DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this agreement:

(1) "Bargaining unit" is the unit for collective bargaining described in the certification for which the B.C. General Employees' Union (BCGEU) was certified by the Labour Relations Board of Canada on September 8, 1998.

(2) "Child" has the meaning as set out in Section 2(1) of the Indian Act.

(3) "Day of rest" in relation to an employee, means a day other than a holiday on which an employee is not ordinarily required to perform the duties of their position. This does not include employees on a leave of absence.

(4) "Employee" means a member of the bargaining unit.

"Employee" does not include incumbents of managerial or confidential positions mutually excluded on the original certification issued September 8, 1998 by the Canadian Labour Relations Board.

"Casual employee" means an employee who fills temporary vacancies on an as and when basis.

"Temporary employee" means an employee filling a position for a term-certain period.

"Part-time employee" means an employee appointed to a position on a continuous part-time basis.

"Full-time employee" means an employee appointed to a position on a continuous full-time basis.

"12-month employee" means an employee whose annual work year is specified in the collective agreement as being from September 1 to August 31.

"10-month employee" means any employee other than a 12-month employee, regardless of whether that employee's wages are paid over 10 months or 12 months.

(5) "Employer" means the WSÁNEĆ School Board.

(6) "Layoff" means a cessation of employment, a reduction of regularly scheduled hours, or elimination of a full-time or part-time job resulting from a reduction of the amount of work required to be done by the Employer, a reorganization, program termination, closure or other material change in organization, and where should work become available, employees will be recalled in accordance with Article 13 (Layoff and Recall).

(7) "Probationary employee" is a new employee who shall serve six (6) months "probationary period" to determine suitability for employment. The probationary period shall be set in accordance with Article 10.9.

(8) "Union" means the B.C. General Employees' Union (BCGEU).

ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE OF THE AGREEMENT

Preamble

WSÁNEĆ School Board provides governance to ensure continuity and reinforcement of WSÁNEĆ history, cultural teachings and SENĆOŦEN language. This is delivered through the LAUWELNEW TRIBAL SCHOOL, the LEADERSHIP Secondary School, the ADULT LEARNING CENTRE, and the SLELEMW Child Development

Centre as learning institutions operating to inspire learning and to preserve and enrich the cultural identity of WSÁNEĆ learners.

Collectively, the learners, staff, community Elders and Parents are guided by a desire to build capacity for learning and to strengthen the sense of WSÁNEĆ identity and belonging within the learning institutions of the community and beyond.

Essential to this foundation of learning are shared WSÁNEĆ values of dignity, respect, caring and facilitated by the SELWÁN delivered through culturally informed curriculum and instruction. Core history and teachings are delivered through evolving curriculum that includes WSÁNEĆ oral and written history, facilitated by staff working in a cooperative and collaborative way with each other and with the learning community.

1.1 Purpose of the Agreement

(a) The purpose of this agreement is to establish and maintain orderly collective bargaining procedures between the Employer and the Union.

(b) The parties recognize:

The mission of the WSÁNEĆ School Board, working with the WSÁNEĆ Nation in service to children, families and communities, is to ensure the continued immersion of our learners in WSÁNEĆ culture and SENĆOŦEN language within a strong and leading education system. We are committed to giving learners the knowledge, skills and emotional capacity to progress through their learning goals and aspirations with dignity, purpose and options in order to embrace the socio-economic and political opportunities of life.

and, that this collective bargaining relationship will be continuously shaped and influenced by this mission.

(c) The WSÁNEĆ School Board is entrusted by the WSÁNEĆ people with the responsibility for educational services for WSÁNEĆ community in accordance with the Mission, Philosophy and Guiding Principles (ĆELÁNEN) and Policies of the WSÁNEĆ School Board and in accordance with the authority and requirements of the Indian Act and the traditional Indian Code of Ethics. The WSÁNEĆ School Board and the Union recognize that WSÁNEĆ School Board employees have an essential role in carrying out the Mission, Philosophy and Guiding Principles (ĆELÁNEN) and Policies of the WSÁNEĆ School Board and adhering to the traditional Indian Code of Ethics.

(d) The parties share a common purpose to establish equitable labour practices that contribute to the welfare of WSÁNEĆ School Board employees while at the same time recognizing the SENĆOŦEN culture, values, customs, and traditions of the WSÁNEĆ people, in particular the role of WSÁNEĆ elders and the supremacy of the people.

(e) The WSÁNEĆ School Board and Union agree that everyone in the workplace should be treated honourably in a manner that reflects the SENĆOŦEN values and that the WSÁNEĆ School Board, its employees and the Union agree to foster a working relationship that acknowledges and is guided by the Mission, Philosophy and Guiding Principles (ĆELÁNEN) and Policies of the WSÁNEĆ School Board and the wider traditions of the WSÁNEĆ people.

(f) Within this framework as described in (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e), the parties share a desire to establish a work environment that is characterized by an effective working relationship with the members of the bargaining unit and an orderly collective bargaining relationship between the Employer and Union which recognizes this framework, the unique relationship of the WSÁNEĆ School Board with Canada as a result of the Douglas Treaty, with the Department of Indian Affairs and the attendant authority, restrictions, limitations of funding and obligations of the Indian Act.

1.2 Preference in Hiring, Promotion, Transfer and Recall

Despite the provisions of Articles 11-13 or any other provisions of this collective agreement, in all cases involving the filling of vacancies, promotions, transfers, and recall, the Employer and the Union agree that the Employer shall be entitled to give preference first to members of the WSÁNEĆ community, then to First Nations people generally.

1.3 Future Legislation

Subject to the Indian Act, in the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provisions of this agreement, the remaining provisions shall remain in effect for the term of the agreement, and the parties hereto shall negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision so rendered null and void or materially altered.

1.4 Use of Terms

- (a) In this Agreement, the pronouns "they/them/theirs" are used to denote gender neutral persons both singular and plural.
- (b) Singular and plural: Wherever the singular is used, the same shall be construed as meaning the plural if the facts so require.

1.5 Rights Instruments

The parties hereto subscribe to the principles of the Canadian Human Rights Act, the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the Indigenous Languages Act.

1.6 Sexual Harassment/Personal Harassment

(a) Preamble

The WSÁNEĆ School Board and the Union agree to make every reasonable effort to ensure that employees will work in an atmosphere free from sexual harassment and personal harassment and will resolve in a confidential manner any complaints that are made.

