ARTICLE 3 – FINANCIAL EXIGENCY

3.1 Financial Exigency

3.1.1 Financial Exigency is defined, for the purpose of this Article, as a situation in which the University projects substantial and continuing financial operating deficits which threaten the continued operation of the University and which are projected, by consistently applied, generally accepted accounting principles, to persist for at least three years into the future.

3.1.2 If the Board has the intention of declaring a financial exigency, within the meaning of Article 3.1.1, it shall give notice to the Faculty Association and the Senate of such intent. As of the date of such notice, the procedures specified in this article shall apply, and the Board shall not fill any vacant academic or administrative positions, nor shall the Board create any new academic or administrative positions prior to completion of the review process as provided under Articles 3.1.3 and 3.2. Within five (5) working days of giving notice of the belief that a financial exigency exists, the Board shall supply the Faculty Association with all of the information that convinced the Board of the existence of the exigency.

3.1.3 Process

Within five (5) working days of the notice specified in Article 3.1.2 above, the Parties shall each nominate two (2) persons to a Financial Commission. They shall meet at the call of the President, but in any case within five (5) working days of their being named, and shall choose a fifth (5th) person to serve as independent Chair. The persons named to the Financial Commission shall not have been employed by the University during the three (3) years immediately preceding the notification.

3.1.3.1 The Financial Commission shall meet within ten (10) working days of the selection of the Chair as specified in Article 3.1.3. It shall set its own rules of procedure, and shall report its findings to the Parties within forty (40) working days of its first meeting. The Financial Commission shall have access to all information it deems pertinent to its task and all information relied upon by the Board in declaring the financial exigency.

3.1.3.2 The Financial Commission's terms of reference shall be to use consistently applied generally accepted accounting principles to verify whether a financial exigency as defined in Article 3.1.1 exists. To do so, it shall:

- (a) Verify whether substantial and continuing financial operating deficits are projected by consistently applied generally

- accepted accounting principles to persist for at least three years;
  - (b) Verify whether the persistence of such deficits would threaten the continued operation of the University;
  - (c) Verify whether possible reductions have been made in all areas of the University's expenditures and whether in view of the University's needs and its established academic goals layoffs of Faculty Members constitute a necessary type of cost saving; and
  - (d) Verify whether the Board has made reasonable efforts to increase revenues to overcome the projected deficits.
- 3.1.3.3 If the Financial Commission does not agree on a report, the report of the majority shall be deemed to be its report; if there is no majority, the Chair's decision shall be the decision of the Financial Commission.
- 3.1.3.4 If the Financial Commission finds that an exigency does not exist, then the Board shall be precluded from invoking the provisions of this Article for twelve (12) months from the date of the report.
- 3.1.3.5 Costs of the Financial Commission shall be borne by the Board.
- 3.1.3.6 No Limited Term Contract, Tenure-track or Tenured Faculty Member shall be laid off or dismissed without cause unless a state of financial exigency has been established in accordance with the provisions of Articles 3.1.3.2 and 3.1.3.4.
- 3.1.3.7 If the Financial Commission verifies that a financial exigency exists, reductions in the budgetary allocation for positions of Faculty Members shall not exceed the amount required to reduce the total budget as stated by the Financial Commission. The Financial Commission shall notify the Faculty Association of its decision.
- 3.1.3.8 Within five (5) working days of receiving the report from the Financial Commission verifying that a financial exigency exists, the Parties shall establish a Joint Labour Management Committee according to Article 3.2.
- 3.1.3.9 The Joint Labour Management Committee shall canvas employees within fifteen (15) working days, or such longer time as the Joint Labour Management Committee agrees, to find voluntary solutions that provide as many viable options as possible and minimize potential layoffs. The Joint Labour Management Committee shall consider all options under Article 3.3.3 and 3.3.5. All savings produced by such agreements shall be applied directly to the reductions verified by the Financial Commission.

