ARTICLE 1 PURPOSE

- 1.01 Whereas it is the intent and purpose of the Parties hereto that this Agreement, which has been negotiated and entered into in good faith, will promote and improve industrial relationships between the Employer and the Union, and to set forth herein the basic Agreement covering rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment to be observed between the Parties hereto and:
- (a) to recognize mutually the respective rights, responsibilities and functions of the Parties hereto;
  - (b) to provide and maintain working conditions, hours of work, wage rates and benefits set forth herein;
  - (c) to establish an equitable system for the promotion, transfer, layoff and recall of employees;
  - (d) to establish a just and prompt procedure for the disposition of grievances;
  - (e) and, through the full and fair administration of all terms and provisions contained herein, to develop and achieve a relationship between the Union, the Employer, and the employees which will be conducive to their mutual well being.

ARTICLE 2 RECOGNITION

- 2.01 In this Agreement, Bargaining Unit means employees employed by the Employer at 130 Forester Street, North Vancouver B.C. V7H 2M9 except office staff, and those excluded from collective bargaining by Section 1 of the Labour Relations Code, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 244 .
- The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agent for the employees in the bargaining unit for the purposes of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment.
- 2.02 Bargaining unit work shall only be performed by bargaining unit personnel except as provided within this article.
- 2.03 The Employer agrees that no excluded personnel shall perform the job of a bargaining unit employee, except where the Employer has documented and offered the work to qualified bargaining unit employee(s) inclusive of overtime and has been unsuccessful in covering the shifts, subject to offering cross training in departments that don't require certification.
- 2.04 No employee shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer which conflicts with the express terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 MANAGEMENT

- 3.01 Subject to the express provisions of this Agreement, the Union acknowledges that the Employer has and retains the exclusive right to manage its business in all respects including but not limited to the following:
- (a) To plan, direct, and control operations, to schedule work, to determine the methods, processes, and means of work, to determine the location and facilities, and the extent to which locations shall operate.
  - (b) To hire, promote, demote, classify, transfer, assign, reassign and layoff employees and to discipline, suspend and discharge employees for just and reasonable cause.
  - (c) To direct the work force, including the right to decide on the number of employees needed by the Employer, or the number of employees required for any task at any time, to change the number of employees assigned to any task, to organize the work, to assign the work, to schedule shifts, to maintain order, discipline and efficiency in the operations.
  - (d) To make and to alter from time to time reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by all employees provided such alteration does not conflict with an express provision of this Agreement. The Union and the employee(s) affected shall be notified prior to any new or changed rules or regulations taking effect.

ARTICLE 4 UNION SECURITY PROVISIONS

4.01 Membership

The Company agrees that all employees covered under this Agreement, and all new employees hired subsequent to the effective date of this Agreement shall, as a condition of their hiring or continued employment:

- (a) authorize the Company in writing to deduct union dues from their pay.

The Union will provide a Check-off Authorization to the Company for this purpose, the "copy" portion of which is to be mailed by the Company to the servicing staff office of the United Steelworkers Local 2009 at Unit # 202 – 9292 200th Street Langley B.C. V1M 3A6.

- (b) become members of the Union within thirty (30) days from their effective date of hire, and remain members of the Union in good standing.
- (c) complete and sign a Union Death Benefit card provided by the Union to the Company for such purpose, which shall be mailed to the servicing staff office with the Union portion of the Check-off Authorization as per Article 4.01 (a).

4.02 Check-Off: Process and Procedures

- (a) The Company shall deduct from the pay of each member of the bargaining unit, an amount equivalent to the monthly dues, fees and assessments prescribed by the International Constitution of the United Steelworkers or the USW Local 2009 Union by-laws.
- (b) The Union will give reasonable notice to the Company of any changes in Union dues, fees or other amounts which the Company is required to deduct. All changes will coincide with the beginning of the Company's next pay period.
- (c) No later than fifteen (15) days following the last dues deduction of the month, the dues so deducted shall be made payable and remitted to:

International Secretary-Treasurer
 United Steelworkers
 Unit D, Box 34223
 Vancouver, BC V6J 4N1

- (d) The monthly remittance shall be accompanied by a completed USW-R115 Form (a summary of the dues calculations made for the month, each month), as well as a statement showing the names of each employee from whose pay deductions have been made and the total deducted for the month. Such statements shall also list the names of the employees from whom no deductions have been made and the reason why, ie W.C.B., W.I., laid off, etc.
- (e) A duplicate R115 Form and employee deduction statement as in (d) above shall be forwarded by email to:
  - (i) United Steelworkers, Local Union 2009
- (f) The Company agrees to print the amount of total deductions paid by each employee for the previous calendar year on their annual statement of Remuneration (T4 slip).
- (g) The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Company harmless against all claims or other forms of liability that may arise out of, or by reason of deductions made or payments in accordance with this Article.

4.03 The Employer shall not contract – out any bargaining unit work.

With the exception of the following;

- a) The use of contractors or sub-contractors that physically perform any work at the site or off the site (Truck Drivers) shall not cause any lay-offs to bargaining unit employees.
- b) The Company and Union recognize the current situation relative to contract construction and maintenance in the refinery environment for the purpose of shutdowns, capital projects, emergency situations, environment or legislative compliance and variable components of continuous maintenance.
- c) If a trade/class of contract worker is on site for more than 1000 man-hours in consecutive calendar years (2 years) doing routine maintenance, then the employer will engage in talks with the union about creating a new job posting for that trade/class of worker. The union agrees that it shall not be unreasonable if the cost of equipment/tools for the new trade/class of worker is prohibitive for creating a new position.

- d) The employer agrees to provide the union with an accurate accounting of all contract worker hours and their trade/class.
- 4.04 During the term of this Agreement, or while negotiations for a further Agreement are being held, the Union and its members, agree that they will not permit, cause, or encourage or take part in any sit-down, slowdown, or stoppage of work on any department or any strike or stoppage nor authorize or condone any curtailment of work or restriction or interference with production at the Employer's operation.
- 4.05 During the term of this Agreement, or while negotiations for a further Agreement are being held, the Employer will not engage in any lockout of its employees.
- 4.06 The Union has the right to appoint or elect two (2) members of the Bargaining Unit to their Negotiating Committee.

