Where no Department Steward exists, the Employee may choose to be accompanied by the hotel Chief Steward.

21.03 STEP ONE

- (b) This Step must be taken by notice in writing, within five (5) days of the date on which the written answer was delivered in Step One.

21.05 STEP THREE

In the event that a resolution of the grievance, satisfactory to the Union and the Employer, does not result at Step Two, either the Union or the Employer may advance the grievance to the next step. The next step involves a selection from the following alternatives:

- 1) the optional Grievance Procedure provided for in Article 22.13;
- 2) a single Arbitrator;
- 3) a Settlement Officer appointed under Section 87 of the Labour Relations Code;
- 4) use of the Fast Track Med/Arb Process in Article 22.15.

- (b) In order to expedite the arbitration process, the parties agree that they will meet to identify the issue or issues and to prepare, in written form, a statement of facts which are not in dispute. The identification of the issue or issues and the statement of agreed facts will be placed before the Arbitrator.

- (c) The parties recognize that they are bound by a decision of the Arbitrator.

21.11 AUTHORITY OF THE ARBITRATOR

The parties to the Arbitration recognize that the authority of the Arbitrator is set out in Section 89 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

21.12 COST SHARING

Each party to the Arbitration will be responsible for its own costs and will share equally, the cost associated with the Arbitrator.

21.13 OPTIONAL GRIEVANCE INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE

The parties have agreed to initiate an Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure for the specified term of the Agreement, in accordance with the following:

- (a) Purpose and Scope
  - (i) Recognizing that there are times and circumstances in which it may be necessary to seek third-party assistance in the resolution of grievances, and in an attempt to find a way in which to bring about such resolutions without incurring the costs and delays associated with formal arbitration proceedings, the parties have agreed to provide for an Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure.
  - (ii) The process is intended to complement the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures otherwise provided for in this Agreement. It is not intended to replace those other procedures.
- (b) Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure
  - (i) Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee during the term of the Collective Agreement, the parties may appoint one of the persons named herein as "Investigators" or a substitute agreed to by the parties, to:
    - 1) investigate the difference;
    - 2) define the issue in the difference, and
    - 3) make written recommendations to resolve the difference within five (5) days of the date of receipt of the request and, for those five (5) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the Grievance Procedure.

(c) Cost Sharing

Each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of the cost incurred in relation to the reasonable remuneration, travelling and out of pocket expenses of the Investigator or the Investigator's substitute.

(d) Investigators - Alternates Agreed to, and Selection

(i) The parties have agreed that for the term of this Agreement, the persons named in a Letter of Understanding will be recognized as their "Investigators" for the purposes of this investigation procedure, subject to receiving their respective consents to their appointment.

(ii) Selection of a particular named individual to serve in each instance shall be by agreement of the parties. Should the parties fail to agree on the selection, then the person next on the list shall be chosen.

(e) Option Choice and Timing

(i) Either party may choose to implement the investigation procedure provided that all Steps of the Grievance Procedure, prior to reference to arbitration, have been exhausted without a resolution of the difference.

(ii) The party wishing to use the investigation procedure shall notify the other party of the decision, within five (5) working days of the receipt of the reply at the last Step of the Grievance Procedure. Such notification must be in writing.

(iii) The party receiving notification may refuse to accept the Investigator Procedure, in which case, the arbitration provisions of this Agreement are then available and the time limit contained in that Article begins to run from the date of the refusal decision being delivered in writing. No reasons for the refusal need be given, and such refusal must be submitted within five (5) working days.

21.14 BINDING RECOMMENDATIONS

While the grievance investigation process is intended to yield only non-binding recommendations, the parties may agree that the recommendations will represent a binding award, in the manner of an arbitration award. Such agreement must be made in advance of the appointment of the Investigator or Officer.

21.15 FAST TRACK MED/ARB PROCESS

(a) Recognizing that there are times when an expedited arbitration may be desirable, the parties agree that the following process may be used as a substitute for the formal Grievance Procedure outlined in Article 22 of the Collective Agreement.

- 1) The process can only be used by mutual agreement between the parties who are signatory to this Collective Agreement. (Unifor and H.I.R.)
- 2) The outcome will be binding on both parties.
- 3) Each party to the arbitration will be responsible for its own costs and will share equally, the cost associated with the Arbitrator.
- 4) The procedure cannot be used should an application for a Settlement Officer, under Section 87 of the Labour Relations Code, have been made by either party.
- 5) No legal counsel will be used by either party. The Union will use elected officers or Union representatives. H.I.R. will use employees of their Industrial Relations Office.
- 6) The number of cases to be heard at any given time will not exceed three (3).
- 7) The parties or their representatives will try to get an agreed statement of facts for presentation to the arbitrator.
- 8) Wherever possible, the arbitrator will attempt to mediate a settlement between the parties.
- 9) In such case that the arbitrator must write a decision, such decision shall be brief and to the point.
- 10) An agreed schedule for the process will be arranged in advance based on a mutual assessment of the length of time needed to present each case.
- 11) General rules of evidence will be waived except for the rule of "onus".
- 12) The offices of the parties will be used for the process on an alternating basis.
- 13) Procedure Guidelines
  - (i) The Opening Statement: This should basically set out the case from each party's perspective. The Arbitrator will aggressively seek, at this point, to define the issue and to determine what evidence is agreed to and what is not.

