The Company will advise the Union of any group modifications and the reasons for the modifications at a meeting called by the Company, and will give consideration to any Union input regarding the group modification.

With the mutual consent of the Union and the Company, work schedules with hours in excess of those provided for in clause 12.01 may be discussed and introduced in Joint Consultation pursuant to Article 22.

12.03 Lunch Period

Subject to operational requirements:

- b) Part-time employees who are required to work six (6) hours or more per day shall be entitled to an unpaid lunch period of between thirty (30) and sixty (60) minutes at a time authorized by the immediate supervisor.

12.05 Breaks/Lunch Periods on Unscheduled Days

The break and lunch periods provided for in this article also apply to days worked outside of an employee's normal schedule.

Article 13: General

13.01 Pay-Error

a) Overpayment

In the event the Company overpays on the pay cheque of an employee, the amount overpaid will be deducted, following notice to the employee, on the next pay cheque of the employee where it is possible to do so after discovery of the error or notice thereof by the employee to the Company, the whole according to the agreement reached between the Company and the employee concerned. Failing such an agreement, the Company will establish the provision of reimbursement, which shall be such that the employee will not have more than twenty percent (20%) of their gross salary deducted per pay, up until such time as the amount overpaid has been reimbursed to the Company. It is agreed that the employee will advise the Company immediately upon discovery of such an error.

b) Pay Shortage

In the event the Company underpays an employee by $40 or more of the employee's gross earnings and this pay cheque error is attributable to the Company, the Company, where it is possible to do so after discovery of the error, will correct this error on the working day following notice by the employee or in any event no later than the next pay cheque of the employee.

13.02 Precedence

In the event that any law passed by Parliament, applying to employees covered by this Agreement, renders null and void any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement. The parties shall thereupon seek to negotiate substitute provisions which are in conformity with the applicable law.

13.03 Copies of Collective Agreement

The Company agrees to supply each employee with a copy of the Collective Agreement as soon as possible from receipt from a unionized printer or at a maximum of ninety (90) days after signing the Collective Agreement. The Union will receive twenty-five (25) copies of the Collective Agreement for their internal use.

13.04 New Classification

In the event of the creation of a new classification, the Company shall send to the Union two (2) copies of its title, basic description, qualifications and wage rate. At the request of the Union, the parties shall meet within the shortest delay possible to discuss and settle any disagreement with respect to the wage rate or wage scale and/or the functional group. The Union must request in writing, within the fifteen (15) working days following receipt of such information, the holding of such a meeting, failing which it may not have recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedure.

If a disagreement persists at the conclusion of the meeting, the Union may refer the case directly to arbitration by filing a written grievance within the ten (10) working days following the said meeting. In such a case, the provisions contained in Articles 6 and 7 of the present agreement shall apply.

13.05 Purchase Merger

The Company agrees to advise the Union in writing in the event it acquires by purchase the affairs or operations of another Company which are of such a nature to be covered by the bargaining certificate (#10449-U) and where such operations are to be merged with the existing operations of the Company.

The issue of integrating employee seniority shall be mutually agreed to by the parties. In the event that as a result of a purchase/merger, closure of a depot, or relocation of employees covered by the Collective Agreement, and employees are laid off permanently, the Company agrees to provide severance pay as per the provisions of the Canada Labour Code.

13.06 Technological Change

The Company will abide by the technological change provisions of Part I of the Canada Labour Code.

13.07 Harassment/Discrimination

a) Sexual/Personal Harassment

The Union and the Company recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from sexual and personal harassment.

i) Sexual harassment is defined as any conduct, comment, gesture or contact of a sexual nature that is likely to cause offence or humiliation to any employee, or that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by that employee as placing a condition of a sexual nature on employment or on any opportunity for training or promotion.

ii) Personal harassment is defined as any improper behaviour by an individual that is directed at and offensive to an employee which the individual knows or reasonably ought to know would be unwelcome. This comprises bullying, objectionable conduct, comment or display that demeans, belittles or causes personal humiliation or embarrassment to the recipient. Harassment does not include the good faith exercise of managerial or supervisory duties.

b) No Discrimination

The provisions of the Canadian Human Rights Act shall be adhered to. The Union and the Company agree that there shall be no discrimination on the grounds of race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sex, gender identity or expression, marital status, family status, sexual orientation, disability or conviction for which a pardon has been granted.

c) Employees have the right to Union representation and may choose to exercise their right pursuant to this article in accordance with Article 6. Grievances under this article will be handled with all possible confidentiality and dispatch by all parties.