ARTICLE 5 RATES OF PAY

- 5.01 Employees within the Bargaining Unit shall be paid in accordance with the rates of pay for the applicable classification as negotiated by the Employer and the Union. The applicable rates of pay are found in Appendix "A" to this Agreement.
- 5.02 Additional classifications may be established by the Employer from time to time. The rates for same shall be subject to negotiation between the Employer and the Union. If the Parties are unable to agree upon a rate for the new classification, the dispute may be referred to Arbitration by either Party.
- 5.03 When an employee from a higher classification is requested to work temporarily, or until permanently reclassified, at a lower-rated classification, they shall continue to be paid at the rate for the higher-rated classification.
- 5.04 An employee reclassified or assigned to a lower-rated classification on a permanent basis shall be paid the established rate for the reclassified or lower-rated position.

- 5.05 An employee reclassified or assigned to a higher rated classification on a temporary or permanent basis shall be paid the established rate for that classification for all hours worked in the classification.

ARTICLE 6 HOURS OF WORK AND REST PERIODS

6.01 (a) Blending Operator / Warehouse / Lab Technicians

The work week shall be forty (40) hours a week and the work day shall consist of eight (8) hours a day. Blending Operators and Warehouse Operators hours shall be between 7:00 am to 5:00 pm Monday to Friday with a non-designated paid thirty (30) minute lunch period. Lab Technicians shifts shall be between 7:00 am to 5:00 pm on either Monday to Friday and or Sunday to Thursday with a non-designated paid thirty (30) minute lunch period.

(b) Maintenance Shifts

The work week shall be Monday to Friday at forty (40) hours a week and the work day shall consist of eight (8) hours a day from 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 pm Monday to Friday with a non-designated paid thirty (30) minute lunch period.

(c) Yard Operator Shifts

(d) Transport Operator Shifts (in-town and long haul)

In-town:

The work week shall be forty (40) hours a week and the work day shall consist of eight (8) hours a day Monday to Friday inclusive. The eight (8) hour shift from Monday to Friday shall start between 6:00 am and 7:00 am and end between 2:00 pm and 3:00 pm for in-town with a non-designated paid lunch period.

Long Haul:

Long Haul employees work week shall consist of forty (40) regular hours in a work week with applicable overtime premiums thereafter. A day shall also consist of ten (10) hours per day prior to overtime being paid.

Employees required to perform work outside the Province shall be provided the following:

- a) Single room accommodations.
- b) WCB coverage for out-of-Province work.
- c) The Company will pay the employee a meal allowance of $10.00 for breakfast, $15.00 for lunch and $25.00 for supper.

- d) Long haul drivers shall not drive for periods longer than allowed under Provincial or Federal regulations where applicable.

(e) Process Operation Shifts

The work week shall consist of a cycle of four days on (two (2) days / two (2) nights) and five days off. The shifts shall be twelve (12) hour worked from 7:00 am to 7:00 pm and 7:00 pm to 7:00 am. For Process Operations in training the work week shall be Monday to Friday at forty (40) hours a week and the work day shall consist of eight (8) hours a day from 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 pm Monday to Friday with a non-designated paid thirty (30) minute lunch period.

(f) Change of Start & Stop Times

By mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, the regular starting and stopping times of standard work shifts above in (a) to (e) may be changed. Should the Employer need to change the start and stop times within the standard hours outlined in a) to e) above they shall provide the employee at least fourteen (14) days' notice prior to implementing the shift schedule change.

(g) Wash-up Period

Employees shall be granted a paid five (5) minute wash-up period prior to the start of all their breaks and the end of their shifts.

(h) Rest Periods

There shall be two (2) scheduled fifteen (15) minute paid coffee breaks in each standard shift, approximately midway between each half of the shift.

- (i) On occasion, employees may be required to work into their coffee or lunch break to satisfy a customer. In this event the employee will be allowed the equivalent time for their break following the completion of the required work. In no event shall any employee be required to work more than five (5) hours without a scheduled lunch break.

(j) Alternate Shifts

Where the Company may require an alternate shift which may include hours less or greater than the above-mentioned shifts a) to e), all details of the shift(s) shall be worked out and agreed to with the local union prior to any implantation of the new shift. This shall include but is not limited to, vacations, statutory holidays, rest break and any other differences that normally would apply during the above shifts.

- k) Nothing in this article shall be construed as a guarantee of hours.

6.02 Reporting and Guaranteed Hours

- a) Employees reporting for work in the usual manner shall be guaranteed two (2) hours' work or pay in lieu.

- b) In the event of equipment breakdown, employees shall be notified a minimum of two (2) hours before the beginning of their shift. If notification is not given and the employee reports for work, they shall be guaranteed two (2) hours' work.
- c) Notification attempts to the employee's last known telephone number shall be recorded in a log book by the Supervisor. The Company shall provide the Union a copy of the call log upon request.
- d) Where an employee has completed their shift and is called back to work. The call-back pay shall be guaranteed at two (2) hours' pay at the appropriate overtime hourly rate. At no time shall an employee be required to sit on the Employer's premises if the work they are called back to do has been completed.

6.03 Call-in Pay

In the event that an employee is called in to work outside their scheduled day(s) off shall be paid overtime rates for the hours worked outside of their scheduled shift with a minimum payment of two (2) hours at time and one-half (1½x) of their regular rate of pay or the applicable overtime rates based on hours worked in that day.

6.04 Daily Overtime

- (a) For the purpose of this Article, overtime is paid to an employee for approved time worked outside of or in excess of regular scheduled hours for the day at the rate of one and one-half times (1½X) the regular rate of pay for the first two (2) hours worked thereafter in any one day and double time (2X) for all hours worked thereafter in any one day. Twelve (12) hours shifts shall be double time (2X) for all hours worked beyond their regular scheduled hours for the day.
- (b) Overtime distribution

Scheduled overtime shall be as per the past practice in each department based on seniority competency. When no employees are available to perform work within a classification, the employer will schedule the junior employee in the classification to fill the shift.

6.05 Shift Changes

Shift changes at the request of an employee or as a result of an exchange of shifts between employees as approved by the Employer shall not result in any overtime payment by the Employer unless they work beyond the regular scheduled hours for that day in the shift exchange.