(b) Harassment in the Workplace

The Union and the Employer recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from personal and sexual harassment ("Harassment") and the Employer shall take such actions as are necessary respecting an employee engaging in Harassment in the workplace.

(c) Sexual Harassment Definition

(1) Sexual harassment includes sexually oriented verbal or physical behaviour, which an individual would reasonably find to be unwanted or unwelcome, giving consideration to all surrounding circumstances and which may detrimentally affect the work environment. Such behaviour could include, but is not limited to:

- (i) touching, patting or other physical contact;
- (ii) leering, staring or the making of sexual gestures;
- (iii) demands for sexual favours;
- (iv) verbal abuse or threats;
- (v) unwanted sexual invitations;
- (vi) physical assault of a sexual nature;

- (vii) distribution or display of sexual or offensive pictures or material;
- (viii) unwanted questions or comments of a sexual nature;
- (ix) practical jokes of a sexual nature.

(2) To constitute sexual harassment, behaviour may be repeated or persistent or may be a single serious incident.

(3) Sexual harassment will often, but need not, be accompanied by an expressed or implied threat of reprisal or promise of reward.

(4) Sexual harassment refers to behaviour initiated by and directed to a person of any gender identity or gender expression.

(d) Personal and Psychological Harassment Definition

(1) Personal and psychological harassment means objectionable conduct, either repeated or persistent, or a single serious incident - that an individual would reasonably conclude:

- (i) creates a risk to a worker's psychological or physical well-being; causes a worker substantial distress or results in an employee's humiliation or intimidation; or
- (ii) Is discriminatory behaviour that causes substantial distress and is based on a person's race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, political beliefs, religion, marital status, physical or mental disability, sex, age, sexual orientation or gender identity: or
- (iii) Is seriously inappropriate and serves no legitimate work-related purpose.

(2) Good faith actions of a manager or supervisor relating to the management and direction of employees - such as assigning work, providing feedback to employees on work performance, and taking reasonable disciplinary action - do not constitute harassment.

(e) Procedures

(1) Before proceeding to the formal complaint mechanism, an employee who believes they have a complaint of harassment may approach supervisory personnel, a union steward, or elder to discuss potential means of resolving a complaint and to request assistance in resolving the matter. If the matter is resolved to the complainant's satisfaction the matter is deemed to be resolved.

(2) If the matter is not resolved to the employee's satisfaction, then the employee will approach the first excluded level of management not involved in the matter, for assistance in resolving the issue. The manager will investigate the allegation and take steps to resolve the concern as appropriate within thirty (30) days of the issue being raised by the employee. The manager will discuss the proposed resolution with the employee. The employee may have a union representative present during these discussions.

(3) When the Employer has received a complaint, they will notify the respondent and the union staff representative of the substance of the complaint in writing within fifteen (15) days. The respondent is entitled to attend, participate in, and be represented at any hearing under this clause. If the complainant and/or respondent is a member of the bargaining unit, they shall be given the option of having union representation present at any meeting held to investigate the complaint.

(4) The Employer shall investigate the complaint and shall submit a report to the Administrator in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the complaint. The Administrator shall, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the report, give such orders as may be necessary to resolve the issue.

(5) Pending determination of the complaint, the Administrator may take interim measures to separate the employees concerned if deemed necessary.

(6) In cases where the Harassment requires the transfer of an employee, it shall be the harasser who is transferred, except that the employee harassed may be transferred with their consent.

(7) The WSÁNEĆ School Board will acknowledge in writing receipt of the Union's notice and will have the matter investigated and will take such steps as may be required to resolve the matter. The Union and the employees involved shall be advised in writing of the proposed resolutions within thirty (30) days, or such later date as may be mutually agreed by the Employer and the Union.

(8) Where the matter is not resolved pursuant to Subsection (3) above, the Union may refer the matter to arbitration.

(9) An employee who wishes to pursue a concern arising from alleged harassment may submit a complaint in writing, within six (6) months of the latest alleged occurrence, through the Union or directly to the Administrator or their designate (the "Administrator"). Complaints of this nature shall be treated in strict confidence by the employees involved, the Union and the Employer.

(10) The Employer and the Union acknowledge and recognize the traditions, culture and values of the WSÁNEĆ People including the role of elders in addressing and resolving conflicts through traditional WSÁNEĆ methods of conflict resolution. At any point in the harassment complaint process, where both the complainant and the respondent agree the complaint may be addressed through traditional WSÁNEĆ methods of conflict resolution.

(f) Harassment Complaints

(1) A Harassment complaint is not a grievance. The complainant must follow this complaint process. However, any action taken by the Employer as a result of the complaint process may be grieved.

(2) A complainant has the right to file a complaint under the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.

(g) Arbitrator

(1) Where either party to the proceeding is not satisfied with the Administrator's response under 1.6(g) above, the complaint will, within thirty (30) days of that response, be put before an arbitrator. Where no response under 1.6(g) above is provided within sixty (60) days of the complaint being made, the complaint will be advanced to an arbitrator. The Arbitrator has the remedial powers of an arbitration board under Section 80 of the Labour Relations Code and shall have the right to:

(i) Dismiss the complaint;

(ii) Determine the appropriate level of discipline to be applied to the offender when the offender is within the bargaining unit; and

(iii) Make a further order necessary as is necessary to provide a final and conclusive settlement of the complaint.

(2) An alleged offender under this clause shall not be entitled to grieve disciplinary action taken by the Employer, which is consistent with the decision of the Administrator or the Arbitrator.

(3) The Arbitrator chosen will be the Arbitrator from the list in Appendix D that has the earliest available date that is at least fourteen (14) days after the date of referral.

(4) In the event no arbitrator in the list in Appendix D is available within forty-five (45) days after the date of the referral, the appointment of an arbitrator shall be by mutual agreement. The parties shall give preference to qualified Indigenous persons.

(h) Anti-Bullying

(1) The Employer and Union supports the rights of all people to work in an environment free from bullying. Everyone is expected to adhere to acceptable conduct at all times by respecting the rights and feelings of others and by refraining from any behaviour that might be harmful to others.

(2) Bullying is verbal or physical conduct that over a period of time, continuously and systematically:

- (i) Intimidates, shows hostility, threatens and offends others;
- (ii) Interferes with a worker's performance;
- (iii) Otherwise adversely affects others.

