South Granville Park Lodge

Our Lodge family is committed to our vision that each resident experiences Meaningful Days by

- Honouring and continuing their life story
- Forging respectful relationships with care givers and other residents
- Supporting their ability to be independent and express preferences
- Living in a safe and healthy environment

WELCOME TO OUR FAMILY

South Granville Park Lodge is an owner-operated family business which has been serving seniors in our community for over 40 years. Our family comprises of residents, their care providers and advocates and we live, work and visit here in our home, The Lodge. Our expert care providers are committed to promoting our philosophy of Meaningful Days, by ensuring safety, quality of care and enjoyment of life for all residents. At the heart of our vision, we honour the lives of our residents and promote family values of compassionate care and respectful support.

CARE PHILOSOPHY

The care providers at South Granville Park Lodge recognize the uniqueness of each resident, support the resident's strengths and challenges and provide care that promotes dignity, irrespective of cognitive and physical ability. We honour and continue the life story of residents by expressing curiosity through respectful language, celebrating achievements and milestones and by supporting individual interests and preferences.

At South Granville Park Lodge, our care staff is well informed, reliable and team-oriented. We maintain a staff to resident ratio, which exceeds licensing requirements, ranking us among the highest quality of care in our industry. Registered Nurses are on duty 24 hours a day. Nurses assess, plan, implement and evaluate the needs of each resident, and make care revisions, in close consultation with the Lodge Director of Care and the resident's family physician. The nurses work closely with resident's physician, dietitian, podiatrist, physiotherapist, laboratory technicians, therapeutic recreation staff, mental health team consultants and all in house health care providers, to maximize effective coordination of the resident's overall wellbeing. Residents receive gracious individual attention by well qualified Nursing Assistants in all aspects of their personal hygiene, dressing and food requirements.

OUR EXTENDED FAMILY

Our residents have family members and friends who care deeply about them. At South Granville Park Lodge, we welcome these important people as our "care advocates", part of our extended family and essential to our care philosophy of Meaningful Days.

The role of the care advocate is to support the resident through the transition process by providing a sense of comfort, familiarity and safety. The care advocate is also a link between the past, as a rich source of history and information about the resident, and the present. By sharing this link, both care advocates and care providers contribute to building and strengthening our family culture.

Through the open door policy at South Granville Park Lodge, we honour requests and feedback from our advocates through care conferences and service appraisals, in order to effect change and encourage a relationship of trust and shared responsibility. Our staff endeavours to inspire and educate our care advocates by providing tools and resources which empower and provide support. Many opportunities for family gatherings are also provided, in order to celebrate milestones, mark calendar events and spend quality time together. This all serves to build and strength our extended family of advocates who can then support each other on their respective journeys.

Members of the Committee attending meetings on their own time shall be compensated in accordance with straight time provisions of the collective agreement.

7.04 Purpose of the Committee

In order to foster better relations between the parties, the purpose of the Committee shall be to discuss matters of mutual concern including matters pertaining to the improvement of quality health care and safe nursing practice. The committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Union and to the Employer.

7.05 Scope of the Committee

The Committee shall not have the power to bind the Union or its members, or the Employer to any decision or conclusion reached in discussion.

The Committee shall not have jurisdiction over any matter contained in this Collective Agreement, including its administration or renegotiation.

The Committee shall not supersede the activities of any other committee of the Union or of the Employer.

ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.01 Union Representation

No Steward or employee shall leave their work without advising the immediate supervisor. Employee-Steward discussions shall take place where resident care and effectiveness of operations are not affected. Every reasonable effort will be made by the Employer to allow for these discussions to occur during work hours.

Stewards shall be permitted to represent an employee's interest without loss of pay when such meetings are scheduled during the Steward's hours of work.

8.02 Grievance Investigations

Where an employee has asked or is obliged to be represented by the Union in relation to the presentation of a grievance and a Steward wishes to discuss the grievance with that employee, the employee and the Steward shall, where operational requirements permit, be given reasonable time off without loss of pay for this purpose when the discussion takes place at the Employer's place of business.

Stewards shall be permitted to represent an employee's interest without loss of pay when such meetings are scheduled during the Steward's hours of work.

8.03 Right to Grieve Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand, and adverse reports or performance evaluation. An employee shall be given a copy of any such document placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in their file, they shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of their personnel record. Any such document other than official evaluation reports shall be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of eighteen (18) months from the date it was issued. The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing or within a reasonable period thereafter.

The Employer shall inform the employee that she has the right to have Union representation at any meeting where disciplinary action is anticipated.

8.04 Grievance Procedure

For the purposes of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as a difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.

Grievances shall be processed in the following manner:

STEP 1

Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the occurrence of the difference, or within fourteen (14) calendar days of when the employee first becomes aware of the matter giving rise to the difference, the employee with or without the steward (at the employee's choice) shall discuss the difference in a meeting with the immediate supervisor. Where the immediate supervisor is also the Step 2 designate, this stage may be eliminated.

STEP 2

If the difference is not satisfactorily settled under Step 1 then, within fourteen (14) calendar days after the completion of Step 1, the employee with a steward shall meet with the representative designated by the Employer with the authority to handle grievances at Step 2 to discuss and submit the grievance in writing.

Within a further seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the written grievance, the representative designated by the Employer shall give a written response to the employee and the steward. Should the grievance be denied, written explanations shall be given.

If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled under Step 2, then the Steward shall notify the Union within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the written response to the grievance.

Where the Union submits the written grievance, Step 1 shall be eliminated, and the Union shall be substituted for the employee in Step 2.

STEP 3

The Union shall, within a further fourteen (14) calendar days of this notification, discuss the grievance with the representative designated by the Employer with the authority to handle grievances at Step 3 (who shall be outside the bargaining unit). Within a further seven (7) calendar days of the Step 3 meeting, the representative designated by the Employer shall respond in writing to the Union. Should the grievance be denied, written reasons for denial shall be given. Failing settlement at this step, the grievance may be referred to Industry Troubleshooter and/or arbitration.

If the time limits are not complied with, the grievance shall be considered as being abandoned, unless the parties have mutually agreed in writing to extend the time limits

8.05 Dismissal/Suspension for Alleged Cause

Employees dismissed or suspended for alleged cause shall have the right within seven (7) calendar days after the date of dismissal or suspension to initiate a grievance at Step Three (3) of the grievance procedure.

Within ten (10) calendar days of the notice of the dismissal or suspension, the Employer shall notify the Head Office of the Union of such termination or suspension.