6.06 (a) Shift Schedules

Shift schedules shall be posted by the Employer in an area for all employees to see. If there are any changes to the schedules the employees affected shall receive a minimum of fourteen (14) days' notice.

(b) Shift Rotation – Yard Operation

Shift rotation shall occur every week to allow equal time on each shift for the two day shifts.

6.07 Except as may be expressly provided in this Agreement, there shall be no pyramiding of overtime benefits.

6.08 Employees shall have eight (8) hours rest between shifts unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

ARTICLE 7 STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

7.01 All employees who qualify for payment of the Statutory Holidays listed below shall receive their regular straight time rate of pay for each of the Statutory Holidays for which they qualify in addition to any wage to which they may be entitled as a result of any work which the employee performs on such Statutory Holiday(s) as listed below or as designated by statute.

Work performed on Statutory Holidays as listed in Article 7 will be paid at time and a half (1 ½ X) an employee's rate of pay plus eight (8) or (12) hours Statutory Holiday pay depending on an employee(s) regular schedule.

Employees who work twelve (12) hour shifts shall be entitled to receive twelve (12) hours statutory holiday pay for each statutory holiday that falls on their regular scheduled shift and twelve (12) hours pay for statutory holidays that do not fall on their regular scheduled shift. The Floating Statutory Holiday shall be paid at twelve (12) hours pay of an employee's regular rate of pay.

7.02 Statutory Holidays to be observed by this Agreement are:

New Years Day	Family Day
Good Friday	Victoria Day
Canada Day	BC Day (Provincial)
Labour Day	Thanksgiving Day
Remembrance Day	Christmas Day
Boxing Day

And any other day declared as a Statutory Holiday by the Provincial and/or Federal Governments.

In addition to the named holidays, each employee shall be entitled to one (1) Floating Statutory Holiday during each contract year which shall be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the Company and to the employee. Floating Holidays not taken by employees within a contract year shall be paid out on the first pay period in January in the following contract year at the employees' rate of pay from the following year.

Note: All employees shall be entitled to the "personal use" days during the Christmas Holidays paid at their regular rates of pay. Employees that must work during this period, shall be entitled to the time off at a mutually agreed upon time after the Christmas Holidays. The time off shall be calculated as the same hours that were worked by each employee. Employees working eight (8) hours shifts shall be entitled to three (3) eight (8) hour days off with pay. Process operators shall be entitled to three (3) full days off at twelve (12) hours pay, regardless if they have worked or it was their regularly scheduled days off.

7.03 Qualifying Conditions

- (a) An employee, to qualify for Statutory Holiday pay, must comply with each one of the following three conditions:
  - (i) Have been on the payroll thirty (30) calendar days with the company for all above mentioned holidays. This shall be from the employee(s) first day of employment.
  - (ii) Have worked their last scheduled work day before, or their first scheduled work day after the holiday, unless their absence is due to illness, compensable occupational injury, or is otherwise authorized by the employer.
  - (iii) Notwithstanding (ii) above, the employee must have worked one (1) day before or one (1) day after the holiday, both of which must fall within a floating thirty (30) calendar days period.
- (b) In case of injury or illness in (ii) above the employer shall have the right to request a medical certificate.

7.04 In calculating days worked for the purposes of determining an employee's qualifying for payment for a Statutory Holiday pursuant to 7.03 above, the following will be deemed as a "work day":

- a) regular scheduled shift worked;
- b) absence due to Workers' Compensation Board approved claim and for which the employee is in receipt of Workers' Compensation Board wage loss benefits;
- c) approved annual vacation pursuant to Article 8;
- d) Employer sponsored training days;
- e) absence due to verified illness or approved disability leave of less than thirty (30) days.

- 7.05 For the operator's department that work the 12 hours shift, they will observe the statutory holidays on the day in which it falls. All other department's will observe the statutory holidays on the following Monday if the statutory holiday falls on the weekend. In the event a statutory holiday falls within an Employees vacation, such statutory holiday(s) shall be added to the end of that vacation period.

ARTICLE 8 VACATIONS

8.01 Entitlement

- (a) Employees during their first (1st) year of employment shall receive three (3) weeks' (120 hours) vacation pro-rated from their start date with pay based on six percent (6%) of gross earnings for the year for which they are receiving their vacation.
- (b) Employees in calendar year one (1) through four (4) years of employment (120 hours) shall receive three (3) weeks' vacation with pay or six percent (6%) of gross earnings for the vacation year.
- (c) Employees in calendar year five (5) years through nine (9) years of employment shall receive four (4) weeks' (160 hours) vacation with pay or eight percent (8%) of gross earnings for the year for which they are receiving their vacation.
- (d) Employees in calendar year ten (10) through nineteen (19) years of employment shall receive five (5) weeks' (200 hours) vacation with pay or ten percent (10%) of gross earnings for the year for which they are receiving their vacation.
- (e) Employees in calendar year twenty (20) years plus employment or more shall receive six (6) weeks' (240 hours) vacation with pay or twelve percent (12%) of earnings of gross earnings for the year for which they are receiving their vacation.

The vacation year follows the calendar year, running from January 1 to December 31. Vacation eligibility is established at the beginning of each calendar year (January 1), or is pro-rated from the date of hire to December 31 of that year. In either case, vacation is taken in the same year it is earned and/or accrued.

Vacation eligibility is based on years of service as at January 1st of each year.

Eligibility Year	Eligibility	Percentage
During the 1 st year of employment	3 weeks (120 hours) pro-rated from start date to December 31 st	6%
Calendar year of 1 st thru 4 th of employment	3 weeks (120 hours)	6%
Calendar year 5 th thru 9 th of	4 weeks (160 hours)	8%

employment
Calendar year of 10 th + of employment	5 weeks (200) hours	10%
Calendar year of 20 th + of employment	6 weeks (240) hours	12%

8.02 Vacation Pay Upon Termination

In the event that an employee's employment is terminated during the course of a working year in respect of which they have not received an annual vacation, they shall receive the accrued but unpaid vacation at appropriate percentage of their gross pay earned during the portion of the year that they have worked in accordance with the provisions of Article 8.01 above.