(3) An employee who wishes to pursue a concern arising from alleged bullying may submit a complaint in writing, within fifteen (15) days of the latest alleged occurrence, through the Union or directly to the Administrator or their designate (the "Administrator"). Complaints of this nature shall be treated in strict confidence by the employees involved, the Union and the Employer.

(4) Immediate defusing, debriefing where deemed appropriate will be made available to employees, by qualified practitioners, at no cost to the affected employee.

(5) The parties will make every reasonable effort to find a remedy. Once the remedy is agreed, it will be implemented within fifteen (15) days.

(6) An employee in need of assistance may call WorkSafeBC Critical Incident Response pager. The Employer will post the current pager contact information in the workplace.

ARTICLE 2 - UNION RECOGNITION AND RIGHTS

2.1 Bargaining Unit Defined

The "bargaining unit" shall comprise all employees included in the certification dated September 8, 1998.

2.2 Bargaining Agent or Recognition

The Employer recognizes the B.C. General Employees' Union (BCGEU) as the exclusive bargaining agent for all employees to whom the certification issued by the Canada Industrial Relations Board on September 8, 1998 applies.

2.3 Correspondence

The Employer agrees that all correspondence between the Employer and the Union related to matters covered in this agreement shall be sent to the President of the Union (or designate).

The Employer agrees that a copy of any correspondence between the Employer and any employee in the bargaining unit covered by this agreement pertaining to the interpretation or application of any clause in this agreement shall be forwarded to the President of the Union (or designate).

2.4 No Other Agreement

Subject to the authority of the Indian Act, no employee covered by this agreement shall be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the Employer or its representatives, which may conflict with the terms of this agreement.

2.5 No Discrimination for Union Activity

The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practised with respect to any employee for reason of membership or activity in the Union.

2.6 Recognition and Rights of Stewards

The Employer recognizes the Union's right to select stewards to represent employees. The Employer and the Union agree on a maximum of five (5) stewards. The Union agrees to provide the Employer with a list of the employees designated as stewards. A steward shall obtain the permission of their immediate supervisor before leaving their work to perform their duties as a steward. Leave for this purpose shall be with pay. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. On resuming their normal duties, the steward shall notify their supervisor. Duties of the steward shall include:

- (a) investigation of complaints of an urgent nature;
- (b) investigation of grievances and assisting any employee which the steward represents in preparing and presenting a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure;
- (c) attending meetings called by management;
- (d) supervision of ballot boxes and other related functions during ratification votes involving the Employer and provided the ratification vote is held on the Employer's premises;
- (e) carrying out duties within the realm of assigned safety responsibilities for stewards who are members of safety committees;
- (f) attending meetings called by management;
- (g) other responsibilities as needed.

2.7 Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide bulletin board facilities for the exclusive use of the Union and place them in all staff rooms. The use of such bulletin board facilities shall be restricted to the business affairs of the Union.

2.8 Union Insignia

A union member shall have the right to wear or display recognized insignia of the Union.

2.9 Right to Refuse to Cross Picket Lines

All employees covered by this agreement shall have the right to refuse to cross a picket line arising out of a dispute as defined by the Canada Labour Code. Any employee failing to report for duty shall be considered to be absent without pay. Failure to cross a picket line encountered in carrying out the Employer's business shall not be considered a violation of this agreement nor shall it be grounds for disciplinary action.

2.10 Time Off for Union Business(a) Without Pay:

Leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority will be granted subject to operational requirements:

- (1) to an elected or appointed representative of the Union to attend conventions of the Union and bodies to which the Union is affiliated;
- (2) for elected or appointed representatives of the Union to attend to union business which requires them to leave their general work area;
- (3) to employees called by the Union to appear as witnesses before an arbitration board;
- (4) for employees who are representatives of the Union on a bargaining committee to attend meetings of the Bargaining Committee and to carry on negotiations with the Employer;
- (5) Local Union Meetings: The Employer agrees to allow employees to meet four (4) times a year in the Student Cultural Building at 3:30 p.m. for the purpose of attending union meetings without loss of pay. The Union agrees to notify the Employer of the dates of such meetings at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting.

(b) With Pay:

Leave of absence with pay and without loss of seniority will be granted:

- (1) to stewards, to perform their duties pursuant to Clause 2.6;
- (2) to employees who are representatives of the Union on the Labour-Management Committee pursuant to Article 28.

To facilitate the administration of this clause, when leave without pay is granted, the leave shall be given with pay and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for the appropriate salary and benefit costs, including travel time incurred. Leave of absence granted under this clause shall include sufficient travel time. The Union shall provide the Employer with reasonable notice prior to the commencement of leave under this clause. It is understood that employees granted leave of absence pursuant to this clause shall receive their current rate of pay while on leave of absence with pay. The Employer agrees that any of the above-noted leaves of absence shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(c) Unpaid Leave - Union Business or Full-Time Union or Public Duties:

- (1) for employees elected to a full-time position with the Union for a period of one (1) year;
- (2) for an employee elected to the position of president or treasurer of the B.C. General Employees' Union (BCGEU);
- (3) for an employee elected to anybody to which the Union is affiliated for a period of one (1) year and the leave shall be renewed upon request;

- (4) for employees to seek election in a municipal, provincial, federal or First Nations election for a maximum period of ninety (90) days;
- (5) for employees elected to a public office for a maximum period of five (5) years.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION SECURITY

3.1 Union Membership

- (a) All employees in the bargaining unit who on September 8, 1998 were members of the Union or thereafter became members of the Union, shall, as a condition of continued employment, maintain such membership.
- (b) All employees hired on or after September 8, 1998 shall, as a condition of continued employment, become members of the Union and maintain such membership, upon completion of thirty (30) calendar days as an employee.
- (c) Nothing in this agreement shall be construed as requiring a person who was an employee prior to September 8, 1998 to become a member of the Union.

3.2 Bargaining Unit Work

It is not the policy or practice of the Employer to have excluded classes of employees perform work normally assigned to employees covered by this agreement, except that Principals and Managers may be assigned teaching duties or other bargaining unit work based on good faith, operational requirements and should their Administrative FTE permit.