- 3.1.3.10 Procedures for layoffs shall not occur during the fifteen (15) working day period in Article 3.1.3.9.
- 3.1.3.11 If a requirement for layoffs cannot be eliminated in accordance with proceedings under Article 3.1.3.9, and 3.3, the Joint Labour Management Committee shall determine the ways in which layoffs are distributed among departments and programs in accordance with Articles 3.1.3.11.1 – 3.1.3.11.3. Within twenty-five (25) working days such determination shall be reported in writing to the President, the Faculty Association, and the departments or programs required to lay off Faculty Members.
- 3.1.3.11.1 The Joint Labour Management Committee shall distribute the reductions required by the Board in Faculty Members' positions so as to minimize the damage to the academic needs of the University.
- 3.1.3.11.2 Order of layoffs shall occur in accordance with Article 3.4.
- 3.1.3.11.3 The President shall notify such Faculty Members of their impending layoffs in accordance with Article 3.1.3.11.2, stating in writing that the layoff is for reasons of financial exigency alone.

3.2 Joint Labour Management Committee

- 3.2.1 The Joint Labour Management Committee shall be composed as follows:
- (a) Three (3) persons chosen by the Board or its delegates and three (3) persons chosen by the Faculty Association.
  - (b) The six (6) persons so named shall meet at the call of the President, but in any case within five (5) working days of their being named.
- 3.2.2 The Joint Labour Management Committee shall follow its own rules of procedure and shall have access to all information it deems pertinent to its task.

3.3 Employer Commitments

- 3.3.1 It is agreed that the employer will minimize the impact of funding shortfalls and reductions on the work force.
- 3.3.2 Subject to budgetary constraints and the amount of funding available for labour adjustment costs; fairness, flexibility and employee choice will prevail in the implementation of labour force adjustment strategies as approved by the institution.

3.3.3 Menu of Labour Adjustment Strategies

Where a work force reduction is necessary, the following labour adjustment strategies will be considered and offered by the University to minimize layoffs and at the appropriate time in the Faculty Member reduction process:

- (a) Job sharing
- (b) Reduced hours of work through partial leaves
- (c) Transfers to other areas within the bargaining unit subject to available work and to meeting qualifications, with minimal training required where such training can be scheduled within the employee's professional development and other non-instructional time. If the retraining is approved by the Board, the Board shall pay all reasonable costs relating to the plan of retraining. If the retraining or appointment is to a vacant academic position, Faculty Members shall retain their former academic status, including credits for sabbatical leaves, salaries and benefits.
- (d) Paid and unpaid leaves of absence for use to seek alternate employment, retirement adjustment, retraining, etc.
- (e) Voluntary severance with up to twenty-four (24) months' severance payment
- (f) Workload averaging
- (g) Purchasing past pensionable service. If permissible the employer will match a minimum of three (3) years' contributions to the College Pension Plan where an employee opts for early retirement.
- (h) Combined pension earnings and reduced workload to equal one hundred percent (100%) of regular salary subject to compliance with the regulations of the College Pension Plan.
- (i) Early retirement incentives as outlined in Collective Agreement
- (j) Agreed secondment
- (k) Retraining
- (l) Trial retirement
- (m) Continuation of health and welfare benefits
- (n) Combination and variations of the above or other alternatives

3.3.4 While various options in Article 3.3.3 may be considered and offered, there will be no stacking of entitlements.

3.3.5 The Faculty Member or Faculty Members may be transferred to another department according to Article 3.3.3(c) in the University for which the Faculty Member is qualified only with their written consent. Any transfer of a Faculty Member to an administrative position outside of the Bargaining Unit shall be on terms and conditions satisfactory to the Faculty Member and the University. A Faculty Member transferred under this Article shall retain recall rights pursuant to Articles 3.7 and

3.7.1. If recalled to a position in the Bargaining Unit, the Faculty Member's category of appointment and rank shall be reinstated. The Faculty Member shall receive credit for years of service, and the Faculty Member's salary shall be restored including all increments and adjustments that would have accrued while the individual was excluded from the Bargaining Unit.

6.1.1 The granting of tenure is the recognition by academic peers and the University that Faculty Members have demonstrated through their academic achievements and contributions that they have sufficient momentum and promise of ongoing success to justify the long-term commitment of the University to ongoing appointment.