8.03 Vacation Scheduling

- (a) Vacations shall be scheduled by seniority. Senior employees will have preference in the selection of vacation periods.
- (b) To facilitate this process, the Employer will post a vacation schedule on October 15th for the following year. Employees have up to January 15th of the following year to request their vacation periods for the calendar year period between January 1st to December 31st. The Employer shall confirm the vacation scheduling by January 31st in each year unless a conflict of employee requests require discussions with employees to coordinate requested time off. It is also agreed that for vacation requests by January 15th that weeks of vacations shall have preference over days of vacation regardless of an employees' seniority. Once confirmed, vacations shall not be altered without employee's consent. Should an employee not select their vacation by January 15th, they will not be able to use their seniority to displace another employee from their pre-selected and approved vacation periods. All vacation requests after January 31st shall be approved on a first come first served basis and shall be confirmed by the employer within seven (7) working days of this application.

Employees who do not schedule their vacation in accordance with this Article, who request a change after January 31st shall not be entitled to later bump another employee's selected vacation time.

- (c) Once the employee(s) vacation selection is confirmed and posted in accordance with Article 8.03 (a), employees shall receive their vacation pay for the period of vacation they are taking on their regular pay cheque. Any excess monies earned on an employee's annual vacation earnings shall be paid out on the first pay cheque of the following year.

- 8.04 All earned vacations must be taken in the year they are earned and the employees are encouraged to use their vacation time during the calendar year. Should employees have vacation remaining at the end of the year, a maximum of five (5) days' vacation may be carried over into the first six months of the following year, the employee shall put the request in writing and submit it to their immediate supervisor which shall not be denied. Otherwise all earned vacation must be taken. Should an employee have more than a one week (five days) remaining at the beginning of September of each year and does not book those the days over and above the five days, the employer shall then have the right to book those days off on behalf of that employee when business operational needs allow them to do so.

- 8.05 The following shall be included in calculating years of service for the determination of vacation entitlement following one (1) continuous year of employment:
- (i) absence on Workers' Compensation up to a period of one (1) year provided the employee returns to full active employment;
  - (ii) absence due to illness up to a period of one (1) year, provided the employee returns to full active employment;
  - (iii) any other absence approved by the Employer.

ARTICLE 9 SENIORITY

9.01 The Employer recognizes that job opportunity and seniority should increase according to length of service. Seniority shall mean length of continuous service with the Employer as an employee within the bargaining unit and shall include credit for all service with this Employer.

9.02 Probation

(a) All new employees shall be considered probationary employees for forty-five (45) working days within ninety (90) calendar days from their first day of employment, and thereafter shall become regular employees. An employee may be terminated at any time during his probationary period at the sole discretion of the Employer. The employee shall have the right to a grievance as a result of the actions of the Employer.

(b) Upon completion of the probationary period, an employee's seniority shall be effective the first date of employment.

9.03 Maintenance of Seniority:

Seniority shall be maintained and accumulate during absence due to:

1. Layoff;
2. Illness, or non-compensable accident covered by approved leave of absence or wage indemnity benefits;
3. Authorized leave of absence;
4. Absence from employment on approved Union business; and

5. Compensable illness or accident covered by W.C.B. Wage Loss benefits.

9.04 Cancellation of Seniority

Seniority will be lost if an employee:

1. voluntarily leaves the employ of the Employer;
2. is discharged for cause;
3. fails to report for work within five (5) calendar days of recall from layoff or fails to return to work from an authorized leave of absence;
4. is absent without leave;
5. has been laid off and;
  - Employees with less than two (2) years' service shall retain their seniority for a period of nine (9) months,
  - Employees with two (2) or more years' service shall retain their seniority for one (1) year, plus one (1) additional month for each year's service, up to an additional twelve (12) months, or, accepts any severance pay they may be entitled to at any time during their layoff.

9.05 Lay-off and Recall

- (a) In the event that a reduction in the regular workforce is deemed necessary, the Employer shall first effect the lay-off in the area or department of the Employer where the lay-off is required. The Employer shall first lay-off the employee with the least seniority within the particular classification.
- (b) Five (5) working days' notice of lay-off shall be given to each employee to be laid off. The notice shall be given in writing, except no notice shall be given to those employees who are recalled from lay off for periods of less than five (5) days work.
- (c) In the event of work shortages, the Union and the Company shall meet to discuss alternatives to lay off, including shorter work days/work weeks. Any changes to the hours of work must have mutual agreement of the Parties.

- 9.06 In the event of reduction and/or lay off, an employee may use their seniority to bump into the job of another employee with less seniority in another classification, however the senior employee bumping the junior employee must have the requisite qualifications, skill and ability to be able to perform the work efficiently of the employee they displace.

9.07 Recall From Lay-off

Laid off employees shall be recalled in order of seniority provided they possess the requisite qualifications, skill and ability to perform the work available.

A recall to work is effected by the Employer advising the employee by a telephone call and confirmed by courier at the number or address on file with the Employer of the date and time that the employee is to be recalled to work.

An employee being recalled to work must return to work as soon as possible after the notice of recall but in any event not longer than five (5) calendar days after the registered notice is delivered.

9.08 Upon layoff, members who are currently covered under group insurance benefits program, shall be eligible for continued coverage through the layoff period under the following conditions:

- (a) Eligibility for disability (STD/LTD) coverage shall cease immediately once layoff commences. Coverage for all other benefits shall be maintained for a maximum of 120 days from the first day of layoff.
- (b) Eligible employees shall have benefits reinstated on their first day back to work, provided they are covered under benefits plan on the date the layoff commenced. Eligibility for benefits is determined by the benefit plan contract.

9.09 Seniority Lists

The Employer shall prepare a seniority list of all employees and present the list to the Union within thirty (30) days of the signing of the Agreement. (Being this is the first Collective Bargaining Agreement the parties shall agree on the seniority prior to the commencement of negotiations and a ratification vote being completed) These lists will commence with the most senior employee and carry downwards to the most junior employee and contain the following information:

1. Employees name;
2. Employees date of hire;
3. Employees classification.

The Employer shall revise and post a seniority list every six (6) months and provide an updated list to the local union upon request.