ARTICLE 4 - CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

- (a) The Employer shall, as a condition of employment, deduct from the monthly wages or salary of each employee in the bargaining unit, whether or not the employee is a member of the Union, the amount of the regular monthly dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union. Each employee shall sign a Dues Authorization Check-off form.
- (b) The Employer shall deduct from any employee who is a member of the Union any assessments levied in accordance with the Union Constitution and/or Bylaws and owing by the employee to the Union.
- (c) Deduction shall be made biweekly. Membership dues or payments in lieu thereof shall be considered as owing in the month for which they are so deducted.
- (d) Before the Employer is obliged to deduct any amount under Section (a) of this article, the Union must advise the Employer in writing of the amount of its regular monthly dues. The amount so advised shall continue to be the amount to be deducted until changed by further written notice to the Employer signed by the staff representative of the Union. Upon receipt of such notice, such changed amount shall be the amount deducted.
- (e) The Employer shall supply each employee a T4 slip that contains the amount of deductions paid to the Union by the employee in the previous year. The T4 slips shall be provided to the employees prior to March 1st of the succeeding year.
- (f) The Employer will provide the Union in July of each year a report of employees who have ceased employment and the Record of Employment (ROE) Code used in Block of the ROE form for each of those employees.

- (g) The Employer will provide the Union with regular union remittances electronically.

ARTICLE 5 - EMPLOYER AND UNION SHALL ACQUAINT EMPLOYEES

The Employer shall notify by email the steward(s) of new employees, and of their primary work location within ten (10) days of the hire of the new employee.

New employees will receive a "letter of hire". The letter will be copied to the union representative and will include: date of hire, position, wage rate, name of shop steward(s) and contact information of shop steward(s).

The union steward will be given thirty (30) minutes to meet with the new employee, at a time specified by the shop steward to review the membership application card, acquaint new employees with the provisions of this agreement and the benefits and duties of union membership and the employee's responsibilities.

The Employer may establish a program or system to acquaint new employees with the policies, procedures and philosophy of the WSÁNEĆ School Board, and with the history, culture and traditions of the WSÁNEĆ People. The Employer's orientation program may include cultural ceremonies and may include the participation of elders and the broader WSÁNEĆ community.

ARTICLE 6 - EMPLOYER'S RIGHTS

The Union acknowledges that the management and directing of the employees in the bargaining unit is retained by the Employer except as this agreement otherwise specifies.

ARTICLE 7 - EMPLOYER-UNION RELATIONS

7.1 Representation

No employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without proper authorization of the Union. To implement this, the Union shall supply the Employer with the names of its officers and, similarly, the Employer shall supply the Union with a list of its supervisory or other personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

7.2 Union Bargaining Committees

A union bargaining committee shall not exceed five (5) members of the bargaining unit, but shall include members of the staff of the Union when negotiating with the Employer.

7.3 Union Representatives

The Employer agrees that access to its premises will be granted to members of the staff of the Union when dealing or negotiating with the Employer, as well as for the purpose of investigating and assisting in the settlement of a grievance.

Members of union staff shall notify the excluded designated supervisory official in advance of their intention and their purpose for entry and shall not interfere with the operation of the section concerned. In order to facilitate the orderly, as well as the confidential investigation of grievances, the Employer will attempt to make available to union representatives or stewards temporary use of an office or similar facility.

7.4 Technical Information

The Employer agrees to provide to the Union such information that is available relating to employees in the bargaining unit, as may be required by the Union for collective bargaining purposes.

ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCES8.1 Grievance Procedure

(a) The Employer and Union acknowledge and recognize the traditions, culture and values of the WSÁNEĆ people including the role of elders in resolving a grievance through traditional aboriginal methods of conflict resolution under the grievance procedure regarding the interpretation, operation or alleged violation of a provision of this agreement or the discipline, suspension or dismissal of an employee bound by this agreement.

(b) The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise concerning:

(1) Differences between the parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation, or any alleged violation of a provision of this agreement, or arbitral award, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration.

(2) The dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an employee bound by this agreement. The procedure for resolving a grievance shall be the grievance procedure in this article.

8.2 Step 1

(a) In the event that a dispute arises between the Employer and an employee, every effort shall be made to resolve the dispute through discussion between the Employer and employee. An employee may elect to process a grievance through traditional WSÁNEĆ methods of conflict resolution or through the grievance procedure. The aggrieved employee shall have the right to have their steward present at such a discussion.

(b) When a grievance is to be addressed through traditional WSÁNEĆ method of conflict resolution, the Employer, Union and employee must agree to the approach.

(c) When the grievance procedure is selected, an employee shall have the right to have a steward present at such discussions. If the dispute is not resolved, the employee may submit a written grievance, through the Union steward, to Step 2 of the grievance procedure within ten (10) days of making the decision to opt for the grievance procedure.

8.3 Step 2

The Employer and union steward or staff representative of the Union shall meet to discuss and attempt to resolve the grievance within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance by the Employer.

8.4 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

In the event that the Employer and Union are unable to resolve the grievance through the traditional WSÁNEĆ method of conflict resolution or at Step 2, the grievance shall be submitted to arbitration within thirty (30) days after the date of the Step 2 grievance meeting and the party submitting the matter to arbitration shall advise the other party in writing.

8.5 Extension

The time limits to file and resolve a grievance or submit the grievance to arbitration may be extended by agreement in writing. Agreement to an extension of time will not be unreasonably denied by either party.

8.6 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

The Employer agrees that after a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer's representatives will not enter into discussion or negotiation, with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union. In the event that after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that pursuant to this article, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.

8.7 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties to this agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, an arbitration board shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

8.8 Effective Date of Settlements

Settlements reached at any step of the grievance procedure in this article shall be applied retroactively to the date of the occurrence of the action or situation, which gave rise to the grievance, but not prior to the effective date of the agreement in effect at the time of the occurrence or the date set by a board of arbitration.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION9.1 Arbitration

In the event that a grievance is submitted to arbitration, the appointment of an arbitrator shall be by mutual agreement. The parties shall give preference to qualified Indigenous persons. Should the parties be unable to reach agreement on the appointment of an arbitrator, the provisions of Section 57(4) of the Canada Labour Code shall apply to the appointment of the Arbitrator.

9.2 Decision of the Arbitrator

The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final, binding, and enforceable on the parties. The Arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of a grievance by any arrangement deemed just and equitable. However, the Arbitrator shall not have the power to change this agreement by altering, modifying or amending any provisions.

9.3 Costs

The parties to this agreement shall jointly bear the cost of the Arbitrator and each of the parties shall bear the cost of its own representatives and witnesses.

9.4 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties but the same must be in writing.