Tenure provides economic security and assurance of continued opportunities to teach, to carry out one's professional role and to do scholarship in accordance with the Faculty Member's assigned duties and responsibilities. Academic freedom and economic security, i.e. tenure, support institutions of higher learning in fulfilling their obligations to their students and to society in general.

6.1.1.1 Tenure signifies the right of a Faculty Member to permanency of appointment, which may be terminated only through:

- (a) Resignation;
- (b) Retirement;
- (c) Reasons of program redundancy or financial exigency under Article 3;
- (d) Dismissal for cause as provided under Article 8

6.1.2 Promotion in rank is recognition of the Faculty Member's growth and development in their profession, and as a Scholar, and of their service to the University and the academic community.

6.1.3 Decisions on the granting of tenure and the awarding of promotions in rank to Faculty Members shall be made by the Board upon the recommendation of the President whose recommendation shall be based on the recommendations of:

- (a) The Division, Faculty or School Promotion and Tenure Committee (DFSTPC) and,
- (b) The University Tenure and Promotion Committee (UTPC).

6.2 Progression to Tenure

6.2.1 A Faculty Member holding a Tenure-Track Appointment, as defined in Article 5.2 must apply for tenure no later than during the sixth (6th) year of their Tenure-Track Appointment.

The Faculty Member who chooses to be considered for tenure prior to the sixth (6th) year of their Tenure-Track Appointment shall not be required to exceed performance standards beyond those normally considered appropriate for tenure, nor shall the UTPC lower its standards to accommodate such a Faculty Member.
- 6.2.1.3 When a Faculty Member takes leave under Articles 12.3.4, 12.4, Long Term Disability under Article 13.5, or has Jury Duty assigned for 6 (six) months or longer under Article 12.3.5, the time period for the tenure-track appointment and application for tenure shall be extended by the same time period of the approved leave.
- 6.2.2 A Faculty Member holding a Tenure-Track Appointment may apply and be considered for tenure only once.

- 6.2.4 Initial Appointment with Tenure
- A Prospective Candidate appointed under Article 5.2.1
- (a) may be appointed to a tenured position at TRU when the Faculty Member has already been granted tenure at another post-secondary institution. Reasons for denial shall be limited to the non-equivalency of the designation or the lack of appropriate accreditation of the previous institution.
- (b) may be granted tenure upon appointment when the Faculty Member has not previously been granted tenure at another degree-granting institution with membership in Universities Canada or an equivalent body. In such cases, the prospective candidate must submit sufficient evidence in line with Article 6.4.1 with letters of reference in lieu of external reviewer reports, which would allow the DFSTPC and the UTPC to adequately assess the prospective candidate's qualifications, and make a recommendation to the President prior to their recommendation to the Board.
- 6.2.5 A Faculty Member may apply for tenure with or without promotion.
- 6.2.5.1 A Faculty Member may apply for promotion only if they already have tenure or if they are applying for tenure at the same time as promotion.

In such cases, the prospective Faculty Member must submit sufficient evidence in line with Article 6.4.1 with letters of reference in lieu of external reviewer reports, which would allow the DFSTPC and the UTPC to adequately assess the prospective candidate's qualifications, and make a recommendation to the President prior to their recommendation to the Board.
- (c) In exceptional cases, may be granted an initial appointment with rank, but without tenure.

6.4 Application for Tenure and/or Promotion

Where appropriate, external reviewers should also have international stature.

The applicant shall inform the DFSTPC chair in writing of the nature of the relationship the Faculty Member has or had with those individuals nominated to be external reviewers. ARTICLE 8 – PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE, SUSPENSION AND DISMISSAL

8.1 Right to Have Steward Present

An employee shall have the right to have their steward present at any discussion with supervisory personnel that the employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall notify the employee and the Union of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact their steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. This clause shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature and do not involve disciplinary action.

8.2 Progressive Discipline

8.2.1 Progressive discipline shall be initiated for just and reasonable cause. Such discipline normally begins with a letter of warning/reprimand, then progresses to suspension and finally to dismissal. Such disciplinary action shall be fair, reasonable and commensurate with the seriousness of the violation.