Employees shall not be dismissed or suspended except for just and reasonable cause. Where the Employer believes in good faith it has grounds to discipline under this clause, it may:

- A) place the employee on unpaid leave of absence pending final resolution of the grievance;
- B) place the employee on paid leave of absence pending final resolution of the grievance;
- C) require the employee to continue working at their regular job pending final resolution of the grievance; or
- D) by mutual agreement, transfer the employee to a different work area pending final resolution of the grievance.

It is understood that any decision made by the employer under (D) above may not prejudice in any way the rights of other employees under the Collective Agreement.

8.06 Reinstatement of Employees

If, prior to the constitution of an Arbitration Board pursuant to Article 9, it is found that an employee was laid off, disciplined, or dismissed without just and reasonable cause, that employee shall be reinstated by the Employer without loss of pay with all of their rights, benefits and privileges which they would have enjoyed if the lay-off, discipline or discharge had not taken place.

8.07 Industry Troubleshooter

Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the terms of the Collective Agreement, V.L. Ready; Christopher Sullivan, Corrine Bell; Elaine Doyle, or a substitute agreed to by the parties, shall at the request of either party:

- A) investigate the difference;

- B) define the issue in the difference; and,
- C) make written recommendations to resolve the difference within five (5) days of the date of receipt of the request, and for those five (5) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.

In the event the parties are unable to agree on an Industry Troubleshooter within a period of thirty (30) days, either party may apply to the Minister of Labor for the Province of British Columbia to appoint such person.

Failing to settlement at this step, the grievance may be referred to arbitration.

8.08 Expedited Arbitration

- A) A representative of the Employer and the BCNU designate shall meet each month, or as often as required, to review outstanding grievance to determine, by mutual agreement, those grievances suitable for expedited arbitration.
- B) Expedited arbitration dates shall be agreed to by the parties and shall be scheduled monthly or as otherwise mutually agreed to by the parties.
- C) The location of the hearing is to be agreed to by the parties but will be at a location central to the geographic area in which the dispute arose.
- D) As the process is intended to be non-legal, lawyers will not be used to represent either party.
- E) All presentations are to be short and concise and are to include a comprehensive opening statement. The parties agree to make limited use of authorities during their presentations.
- F) Prior to rendering a decision, the arbitrator may assist the parties in mediating a resolution to the grievance. If this occurs, the cost will be borne in accordance with the Labor Relations Code.
- G) Where mediation fails, or is not appropriate, a decision shall be rendered as contemplated herein.
- H) The decision of the arbitrator is to be completed on the agreed to form and mailed to the parties within three (3) working days of the hearing.
- I) All decisions of the arbitrators are to be limited in application to that particular dispute and are without prejudice. These decisions shall have no precedential value and shall not be referred to by either party in any subsequent proceeding.
- J) All settlements of proposed expedited arbitration cases made prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.
- K) The parties shall equally share the costs of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.
- L) The expedited arbitrators, who shall act as sole arbitrators, shall be V.L. Ready; Christopher Sullivan; Corrine Bell; Elaine Doyle.
- M) The expedited Arbitrator shall have the authority to provide a final and conclusive settlement of a dispute arising under this collective agreement. Such authority will be exercised consistent with the Labour Relations Code and the provisions of the collective agreement.

- N) It is understood that it is not the intention of either party to appeal a decision of an expedited arbitration proceeding.
- O) Any suspension for alleged cause that is not dealt with under this Section shall be referred immediately to Section 9.01 B for resolution; also see Section 8:05.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION

A) Composition of the Board

Should the parties fail to settle any difference, grievance, or dispute whatsoever, arising between the Employer and the Union, or the employees concerned, such difference, grievance or dispute, including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, but excluding renegotiation of the Agreement shall, at the instance of either party, be referred to arbitration.

The determination of an Arbitration Board of three (3) members, will be: One member is to be appointed by the Employer, one by the Union and the third, who shall be the Chairperson of the Arbitration Board, by the two thus appointed.

Such Board shall be deemed to be a Board of Arbitration within the meaning of the Labour Code of British Columbia.

B) Dismissal/Suspension

If the dismissal or suspension of an employee for alleged cause is not settled at Step Three of the grievance procedure, such grievance shall be referred to the arbitration.

The parties agree to make every effort to have the matter heard by an arbitrator within two (2) months of the referral to arbitration. The arbitrator shall be mutually agreed to by the parties.

The arbitrator shall schedule a hearing within seven (7) calendar days of their appointment.

The arbitrator shall hear and determine the dispute and issue a verbal or a written decision within seven (7) calendar days of the conclusion of the hearing.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties. Upon receipt of the decision, either party may request written reasons for the decision.

The parties agree that the time limits for appeal under the Labour Code of B.C. shall commence with the issuance of written reasons for the decision.

The arbitrator shall have the same powers and authority as an Arbitration Board established under the provisions of Article 9 excepting Article 9.03.

C) Failure to Establish Board

i) Within two (2) weeks after either party has given notice to the other requiring that a Board of Arbitration be established and such appointment is not made;

or

ii) If the appointees fail to agree upon a chair within the two week period, either party may request the Minister of Labour of British Columbia to make the appointment.

D) Single Arbitrator

By mutual agreement between the Union and Employer, a single arbitrator may be substituted for the Arbitration Board established in this Article.

The decision of the said arbitrator(s), or any two of them, made in writing, in regard to any difference or differences, shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union, and the employees concerned.

9.02 Authority of the Board

The arbitration board shall have the authority to provide a final and conclusive settlement of a dispute arising under this collective agreement. Such authority will be exercised consistent with the Labour Relations Code and the provisions of the collective agreement.

9.03 Time Limit for Decision of Arbitration Board

A Board of Arbitration established under this Article of the Collective Agreement shall have twenty (20) days to render a decision with respect to the question to be arbitrated, unless this time limit is extended by mutual agreement between the parties.

9.04 Employee Called as a Witness

9.05 Arbitration Board Hearings

The Employer shall grant leave without pay, where operational requirements permit, to a reasonable number of employees representing the Union before an arbitration Board, provided the dispute involved the Employer.

In the event that operational requirements do not permit, then the arbitration will be rescheduled to a mutually agreed time.

9.06 Expenses of Arbitration Board

Each party shall bear the expenses of the nominee appointed by such party and shall pay half of the expenses of the Chairperson and of the stenographic and other expenses of the Board, unless paid by the Labour Relations Board of the Province of British Columbia.

9.07 Reinstatement of Employees

If the Arbitration Board finds that an employee has been unjustly laid off, suspended or discharged, the employee shall be reinstated by the Employer and the Board may order that the employee reinstatement be without loss of pay, and with all their rights, benefits and privileges which they would have enjoyed if the lay-off, suspension or discharge had not taken place.