9.5 Witnesses

At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses. All reasonable arrangement will be made to permit the concerned parties or the Arbitrator(s) to have access to the Employer's premises to view any working conditions, which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

9.6 Expedited Arbitration

Subject to Clause 9.1, expedited arbitration shall refer to a system of rights arbitration incorporating procedures specifically designed to reduce delay and/or cost in the hearing and issuance of an award.

(a) All grievances shall be considered suitable for and resolved by expedited arbitration except grievances in the nature of:

- (1) dismissals;
- (2) grievances requiring substantial interpretation of a provision of the agreement;
- (3) rejection on probation;
- (4) suspensions in excess of twenty (20) workdays;
- (5) policy grievances;
- (6) grievances requiring presentation of extrinsic evidence;
- (7) grievances where a party intends to raise a preliminary objection;
- (8) demotions.

By mutual agreement, a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process.

(b) The parties shall mutually agree upon a single arbitrator, where no agreement can be reached the CIRB will appoint an arbitrator.

(c) The Arbitrator shall hear the grievance and shall render a decision within two (2) workdays of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.

(d) Expedited arbitration awards shall be of no precedential value and shall not, therefore, be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter.

(e) All settlements of expedited arbitrations shall be "without prejudice".

(f) The parties shall equally share the cost of fees and expenses of the Arbitrator and hearing room.

(g) No later than two (2) weeks prior to the scheduled hearing for each grievance, the Union and the Employer, or the Employer's designate, shall prepare a statement of agreed facts for presentation at the hearing. They will identify the names of all witnesses that they intend to call and will advise the other party of the purpose for which that witness is being called. They will also identify any preliminary issues that they intend to raise with the Arbitrator and the remedy being sought.

(h) Notwithstanding the above, either party may remove a case from the expedited process and forward it to full arbitration as per Article 9 of this agreement.

ARTICLE 10 - DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

10.1 Burden of Proof

In all cases of discipline, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer.

10.2 Dismissal

The Employer may dismiss any employee for just cause. Notice of dismissal shall be in writing and shall set forth the reasons for dismissal.

10.3 Suspension

The Employer may suspend an employee for just cause. Notice of suspension shall be in writing and shall set forth the reasons for the suspension.

10.4 Dismissal and Suspension Grievance

All dismissals and suspensions will be subject to formal grievance under Article 8 of this agreement. A copy of the written notice of dismissal or suspension shall be forwarded to the staff representative of the Union within five (5) workdays of the action being taken.

10.5 Right to Grieve Other Disciplinary Action

(a) Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand and adverse reports or performance evaluation. An employee shall be given a copy of any such document placed on the employee's file, which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in their file, which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in their file, they shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of their personnel record.

(b) Upon the employee's request any such document, other than official evaluation reports, shall be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of fifteen (15) months from the date it was issued provided there has not been a further infraction.

10.6 Evaluation Reports

(a) The purpose of employee performance evaluations is to acknowledge and support the effective delivery of educational and related services for students and their communities. All employees shall receive regular performance evaluations. Such performance evaluations shall be in writing and are to be signed by both the employee and supervisor. Evaluations may be grieved.

(b) At the beginning of each annual work year and no later than September 30 each year, employees and supervisors together will develop a professional growth plan which sets out the goals and objectives for the professional growth and development of the individual employee and take into consideration the organizational and community goals of the Board.

(c) Employee performance evaluations will include an evaluation of the extent to which their professional growth plan has been achieved, as well as the extent to which they have demonstrated a commitment to the community engagement and extracurricular goals of the Board.

10.7 Personnel File

An employee or union steward with the written authority of the employee, shall be entitled to review the employee's personnel file provided the Employer is given prior notice to having access to the file and the Employer has the option to be present during such review.

10.8 Right to Have Steward Present

(a) An employee has the right to have their steward present at any discussion with the Employer, which the employee believes might be the bases of disciplinary action.

(b) A steward shall have the right to consult with a staff representative of the Union and to have a local representative present at any discussion with supervisory personnel, which the steward has been advised might be the basis of disciplinary action against the steward providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

10.9 Rejection During Probation

- (a) The Employer may dismiss a probationary employee for just cause. The test of dismissal for just cause shall be a test of suitability for the probationary employee for continued employment in the position to which they have been appointed, provided that the factors involved in suitability could reasonably be expected to affect work performance.
- (b) The probationary period for all new employees shall be six (6) months worked or the equivalent number of hours actually worked as based on the normal hours or work, of a full-time employee, whichever occurs last.
- (c) Where an employee has been aggrieved by the decision of the Employer to reject the employee during probationary period, they may grieve the decision pursuant to the grievance procedure in Article 8 (Grievances) of this agreement commencing at Step 3.
- (d) The Employer, with the agreement of the Union, may extend the probationary period for a further period to not exceed three (3) months.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

11.1 Seniority Defined

Subject to Section 13.6 regarding purposes for which teachers on call may accrue seniority:

- (a) seniority shall mean the length of continuous service with the Employer of full-time, part-time, temporary and casual employees in the bargaining unit, including service prior to union certification;
- (b) temporary and casual employees shall accrue seniority on an hourly basis for all hours paid; and
- (c) the Employer shall maintain a service seniority list showing the date each full-time, part-time, temporary and casual employee commenced employment along with classification and increment level, and the hours paid to temporary and casual employees to the date of the list. The Employer shall provide a copy of the seniority list on September 30th and April 1st of each year and supply a copy to the shop steward. If, within thirty (30) days of posting, the Union does not dispute its accuracy, the seniority list shall be deemed accurate.

11.2 Loss of Seniority

- (a) An employee on leave of absence without pay, other than leave of absence without pay as set out in Article 2.10 shall not accrue seniority. Upon returning the employee shall receive their position back, or a position of equal rank and salary.
- (b) An employee on a claim recognized by the Workers' Compensation Board (WCB) shall be credited with service seniority equivalent to what they would have earned had they not been absent and had been able to work.
- (c) An employee shall lose their seniority as an employee in the event that:
 - (1) they are discharged for just cause;
 - (2) they voluntarily terminate employment;
 - (3) they are on layoff for more than one (1) year.

ARTICLE 12 - SERVICE CAREER POLICY12.1 Posting

All new or vacant positions within the bargaining unit to be filled shall be posted internally on the union bulletin board for a period of not less than ten (10) working days prior to the closing date for the filling of the position. The posting shall include the qualifications, and all information relevant to the position.