13.08 Access to Personal File

Upon request of an employee, at reasonable intervals, the personal file of that employee shall be made available for their examination, within three (3) working days following the request, in the presence of an authorized representative of the Company.

13.09 Disciplinary Action

Notice of disciplinary action which may have been placed on the personal file of an employee shall be destroyed after one (1) year has elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken. The Company will send the Local Union a copy of disciplinary letters given to employees.

An employee who receives written discipline must sign a statement attesting receipt of such discipline. The employee's signature does not constitute an acceptance of the disciplinary measure, but only acknowledges receipt of the discipline.

13.10 Presence of a Union Steward

Once the Company has concluded a disciplinary investigation and written discipline is to be dispensed to an employee, the Company will advise the employee and the Union that such discipline is forthcoming the next day. The employee may be accompanied by a steward at the meeting where the discipline will be dispensed.

Where an employee requests the presence of a steward, and a steward is unavailable, the employee may request the presence of another Union representative.

13.11 Performance Review

When a formal assessment of an employee's performance is made, the employee concerned must be given an opportunity to sign the assessment form in question upon its completion to indicate that its contents have been read. The employee will sign the assessment form within 15 days of its completion. Upon written request a copy of the assessment form will be provided to them at that time. An employee's signature on their assessment form will be considered to be an indication only that its contents have been read and shall not indicate their concurrence with the statements contained on the form.

13.12 Time Limit to Impose a Disciplinary Measure

The decision to impose a disciplinary sanction shall be communicated, in writing, to the employee within fifteen (15) working days following the incident or knowledge of such incident by the Company; otherwise, this sanction shall be rendered null and void for the purposes of the present Agreement. This period may be extended by mutual agreement between the Union and Company.

In the case of a criminal investigation the time period does not commence until all conclusions have been drawn from the investigation.

13.13 Performance Review Document

Employees will be shown the performance review document used by the Company. If this document is modified or replaced by a new document, employees will be shown the new document.

Article 14: Union Representation

14.01 Stewards

The Union may appoint a steward at each establishment. The appointment of more than one (1) steward at a location requires the consent of both the Company and the Union. By exception to this, it is agreed that the Union may appoint up to three (3) stewards at the Richmond depot and two (2) stewards at the Burnaby depot. The Union may also appoint alternate stewards to act in the place of the regular stewards if they are absent from work. A list of all stewards and alternates will be provided to the Company.

Shop stewards may inquire about any grievance originating from their establishment and assist any employee who wishes to make one. However, a steward must, prior to leaving their position of work, obtain the authorization of their supervisor which shall not be unduly refused. The supervisor will, keeping in mind operational requirements, authorize a reasonable period of time during which the shop steward may be absent from their work to inquire about the grievance.

The parties agree that in the case where any employee, other than the shop steward, is involved in the inquiry concerning a complaint or a grievance, any such meeting or inquiry must be held outside the working hours of the employee concerned.

14.02 Names of Stewards

The Union shall notify the Company promptly, in writing, of the names of its stewards.

14.03 Bulletin Boards

The Company will make available to the Union, in an appropriate location in each establishment covered by the present agreement, a separate bulletin board upon which the Union, acting reasonably, may post its official notices and communiques. Subject to consultation with the Union, the Company may remove notices and communiques which the Company, acting reasonably, considers adverse to its interests.

The Company will allow the Union to remove any document, not recognized by the Union representative, found on the Union's bulletin board or section of bulletin board as the case may be.

14.04 Union Representative

After prior notification to local management, a national or regional representative of the UPCE or PSAC will be granted permission to meet, in the Company establishment, any employee or Union steward without interrupting normal operations. These meetings will be conducted outside of the working hours of the employee and/or Union steward concerned.