8.3 Suspension

8.3.1 An employee may be suspended for just and reasonable cause. If such a suspension is grieved, the grievance would commence at Step 2 of Article 4.6.

8.3.2 The President, or designate, shall provide the employee immediately with a written statement of cause.

8.4 Dismissal

8.4.1 An employee under appointment can be dismissed for just and reasonable cause.

8.4.2 When satisfied that just cause for dismissal exists, the President shall provide the employee immediately with a written statement of cause.

ARTICLE 9 – PROTECTION OF EMPLOYEES

9.1 No Discrimination

9.1.1 Thompson Rivers University and the Faculty Association agree that just and reasonable conduct among and between its Faculty Members is a mutually desired goal. If an employee or administrator has been subjected to discriminatory or malicious actions, this matter can be dealt with through the process of progressive discipline by Thompson Rivers University, or the grievance procedure by the Faculty Association.

9.1.2 The University and the Association recognize the right of employees to work in, and students to study in, an environment free from discrimination or coercion.

9.1.3 The University, except in instances where there is a bona fide occupational requirement, shall not refuse to employ, continue to employ, advance, or dismiss a person, nor shall it discriminate against, or coerce that person in respect of employment or condition of employment on the basis of: race, colour, ancestry or place of origin, political belief, religion, age, mental or physical disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status, family status, membership or activity in the Association, or conviction for a criminal or summary charge that is unrelated to employment.

9.1.4 The foregoing shall not be interpreted as prohibiting the Parties from entering into an employment equity, diversity and inclusion program.

9.1.5 For the purposes of this Article, age means age as defined under the B.C. Human Rights Code.

9.1.6 To protect and guarantee the integrity of the students' personal liberties and beliefs, no employee shall impose upon any students a particular creed, tenet, belief, dogma or any other matter related to political, religious, social, cultural, ethnic or any other circumstance.

9.1.7 The University will offer educational and training programs designed to build understanding, address systemic barriers and create a work environment that fosters equity, diversity and inclusion.

9.1.8 The Parties acknowledge, recognize, and endorse the principle of employment equity and agree to cooperate in the identification and removal of artificial and/or systemic barriers in the workplace including recruitment, selection, training and promotion of equity-seeking groups, including but not limited to women, Indigenous peoples, people with diverse needs, racialized minorities, LGBTQ2S+, and those with intersectional identities. Such cooperation will emphasize increasing the number of designated group members, improving their employment status, and increasing inclusiveness through identification and implementation of steps to improve the employment status and promote the full participation of members of these designated target groups during their employment. Amendments to the Collective Agreement may be made if necessary; however, any amendment is subject to the mutual agreement of the Parties.

9.2 Harassment

9.2.1 Statement of Commitment

The University promotes teaching, scholarship and research and the free and critical discussion of ideas.

The Parties are committed to providing a working and learning environment that allows for full and free participation of all Faculty Members of the institutional community. Harassment undermines these objectives and violates the fundamental rights, personal dignity and integrity of individuals or groups of individuals.

Harassment is a serious offence that may be cause for disciplinary sanctions including, where appropriate, dismissal or expulsion.

The University has a responsibility under BC legislation to prevent harassment and to provide procedures to handle complaints, to resolve problems and to remedy situations where harassment occurs.

The University will offer educational and training programs designed to prevent harassment and to support the administration of the institutional policies and to ensure that all Faculty Members of the institutional community are aware of their responsibility with respect to the policy.

9.2.2 Definitions

9.2.2.1 "Harassment" includes any behavior that satisfies one or more of the following definitions:

- (a) Harassment based on a prohibited ground of discrimination ("Discriminatory Harassment") is behaviour directed towards another person or persons that:
- (i) is abusive or demeaning; and
  - (ii) adversely affects the recipient on one or more of the prohibited grounds of discrimination under British Columbia's Human Rights Code; and

- (iii) would be viewed by a reasonable person experiencing the behavior as an interference with their participation in a University-related activity.