12.2 Posting and Filling of Vacancies

The Employer shall post a vacant position with existing employees at the same time will advertise within the communities of the WSÁNEĆ people. Then where there are no qualified applicants, the Employer shall post external to the communities of the WSÁNEĆ people all regular full-time and part-time vacant positions describing the position, the location of the vacancy, the date of commencement, and the required qualifications. The Employer shall post and advertise a vacancy at least fourteen (14) calendar days in advance of selection.

Subject to Article 1.2, in filling such vacant regular positions, appointments shall be made to the employee or person with the required qualifications, level of competence, and efficiency as required by the position. Membership in WSÁNEĆ community is a preferred qualification, as is First Nations ancestry. A proven commitment to participation in extracurricular and community engagement activities is a desirable qualification. Where the selection is between two (2) employees and such requirements are equal, seniority will be the determining factor.

12.3 Seniority on Promotions and Transfers

Subject to Article 1.2, the parties agree that all promotions and transfers within the bargaining unit shall be made on the basis of seniority provided an employee has the necessary qualifications, skill, knowledge and ability for the position.

12.4 Qualifying Period on Promotions and Transfers

If an employee is promoted or transferred to a vacant position, then the employee shall be considered a qualifying employee in their new position and will not be required to serve a probationary period. A qualifying employee shall be subject to a thirty (30) day qualifying period. In the event that a qualifying employee fails to pass the qualifying period, the employee shall be returned to their former position.

12.5 Interviews

An applicant for a posted position with the Employer who is not on a leave of absence without pay and who has been called for an interview shall suffer no loss of basic earnings to attend. Should an employee require a leave of absence from duties for the interview, their supervisor shall be notified as soon as the requirement to appear for the interview is made known.

ARTICLE 13 - LAYOFF AND RECALL13.1 Definition of a Layoff

"Layoff" is:

- (a) a cessation of employment or elimination of a job resulting from a reduction of the amount of work required to be done by the Employer, or reorganization, or a program termination, or closure or other material change in organization; or

(b) a reduction in hours of work greater than four (4) hours per week from the employees' posted position, or that results in the elimination of health and welfare benefits, or that results in a change in the employees' status.

13.2 Layoff Process

The Employer may lay off any employee for budgetary reasons, lack of work, or operational restructuring. The Employer shall lay off employees on the basis of seniority, qualifications and job classification. In the event of such a layoff, the Employer shall provide written notice of layoff to the employee or employees affected and a copy of such notice will be sent to the Union.

Any employee who is subject to layoff shall have the right to bump into a position in accordance with their seniority provided that they possess the necessary ability, experience and qualifications to perform the duties of the new position.

An employee subject to layoff shall not be entitled to bump up or to be assigned to fill a vacancy for a higher paid position.

(a) Pre Layoff Canvass

(1) Before a layoff occurs, the Employer will consult with the Union to discuss lessening disruption to clients and staff, and ways of encouraging and promoting retention of WSÁNEĆ community members and First Nations staff. Prior to the layoff of regular employees under Article 13.2 (Layoff), the Employer will canvass employees in order to invite:

- (i) placement on the casual call-in and recall lists with no loss of seniority; or
- (ii) early retirement where eligible; or
- (iii) other voluntary options, as agreed to by the Union and the Employer.

Where more than one (1) employee expresses interest in one (1) of the above options, they will be offered to qualified employees on the basis of seniority, with consideration for encouraging and promoting retention of WSÁNEĆ community members and First Nations staff.

(2) Responses from employees to the Pre-Layoff Canvass will only be received by the Employer for consideration if submitted within seven (7) days of issuance of a written notice to the employee or group of employees.

(3) Where an employee selects an option, once confirmed in writing by the employee and the Employer, such acceptance is final and binding upon the employee and the Employer. The Employer will notify the Union of the employee's selection.

13.3 Advance Notice

The Employer will provide written notice and/or pay in lieu of notice to a regular employee who is to be laid off prior to the effective date of layoff according to one (1) of the following provisions:

- (a) one (1) weeks' notice and/or pay in lieu of notice after three (3) consecutive months of employment; or
- (b) two (2) weeks' notice and/or pay in lieu of notice after twelve (12) consecutive months of employment; or
- (c) three (3) weeks' notice and/or pay in lieu of notice after two (2) consecutive years of employment, plus one (1) additional week for each year of employment, to a maximum of eight (8) weeks' notice and/or pay in lieu of notice.

13.4 Recall for Full-Time and Part-Time Employees

- (a) Full-time or part-time employees who are laid off and opt to be put on the recall list shall be placed on a recall list for one (1) year.
- (b) Subject to Article 1.2, a full-time or part-time employee who opts to remain on the recall list shall be recalled in order of service seniority provided they possess the skills and abilities to perform the job.
- (c) The Employer will attempt to reach the full-time or part-time employee for position(s) by telephone, email and registered mail for one (1) workweek.
- (d) It is the responsibility of the laid off full-time or part-time employee to ensure that the Employer is kept notified of their current mailing address, telephone, email and availability.
- (e) Subject to Article 1.2, if the recalled employee with the most service seniority is unavailable or refuses work, the employee with the next highest service seniority who possesses the skills and abilities to perform the job shall be recalled.
- (f) Full-time or part-time employees have the right to be put on the temporary recall list if they advise the Employer in writing.
- (g) New employees will not be hired into a regular position until those laid off in that classification have been given the opportunity of recall.

13.5 Recall Casual and Temporary Employees

Casual and temporary employees are subject to the same hiring process as regular full-time and part-time employees. Casual and temporary employees are placed on a recall list for the purpose of being called to fill casual and temporary vacancies.

Recall List - The Employer shall maintain a separate recall list for temporary work. Employees shall be recalled based on their seniority, provided they possess the skills and abilities to perform the job.

ARTICLE 14 - CALL-IN PROCEDURE

14.1 Call-in Lists

Casual employees, rates of pay as per Appendix A, shall accrue seniority for the purposes of recall and for substitute opportunities as per the following casual call-in lists:

- (a) LAUWELNEW Tribal School, WSÁNEĆ Leadership Secondary, and Adult Education Centre
- (b) SLELEMW Child Development Centre
- (c) SENĆOŦEN Language and Cultural Program
- (d) Clerical
- (e) Bus Drivers
- (f) Operations and Maintenance

14.2 Call-in Procedures

- (a) Teacher on-Call (TOC) Call-in Procedure

TOC teachers will be required by September 15th each year to provide the Employer with their availability for the school year on the document provided by the Employer.