Provided, however, if it is shown to the Board that the employee has been in receipt of wages during the period between lay-off, suspension or discharge and reinstatement, the amount so received shall be deducted from wages which may be payable by the Employer pursuant to this clause, less any expenses which the employee has incurred in order to earn the wages so deducted.

The status of all employees covered by this Agreement shall be defined under one of the preceding three (3) definitions. If a dispute arises over the proper allocation of employee status, such dispute shall be resolved through Article 8 - Grievance Procedure. In the event that it is determined that an employee has been improperly classified such employee shall be reclassified effective immediately and the employer shall restore such benefits as may be capable of being restored. In addition, such employee shall be paid the equivalent of the cost of any benefits that are not restored to which that employee would have been entitled if the employee had been properly classified.

11.01 Definition

Increment step means the annual graduation of wages within a classification as set out in the Wage Schedule.

Employee suitability for seniority-rated employment will be determined during probation. Employees may be transferred or dismissed by the employer if the employer finds the employee to be unsuitable, providing the factors involved in suitability could reasonably be expected to affect work performance.

By written mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, the probationary period may be extended provided written reasons are given for requesting such extension.

12.02

Upon completion of the probationary period, the initial date of employment shall be the anniversary date of the Employee for the purpose of determining perquisites and seniority.

ARTICLE 13 - EVALUATION REPORTS, PERSONNEL FILES

13.01 Evaluation Reports

Where a formal evaluation of an employee's performance is carried out, the employee shall be provided with a copy to read and review. Provision shall be made on the evaluation form for an employee to sign it. The form shall provide for the employee's signature in two (2) places, one indicating that the Employee has read and accepts the evaluation, and the other indicating that the employee disagrees with the evaluation. The employee shall sign in one of the places provided within seven (7) calendar days. No employee may initiate a grievance regarding the contents of an evaluation report unless the signature indicates disagreement with the evaluation. The employee shall receive a copy of the evaluation report at the time of signing. ARTICLE 14 - SENIORITY

14.01 Definition

A) Regular Employees

Seniority for regular employees is defined as the length of the employee's continuous employment (whether full time or part time) from the date of commencement of regular employment, plus any seniority accrued while working as a casual employee of the employer.

B) Casual Employees

Seniority for casual employees shall be as defined in the Addendum - Casual Employees.

14.02 Promotion, Transfer, Demotion, Release

In the promotion, transfer, demotion or release of employees, efficiency, required qualifications (including initiative), and seniority shall be the determining factors. Each of the three determining factors will be accorded equal weight.

14.03 Qualifying Period

If a regular employee is promoted, voluntarily demoted, or transferred to a job, the classification for which the Union is the certified bargaining authority, then the promoted, voluntarily demoted, or transferred employee shall be considered a qualifying employee in their new job for a period of three (3) months.

In no instance during the qualifying period shall such an employee lose seniority or perquisites. However, if a regular employee has been promoted, voluntarily demoted or transferred and during the aforementioned three (3) month period is found unsatisfactory in the new position, then the promoted, voluntarily demoted or transferred employee shall be returned to their former job and increment step before the promotion, voluntary demotion or transfer took place, without loss of seniority, and any other employee hired, promoted, voluntarily demoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of jobs, shall be returned to their former job and pay rate without loss of seniority and accrued perquisites.

An employee who requests to be relieved of a promotion, voluntary demotion, or transfer during the qualifying period in the new job shall return to the employee's former job without loss of seniority or perquisites on the same basis as outlined in paragraph (2) of this Section.

14.04 Temporary Promotion or Transfer

An employee granted a temporary promotion, transfer or demotion shall return to their former job and pay rate without loss of seniority and accrued perquisites when the temporary promotion, transfer or demotion terminates.

14.05 Promotions

A regular employee promoted to a job with a higher wage rate structure shall receive in the new job the increment rate that is immediately higher than their wage rate immediately prior to the promotion.

For increment progression, the employee's increment anniversary date shall then become the initial day in the new job. Employee pay rates shall become effective from the first day in the new job and further increment increases shall become effective on the established increment date.

However, should the promotion at any time result in a lesser rate of pay than the employee would have received if the promotion had not occurred, then the employee shall retain the increment anniversary date of their prior job.

14.06 Transfers

A regular employee transferred to a job with the same pay rate structure as their former job shall remain at the same increment step in the pay rate structure and shall retain their former anniversary date.

A regular employee transferred upon the employee's request to a job with the same rate structure as their former job, who has the experience in or possesses the ability to perform the duties of the new job, shall retain the pay rate and increment anniversary date of prior job.

A regular employee transferred upon the employee's request to a job with the same pay rate structure as their former job who does not have prior experience or ability to qualify as above, shall remain at the increment step immediately preceding the step indicated by length of overall seniority for a period not to exceed three (3) months. Upon completion of this qualifying period, the employee shall revert to the increment anniversary date of their prior job.

14.07 Demotions

An employee requesting a voluntary demotion from a higher to a lower-rated job, and who is subsequently demoted to the lower-rated job, shall go to the increment step of the lower-rated job commensurate with their overall seniority, provided they have experience in or possesses the ability to perform the duties of the lower-rated job without a training period. For the purpose of this section and in the event of involuntary demotion, an employee who does not have prior experience or the ability to qualify as above, shall remain at the increment step immediately preceding the step indicated by length of overall seniority, for a period not to exceed three (3) months.

14.08 Re-employment After Retirement

Employees who have reached retirement age as prescribed under the Pension (Municipal) Act and continue in the Employer's service, or are re-engaged within three (3) calendar months of retirement, shall continue at their former increment step in the pay rate structure of the classification in which they are employed, and the employee's previous anniversary date shall be maintained. All perquisites earned up to the date of retirement shall be continued or reinstated.

14.09 Re-employment After Voluntary Termination or Dismissal for Cause

Where an employee voluntarily leaves the Employer's service, or is dismissed for cause and is later re-engaged, seniority and all perquisites shall date only from the time of re-employment, according to regulations applying to new employees.

14.10 Supervisory or Military Service

It is understood service with the Armed Forces of Canada in time of war or compulsory military service, or service with the Employer as a supervisory Employee does not constitute a break in the continuous service and shall not affect an employee's seniority rights.

14.11 Seniority Dates

Upon request, the employer agrees to make available to the union the seniority dates of any employee covered by this Agreement. Such seniority dates shall be subject to correction for error on proper representation by the Union.