9.10 Posting Provisions

In the event that a new job or classification is created or a vacancy occurs within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall post a notice of the position available for five (5) calendar days notifying that a vacancy exists. All vacancies shall be awarded by seniority where the pre-requisites skills and ability and or the qualifications, skills and ability to perform the work is equal, seniority shall be the deciding factor.

For clarity on pre-requisites skills and ability the following departments/jobs will apply;

- Warehouse Operator
- Packaging Operator
- Blending Operator
- Yard Operator

Note – Plant Operator Entry Level – Employee awarded the posting shall register for the Power Engineer Class – 4

(f) Health and Safety Education Leaves

The Company shall provide two (2) days of paid educational leaves in each year for members of the Joint Committee to attend Health, Safety and Environmental courses that will enhance Committee member skills and understanding so that they more effectively participate in health & safety responsibilities.

(g) Unresolved Safety Issues

The Joint OH&S Committee may refer unresolved safety issues to the Joint Labour/Management Committee for possible resolution. This provision does not limit any right to seek a resolution from the WCB.

10.03 Notification of Injury or Illness

- (a) Any employee suffering an injury or illness must report immediately to First Aid and the Employer as soon as possible.
- (b) The Union co-chairperson of the Joint Committee shall be notified immediately of each injury or illness.
- (c) In the case of a fatality or serious injury arising from an incident or condition at work, the Local Union shall be notified immediately and one of its representatives shall join the Joint Occupational Health & Safety Committee investigation at the workplace. Furthermore the Union can also request the assistance from the District 3 Staff Representative or the District 3 Safety Coordinator or their designate to participate in the investigation. The Company shall provide full access to the workplace.

10.04 Injured Employee - Daily Earnings

- (a) Where an employee is injured on the job to the extent that they are required to obtain treatment at a medical facility or doctor's office, and the doctor recommends that the employee not return to work on that day, the Company shall maintain the employee's normal daily earnings for the day of injury.
- (b) The Company shall provide transportation at no cost to the employees if medical treatment is required.

- 10.05
- (a) Adequate washroom, lunchroom and, where necessary, locker facilities shall be provided by the Company and kept in a sanitary condition. The lunchroom shall be supplied with hot/cold water, coffee cups, microwave oven, stove with oven and refrigerator.
  - (b) The Company shall ensure that all buildings are adequately heated and ventilated.

10.06 First Aid Training

The Company will pay the cost of training and retraining for Industrial First Aid Certificates including lost time wages to designated duty First Aid Attendants.

Upon attaining certificates as required by WorkSafe BC, the following premiums will be paid to all employees.

- (a) A premium of thirty ($0.30) cents per hour will be paid to all employees who have Level 2 certification. During the term of this Collective Agreement, the parties will jointly determine, with the assistance of WorkSafe BC, whether Level 3 certification is required or not at the site of the operations.

10.07 Safety Equipment

- a) The Company shall provide at no cost to the worker all items of personal protective equipment required by Regulation.
- b) Personal protective equipment must:
  - i) Be selected and used in accordance with the recognized standards and provide effective protection;
  - ii) Not in itself create a hazard to the wearer;
  - iii) Be compatible, so that one item of personal protective equipment does not make another item ineffective;
  - iv) Be maintained in good working order and in a sanitary condition.
- c) If an evaluation of workplace conditions is required to determine appropriate personal protective equipment, the evaluation must be done in consultation with the joint committee and the worker who will use the equipment.
- d) The Company shall provide safety boots for all employees that are employed by the Company for a maximum of $250.00 through the Company safety boot voucher program. Furthermore the Company shall supply replacement boots as needed due to the wear and tear from chemicals within the workplace.
- e) The Company recognizes that employees working in the yard may be exposed to severe weather, therefore, the Company agrees to provide, at no cost to the employees. Winter safety boots, insulated gloves and insulated coveralls.

10.08 Right to Refuse Unsafe Work

- a) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3.12 of the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation, a worker may refuse to perform any work activity which they have reason to believe is likely to endanger someone.
- b) When a worker has refused to perform work under Paragraph (a) it is agreed that the procedures of section 3.12 of the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation will apply as if the worker had refused under the terms specified in the Act.
- c) When a worker has refused to perform unsafe work either under the terms of this agreement or under the terms of section 3.12 of the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation, the employer shall not assign any other employee to use or operate the machine or thing, work in that place or perform the activity referred to in the work refusal unless
  - i. the Supervisor is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the other employee will not be exposed to any undue hazard,
  - ii. The other worker has been has been advised of the refusal of the employee concerned and of the reasons for the refusal; and
  - iii. The other worker has been advised of their right to refuse unsafe work

- d) Employees who are due to work on a scheduled work period or shift after a shift during which there has been a stoppage of work arising from a work refusal are deemed, for the purpose of calculating wages and benefits, to be at work during their work period or shift.

10.09 Laundry and Repairs

The Company agrees to pay the cost of laundering and repairs to coveralls provided to employees. Truck drivers shall be supplied with Terrapure shirts and pants for each days' work to wear during their working hours.

10.10 Pregnant or Nursing Employees

- a) An employee who is pregnant or nursing may cease to perform their job if they believe that, by reason of the pregnancy or nursing, continuing any of their current job functions may pose a risk to their health or to that of the fetus or child. On being informed of the cessation, the employer, with the consent of the employee, shall notify the work place joint health and safety committee.
- b) The employee must consult with a qualified medical practitioner of their choice as soon as possible to establish whether continuing any of their current job functions poses a risk to their health or to that of the fetus or child.
- c) For the period during which the employee does not perform their job under subsection (a), the employer may, in consultation with the employee and the union, reassign the employee to another job that would not pose a risk to their health or to that of the fetus or child.
- d) The employee, whether or not they have been reassigned to another job, is deemed to continue to hold the job that they held at the time they ceased to perform their job functions and shall continue to receive the wages and benefits that are attached to that job for the period during which they do not perform the job.

10.11 Return to Work/Stay at Work

The employer and the union, USW Local 2009, and the Joint Occupational Health & Safety (JOHS) Committee (the Parties) recognize their moral and legal responsibilities towards employees with disabilities. The Parties shall, through consultation and a cooperative partnership, develop a Return to Work/Accommodation Program consistent with Disability Prevention principles and compliant with all applicable legislation including the BC Human Rights Code.