14.05 New Employees

The Company agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that a Collective Agreement is in effect and to provide such employees with a copy of the Collective Agreement within two (2) working days from the first day of working on the job. The Company will, at the same time, advise the employee, in writing, of the name, work location, address and phone number of their Union Steward.

14.06 Leave With Pay for Negotiations Meetings

Subject to operational requirements and on receipt of reasonable advance notice, the Company will grant leave with pay to employees selected as delegates to a negotiating committee for the purpose of collective bargaining with the Company, on behalf of the Alliance. 14.07 Union Leave of Absence

In the event that the Union requires the services of one of its members covered by this agreement as a full-time Union representative outside of the Company, the employee shall be entitled to a leave of absence without pay for the duration of the Collective Agreement. The employee must provide the Company with at least three (3) weeks advance notice, in writing, of the date on which they will be returning to work and shall be granted seniority credit for the time on such leave of absence upon their return to work. Such an employee will return to work in their classification and in the office where they were assigned prior to starting the leave of absence provided work in the same classification and office still exists at the time they discontinue the leave of absence. Otherwise, they will be able to displace another employee as per the provisions of the displacement procedure in Article 11.

14.08 Union Steward Leave

Subject to operational needs and on receipt of reasonable advance written notice, the Company shall grant leave without pay to a reasonable number of stewards and/or members of the Union Executive to attend Union conferences, educational seminars and information sessions. Such leave shall not be unduly refused.

14.09 Meetings Between the Union and Company

The Company may grant leave with pay to a reasonable number of employees who are meeting with management on behalf of the Union.

14.10 Local Union Leave

Subject to operational requirements, leave without pay to attend to Local Union business will be provided to up to two (2) union representatives on the following basis:

- 1) Prior notice of five (5) working days must be provided to the Company including the time requested off and the individual(s) involved.
- 2) The leave will not exceed two (2) working days.
- 3) The individuals on leave will be away from the work site and will not interfere in the Company's operations in any way.

14.11 Reimbursement for Leave

For the purposes of Article 14.08 and 14.10 of the Collective Agreement, employees requesting leave under said articles will continue to be paid by the Company. The Company will bill the Union for all time taken and be reimbursed within sixty (60) days of receipt of the invoice.

Article 15: Health and Safety

15.01 Cooperation

Both the Company and the Alliance declare their intent to develop and maintain a safe workplace and agree that work practises shall be governed by the Canada Labour Code and its regulations.

15.02 Respect of the Law

The Company, the Union and the employees collectively undertake to respect the health and safety measures prescribed by applicable laws and regulations in order to ensure the health and safety of all employees.

15.03 Accident Report

The employees undertake to report any work accident immediately, or as soon as possible, to their immediate supervisor or to another Company representative within the depot.

15.04 Right of Refusal

An employee may exercise the right of refusal to perform work constituting an imminent danger, the whole in compliance with the provisions of the Canada Labour Code.

15.05 Possible Ill Effects - Pregnant Employees

When an employee who is pregnant expresses concern about the possible ill effects of their work or work location upon their health or the health of their unborn child and is supported in that concern by a medical certificate issued by a qualified medical practitioner of their choice, the Company shall, where reasonably practicable, modify the employee's job function or reassign them after consultation with the employee and in a manner consistent with the Collective Agreement. The medical certificate must indicate the expected duration of the potential risk and the activities or conditions to avoid in order to eliminate the risk.

15.06 Health and Safety Committee

The parties agree that a member of the bargaining unit, at each location with a Health and Safety Committee, will be appointed to the Committee, if requested. With mutual agreement, more than one (1) member of the bargaining unit will be appointed to the Committee.

15.07 Pay for Modified Duties

In the case where an employee is unable to perform their duties due to injury or illness, and where the Company provides such an employee with modified duties for rehabilitative purposes for a temporary period of time, the Company will pay the employee at their regular hourly rate for all hours worked performing said modified duties.