ARTICLE 15 - JOB POSTINGS AND APPLICATIONS

15.01 Postings

- A) The Employer shall post notice of all new jobs or nursing vacancies that have a duration of thirty (30) calendar days or more, describing the position, work area, date of commencement, the hours of work including start and stop times, the days off, a summary of the job description and the required qualifications. The Employer agrees that the vacancies will be posted for a minimum of seven (7) calendar days in a manner which gives all employees access to such information.
- B) The Employer shall also consider applications from those employees with the required seniority that are absent on leave and who have filled in an application form stating the jobs they would be interested in applying for should a vacancy or new job occur during their absence.
- C) A copy of all postings shall be sent to the BCNU Steward within the aforementioned seven (7) days.

- D) The Employer shall, within three (3) calendar days, inform all applicants of the name of the successful applicant either in writing to each applicant or by posting the name of the successful applicant in the same manner in which the vacancy or new job was posted.
- E) The Employer agrees to supply to the Union the names of all applicants for a vacancy or new position in the course of a grievance investigation.

15.02 Temporary Appointments

- A) The Employer may make a temporary appointment, without posting, to a vacant position. The temporary appointment shall not exceed thirty (30) work days, unless the Union and Employer mutually agree to extend the time limit.
- B) A regular employee who is assigned to, or on her own volition fills a temporary appointment shall return to her former position and pay rate without loss of seniority and accrued perquisites when the temporary appointment ends.

ARTICLE 16 - JOB DESCRIPTIONS

The position of each regular employee shall be assigned to an appropriate job description.

16.02

The Employer shall draw up job descriptions for all positions and classifications for which the Union is the certified bargaining agent. Job descriptions shall contain the job title, name of the department, title of the immediate supervisor, classification and wage level of the job, a summary statement of the job, a list of the duties and the date prepared.

The said job descriptions shall be presented in writing to the BCNU Provincial Office and shall become the recognized job descriptions unless written notice of objection thereto, set out in specific detail, is given by the Union within forty-five (45) days.

Each regular employee shall be provided with a copy of the agreed to job description for their position.

16.04

In the case of a newly created job or classification, or where an existing job or classification is changed to the extent that it becomes a new classification, the Employer shall remit such job descriptions and the remuneration proposed, as outlined above.

16.05

The parties will meet at Step Three of grievance procedure to review the job description. If an agreement cannot be reached the issue/s may be submitted to arbitration. The Board or the sole arbitrator, as the case may be, shall decide on the issues regarding the job description, based on the relationship of the new classification to existing classifications in the bargaining unit.

16.06

Any decision to adjust the wage rate, either by the parties or the Board, shall be retroactive to the date the complaint was filed.

ARTICLE 17 - NOTICE OF NEW AND CHANGED POSITIONS

17.01 New Positions

In the event the Employer shall establish any new position, the classification and wage rate for the new position shall be established by the Employer and written notice shall be given to the Union, and unless notice of objection to the classification and wage rate by the Union is given to the Employer within forty-five (45) calendar days after such notice, such classification and wage rate shall be considered to have been agreed. Where the Union objects to the classification and wage rate, it shall provide reasons for the objection in writing. If no agreement can be reached between the Employer and the Union within a further twenty-one (21) days, the issue will be put to expedited arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Article 8.08.

If the classification and/or wage rate established by the Employer for such new position are revised as a result of negotiation or arbitration, then the revised classification and wage rate shall be effective from the date when the new position was established.

17.02 Change in Duties

In the event the Employer significantly changes an existing position, the Employer shall give written notice to the Union with respect to changes in job content, and/or required qualifications, along with any change in the job classification and/or wage rate.

If notice of objection is not received from the Union within forty-five (45) calendar days after such notice, then the classification and wage rate shall be considered to have been agreed. When the Union objects to the classification and wage rate, it shall supply specific reasons for the objection in writing. If no agreement can be reached between the Employer and the Union within a further twenty-one (21) days, the issue will be put to expedited arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Article 8.08.

If the classification and/or wage rate established by the Employer for such changed jobs are revised as a result of negotiation or arbitration, then the revised classification and wage rate shall be effective from the date of the change in job content and/or requirements.

If an employee considers there has been a significant change to the job content of the position held, the employee may initiate a grievance as per Article 8. If the issue is not resolved under step three it may be referred to expedited arbitration, Article 8.08.

ARTICLE 18 - TECHNOLOGICAL, AUTOMATION AND OTHER CHANGES

18.01 Preamble

This Article shall not interfere with the right of the Employer to make such changes in methods of operation as are consistent with technological advances in the health care field.

The purpose of the following provisions is to preserve job security and stabilize employment and to protect as many regular employees as possible from loss of employment.

18.02 Definition of Displacement

Any employee shall be considered displaced by technological change when their services shall no longer be required as a result of a change in plant or equipment, as a result of a change in a process or method of operation, as a result of economic constraints, or as a result of a reorganization of the workforce, or a component thereof.

18.03 Notice of Displacement

The Employer shall notify the Unions of any proposed labor adjustment initiative at the time the initiative is proposed or sixty (60) days in advance, whichever is greater.

Employees affected will be allowed a training period to acquire the necessary skill(s) for retaining employment with the Employer.

18.04 Bumping

It is agreed that in instances where a job is eliminated, either by automation or change in method of operation, employees affected shall have the right to transfer to a job in line with seniority provided such transfer does not affect a promotion and provided, further, the employee possesses the ability to perform the duties of the new job. Employees affected by such rearrangement of jobs shall similarly transfer to jobs in line with seniority and ability.

If an employee who transfers to a job under this clause opts out during the qualifying period or successfully posts into another position, then the former employee shall have the right to return to the position, if desired, without posting.

A transfer under this section shall not be deemed to effect a promotion unless it results in an increase in the pay rate of the transferring employee in excess of three percent (3%) of their existing pay rate.

18.05 Technological Displacement

The Employer agrees that, whenever possible, no employee shall lose employment because of technological change, utilizing normal turnover of staff to absorb such displaced employees. However, when necessary to reduce staff, it shall be done as outlined in Article 14 and Article 19.

18.06 Job Training

The Employer and the Union agree to discuss, under Article 7, the issues related to Training and Skill Upgrading for the following purposes:

- A) for planning and implementing training programs for those employees affected by technological change;
- B) for planning and implementing training programs to enable employees to qualify for new positions being planned through future expansion or renovation;
- C) for planning and implementing training programs for those employees affected by new methods of operation;
- D) for planning and implementing training programs in the area of general and specialized skill upgrading and maintenance;
- E) Current employees shall be given priority for training programs.