The goal of the program is to establish a work environment that promotes health & safety and healthy lifestyles, decreases the risk of injury or illness, and enhances the quality of life.

The main focus will be to return the employee to their pre-injury employment and to accommodate the needs of that employee unless to do so would cause undue hardship on the parties. The program shall be applied fairly and consistently and ensure that every attempt is made to provide reasonable accommodation that reintegrates an employee back to their pre-disability position. The Return to Work /Accommodation Program will apply to mental health issues and be treated in the same fashion as physical injury or illness.

The parties jointly recognize the importance of confidentiality and will ensure that full confidentiality is provided. The Employer shall not have contact with the employee's physician, without the employee's consent.

ARTICLE 11 STATUTORY PROVISIONS

- 11.01 The Employer agrees that an employee shall be provided a Shop Steward prior to discharging or suspending any employee.
- 11.02 The Union shall have the exclusive use of a Bulletin Board on the premises of the Employer and provided by the Employer for the purpose of posting paper, notices, etc., which may be of interest to Union members.
- 11.03 Any notice required to be given by the Union to the Employer under the terms of this Agreement shall be given by courier, facsimile or email addressed to Employer at its registered address at 130 Forester Street, North Vancouver B.C. V7H 2M9. - 11.04 When the Employer finds it necessary to discharge a Shop Steward, the Union Staff Representative shall be notified prior to such discharge.
- 11.05 The Parties agree that they shall form a Joint Labour Management Committee which shall meet at least once every two (2) months (or monthly if necessary) until this Agreement is terminated for the purpose of discussing issues related to the workplace that affect the Parties or any employee bound by this Agreement.
- 11.06 Prior to accessing the plant or the operations of the Employer, a Union Representative shall first obtain permission from the Employer. Permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Union agrees that there shall be no undue disruption of normal operations. It is understood that permission is not to be construed as unlimited free access and will be subject to a non-disclosure agreement. All visitors will be required to go through the regular safety orientation and wear appropriate PPE.

ARTICLE 12 LEAVES OF ABSENCE

12.01 Bereavement Leave - Compassionate Leave

In the event of a death in the immediate family of an employee, the Employer shall grant up to three (3) days leave of absence with pay at the employee's normal straight time rate where the employee was scheduled to work. Employees shall be permitted two (2) additional days off for compassionate purposes. The additional days shall be unpaid.

The term "immediate family" shall mean spouse (including common-law spouse or same sex partner), parents, step parents, children, step children, brothers, sisters, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, grandparents, spouse's grandparents, grandchildren, mother-in-law, father-in-law, nieces and nephews. The Employer may request a proof of death.

12.02 Jury Duty

- a) If an employee is summonsed or subpoenaed for Jury Selection, Jury Duty or as a Crown Witness in a Provincial or Supreme Court proceeding, the Employer shall grant the employee leave of absence and shall pay the difference between the straight time hourly rate and the monies received for Jury Duty.

The employee must show satisfactory proof of such summons or subpoena and the monies received for attendance. This paragraph shall also apply to probationary employees.

- b) An employee discharged from such duty before the end of their regularly scheduled shift shall contact the Employer and advise the Employer of their discharge from duty. The employee may be required to report to their shift upon their discharge from duty.
- c) An employee who reports for Jury Duty, Jury Selection or as a Crown Witness pursuant to a Summons from the Court, shall be deemed to be on a scheduled shift while so engaged by the Court and shall be credited and entitled with all provisions within the Collective Agreement except for WCB coverage and time spent on Jury Duty will not be counted towards any overtime.

12.03 Union Leave

- a) The Company shall grant, unpaid leave of absence(s), subject to operational needs, to employees who are appointed or elected to Union office. The employee who obtains this leave of absence shall return to the Company within thirty (30) calendar days after completion of their term of employment with the Union.
- b) The Company shall grant unpaid leave of absence, subject to operational needs, to employees who are elected as representatives to attend Union meetings, Union Education, Union conventions, etc. in order that they may carry out their duties on behalf of the Union. With respect to any unpaid leave of absence granted, in this section the Employer shall continue to pay each employee(s) their regular wages and benefits then invoice the Union for all such wages and benefits. The Union shall reimburse the Employer in the amount invoiced as soon as possible but not less than thirty (30) days from the receiving the invoice.

- c) In order for the employer to replace the employee with a competent substitute, it is agreed that before the employee receives this leave of absence, as set forth in Clauses (a) and (b) above, the employer shall be given due notice in writing; in the case of (a) thirty (30) calendar days; and in the case of (b), ten (10) calendar days.

12.04 Maternity and Parental Leave

The Employer shall provide Maternity and Parental Leave in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Standards Act of British Columbia provided the employee meets all requirements and obligations for the granting of such leave pursuant to the Act.

12.05 Flex Days

All regular employees shall be entitled to ten (10) flex days per calendar year of the contract. Flex days can be used at the employees' discretion provided all their vacation and any other paid time off is exhausted, and shall not be unreasonably denied when requested. These flex days are considered non-paid days.

ARTICLE 13 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 13.01 The Employer agrees to recognize the Stewards specified in Article 17, and the USW Representatives specified in Article 2, as the agents through which the employees shall process their grievances and receive settlement thereof.
- 13.02 The Employer nor the Union shall be required to consider or process any grievance which arose out of any action or condition more than seven (7) work days after the subject of such grievance occurred or either party became aware of any action or condition that may be a violation of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. The limitation period shall apply to all differences arising between the parties hereto relating to the interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation of this Agreement. The foregoing limitation shall not apply to payroll errors of a continuing or recurring nature.
- 13.03 A "Group Grievance" is defined as a single grievance signed by a Steward or USW Representative on behalf of a group of employees who have the same complaint. Such grievance must be dealt with at successive stages of the Grievance Procedure, commencing with Step 3. The grievers shall be listed on the grievance form.
- 13.04 A "Policy Grievance" is defined as one which involves a question relating to the interpretation, application, or operation of this Agreement and does not involve a claim for compensation for any individual employee or employees. A Policy Grievance may be submitted by either party directly to arbitration under Article 14, by-passing Step 1 and Step 2. Such Policy Grievance shall be signed by a Steward, or a USW Representative, or in the case of an Employer's Policy Grievance, by the Employer or their representative.