15.08 Safety Footwear

- a) Where the Company designates mandatory use of CSA approved footwear, employees who have completed their probationary period will be entitled to be reimbursed up to $125.00 annually for the purchase of CSA approved safety footwear. The employee must submit a receipt in order to be reimbursed.

- b) Where mandatory use of CSA safety footwear is not in effect, employees who have completed their probationary period will be entitled to be reimbursed up to $25.00 annually for the purchase of CSA approved safety footwear. The employee must submit a receipt in order to be reimbursed.

Article 16: Overtime

16.01 General

Subject to operational and service requirements, the Company shall make every reasonable effort to avoid excessive overtime and to allocate overtime work on an equitable basis among readily available qualified employees. It is understood that the Company will allocate work in such a way as to minimize overtime hours. Overtime work is authorized in advance by the Company. The employee does not control the duration of the overtime work.

16.02 Definition

Overtime will be defined as any hours which an employee is required by the Company to work in excess of seven and a half (7 1/2) hours per day or thirty seven and a half (37 1/2) hours per week, and will be paid at the rate of time and one-half the employee's regular wage rate. All training hours will be considered as hours worked for the purposes of calculating entitlement to overtime pay provided that an employee's attendance at the training is required by the Company.

16.03 Overtime

- a) An employee who is not scheduled to perform work, but who at the request of the Company, performs work on the 6th day shall be paid one and one half (1 ½) times their regular hourly wage for all such time worked.
- b) An employee who is not scheduled to perform work, but who at the request of the Company, performs work on a 7th day shall be paid two (2) times their regularly hourly wage for all such time worked.
- c) Any employee who works on a shift which has been designated as a general holiday for the employee, as per the provisions of Article 18, shall be paid at time and a half (1 ½) their regular hourly wage rate for the hours they actually worked on the general holiday in addition to receiving their regular hourly wage rate for their regularly scheduled hours of work upon said day.

16.04 Assigning Overtime

- a) Overtime shall be allocated on the following basis:
 - 1) The overtime shall first be offered to employees who normally and regularly do the work in question and who are immediately available at work.
 - 2) Where the overtime requirements are not met by following 1) above, the overtime will be offered to employees who possess the skills and qualifications required to perform the work, are immediately available at work and who have put their names on the overtime availability list.
 - 3) Where the overtime requirements are not met by following 1) and 2) above, the Company has the right to assign the overtime on a mandatory basis in reverse order of seniority. In so assigning overtime, the Company shall attempt to allocate mandatory overtime in a manner intended to equalize the requirements amongst the employees possessing the required skills and qualifications who are available at work, i.e. an employee has the right to decline an overtime assignment where the employee has recently worked a significant amount of overtime provided alternatives for suitable replacement can be found.

- b) Where an employee is overlooked in the offering of overtime, the Company will offer the next applicable overtime assignment to the employee who was overlooked.

16.05 Time Off in Lieu

With mutual agreement between the Company and the employee, an employee may request time off in lieu of overtime pay. Time off in lieu of overtime pay will be taken on the basis of one and one half (1 ½) hours of time off for each overtime hour worked. No employee may accumulate more than one week's worth of their regularly scheduled hours as lieu time. Such lieu time is to be taken no later than February 28th of the calendar year following the year in which it is accumulated. The time off will be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the manager and employee.

16.06 Call Back

A minimum of four (4) hours pay at overtime rates will be paid to full-time employees, and a minimum of four (4) hours pay at regular rates will be paid to part-time employees, in the case of a call back. A call back occurs when an employee is called back to work, without prior notice, after having completed their regular scheduled hours of works and after having left the Company premises. This clause does not apply to employees who have placed their name on the availability list.

Article 17: Vacation

17.02 General Provisions

If there are extenuating circumstances which may warrant a carry over of vacation, i.e. illness, etc., then a written request may be made by the employee to carry over the vacation. Where the Company grants approval the approval must be in writing with a copy to the employee's file. Employees who carry over vacation to the following year will not normally be granted such approval again the following year.