(b) Sexual Harassment

Behaviour of a sexual nature by a person:

- (i) who knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the behavior is unwanted or unwelcome; and
- (ii) which interferes with another person's participation in a University-related activity; or
- (iii) leads to, or implies, job-related consequences for the person harassed.

(c) Personal Harassment

Behaviour directed towards a specific person or persons that:

- (i) would be considered by a reasonable person to create an intimidating, humiliating, or hostile work or learning environment; and
- (ii) is not a reasonable action by the Employer related to the management and direction of the University and its Employees.

9.2.3 Complaint Procedures

9.2.3.1 Mediation

When a complaint is received by the University involving an individual covered by this collective agreement, the local Parties will initiate an informal or formal mediation process.

The complainant and respondent may agree to try to resolve a complaint informally with the assistance of a resource person. If they are unable, or unwilling, to do so, they may request that the University and the Association arrange a formal mediation as follows:

- (a) The Parties will discuss the nature of the complaint and agree upon an internal or external mediator who will conduct the mediation;
- (b) The University will advise the parties to the complaint that the mediation process and resolution are expected to be kept strictly confidential by all participants;
- (c) Where a resolution is reached, the complainant and the respondent must agree in writing to the resolution and the matter will then be considered concluded;
- (d) No record of the mediation except the written agreed resolution will be placed on an employee's file. The written resolution will be removed from the employee's file after 12 months unless there has been a subsequent complaint of harassment against the employee within the 12-month period.

9.2.3.2 Investigation

Where either the complainant or respondent does not agree to mediation, or no resolution is reached during the mediation process, the complaint will be referred to an investigator agreed upon by the Parties. The University may also initiate an investigation in appropriate circumstances.

The investigator will normally be appointed within thirty (30) working days of referral of the complaint to investigation.

The referral should, where possible, include a written statement from the complainant and the respondent which outline the issue(s) in dispute. The referral and written statements will be forwarded to the investigator, by the University, with a copy to the Faculty Association.

The appointment of an investigator does not preclude an investigator from mediating the dispute where possible.

Any complaint of harassment will be kept confidential except as is necessary to investigate and resolve the issue. Investigators will stress the confidentiality of the investigation with the person(s) interviewed.

9.2.3.3 The Investigator's Report

- (a) Upon completion of the investigation, the investigator will prepare a report (the "Investigator's Report"), which will include:
  - (i) a summary of the allegation giving rise to the Report;
  - (ii) a summary of relevant evidence gathered during the investigation; and
  - (iii) the investigator's findings of fact, including whether the alleged conduct occurred, on a balance of probabilities, and whether the conduct constituted harassment as defined in the Collective Agreement.
- (b) The Investigator's Report will be given, in confidence, to the Parties. It is the responsibility of the University to forward a copy of the report to the complainant and respondent. The University will state, in a covering letter, that the Report is confidential. The Report should refer to individuals involved by initials or code. However, a key will be provided to the Parties for internal use. This practice should be repeated at any subsequent arbitral proceeding.
- (c) The Investigator's Report will not normally be introduced as evidence of the truth of the allegations in the complaint. This does not preclude the Parties from reaching an Agreed Statement of Facts based upon facts in the report in preparation for an arbitral proceeding.

- (d) The University is entitled to rely on the fact of mediation or the Investigator's Report as evidence that may mitigate liability in a proceeding that follows receipt of the Report.
- (e) The University is entitled to rely on the Investigator's Report as evidence that it acted in good faith in any disciplinary action that it undertook following receipt of the Report where the issue of good faith is raised by a grievor or the union.
- (f) The investigator will not be compellable as a witness in any arbitration or other legal procedure which may result from the investigation.
- (g) The investigator will normally conclude their work within 30 days of appointment and will render their Report within a further 20 working days. These timelines may be extended if deemed appropriate by the Parties. If requested by the investigator, the University will provide meeting space and contact information about persons to be interviewed.
- (h) The Investigator's Report will not be placed on an employee's file.

9.2.4 Findings

9.2.4.1 The University will make a written determination based upon the Investigator's Report, if any, within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the Investigator's Report. The University will provide the Faculty Association with its written determination. If necessary, this timeline may be extended by mutual agreement between the Parties.