Whenever necessary, this Committee shall seek the assistance of external training resources such as the Federal Department of Employment and Immigration and Provincial Ministry of Labor and Consumer Services, or other recognized training institutions.

ARTICLE 19 - REDUCTION IN WORK FORCE

19.01

In the event of a reduction in the work force, regular employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority, provided that there are available employees with greater seniority who are qualified and willing to do the work of the employees laid off.

19.02

The Employer shall give regular full-time and regular part-time employees the following written notice of layoff or normal pay for that period in lieu of notice:

- A) Up to and including two (2) years seniority - twenty-eight (28) calendar days.
- B) Three (3) years seniority - thirty-five (35) calendar days.
- C) Four (4) years seniority - thirty-five (35) calendar days.
- D) Five (5) years seniority - forty (40) calendar days.
- E) Six (6) years seniority - forty-eight (48) calendar days.
- F) Seven (7) years seniority - fifty-six (56) calendar days.
- G) Eight (8) years seniority or more - sixty-four (64) calendar days.
- H) Nine (9) years seniority or more - sixty-nine (69) calendar days.
- I) Ten or more (10+) years seniority or more - seventy (70) calendar days.

19.03

Notice of layoff shall not apply where an Employer can establish that the layoff results from an act of God, fire, or flood.

19.04

Laid off regular employees shall retain their seniority and perquisites accumulated up to the time of lay-off, for a period of one (1) year and shall be rehired, if the employee possesses the capability of performing the duties of the vacant job, on the basis of last off - first on. Laid off employees failing to report for work of an ongoing nature within seven (7) days of the date of receipt of notification by registered mail shall be considered to have abandoned their right to re-employment. Employees requiring to give two (2) weeks' notice to another employer shall be deemed to be in compliance with the seven (7) day provision. In the exercise of rights under this section, employees shall be permitted to exercise their rights in accordance with Article 18.04 of this Agreement.

19.05

Where a notice of displacement or layoff actually results in a layoff, and prior to the layoff becoming effective, copies of such notice shall be sent to the Union and Steward.

ARTICLE 20 - TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

20.01 Employer's Notice of Termination

Basic monthly earnings for regular part-time employees shall be calculated on the basis of the employee's average monthly hours of work for the twelve (12) month period or such shorter period that the employee has been employed, prior to the date of disability, multiplied by their hourly pay rate as at the date of disability.

The plan shall include entitlement to indexing based on the Canadian Price Index.

Section 3 — Total Disability Defined

- A) Total Disability/Totally Disabled means, during the Elimination Period and the subsequent Own Occupation Period as stated on the Schedule of Benefits for any Class with an Own Occupation Period, such a continuous state of incapacity resulting from Injury or Sickness that the Insured Employee will be completely unable to perform the essential duties of his own occupation at his own or any workplace. After the expiration of the Own Occupation Period, if any, it will mean such a continuous state of incapacity resulting from Injury or Sickness that the Insured Employee is completely unable to engage in any gainful occupation or perform any work for remuneration or profit for which he is reasonably fitted by education, training or experience.

- B) Total disabilities resulting from mental or nervous disorders are covered by the Plan in the same manner as total disabilities resulting from accidents or other sicknesses.
- C) During a period of total disability, an employee must be under the regular and personal care of a legally qualified Doctor of Medicine.
- D) After twenty-four (24) months of disability, an employee who is able by reason of education, training, or experience, to perform the duties of any gainful occupation, shall no longer be considered totally disabled and, therefore, shall not continue to be eligible for benefits under the Long Term Disability Plan.
- E) If an employee who is receiving this Long Term Salary Continuance benefit enters into a rehabilitation program, benefits may, at the discretion of the Company, be continued for up to twenty-four (24) months. However, the monthly benefit payable to the employee during the rehabilitation program will be the amount of benefit calculated in accordance with the terms of this policy less twenty-five per cent (25%) of the total amount of any wages, compensation, or profit earned by the employee during the rehabilitation program. In the event that income from rehabilitative employment and the benefit paid under this Plan shall exceed eighty per cent (80%) of the employee's earnings at date of disability, the benefit from the Plan shall be further reduced by the excess amount.

“Rehabilitative employment” shall mean any occupation or employment for wage or profit, or any course or training that entitles the disabled employee to an allowance, provided such rehabilitative employment has the approval of the employee's doctor and the underwriter of the Plan.

The rehabilitation calculation reduces the Long Term Disability benefits by 50% of the earned income during a gradual return to work, up to a maximum of 100% of the pre-disability earnings.

The rehabilitative employment of a disabled employee shall continue until such time as the employee's earnings from rehabilitative employment exceed one hundred per cent (100%) of the employee's indexed pre-disability earnings.

If the earnings are received by an employee during a period of total disability and, if such earnings are derived from employment which has not been approved as rehabilitative employment, then the regular monthly benefit from the Plan shall be reduced by one hundred per cent (100%) of such earnings.

Section 4 — Limitations

Limitations

An employee, physically able to engage in an occupation or employment, shall not be deemed to be totally disabled if they are prevented from engaging in that occupation or employment by any disqualification of or employment practice, even though such disqualification may arise from or be related to bodily injury or sickness for which they have received benefits provided by the Plan.

In no event shall absence outside the territorial limits of Canada or the United States in North America be considered as part of disability period unless approved by the Company in writing prior to the beginning of such absence.

Section 5 — Integration with Other Disability Income

The amount of benefit payable to an employee shall be the amount for which they are insured on the date of commencement of their total disability, subject to any provision for the reduction or termination of insurance contained in the policy on such date and shall include entitlement to indexing as per Section 2 — Waiting Period and Benefits.

However, if during a disability period, the employee is entitled to receive income from any of the following sources:

- i) Workers' Compensation Act, or similar law;

- iii) Retirement or Pension Plan with any employer;
- iv) Any disability provision or any group insurance policy; and
- v) Any law providing disability or retirement benefits enacted by any government, including the Employee Benefit of the Canada Pension Plan and the Quebec Pension Plan.

For the purposes of the disability benefit adjudication, CPP is a primary offset. Other income is calculated in the 85% all source maximum (considered in-direct offsets). For WorkSafeBC Benefits, annual increases are taken into account.

The amount of benefit shall be reduced by the amount of such income, excluding any portion the employee was receiving prior to commencement of disability, regardless of whether the employee has actually applied for and received such income.

However, no reduction in the amount of monthly benefit payable to the employee during the same period of disability will be made on account of increases in the amount of their income from the above sources.

Section 6 — Successive Disabilities

See Appendix C Recurrent Disability

Section 7 — Expiration of Sick Leave

Initial proof of total disability, obtained at the employee's expense, must be sent to the Company on the form provided by the Company for that purpose and received by the Company not later than thirty (30) days after the expiration of the qualification period.