 - iv) By exception to (iii) above, employees who are entitled to five (5) weeks or more vacation may schedule three (3) weeks of vacation time prior to other employees having the opportunity to schedule up to two (2) weeks vacation.
- f) Employees will not normally be eligible to take vacation prior to Christmas Day during the week of Christmas and during the two (2) weeks prior to the week of Christmas.

- g) For part-time employees a "week of vacation" is defined to be the regularly scheduled weekly hours for the employee.
- h) Once the final, authorized vacation schedule has been posted on March 15th, an employee's vacation period which has been approved and scheduled may not be displaced by another employee.
- i) No employee shall be required to return to work after they have proceeded on vacation.
- j) Approved vacation will only be cancelled or altered in an emergency arising out of unforeseeable circumstances. The employee shall be provided with an explanation of the circumstances necessitating such action.
- k) When the Company cancels or alters a period of vacation which had been authorized and scheduled on the March 15th vacation list, the Company shall reimburse the employee for the non-returnable portion of vacation contracts and reservations made by the employee in respect of that period, subject to the presentation of such documentation as the Company may require. The employee must make every reasonable attempt to mitigate any losses incurred and will provide proof of such action to the Company.

- b) Newly hired employee - hired on or after July 1st
 - i) Employees hired on or after July 1st are not entitled to any vacation during that same calendar year.

 - iii) In the following years, the employees are entitled to take their weeks of vacation as per the remainder of this policy.
- c) Employees having more than one (1) year of continuous service but less than five (5) years of continuous service are entitled to take two (2) weeks vacation which may be taken at any time in the calendar year with the exception of the employees still in a) or b) above.
- d) Employees having completed five (5) years of continuous service but less than ten (10) years of continuous service with the Company are entitled to three (3) weeks vacation, in the calendar year.

17.04 Vacation Pay - Full-Time Employees

- a) Vacation pay is accumulated in the same calendar year as the entitlement is taken, i.e. vacation pay is earned and taken in the same calendar year. It is accumulated on the basis of a percentage of gross earnings as follows:
 - i) For employees with less than five (5) years at the rate of 4%.
 - ii) Effective on the anniversary date of five (5) years service at the rate of 6%.
 - iii) Effective on the anniversary date of ten (10) years service at the rate of 8%.
 - iv) Effective on the anniversary date of fifteen (15) years service at the rate of 10%.
 - v) Effective on the anniversary date of twenty-five (25) years service at the rate of 12%.
- b) For each week of vacation taken, an employee will receive as vacation pay an amount equivalent to their normal weekly salary, with the exception of employees covered by e) below.
By exception to the above paragraph, an employee who is travelling on vacation may request, in writing, to receive the appropriate vacation monies the week prior to their departure. The request must be submitted at least four (4) weeks prior to the departure date.

- c) Any vacation accrual owed to the employee at the end of the calendar year will be paid out in January of the following year.

The sole exception to this will be for regular employees newly hired in that calendar year, or employees who have been authorized to carry over vacation to the following year. Such employees will have any balance owed forwarded to the vacation pay accrual for the next calendar year. Any monies owed at the end of that subsequent calendar year will be paid out in January of the following year.

- d) Employees who have been unable to take their vacation due to uncontrollable circumstances and who have not received proper authorization to carry over vacation to the subsequent year will have any vacation monies owed paid in January of the following year.

- e) Employees absent for a total of more than three (3) months in the calendar year (maternity, parental, short/long term disability, WCB, leave of absence, etc. or any combination thereof) or laid off for a total of more than one month in the calendar year will have their vacation pay pro-rated for the entire period of absence/lay-off.

An employee who, at the time they go on vacation, has been absent for a total of more than three (3) months in that calendar year, or has been laid off for a total of more than one month, will receive a vacation pay based on the percentage accumulated in that calendar year. The employee may take the entire vacation entitlement with a suitably pro-rated vacation pay or the employee may take a pro-rated vacation entitlement based on the number of months of absence.