- 13.05 The Company and the Union mutually agree that, when a grievance arises in the operation under the terms of this Agreement, it shall be taken up in the manner set out below:

Step One

The individual employee involved, with or without a Shop Steward, or the Shop Steward on behalf of the individual shall first take up the matter with the supervisor directly in charge of the work within seven (7) work days after the date on which the employee is notified orally or in writing, or on which the employee ought to have known or been aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

Step Two

If a satisfactory settlement is not reached at Step One within seven (7) work days, the Shop Steward shall take up the grievance with either the Human Resources Department or Branch Manager, or both, as designated by the Company. The parties shall meet to discuss the grievance within seven (7) work days after step one has been completed. A statement in writing of the alleged grievance, shall be given to either party concerned, by the grieved party. The Employer shall notify the griever and the Union Representative of their decision in writing within five (5) workdays following the said meeting.

Step Three

If the grievance is not then satisfactorily solved, it shall be referred to the Local Union and the Management. The parties shall meet within the next seven (7) work days unless they agree otherwise and if no settlement is reached proceed to step four.

Step Four

If a satisfactory settlement is not then reached, it shall be dealt with by arbitration as set forth in Article 14. The Arbitrator referred to in this Article shall not have the authority to amend, modify, alter or in any way change this Collective Agreement.

- 13.06 The time limits specified in Article 13.05 above may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.

ARTICLE 14 ARBITRATION

- 14.01 Within ten (10) calendar days of referral to arbitration, where a difference arises between the Parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitral, or where an allegation is made that this Agreement has been violated, either of the Parties may after exhausting the grievance procedure established by this Agreement, notify the other Party in writing of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration.

- 14.02 Any matter referred to arbitration, as provided in 14.01 hereof, shall be submitted to a single Arbitrator selected from the following list or to an Arbitrator mutually agreed to by the Parties:
1. Corrin Bell
  2. Judy Corbin
  3. Julie Nichols
  4. Chris Sullivan
  5. James Dorsey
  6. Jessica Gregory
- 14.03 The Arbitrator shall have the authority to act as a mediator/Arbitrator upon application of either Party and will hear and determine the difference or allegation, and will issue a decision, and the decision is final and binding upon the Parties, and upon any employee affected by it.
- 14.04 The Arbitrators will rotate on each subsequent arbitration, but should anyone be unable to act within thirty (30) calendar days, the Arbitrator shall be passed over to the next on the list, or selected by mutual agreement.
- 14.05 The Arbitrator will have the right to enter any premises where work is being done or has been done by the Employee, or in which the Company carries on business, or where anything is taking place or has taken place concerning any of the differences submitted to the Arbitrator and inspect and view any work material, machinery, appliance or article therein, and interrogate any person respecting any such thing or any of such differences.
- 14.06 If, during the life of this Agreement, one of the Arbitrators named in 14.02 hereof withdraws from the list, the Parties will appoint a replacement by mutual agreement in writing.
- 14.07 Except where otherwise provided for in this Agreement, each of the Parties hereto will bear its own expenses with respect to any arbitration proceedings. The Parties hereto will bear jointly the expenses of the Arbitrator on an equal basis.
- 14.08 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not first been properly carried through all preceding steps of the Grievance Procedure.
- 14.09 The Arbitrator will have jurisdiction and authority to interpret and apply the provisions of this Agreement insofar as it may be necessary for the determination of a grievance referred to it, but will not have the jurisdiction and authority to alter or to amend any of the provisions of this Agreement.
- 14.10 A claim by an Employee that the employee has been unjustly discharged, suspended or laid off may be settled by confirming the Company's decision in discharging, suspending or laying off the employee, or by reinstating the employee with such compensation, either full, partial or such other settlement as may be agreed upon by the conferring Parties or determined by the Arbitrator as the case may be.

ARTICLE 15 SEVERANCE AND TERMINATION PROVISIONS

15.01 SEVERANCE PAY

The Employer shall provide Severance Packages to employee's equal to five (5) days for each year of continuous service and thereafter in proportional increments of completed months of service with the Company. A day's pay shall continue to include daily overtime or other premiums or add-ons as in the past, as applicable:

- (i) On a permanent closure.
- (ii) At the employee's option this severance pay may be taken once an employee(s) lay-off has exceeded six (6) months up to the expiry of an employee's recall rights, twenty-four (24) months from the date of lay-off. It is understood that if an employee chooses to take severance pay then his recall rights are automatically expired.
- (ii) The Employer agrees to pay out severance pay within forty-eight (48) working hours of the employee's request.

ARTICLE 16 HEALTH & WELFARE BENEFIT PLANS

16.01 The Health and Welfare Benefits are as per Appendix "B". The Company shall pay 100% of the costs for providing the Health and Welfare Benefits with the exception of Long-term Disability premiums. The Company may change insurance providers, provided the benefits shall be equal or greater than listed in Appendix "B".

ARTICLE 17 SHOP STEWARDS

17.01 The Union is entitled to appoint or elect from among the employees three (3) Shop Stewards and three (3) alternates.

17.02 The Employer agrees to recognize the duly appointed or elected Shop Stewards provided that the Union has first advised the Employer in writing of the names of the employees so appointed or elected. The Union agrees to advise the Employer in writing of any changes made from time to time.

- 17.03 The Shop Stewards first obligation is the fulfilment of their responsibilities as an employee. During working hours, on any operating shift, not more than one (1) Shop Steward is entitled to engage in Union activities other than the approved reporting of and resolution of grievances.
- 17.04 The function of Shop Stewards are to consider, investigate and attempt to resolve formal grievances. If in the course of investigating a formal grievance a Steward requires time during working hours of their shift, they must first obtain the permission of their supervisor. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied.
- 17.05 Where such permission is granted, the reasonable time spent by the Shop Steward shall be deemed as time worked.
- 17.06 The Shop Steward shall not be discriminated against or disciplined solely for the proper performance of his duties on behalf of the Union.