Failure by the participating Employer to provide written notice of claim within the time limit specified above shall neither invalidate nor reduce any claim if it is shown that the employee has advised their Employer of intention to claim within the time limit specified above.

Failure by the employee to provide written proof of claim as required above shall not invalidate a claim if notice is given to the Company within the time limit specified above, showing that it was not reasonably possible to obtain such proof.

An employee making such an election under this provision must enrol in each and every one of the benefit plans and shall not be entitled to except any of them. Where a casual employee subsequently elects to withdraw from the benefits plans, they must withdraw from all three plans. Casual employees failing to maintain the required payments, shall have the benefit plans terminated. Those employees who voluntarily terminate, or are terminated from the plans by the Employer, will not be entitled to re-enrol.

Definitions

"Accident" means a single, sudden, violent, unintended, unexpected, external event that causes a disability, independent of any other cause.

"Injury" means accidental bodily injury sustained by the Insured Employee, while this Provision is in force, which directly and independently of all other causes results, within 90 days of the date of the accident, in Total Disability as hereinafter defined.

"Medical Care" will mean any necessary medical investigation, tests, diagnosis, treatment, services, care, attendance, consultation, medical advice, planned or pending surgery, drugs and medicines (either prescription or non-prescription), or referral to another health care professional, as a result of a diagnosed or undiagnosed medical condition. Medical Care must be ordered by a Physician or other authorized health care professional in the treatment of the Sickness or Injury.

"Motorized Vehicle" means a vehicle that is drawn, propelled or driven by any means other than muscular power, including but not limited to an automobile, motorcycle, boat, snowmobile, all terrain vehicle, personal watercraft or farm equipment.

"Substance Abuse" includes, but is not limited to: (i) the abuse of medication (prescribed or non-prescribed), drugs or alcohol; (ii) the use of illegal or experimental drugs or products; (iii) any other drug addiction or substance abuse disorder; and (iv) any condition arising from the abuse of such medication, drugs or alcohol.

"Sickness" means any illness or disease of the Insured Employee not specifically excluded elsewhere in this Provision, which causes Total Disability as defined below, while this Provision is in force. Any disability which is caused by, or is contributed to by, accidental bodily injury and which commences more than 90 days after the date such Injury is sustained, will be deemed to be resulting from Sickness. Any infection, other than a pyogenic infection, occurring through and at the time of an accidental cut or wound, will also be deemed to be as resulting from Sickness.

"Total Disability/Totally Disabled" means, during the Elimination Period and the subsequent Own Occupation Period as stated on the Schedule of Benefits for any Class with an Own Occupation Period, such a continuous state of incapacity resulting from Injury or Sickness that the Insured Employee will be completely unable to perform the essential duties of his own occupation at his own or any workplace. After the expiration of the Own Occupation Period, if any, it will mean such a continuous state of incapacity resulting from Injury or Sickness that the Insured Employee is completely unable to engage in any gainful occupation or perform any work for remuneration or profit for which he is reasonably fitted by education, training or experience.

The availability of work will not be considered by the Company in assessing the Insured Employee's Total Disability.

An Insured Employee who must hold a permit or licence, including a driver's licence, to perform his duties will not be considered Totally Disabled solely because such a permit or licence has been withdrawn or not renewed.

"Monthly Earnings" means, where used in this Provision and on the Schedule of Benefits with respect to each Insured Employee, the regular monthly fixed gross remuneration or its monthly equivalent he receives from the Policyowner, but will not include, unless otherwise approved by the Company in writing, commissions, overrides, bonuses, allowances, dividends, or other forms of remuneration, the amount of which is not predetermined, nor will it include in the calculation of a benefit any increase in earnings granted or effective in the 60 day period immediately prior to the commencement of Total Disability which is more than 10% above the immediately prior level of earnings.

"Take-home Pay" means the Insured Employee's after-tax income equal to his Monthly Earnings less one twelfth of the annual Federal and Provincial Income Tax payable. Income Tax is determined by the Insured Employee's province of residence and the Net Claim Code as specified on the most recent Federal and Provincial TD1 forms on record with the Policyowner. Failure to provide a TD1 form will result in a Net Claim Code based solely on the basic personal amount.

"Scheduled Benefit" means, subject to Evidence of Insurability, the lesser of the Benefit Amount using the Monthly Earnings last reported to the Company and the Benefit Maximum for this Provision as indicated on the Schedule of Benefits. However, if such Evidence of Insurability is required and not approved, the Employee's Scheduled Benefit will be limited to:

- a) zero, if the Employee has applied for insurance more than 31 days after he became eligible and the Plan is Non-Mandatory, or
- b) the No Evidence Limit, if the Scheduled Benefit would have exceeded the No Evidence Limit had the Evidence of Insurability been approved, or
- c) the Scheduled Benefit prior to submitting the Evidence of Insurability, if such benefit exceeds the No Evidence Limit.

Notwithstanding the above, if this Provision replaced a prior group policy which provided disability coverage at the time of policy termination and provided a benefit period of at least two years duration, and the prior policy terminated within 31 days immediately preceding the Effective Date of this Provision, Evidence of Insurability will be required for the Scheduled Benefit in excess of the greater of:

- a) the No Evidence Limit as stated on the Schedule of Benefits, and
- b) the individual Employee's amount of disability insurance last in force.

"Elimination Period" means the initial period of continuous Total Disability of an Insured Employee during which no Long Term Disability Benefit is payable. The duration of the Elimination Period will be shown on the Schedule of Benefits for this Provision.

Waiver of Premium

Premiums for this Provision will be waived for an Insured Employee when they fall due during any period for which a Long Term Disability Benefit is payable to the Insured Employee under this Provision.

Right of Recovery

The Insured Employee will be deemed to have received a benefit in excess of what should have been paid if the Insured Employee fails to apply or fails to apply satisfactorily for disability income benefits as outlined under Amount of Long Term Disability Benefit Payable, that otherwise would have been payable had such application been made.

This clause must be read in conjunction with the Right of Recovery clause as outlined in the General Provisions section of this Policy.

Payment of Long Term Disability Benefit

Upon receipt at its Head Office of proof satisfactory to the Company, on the Company's claim forms, that an Insured Employee has been continuously Totally Disabled while insured under this Provision, for a period in excess of the applicable Elimination Period, and is otherwise eligible, and under the care of an appropriate Physician (other than himself), the Company will pay to the Insured Employee the Long Term Disability Benefit as hereinafter determined, for each calendar month that such Total Disability continues beyond the later of:

- a) the end of the Elimination Period, and
- b) the date the Insured Employee is no longer entitled to receive benefits under a weekly indemnity or short term disability plan.