9.2.4.2 The determination will:

- (a) State the action(s), if any, to be taken or required by the University.
- (b) Include, where appropriate, a statement of exoneration.

9.2.5 Rights of the Parties

Should a complainant file a complaint under the provisions of the Human Rights Code, it is understood that the Human Rights Code complaint will be set aside until such time as the procedures under this article have been completed.

Where an allegation includes both complaints under the Human Rights Code and a personal harassment complaint, the Parties may agree to have the Investigator investigate all of the complaints, in order to relieve against expense and duality of process.

9.2.5.1 The above noted procedure does not restrict:

- (a) The University's right to take disciplinary action;
- (b) The Faculty Association's right to grieve such disciplinary action or to grieve an alleged violation of this article.

9.2.6 False Complaints and Breaches of Confidentiality

Frivolous, vexatious or malicious complaints of harassment or breaches of the confidentiality provisions of this clause may result in discipline.

9.2.7 Retaliatory Action

Retaliation in respect of a complaint is strictly prohibited and may result in discipline.

Should retaliation be alleged following the filing of a complaint, the complainant may include the allegation of retaliatory action in their complaint and an Investigator may deal with that allegation and make a finding. The Parties will meet as necessary to facilitate the administration and other aspects of the application of this article including issues arising under Article 9.2.8 below.

9.2.8 Relation to Other Agreements and Policies

Where a complaint under Article 9.2 involves allegations pursuant to the University's Sexual Violence Policy (BRD 25-0), or individuals who are covered by another collective agreement the Parties will meet to clarify and agree upon a procedure.

9.3 Technological Change

9.3.1 Should the University intend to introduce a technological change which might result in displacement or reduction of employees, the University will give the Union and the affected employees at least three (3) months' notice in writing.

9.3.1.1 Employees in positions affected by technological change shall be provided with opportunities for retraining to qualify for positions within the University.

9.3.1.1.1 The extent and nature of the retraining will be determined by a committee composed of the Provost & Vice-President Academic and Research, the relevant Dean or Director, Department Chair, the Chief Steward and the employee.

9.3.2 If an employee displaced by technological change is qualified and suitable for another available position within the University, the Faculty Member shall be given the opportunity to fill the position.

9.3.3 No regular employee will be laid off as a direct result of the introduction of distributed learning or education technology.

9.4 Copyright and Intellectual Property

9.4.1 Employees shall be entitled to copyright protection as provided by statute.

9.4.2 Copyright Ownership

The copyright or patent for any work product, including creative work, instructional strategies or curriculum/instructional material, software or any other material or technology that may be copyrighted or patented:

- (a) Belongs to the employee(s) where the work product has been prepared or created as part of assigned duties, other than the duties listed in Article 9.4.2(b) below, and the copyright to all copyrightable material shall be the sole property of the employee(s) and shall be retained throughout the Faculty Member's lifetime and upon their death by their heirs or assigns; and

9.4.3 Employer Rights to Materials Copyrighted by Employee(s)

Where the employee holds the copyright pursuant to Article 9.4.2(a), the University shall have a right to use the Faculty Member's copyrighted material in perpetuity for institutional purposes. The University may amend and update the copyrighted material with the approval of the employee(s) holding the copyright to the material. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

9.4.4 Employee Rights to Materials Copyrighted by the Employer

Where the University holds the copyright pursuant to Article 9.4.2(b), the employee(s) shall have the right to use in perpetuity, free of charge, such copyrighted material. The employee may amend and update the copyrighted material with the approval of the University. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

9.4.5 Where either the University or employee recognizes commercial potential for work which is University copyrighted, this interest must be declared and a joint business plan developed in consultation with the employee, the relevant Department Chair and Dean. Both the University and the employee agree to share profits equally after respective costs have been reimbursed.