At the end of the calendar year, any negative vacation accrual, due to an absence as defined above, will either be repaid by the employee via personal cheque prior to the end of that year or alternatively the employee may choose to have their next year's vacation pay pro-rated by an equivalent amount. A negative vacation accrual occurs if the monies paid to an employee as vacation pay in a year exceed the vacation monies earned by the employee in that year.

f) For any employees who have been absent for less than a total of three months or laid off for less than a total of one month (as per e) above) there will be no pro-rating of vacation pay or entitlement.

g) An employee shall receive their vacation pay on their regular pay day.

With the exception of the year end payment noted in c) and d) above, vacation pay should not be paid to an employee unless the employee is taking vacation.

h) Employees covered by other vacation plans, i.e. part-time employees, who obtain a full-time position during the year will be entitled to vacation pay on a pro-rated basis for the number of complete months they will work as a full-time employee during that year.

The employees' outstanding vacation pay accrued under their previous plan will be added to their pay entitlement under this plan and any excess will be paid out in January of the subsequent year as per the provisions of this plan.

17.05 Vacation Pay - Part-Time Employees

- a) Vacation pay is accumulated on the basis of a percentage of gross earnings as follows:
 - i) For employees with less than five (5) years at the rate of 4%.
 - ii) Effective on the anniversary date of five (5) years service at the rate of 6%.
 - iii) Effective on the anniversary date of ten (10) years service at the rate of 8%.
 - iv) Effective on the anniversary date of fifteen (15) years service at the rate of 10%.
 - v) Effective on the anniversary date of twenty-five (25) years service at the rate of 12%.
- b) For each week of vacation taken, an employee will be able to withdraw vacation pay from the amount of vacation pay they have accumulated up to that time. The amount withdrawn as vacation pay should not exceed the employee's earnings for a normal week's work and cannot be more than the actual vacation pay accumulated up to that date. The sole exception is if an employee who is taking their last week of vacation entitlement for the year has vacation pay in excess of a normal week's wages, they will be entitled to request that all outstanding vacation pay be paid out.
- c) An employee shall receive their vacation pay prior to their departure on vacation. Vacation pay should not be paid to an employee unless the employee is taking vacation.

17.06 Termination

When an employee ceases to be employed by the Company, any vacation monies which are owed to the employee for the current year will be paid out. If at the time of termination the employee has been overpaid vacation monies for the current year, the Company will deduct the overpayment from any other monies the employee is owed at termination. If the overpayment exceeds the monies owed, the employee will be asked to reimburse the Company for any additional overpayment (personal cheque) unless the employee has died or is permanently laid off, in which case the excess monies will not be recouped by the Company.

Article 18: General Holidays

18.01 General Holidays

The parties agree that eligible employees will be given a designated shift to observe as a general holiday and non-working day for each of the following days:

18.03 Payment of a Holiday

Subject to satisfying the eligibility requirements provided for in clause 18.06:

- a) Payment for a holiday to a part-time employee will be based on 1/20 of their regular hours worked during the four (4) pay weeks preceding the day that payroll is calculated for the week wherein the general holiday occurs or the remuneration for their regularly scheduled hours for the shift which is designated as their general holiday, whichever is greater.
- b) Payment for a holiday to a full-time employee is based on the normal remuneration for their regularly scheduled hours for the shift which is designated as their general holiday.

18.04 General Holidays During Vacation

Where one or more general holidays fall during the vacation period of an employee, such employee may prolong their vacation period by one (1) day for each such general holiday or be granted a paid holiday at another time agreed upon with the Company.

However, where the employee wishes to prolong their vacation period in the above-described circumstances, their intention to this effect must accompany their vacation preference submitted to the Company as outlined in Article 17.

18.05 Overtime Following a General Holiday

For the purpose of calculating overtime, the normal work week during which falls a general holiday with pay is reduced by one (1) day, provided that the employee is entitled to the payment of the said general holiday in compliance with clause 18.06.