Payments will be payable monthly in arrears. For any benefit period of less than one calendar month the amount of benefit income will be one-thirtieth of the said Long Term Disability Benefit for each day of such Total Disability.

Insured Employee's Responsibilities

During any period of Total or Partial Disability, the Insured Employee must make reasonable efforts to:

- a) facilitate recovery from the Injury or Sickness that caused the Total Disability,
- b) participate in any reasonable Medical Care and/or rehabilitation program,
- c) accept any reasonable offer of modified duties from the Policyowner,
- d) return to the Insured Employee's own occupation, or prepare to return to work in another occupation if it becomes apparent that the Insured Employee will not be able to return to their own occupation, and
- e) obtain any benefits that may be available from other sources.

If the Insured Employee fails to comply with any of these responsibilities, the Company may withhold or discontinue benefits.

Recurrent Disability

The Elimination Period for any period of Total Disability arising from the same or a directly related cause as a prior period of Total Disability for which a partial Elimination Period has already been served, will be reduced by such partial Elimination Period, provided the new period of Total Disability commences within 31 days after termination of the prior period of Total Disability and while this Provision is in effect.

The Company will waive the Elimination Period otherwise required in respect of a period of Total Disability arising from the same (or a directly related) cause as the cause of a prior period of Total Disability which extended beyond the Elimination Period, if such period of Total Disability commences within 180 days after termination of the prior period of Total Disability.

The amount of benefit for successive periods of disability are determined from the Long Term Disability Benefit effective on the date the initial period of Total Disability began.

Where successive periods of Total Disability arise from the same or a directly related cause and are separated by an interval of no more than 180 days, such successive periods will be considered to be one period of Total Disability for the purposes of applying the Maximum Benefit Period.

Rehabilitation

An Insured Employee who is receiving Long Term Disability benefits under this Provision may be required to participate in a rehabilitation program to assist him in returning to gainful employment, either to his pre-disability occupation or to another occupation. If the Insured Employee is receiving remuneration under such program, the amount of the Long Term Disability Benefit otherwise payable under this Provision will be reduced by 50% of such remuneration.

The decision to approve or discontinue a rehabilitation program for the Insured Employee will be made solely by the Company, which is under no obligation to approve or continue rehabilitation.

Any Long Term Disability Benefit payable under this Provision may be further reduced so that the income received from such rehabilitation program together with the total income received from all sources listed in the Amount of Long Term Disability Benefit Payable section (clauses a) to f) inclusive) of this Provision does not exceed 100% of the Insured Employee's Indexed Pre-Disability Earnings.

Indexed Pre-Disability Earnings of an Insured Employee means:

- a) In the first year of Insured Employee's Disability the average of:
- Monthly Earnings, if the Long Term Disability Benefit is taxable, or
 - Take-home Pay if the Long Term Disability Benefit is non-taxable, during the 12 month period immediately prior to commencement of Total Disability.

- b) After the first year of Insured Employee's Disability:
- the previous year's Indexed Pre-Disability Earnings will be increased on each anniversary of the date of disability only if an Insured Employee is participating in a paid return to work program approved by the Company.

The amount of each annual increase will equal the lesser of (a) the rate of the annual increase in the annual Consumer Price Index as published by Statistics Canada (or similar index published by a government agency succeeding Statistics Canada) for the preceding calendar year or (b) 10 percent.

Any expenses associated with a rehabilitation program approved by the Company, other than normal employment expenses such as transportation, will be paid by the Company as long as the Company approves the expenses in advance. Expenses will not be covered if the Company notifies the Insured Employee that the rehabilitation program is no longer approved or that it will no longer accept previously approved expenses.

If an Insured Employee ceases to be available, co-operate or participate in a rehabilitation program approved by the Company, the Insured Employee will no longer be entitled to Long Term Disability Benefits. If the Insured Employee is not participating in a rehabilitation program because of a change in his medical status, the Company will require medical evidence documenting how the Insured Employee's inability to continue with the rehabilitation program is due to a covered Injury or Sickness.

Partial Disability

For any Class with an Own Occupation Period as indicated on the Schedule of Benefits, Partial Disability occurs when, as a result of Injury or Sickness which caused Total Disability, the Insured Employee:

- a) is able to perform one or more, but not all of the essential duties of his own occupation on a full-time or part-time basis; or is able to perform all of the essential duties of his own occupation on a part-time basis; and
- b) still requires the regular attendance of a Physician; and
- c) earns greater than 15% of his Indexed Pre-Disability Earnings.

Payment and Duration of the Partial Disability Benefit

Payment of a Partial Disability Benefit will be made if, Partial Disability for the same or related cause, follows a period of Total Disability equal to the Elimination Period indicated on the Schedule of Benefits, plus one day or more, and the Insured Employee earns more than 15% of his Indexed Pre-Disability Earnings.

The Partial Disability Benefit will be equal to the Long Term Disability Benefit less 50% of the income earned during the same period and is payable only during the Own Occupation Period indicated on the Schedule of Benefits.

Any Long Term Disability Benefit payable under this Provision may be further reduced so that the income received from all sources listed under the Amount of Long Term Disability Benefit Payable section (clauses a) to g) inclusive) does not exceed 100% of the Insured Employee's Indexed Pre-Disability Earnings.

Amount of Long Term Disability Benefit Payable

Where the Schedule of Benefits indicates Primary Integration, the amount of Long Term Disability Benefit payable in any month to a Totally Disabled Insured Employee under this Provision will be the lesser of:

- 1) the Scheduled Benefit less:
 - the initial monthly disability benefit the Insured Employee is entitled to under the Canada/Quebec Pension Plan excluding any Dependant benefits and excluding any cost-of-living index increases that occur after the time of commencement of payment of any disability pension under the Canada/Quebec Pension Plan, and
 - any disability benefit the Insured Employee is entitled to under any workplace safety legislation (e.g. Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, 1997) or similar legislation, and
 - any disability benefit the Insured Employee is entitled to under an automobile insurance plan deemed to be first payor of benefits, and

- 2) the Benefit less the amount of disability income from all sources stated in the next paragraph which exceeds 85% of the Insured Employee's Indexed Pre-Disability Earnings.