9.5 Indemnification

9.5.1 TRU agrees that every employee of TRU shall be deemed to have assumed employment with the express understanding that every employee of TRU or the heirs, executors and administrators and estate and effects of every employee, shall from time to time and at all time, be indemnified and saved harmless out of the funds of TRU from and against:

- (a) All costs, charges and expenses whatsoever sustained or incurred by every employee of TRU in or about any action, suit or proceeding which is brought, commenced or prosecuted against such employee for or in respect of any act, deed, matter or thing whatsoever, made, done or permitted by that employee of TRU, in or about the execution of duties performed by that individual as an employee of TRU.
- (b) All other costs, charges and expenses sustained or incurred in or about or in relation to the affairs thereof: except such costs, charges or expenses, as are occasioned by an employee of TRU by his or her own willful neglect or default.

9.6 Academic Freedom

The common good of society depends upon the search for knowledge and its free exposition. Academic freedom in universities and colleges is essential to both these purposes in the teaching function of the institution as well as in its scholarship and research. Faculty Members of the Faculty Association shall not be hindered or impeded in any way by the institution or the Faculty Association from exercising their legal rights as citizens, nor shall they suffer any penalties because of the exercise of such legal rights. The Parties agree that they will not infringe or abridge the academic freedom of any Faculty Members of the academic community. Academic members of the community are entitled, regardless of prescribed doctrine, to freedom in carrying out research and in publishing the results thereof, freedom of teaching and of discussion, freedom to criticize the institution and the faculty association, and freedom from institutional censorship. Academic freedom does not require neutrality on the part of the individual. Rather, academic freedom makes commitment possible. Academic freedom carries with it the duty to use that freedom in a manner consistent with the scholarly obligation to base research and teaching on an honest search for knowledge. In exercising the freedom to comment and to criticize, academic staff members have a corresponding obligation to use academic freedom in a responsible manner by recognizing the rights of other Faculty Members of the academic community, and by affirming the rights of others to hold differing points of view.

9.7 Personnel Records

9.7.1 All employees shall have access to their personnel file.

9.7.2 No information relating to an employee's performance shall be placed in the Faculty Member's file unless a copy has been furnished to the employee.

9.8 Additional Limitation on Contracting Out

In addition to, and without limiting, any provision in the TRUFA collective agreement, the University will not contract out:

- (a) Any work presently performed by the employees covered by a collective agreement which would result in the layoff of such employees, including a reduction in assigned workload, or
- (b) The instructional activities that are contained in the programs listed and/or funded in the approved annual institutional program profile and that are currently performed by bargaining unit employees.

Without minimizing the importance of service, for Faculty Members with a tripartite workload the principal duties will be teaching/professional role and scholarship, and for Faculty Members with a bipartite workload it will be teaching/professional role.
- 10.2.2 Faculty Members with a tripartite workload shall be entitled to and expected to devote a reasonable proportion of time to scholarship as defined in Article 6.11.5.3. In carrying out these activities, Faculty Members are expected to adhere to institutional ethics policies and to meet the recognized ethical standards of the national granting councils, including ethical guidelines for work with animal or human subjects.

- 10.2.2.1 In their scholarly work, Faculty Members with a scholarship focus are expected to carry out the research in the spirit of an honest search for knowledge, and to base findings upon a critical appraisal and interpretation according to scientific, scholarly and/or creative principles appropriate to the particular discipline or area. It is also the responsibility of the Faculty Members to make the results of such work accessible to the scholarly community external to the University and to the general public through publication, conference presentations, public performances, and/or other appropriate means.

Any change in a University Instructor's assignment shall take place only when a significant change in circumstances occurs and in consultation with the University Instructor.

When the University instructor does not accept the change in assignment, there will be a commensurate change in workload percentage.

10.3.1.5 University Instructor Faculty Members who have less than 100% workload shall be entitled up to 100% workload for which the Faculty Member is qualified before any Sessional Faculty Member is offered workload.

If the Dean does not approve the workload assignment, teaching schedule and/or course and program registrant limits as submitted, the Dean shall return the workload assignment, teaching schedule and/or course and program registrant limits to the appropriate Department Chair with written rationale for such denial.
- 10.3.2.4 Following the approval of the Dean, the Department Chair shall, by November 1 of each academic year, inform each Teaching Faculty Member in writing the details of their teaching assignment for the next academic year.