18.06 Conditions to the Payment of the General Holiday

An employee shall be paid for a general holiday upon which they would normally be scheduled to work were it not for the said general holiday, provided that:

- a) They have been in the employment of the Company for at least thirty (30) calendar days prior to the date of the general holiday;
- b) They have worked their complete working day immediately preceding the said general holiday or their complete working day immediately following the said general holiday, unless:

Article 21: Personal Days

21.01 Calculation

On January 1st of each year, each regular full-time employee who has completed their probationary period will be granted a credit equivalent to five twelfths (5/12) of one (1) personal day, paid at their regular hourly rate, for each complete month worked as an eligible employee during the year, to a maximum of five (5) personal days per calendar year.

An absence by reason of a paid leave provided for in the Collective Agreement does not interrupt the "complete month of work".

In the case of an absence from work by reason of illness or accident (including a work related accident) for a period not exceeding two (2) continuous months during a calendar year, an employee shall retain their right to the maximum number of personal days hereinabove provided for the said calendar year. Any lengthier absence will lead to a pro-rating of personal day entitlement.

21.02 Utilization

These days of which a full-time employee may avail themselves may be used in a case of absence on account of illness or for personal reasons.

An employee wishing to use a personal day for personal reasons must advise their immediate supervisor, in writing, at least one (1) week in advance.

Authorization to take the said day on the date requested by the employee may be refused taking into account the operational requirements of the Company and the number of requests made for the same day. It is understood that personal days are not intended to be scheduled to prolong the vacation period.

21.03 Payment

An employee who has not used all of the personal days to which they are entitled during a calendar year receives, during the month of January of the following year, the payment of the equivalent of their unused personal days at their regular hourly rate applicable on December 31st of the preceding year.

21.04 Personal Day Table

In the application of clause 21.01, personal days will be paid to the employee according to the following table, based on complete months worked during the year as an eligible employee:

Complete Months Worked	Number of Personal Days
12	5.00
11	4.50

10	4.25
9	3.75
8	3.25
7	3.00
6	2.50
5	2.00
4	1.75
3	1.25
2	0.75
1	0.50

21.05 Personal Days, Part-Time

In order to be eligible for personal days the regular part-time employee must have been employed by the Company for the entire previous calendar year, i.e. from January 1 to December 31.

At the start of the new calendar year the Company will calculate the average weekly hours worked during the previous calendar year. Vacation time and statutory holidays will be included as hours worked for the purpose of this calculation.

Based on the average weekly hours worked during the previous calendar year, the part-time employee will receive the number of personal days outlined below:

Average # of Weekly Hours Worked in Previous Year	Personal Day Entitlement
37.5	5
35.0	4
32.5	3

21.06 Termination - Payment

The employee who leaves the Company or whose employment is terminated by the Company, shall reimburse to the Company on their last pay cheque any overpayment of personal days, as the case may be, taking into account the number of complete months worked as an eligible employee during the year of their departure.

The employee who leaves the Company or whose employment is terminated by the Company during a year without them having used all the personal days to which they should have been entitled to, shall receive payment of the equivalent of their unused personal days at their hourly rate applicable at the time of their departure.

Article 22: Joint Consultation

- 22.01 The parties acknowledge the mutual benefits to be derived from joint consultation on matters of mutual interest other than those being the object of a grievance or those being the jurisdiction of the Health and Safety Committee. For this purpose, the parties agree to establish a Union-Management Joint Consultation Committee (UMC).
- 22.02 UMC meetings will be held when required, with no less than once every three (3) months, by agreement of the Human Resources Manager and the President of the Local Union, or their designated representatives.
- 22.03 No UMC meeting will be official unless at least two (2) members from each party are able to attend, including the Human Resources Manager and the President of the Local Union, or their designated representatives.

- 22.04 The UMC will have no authority to amend or alter the Collective Agreement.
- 22.05 Minutes of UMC meetings will be jointly prepared during the meeting, signed by the committee members and posted in all worksites.
- 22.06 Union members of the UMC will not lose any regular wages for the purpose of attending UMC meetings.

Article 23: Duration and Renewal

- 23.01 a) Unless otherwise expressly stipulated, the provisions of this Collective Agreement shall become effective on the date it is signed and do not have retroactive effect.
- b) The Collective Agreement will terminate on the 31st day of December, 2022.
- c) All terms and conditions of the present agreement shall remain in effect until the signing of a new Collective Agreement.