The following sources of income will be included when calculating the amount in 2) above:

- a) the Scheduled Benefit,
- b) any benefit the Insured Employee is entitled to from Canada/Quebec Pension Plan,
- c) any other group or franchise insurance plan providing income benefits for disability,
- d) any salary continuation from the Policyowner,
- e) any retirement or disability Income from any employee benefit plan arrangement of the Policyowner,
- f) any loss of time benefit the Insured Employee is entitled to under any other government-sponsored insurance or pension plan, and
- g) any salary replacement cash dividend income received by an Insured Employee from the Policyowner while receiving Long Term Disability benefits from the Company if such Insured Employee's Monthly Earnings includes salary replacement cash dividend income.

Should an Insured Employee receive income from any of the above sources of income which is payable:

- i) as a retroactive award, benefit payments will be adjusted to reflect any overpayment that may have been made; and/or
- ii) other than monthly, such income will be converted to a monthly basis.

Exclusions and Reduction of Coverage

- a) Subject to any applicable law the benefits of this Provision will not apply if the Insured Employee's Total Disability results directly or indirectly from any one or more of the following:
 - suicide, attempted suicide, or intentional self-inflicted injury;
 - the voluntary or intentional inhalation or administration of drugs, poison, poisonous substances, gas or fumes;
 - insurrection, war, invasion, enemy acts, civil war rebellion, revolution, military power, usurped power, or hostilities of any kind, whether war is declared or not;
 - any armed conflict or service in the armed forces;
 - voluntary participation in a riot or any disturbance of the public order;
 - the participation in, or attempt to participate in, a criminal offence, under any applicable law, whether or not convicted of such offence;
 - treatments rendered for cosmetic purposes (as determined by the Company) except when such treatment is necessitated by accidental Injury; or
 - injuries sustained from the operation of a Motorized Vehicle while a Person Insured's ability to drive is impaired as a direct result of Substance Abuse or while having drug or alcohol levels that exceed the maximum levels allowable by law in the jurisdiction where the Accident occurred.
- b) For any disability incurred prior to or during a Pregnancy/Parental Leave of Absence, the Elimination Period may commence or continue
 - during the period that commences on the earlier of the elected date of a formal
 - Pregnancy/Parental Leave or the delivery date; or

- during any formal Pregnancy/Parental Leave taken pursuant to provincial or federal law or pursuant to mutual agreement between the Insured Employee and the Policyowner; or
- during any period for which Employment Insurance Pregnancy and/or Parental benefits are paid; however, no payment will commence or continue until the later of the completion of the Elimination Period and the scheduled return to work date of the Insured Employee.

- c) Long Term Disability Benefit payments do not commence or continue in any 12 month period in which the Insured Employee is not a resident in Canada for a minimum of 6 months.
- d) No Long Term Disability Benefit is payable for disabilities that result from Substance Abuse, unless the Insured Employee is receiving and complying with continuous treatment for such Total Disability from a rehabilitation centre, a provincially designated institution, or is actively involved in and following a program of rehabilitation which is supervised by a Physician and approved by the Company.
- e) No Long Term Disability Benefit is payable for any period during which the Insured Employee is serving a sentence for a criminal offence and is confined in a prison or other place of detention including but not limited to, a hospital, mental Institution, a halfway facility or private residence (under house arrest).
- f) Pre-existing Conditions

No Long Term Disability Benefit is payable for any period of Total Disability that begins during the first twelve months of coverage of an Insured Employee, if such Total Disability was directly or indirectly the result of an Accident, Injury or Sickness for which:

- a) the Insured Employee received Medical Care by a Physician or other health care professional, or,
- b) for which medication (either prescription or non prescription) was recommended by a Physician or other authorized health care professional, during the ninety day period immediately prior to the effective date of such coverage.

The Company reserves the right to request clinical notes and records from the Insured Employee's primary care Physician or any other health care professional who provided Medical Care to the Insured Employee.

Where coverage has been reinstated, the twelve month period must be satisfied from the reinstatement date. However, if the reinstatement immediately follows a leave of absence or lay-off of which the Company has been notified in advance, then the periods before and after the leave of absence or lay-off will be included to satisfy the twelve month requirement.

This limitation applies where an Insured Employee was insured under a prior policy with the same employer up to the date it terminated and which provided a benefit period of at least two years and which terminated within the thirty-one days immediately preceding the effective date of the Long Term Disability Benefit. When this limitation applies, the effective date of the Insured Employee's insurance, for the purpose of this limitation only, will be the last effective date of his insurance under the prior policy. However, this limitation does not apply to such Insured Employee if the prior policy did not contain a similar pre-existing conditions limitation.

Termination of Long Term Disability Benefit

Payment of the Long Term Disability Benefit will terminate on whichever of the following first occurs:

- a) the Insured Employee ceases to be Totally Disabled; or
- b) the Maximum Benefit Period ends; or
- c) the Insured Employee dies, or

- h) the date the Insured Employee does not attend a medical, psychiatric, psychological, educational and/or vocational examination or evaluation by an examiner selected by the Company; or
- i) the attainment of the Termination Age of the Insured Employee as stipulated on the Schedule of Benefits.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

The employer agrees that it will not create any new regular part time positions which are less than eighteen (18) hours per week, nor will it reduce any current regular part time positions to less than eighteen (18) hours per week.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

EARLY SAFE RETURN TO WORK

The Union and the Employer agree that ill or injured employees may benefit from involvement in Early Safe Return to Work Programs which may involve a number of initiatives such as a gradual increase in hours of work up to full shift hours, modified work, work place modification, a work hardening program, or, if necessary a change in work assignment.

Participation in the program shall be considered a part of the treatment/rehabilitation process and the participation of the employee's physician will be sought. Depending on the employee's circumstances the process may be supernumerary.

The employee, an Employer designate, and the Union steward will meet to agree on a suitable program.

A written program for the employee will include:

1. An overview of the employee's program plan, including its expected outcome and end date. (Programs shall not exceed six months).
2. The number of phases in the program, their duration and the number of hours to be worked per shift in each phase.
3. A detailed outline of Employer and employee responsibilities under the program.
4. A schedule of evaluations to determine progress toward the program outcome. As a result of an evaluation, a program may be modified or discontinued by mutual consent of the parties.

Employees engaged in an Early Safe Return to Work Program shall be provided with a copy of the written program.

The Employer designate shall be responsible for making all necessary arrangements for the employee's return to the work place. The Union steward shall be allowed time away from her usual assigned duties to meet with Union members at the work site to familiarize them with the terms and conditions of their co-worker's return to work and to ensure co-worker support and encouragement.

The Union and the Employer agree that employees participating in an Early Safe Return to Work Program are entitled to all the benefits of the agreement, on a proportionate basis, except medical, extended health, dental plan coverage, and group life which shall be paid in accordance with Articles 41 and 42.
