shall agree upon a single arbitrator. Should the parties fail to agree, they shall jointly request the Chairperson of the Labour Relations Board to appoint an arbitrator. The parties agree that all arbitrators under this Agreement shall have a Bachelor of Laws degree from a university recognized by the Law Society of British Columbia.
- c) The arbitrator may determine her/his own procedure in accordance with the Labour Relations Code and shall give full opportunity to both parties to present evidence and make representations. He/she shall hear and determine the difference and shall make every effort to render a decision within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the hearing.
- d) The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding and enforceable on both parties and on any employee(s) affected by it. The arbitrator, however, shall not have the power to alter, modify or amend any of the provisions of this Agreement.
- e) Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the arbitrator's decision, either party may apply to the arbitrator to clarify the decision, which he/she shall make every effort to do within seven (7) days of receipt of the application.
- f) Each party shall pay one-half (1/2) of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.
- g) The time limits fixed in this Article may be altered only by mutual consent of the parties in writing.

ARTICLE 6 DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION, DISCIPLINE AND RESIGNATION

6.01 Burden of Proof

In all grievance matters involving disciplinary action against an employee, the burden of proving just cause shall lie with the Employer.

6.02 Disciplinary Action

- a) An employee who is given:
 - i. a letter of censure,
 - ii. a letter of reprimand, or
 - iii. an adverse report or evaluation,

shall be given an opportunity to correct the unsatisfactory performance or conduct before further disciplinary action is taken except in cases where the employee is being suspended or dismissed.

1. "Gross Salary" is the amount of salary actually earned inclusive of the following deductions: income tax, unemployment insurance and Canada Pension Plan, but does not include any Northern Allowance. "Plan year" is from the date of employment to March 31 of the first year of employment and from April 1 to the following March 31 of each subsequent year, or the date of the termination.
2. The SLBP is equivalent to 10% of the gross salary earned during the plan year, and may be taken in either extra time off, a lump sum cash payment, or a combination of the two, to the extent permitted below.
3. Auxiliary employees or auxiliary project employees shall be entitled to exercise the cash option only.
4. A regular employee may elect to receive a cash payment of all or part of the SLBP benefit earned in the plan year, to the extent permitted below.
5. A regular employee may elect to transfer all or part of the SLBP benefit earned during the plan year to a time bank. Time choices are calculated based on 2% of plan year salary being equivalent to five (5) working days where the employee has been employed for 12 months in the plan year, and a pro-rata portion where the employee has been employed for fewer months. Time may be extracted from the time bank in the manner described below.
6. The SLBP benefit will not be considered to have been "earned" until March 31 of each year in which the Plan is in effect, or until the date of termination of employment, whichever is earlier.
7. Each employee shall designate not later than March 31 of each year her/his choice for that particular plan year, i.e. to take all benefits in cash, bank all benefits as time, or to bank some time and take some cash, as the case may be.
8. The time bank may be converted to a cash payment at any time following the plan year. The employee shall give sixty (60) days notice of her/his intention to convert all or part of her/his time bank to cash. The cash pay out will be based on the original bank cash value, i.e. on the value at the date such leave was earned and will relate to the first earned benefit first.
9. Time may be extracted from the time bank to take an additional vacation leave of up to five (5) working days per annum, the scheduling of which shall be subject to operational requirements. The balance of the time bank shall be accumulated and taken as a continuous period of leave not sooner than once every three years and not later than once every eight years unless otherwise approved by the Executive Director.
10. Time may be extracted from the time bank as set out herein, but all time taken off must be at a time agreeable to both the employee and the Executive Director or designate. Prior approval shall be obtained from the Executive Director or designate. Unused vacation time in excess of ten (10) days, must be taken in conjunction with SLBP leave. The taking of leave must be scheduled so as to accommodate the operations of the staff lawyer's office during her/his absence.
11. An employee who leaves the employment of the Society and who has accumulated time in her/his time bank shall be paid the cash equivalent, calculated on the original bank case value, i.e. on the value at the date such leave was earned. Entitlement to the plan benefits shall be calculated up to the date of termination. The plan benefit shall not be earned in relation to any severance payment (i.e. in lieu of reasonable notice made following a layoff or dismissal.)

An employee may, at her/his option, defer the payment until a date of her/his choosing in the calendar year following the year in which he/she leaves the employment of the Society. The employee will reimburse the Society for any extra Employer cost, necessitated by the deferral, including Employer payments to the Canada Pension Plan.

12. An employee who terminates her/his employment with the Society shall not extract time from her/his time bank immediately prior to her/his date of termination.
13. An employee shall not earn plan benefits while on leave pursuant to the plan. However the Society shall continue to provide benefits pursuant to Article 12 of this Agreement while the employee is on plan leave.
14. This plan shall be effective as of April 1, 1981. All benefits earned under the Society's SLBP prior to that date shall be transferred to this plan and subject to these provisions.
 - a) Vacation credits will accrue to any SLBP earned after April 1, 1983 and subsequently taken as time off.
 - b) No vacation will accrue to any SLBP benefits earned prior to April 1, 1982 and subsequently taken as time off except as set out in (c) below.
 - c) Vacation credits will accrue to any SLBP benefits taken as time off for periods not exceeding one week.
 - d) A statutory holiday which occurs during SLBP leave will be considered to be a statutory holiday and not part of SLBP leave.
16. Notwithstanding point 12 above, an employee may extract time from her/his time bank immediately prior to retirement as a pre-retirement leave.
17. Before using the time bank, an employee must sign an agreement that he/she will return to work and remain in the Society's employ for a period equal to the SLBP time taken. Should the employee fail to return to work and remain in the employ of the Society for such time, the employee shall reimburse the Society for the difference between the amount paid to the employee and the original bank case value.