ARTICLE 18 DISCIPLINE & DISCHARGE OF EMPLOYEES

- 18.01 The Company shall only discipline, suspend or discharge an employee for just cause. The burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Company.
- 18.02 A Union representative shall be present at any step of the disciplinary procedure. Any employee(s) who is to be interviewed regarding disciplinary action shall be interviewed in the presence of a Shop Steward.
- 18.03 The employee, the Shop Steward or Unit Chairperson shall receive a copy in writing of any disciplinary action taken including, but not limited to all written reprimands, or notices involving suspension or discharge within twenty-four (24) hours of the taken action.
- 18.04 RELIEF
- All written warnings, reprimands and suspensions shall be rescinded and removed from the employee's personnel file, after a period of eighteen (18) months after the date of issued disciplinary action and shall not be used against the employee thereafter provided no further disciplinary action of a similar nature has been issued.
- 18.05 The Company favours "Corrective Discipline" as opposed to "Punitive Discipline" so agrees to follow the procedure of progressive discipline as follows:
1. A verbal Warning - in the presence of a Shop Steward;

2. A Written Warning - copy to Shop Steward;
3. A Suspension without pay (specified time frame) - copy of notice to Shop Steward;
4. Discharge - copy of notice to Shop Steward.

Stages of the progressive discipline policy maybe bypassed for serious infractions.

All discipline shall be administered by Management.

ARTICLE 19 EDUCATION TRUST FUND

- 19.01 (a) The Company shall contribute to the Union the sum of three cents ($0.03) per hour per employee for each hour worked for education and training of Union members.
- (b) The money shall be made payable to Local Union 2009 Education and Training Fund, #202 — 9292 — 200th Street. Langley, BC, V1M 3A6 and shall be remitted by the 15th of each month for the previous month and the Company shall provide necessary information regarding amounts paid for each employee.

ARTICLE 20 HUMANITY FUND

- 20.01 For the purpose of international aid and development, the Employer agrees to deduct on a bi-monthly basis the amount of (not less than $0.01) per hour from the wages of all employees in the bargaining unit for all hours worked to a maximum of forty (40) straight time hours per week, and on a bi-monthly basis, to pay the amount so deducted to the "Humanity Fund" and to forward such payment to:

United Steelworkers
National Office
234 Eglinton Avenue E., 7th Floor
Toronto, Ontario
M4P 1K7

and to advise in writing both the Humanity Fund at the aforementioned address and the Local Union that such payment has been made, the amount of such payment and the names of all employees in the bargaining unit on whose behalf such payment has been made.

It is understood and agreed that participation by any employee in the bargaining unit in the program of deductions set forth above may be discontinued by any employee in the bargaining unit after the receipt by the Employer and the Local Union of that employee's written statement of his desire to discontinue such deductions from his pay which may be received during the four (4) weeks following ratification of the Agreement or at any time thereafter.

It is agreed that the total for each employee's yearly deduction will be entered in Box 46 (Charitable Contribution) of the Revenue Canada T4 slip for the year it has been deducted. For this purpose, the payroll department will note the following Charitable Donation number for the "Humanity Fund": R119172278 RR 0001.

ARTICLE 21 VANCOUVER STEELWORKER PENSION PLAN

The Employer will maintain the current RRSP Plan for those employees who wish to continue self-contributions to such.

- 21.01 Effective May 1, 2020, the Company shall participate into the Vancouver Steelworkers Pension Plan ("the Steelworkers Pension Plan") on behalf of each employee who shall participate as a member of the Vancouver Steelworkers Pension Plan as a condition of employment, and shall make contributions as per Article 21.
- 21.02 The Union shall have sole responsibility for the naming of trustees and the operation of the Pension Plan and the Company shall have no responsibility for the operation of the Pension Plan save for the payment of contributions as set forth in this Article.
- 21.03 Effective date of ratification — the contributions shall be two dollars and thirty cents ($2.30) per all hours worked.
- 21.04 The contributions shall be delivered by mail (or such other method as may be agreed to) to the Steelworkers Pension Plan by the Company within 15 days after the end of each calendar month in which the pay period ends, or as soon as reasonably possible thereafter.
- 21.05 Upon reasonable request by the Trustees of the Steelworkers' Pension Plan (the "Trustees"), the Company shall provide all information necessary to satisfy the Trustees that the Company is properly calculating and remitting contributions in accordance with this article. Such information will include, but may not be limited to:
- i) a complete list of all employees in the bargaining unit in a given month, inclusive of employees who were hired after the commencement of the month and employees who were laid off or whose employment was terminated prior to the expiry of the month; and;
  - ii) or each employee listed, a list of the hours worked and social insurance number for each employee.
- 21.06 The Company shall provide to the Trustees such information as is necessary to enable the Trustees to properly administer the plan, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all documentation and information as may be reasonably requested and which is necessary to calculate pension entitlements for beneficiaries and to enable the Trustees to comply with the Pension Benefits Standards Act.

- 21.07 The Union agrees that other than making contributions to the Steelworkers Pension Plan and providing information to the Trustees as required by articles 21.05 and 21.06 above, the Company has no other obligations with respect to the Steelworkers Pension Plan whatsoever.
- 21.08 The Company will pay the pension contribution for employees granted leave of absence under Article 12- Leave of Absences.
- 21.09 The Company shall pay pension contributions for employees who are absent from work and in receipt of Workers' Compensation benefits.
- 21.10 In accordance with government legislation, the Company will not make any further pension contributions on behalf of any employee starting in the calendar year after he/she reaches the age of seventy-one (71).

ARTICLE 22 DURATION OF AGREEMENT

- 22.01 The Parties hereto mutually agree that this Agreement shall be effective from and after the 1st day of April, 2020, to midnight the 31st day of March, 2022, and thereafter from year to year unless written notice of contrary intention is given by either Party to the other Party within four (4) months immediately preceding the date of expiry. The notice required hereunder shall be validly and sufficiently served at the Head Office of the Party of the First Part, or at the Local Office upon the Local Officers of the Union, Party of the Second Part, within four (4) months immediately preceding the 31st day of March, 2022. If no agreement is reached at the expiration of this Contract and negotiations are continued, the Agreement shall remain in force up to the time an agreement is reached or until negotiations are discontinued, by either Party.
- 22.02 The Parties hereto agree that the operation of Sections 50 (2) and (3) of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia is excluded from this Agreement.

Signed this 1ST day of MAY, 2020.
