Article 22 – Employee Safety

22.1 Safety Committee

The Law Society agrees to establish a Joint Safety and Health Committee in accordance with the requirements of Part 3 Division 4 of the Workers Compensation Act.

Article 23 – Temporary Assignments and Term Employees

23.1 Temporary Assignment

- a) If an employee is assigned to work temporarily outside the Greater Vancouver Regional District, the Law Society will bear all reasonable costs for travel, accommodation, meals and extraordinary expenses.
- b) No employee will be assigned to a position outside the GVRD without their agreement.

23.2 Term Employees

The provisions of this Agreement will apply to Term Employees with the exception of the following Articles:

Short Term Disability
Long Term Disability

The Law Society shall pay term employees $60.00 per month in lieu of short term disability benefits coverage.

The Law Society shall pay Term Employees who purchase comparable long term disability coverage during their term period the amount, if any, by which the premium cost of the comparable coverage purchased privately by the Term Employee exceeds the premium cost of the long term disability coverage available to regular bargaining unit employees upon provision of proof of the coverage and payments.

23.3 Letter of Appointment

A term employee shall receive a letter of appointment clearly stating their employment status, rate of pay, benefits, payment in lieu of specified benefits, assigned duties and duration of appointment. A copy of the letter of appointment shall be forwarded to the Union.

Article 24 Layoff and Recall

24.1 Layoff

Layoff shall mean the discontinuation or elimination of a position due to lack of work, reduction in funding, reduction or discontinuance of a service or services, or a change in or reorganization of the manner in which the Law Society conducts its operations.

24.2 Notice to the Union

The Law Society will discuss any expected layoffs with the Union at least two weeks prior to any notice to the employee(s) who may be affected.

24.3 Notice to Employee(s)

After determining which employees will be laid off in a job classification pursuant to Article 24.5, the Law Society will give a minimum of 8 weeks' notice of layoff in writing to the employees being laid off. The Union shall be provided with a copy of such notice.

24.4 Placement in a Vacant Position

The Law Society will make reasonable efforts during the notice period to place the employee in a vacant regular position provided the employee is qualified and capable of doing the work. The employee may decline placement and accept severance in accordance with 24.7.

If the salary of an employee moving to a vacant regular position under this section is equal to or exceeds the top of the salary range for the vacant regular position, the employee shall continue to receive the employee's current salary. Otherwise, the employee shall continue at the employee's salary at the time of the layoff notice until the employee's next anniversary date when the employee shall move to the next higher step on the salary grid for the position.

24.5 Layoff Procedure

- 1) When it is determined that a layoff will occur:
 - a. The Law Society will inform all employees in the job classification of the number of employees to be laid off and that voluntary layoff with severance in accordance with Article 24.7(1)(a) will be available to that number of employees in the same job classification.
 - b. Employees will be given two weeks from the date of notification in subsection (a) to elect voluntary layoff.
 - c. If more employees in the job classification are willing to accept voluntary layoff in accordance with subsection (a) than the number of employees to be laid off in the job classification, the employees to be laid off will be determined in order of seniority.
 - d. If fewer employees in the job classification are willing to accept voluntary layoff in accordance with subsection (a) than the number of employees to be laid off in the job classification, the remainder of employees to be laid off in the job classification shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority.

- 2) An employee subject to layoff pursuant to Article 24.5(1)(d) may elect to:
 - a. accept severance in accordance with Article 24.7(1)(b) at any time during the notice period; or
 - b. accept the layoff (without severance pay) and retain their right of recall for a period of one year from the date of layoff; or
 - c. accept prorated severance pay based on the remaining period of recall until six months from the date of layoff.
- 3) Employees shall retain their seniority and the employment relationship shall continue until the earlier of a period of one year from the date of layoff or the employee elects to receive severance.

24.6 Right of Recall

Where an employee elects to retain their right of recall in accordance with Article 24.5(2)(b), the Law Society shall notify the employee of all available vacancies within the bargaining unit by sending a copy of such vacancies during the recall period to the employee's home address and email address. The employee shall keep the Law Society informed of their current address, email address and telephone number.

To be eligible for recall to a vacancy, an employee shall respond to a notice of a vacancy within two weeks of mailing. If the employee does not respond within this time, the employee will be deemed to have declined the opportunity to be recalled to that vacancy.

An employee who responds to a notice of vacancy shall be recalled to that position provided the employee is qualified and capable of doing the work. Employees shall be recalled in the order of their seniority.

If the salary of a recalled employee at the time of layoff was equal to or exceeded the top of the salary range for the recall position, the employee shall receive the employee's salary at the time of layoff. Otherwise, the employee shall receive the employee's salary at the time of layoff until the employee's next anniversary date, when the employee shall move to the next higher step on the salary grid for the recall position.

24.7 Severance

- 1) An employee shall be entitled to severance pay based upon 1 month current salary for each year of service up to:
 - a. a maximum of 20 months' severance pay where the employee accepts voluntary layoff in accordance with Article 24.5(1); or
 - b. a maximum of 15 months' severance pay plus an additional two months current salary where the employee is laid off in accordance with Article 24.5(1)(d).

- 2) Severance pay shall be based on the employee's current salary plus an amount equivalent to the Law Society's RSP contribution for the equivalent severance period.
- 3) Partial years of service will be pro-rated.
- 4) Subject to notice rights in Article 24.3, employees who accept severance pay shall not be entitled to exercise any other rights under this Article and shall be terminated on acceptance of the severance pay.

Article 25 – Term of Agreement

25.1 Term

- a) The term of the collective agreement shall be from January 1, 2019 to December 31, 2021.
- a) The Parties agree to exclude the operation of sections 50(2) and (3) of the Labour Relations Code.

25.2 Changes to the Agreement