- (ii) The Hearing: Sufficient witnesses should be called to ensure the “story” is properly told. Where it is an issue of credibility or conflicting evidence, the key individuals must testify.
  - (iii) The Argument: As agreed, the parties will not cite legal precedents but may refer to Brown and Beatty, Palmer, etc. However, it is imperative that the relevant provisions of the Collective Agreement be canvassed by counsel to ensure that all relevant clauses are put before the Arbitrator.
  - (iv) Mediation: Counsel must accept some responsibility at this stage to assist the Arbitrator in assessing the evidence before the Arbitrator. Specifically, if counsel can assist in assessing credibility and/or contradictory evidence, they should do so.
  - (v) The Decision: If mediation fails, or is not appropriate, and if the decision can be rendered after a short deliberation, the Arbitrator will do so. By meeting first with counsel to explain the framework of the Arbitrator’s decision, the parties are provided with an opportunity to influence the exact terms of resolution. Within the framework of settlement as outlined by the Arbitrator, the parties can work out exact terms which best suit the specifics of the case. Such an opportunity should not be wasted by continuing to argue the merits of the case.
- (b) The Mediator/Arbitrator will be selected from the list contained in Letter of Understanding #2.

RE: OPTIONAL HOURS OF WORK ON SIXTH DAY

Notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 9.01 and 9.07, the parties have agreed that in an attempt to provide additional hours of work to employees working less than forty (40) hours per week, the following arrangement will be in force for the duration of the Collective Agreement. Employees who would otherwise work less than forty (40) hours in a five (5) day work week can be offered additional straight time hours of work on the sixth (6th) consecutive day, provided that the additional hours do not result in the employee working more than forty (40) hours in the six (6) days at straight time. Such an employee may decline the additional hours without affecting his or her rights under this agreement. All sixth (6th) shifts must be offered in order of seniority.

RE: GRATUITIES

- (a) Gratuities directly received by bargaining unit members will be the sole property of the employee who receives the gratuity or tip. Further the Employer agrees that every effort will be made to ensure that all gratuity due-backs will be paid out within forty-eight (48) hours of being earned excluding Saturday, Sunday and Statutory Holidays.
- (b) The Employer shall charge a minimum of fifteen percent (15%) gratuities on all food and beverage components of a function. Banquet gratuities will continue as a 67/33 split, with sixty percent (60%) being allotted to servers and seven percent (7%) to kitchen employees. If in unforeseen circumstances, a rate adjustment is required, then the fifteen percent (15%) will be applied to the adjustment.

The bargaining unit portion shall be distributed among the eligible bargaining unit employees, including probationary employees, in a timely basis and on the basis of 1.0 points for each hour actually worked by each eligible employee.

The calculation of all gratuity portions shall be carried out by the employer and a gratuity allocation sheet will be maintained for each payroll period showing the name of each eligible employee, the total hours worked by him/her during the pay period and the total of points earned by him/her during the pay period and the value of one (1) point applicable to the pay period.

The accumulated total dollar amount of all the gratuity portions earned by an employee during any period, shall be indicated on his/her next semi-monthly pay cheque.

As soon as possible following the end of each pay period, the Employer shall publish, with respect to that pay period, the total dollar value of the bargaining unit portion of the food and/or beverage components of all gratuities and the value of one (1) point.

The Employer shall facilitate access to information regarding the calculation of gratuities upon request.

In the event an individual Bargaining Unit employee claims an error has been made in the calculation of their gratuities, he/she may file a grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days after the date on which he/she received his/her pay cheque for the said pay period.

In the event the Union is filing a grievance on behalf of more than one employee, the grievance shall be filed as a group/policy grievance as per the grievance procedure.

- (c) The attached Banquet Gratuity Information Form will be utilized as was done in the Master Agreement negotiations.
- (d) Housekeeping gratuities left in a guest room will be the sole property of the Room Attendant.
- (e) All portage fees received by the employer will be distributed ninety percent (90%) to the bell persons and ten percent (10%) to the Housekeeping department, equally based on hours worked. The Housekeeping department will receive their gratuities annually as per current practice. For the Bellman, vacation hours will be credited for gratuity pool when calculating portage.
- (b) Gratuity Charge Complimentary Meals: The Employer shall maintain the current gratuity charge on all complimentary meals, vouchers and coupons.