If the Employer does not receive the completed form by September 16th, the TOC will be moved to the bottom of the seniority list for the purpose of call-in.

After completion and submission of the TOC availability form and if a TOC declines or does not respond to three (3) call-ins which they have stated on their availability form that they were available for work, they will be moved to the bottom of the seniority list.

If after the completion of their ability form for the year, changes can be made to availability on a monthly basis no later than the 30th of each month, if the Employer has not received a change of availability, and the TOC fails to report to work when called in they will be moved to the bottom of the casual list after three (3) declines, or no answer to phone calls left for them.

If after six (6) months a TOC has not worked they will have been considered to have resigned their position with WSÁNEĆ School Board, and notification will be mailed to the TOC confirming their resignation.

Teachers doing call-ins for TOC will keep a log book, with date, time of call, shift declined, or if no answer. Once three (3) shifts have declined or not available, the Teacher will notify the Principal and a copy of the log book.

Teachers, Education Assistants shall specify, in writing, three (3) on call staff, in order of preference, seniority, qualifications and suitability and will be responsible to document the above.

(b) SENĆOŦEN Immersion Call-in Procedures

Priority for call-ins for the SENĆOŦEN Immersion program will be given first to certified SENĆOŦEN Teachers, then to another employee that has demonstrated proficiency in the SENĆOŦEN language, and finally to a non- SENĆOŦEN speaking TOC.

(c) Call-in Procedure for All Other Classifications

All casual employees are required to complete an availability list for the school year.

In the event a casual employee on the casual call-in list declines or fails to respond to a call-in, as per their availability, on three (3) separate occasions, that employee will move to the bottom of the seniority list. The Employer will maintain logbooks that record date, time, shift available, decline or no answer.

If the employee does not accept any call-in shifts for a period of six (6) months they will be considered to resign. The Employer, will sent out a letter to each employee notifying them of their resignation.

ARTICLE 15 - HOURS OF WORK

15.1 Annual School Year

The Employer provides educational services to its students from the first week in September to the last week in June (the School Year).

Spring Break will be scheduled annually, as per School District 63, and shall be as set out in this agreement and consistent with past practice. In the event there is a second week of spring break, hours of work shall be in accordance with MOU #4.

In the event the Employer determines that educational services, curriculum development or other work is required to be performed outside of the regular School Year, the Employer will post for term summer positions to be filled in accordance with Article 12.

15.2 Flexible Hours of Work

Where it is necessary for operational requirements to change the start and finish times of a regular workweek for staff, the Employer shall provide forty-eight (48) hours' notice of any such changes and such change shall be with mutual agreement of the employee except where the change is of less than thirty (30) minutes.

15.3 Hours of Work(a) LAUWELNEW Tribal School and WSÁNEĆ Leadership Secondary

During the school year, the LAUWELNEW Tribal School and WSÁNEĆ Leadership Secondary are normally open Monday to Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Instructional start and end times will be set by administration at the beginning of the school year based on statutory, operational and transportation requirements.

Teaching staff are required to work an annual work year which commences on the week immediately previous to the start of school for students and ends the last week of attendance for students. Within the first week of work, teachers will be only required to attend at the school for three (3) days, one of which will be reserved for cultural ceremonies and education regarding the history, culture and traditions of the WSÁNEĆ People.

Within the annual work year, teaching staff are required to be at the school to undertake instructional and supervisory responsibilities from Monday to Thursday, 8:00 a.m. to 2:45 p.m. and Friday 8:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

It is recognized that the job of teaching includes professional responsibilities, which may require time outside of the instructional and supervisory hours. Teachers may be requested to be at the school after instructional hours at the request of the Principal or administration to address student, organizational, or administrative issues.

Parent/teacher interviews will be held consecutively during the day of interviews, with no split shifts. Teachers may report to work late, as per the normal hours of work in a day (six and one-quarter [6¼] hours), to accommodate meeting with parents after regular school hours.

The Employer recognizes that hours of work beyond supervision and instruction should be both reasonable and flexible so as to balance professional responsibility and the health and wellbeing of the employee.

Teaching Assistants are required to work an annual work year, which commences the week immediately previous to the start of school for students and ends at the end of the last week of attendance for students. School Secretaries are required to work Monday to Friday beginning approximately thirty (30) minutes before the start of instruction and ending eight (8) hours later, with a one (1) hour lunch break. The high school Secretary is required to work Monday to Friday, beginning approximately thirty (30) minutes before the start of instruction and ending seven and one-half (7½) hours later, with a one-half (½) hour lunch break.

(b) Adult Education Centre

Staff in the Adult Education Center are required to work an annual work year, which commences in the last week of August and ends in the last week of June. Within the annual work year, the non-instructional staff works a regular workweek from Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

It is recognized that adult education requires flexibility in terms of time and place of instruction. Prior to the start of the School Year, classes will be scheduled by the Employer, in consultation with teachers and with the WSÁNEĆ community, at times and places that best meet the needs of the community and the employees. For greater certainty, the Employer may assign teachers in the Adult Education Centre to teach classes outside of regular school hours, including evening classes and in locations outside the Adult Education Centre, but instructional and supervisory hours will not exceed six point five (6.5) hours per day or thirty-two point five (32.5) hours per week, exclusive of break times.

(c) Bus Drivers

Bus Drivers are required to work an annual work year, which commences the first day of the School year and ends the last School day in June. A Bus Driver shall be paid for time spent driving the vehicle according to the schedule set by Management, plus the allotted time below:

(1)	Safety Checks/Warm up Times	35 minutes per day
(2)	Fueling Times and Scheduling Adjustments.....	15 minutes per day
(3)	Rest Breaks	30 minutes per day
(4)	Cleaning/Washing	15 minutes per day

A regular day of employment for a Bus Driver will not exceed eight (8) hours per day.

(d) Administration Secretaries

Secretaries that work in administration are required to work an annual work year from September 1 to August 31. Within the annual work year, the regular workday for administrative/clerical staff is normally Monday to Friday; 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. with a one (1) hour lunch break or the equivalent if the hours of the school day should change. This provision does not apply to School Secretaries.

(e) Maintenance Staff

Maintenance employees are required to work an annual work year from September 1 to August 31. Within the annual work year, the regular workweek for the following classifications, regular workweek is normally as follows:

Grounds Keeper - Monday to Friday, 6:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. with a thirty (30) minute lunch break.

Building Maintenance - Monday to Friday, 7:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. with a thirty (30) minute lunch break.

Custodian - Monday to Friday, up to eight (8) hours per day based on a schedule to be determined by the Employer, in consultation with custodians, in order to meet the operational needs of the Employer. For greater certainty, the schedule may include split shifts provided no part of the split is less than two (2) hours.

(f) SLELEMW Child Development Centre

The SLELEMW Child Development Centre is open Monday to Friday with Children being present from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Child Development Centre Staff are required to work an annual work year which commences the week immediately previous to the start of school for students and ends at the end of the last week of attendance for students.

The hiring rate of pay for a new employee shall not be higher than the rate of pay for an existing employee in the same classification with similar work experience, training and education.

27.7 Reimbursement of Reasonable Expenses

Teachers and other school staff shall be reimbursed for materials purchased for use in the classroom as approved by the Employer.

ARTICLE 28 - CLASSIFICATION & RECLASSIFICATION

Upon written request, an employee shall be entitled to a complete and current statement of the duties and responsibilities of their position, including the position's classification level for salary purposes.

Each employee will be provided with a copy of the job description for their position.

Where the Employer establishes a new position within the bargaining unit, the Employer and Union will meet to discuss the wage rate for the new position. If the Union does not object to the wage rate within ten (10) days of the meeting, the wage rate is deemed to be agreed to after the ten (10) day period. In the event that the Union wishes to challenge the appropriate rate for the new position, the matter may be resolved through the grievance and arbitration procedure.

ARTICLE 29 - LABOUR-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE29.1 Responsibilities (Objectives)

The Labour-Management Committee provides a forum in which union and employer concerns or problems may be addressed and discussed informally outside of negotiations or grievance/arbitration procedures. The Committee shall endeavour to maintain harmony between the Employer and its employees, establish a means of open communication, solve problems and provide feedback on management practices and labour activities.

29.2 Membership

The minimum size of this committee shall be two (2) employer representatives and two (2) union representatives. Employer representatives shall be appointed by the Employer and union representatives appointed by the Union and will generally be any two (2) of the Bargaining Committee responsible for negotiating the current collective agreement.

29.3 Procedure

The Employer and Union shall be responsible for mutually arranging the agenda, time, dates and location for meetings. Meetings will be held at least once every ninety (90) calendar days, or at the call of either party, at a mutually agreeable time and place. The Committee shall appoint a chairperson and such chairperson shall rotate between the Employer and union representatives. Minutes of the meetings shall be kept and these minutes should be approved by both parties.

ARTICLE 30 - GENERAL CONDITIONS30.1 Payroll Deductions

- (a) An employee shall be entitled to have deductions from their salary assigned for the purchase of additional life insurance from the Employer's carrier and/or RRSPs provided there is no additional cost to the Employer.

- (b) In order to ensure the continuity of benefits, unless exceptional circumstances exist, salaries will be paid in twenty-six (26) pay periods.

30.2 Copies of the Agreement

The Employer and Union desire every employee to be familiar with the provisions of this agreement and their rights and obligations under it. For this reason, the Employer shall make copies of the agreement for distribution by stewards.

A final collective agreement including all changes made will be signed by parties within three (3) months after ratification.

- (a) The Union will submit to the Employer a draft for proofing within one (1) month of ratification;
- (b) The Employer will submit to the Union all its amendments to the draft within one (1) month of receiving the draft from the Union.

Only two (2) originally signed agreements are necessary, one (1) for the Union's File Registry and one (1) for the Employer.

30.3 Supplies and Specialized Clothing

The Employer will make available all necessary equipment, materials, specialized clothing and supplies for employees as required and shall be responsible for such equipment, materials, specialized clothing and supplies.

30.4 Transportation of Children or Clients

With the exception of the position of Home School Coordinator and Special Needs Assistant, no employee shall be required to transport children or clients in their personal vehicle.

Where an employee's position requires that they transport children or clients in their personal vehicle, the Employer will pay the cost of any additional insurance the employee is required to hold pursuant to the Employer's policy.

30.5 Staff Confidentiality

Any confidential personal information about employees of the Employer, which is directly learned by the Employer in the normal course of business, will be treated as strictly confidential and the Employer shall take all reasonable precautions to safeguard it.

ARTICLE 31 - EDUCATIONAL STAFF

31.1 Recognition of Objectives and Principles

- (a) The WSÁNEĆ School Board and the WSÁNEĆ School Board teaching staff need to work jointly and collaboratively to deliver educational services in accordance with the Mission, Guiding Principles, Philosophy and Traditional Indian Code of Ethics developed by the WSÁNEĆ people.
- (b) The goal is to deliver and maintain academic standards and educational services in accordance with the Mission, Guiding Principles, Philosophy and Traditional Indian Ethics developed by the WSÁNEĆ peoples.
- (c) The Employer promotes and encourages the involvement of all WSÁNEĆ School Board staff as part of their professional responsibility as educators to foster effective communication with parents and families via channels such as participation in school and community related events, familiarization with WSÁNEĆ culture, parent visits and to work to strengthen the involvement of the WSÁNEĆ people in the education of their children during the annual school year as defined in Article 14.1 (Hours of Work).

- (d) The Employer welcomes and requires parent involvement in the WSÁNEĆ School Board; and
- (e) The Employer strives to provide reasonable processes for its staff that are consistent with the provision of the highest quality of education for its students.

31.2 Instructional Schedule

The instructional schedule for each School year shall be determined by the Principal following consultation with the teaching staff.

Class sizes shall be set in accordance with the Employer's Policy on Class Sizes. The Employer shall consult with the joint Union/Management Committee on any changes to this Policy.

31.3 SENĆOŦEN Instruction

All LAUWELNEW teaching staff are expected to accompany their class to Language and Cultural Program instruction and all LAUWELNEW teaching staff are expected to remain in the classroom during SENĆOŦEN instruction. All staff are expected to be positive and supportive role models in encouraging their classes to learn the SENĆOŦEN language.

31.4 Professional Development

Subject to available funding, all LAUWELNEW School and High School teaching staff will be entitled to five (5) days for professional development activities. Daycare staff will receive, with pay, eight (8) hours of professional training each year. School teaching staff shall participate in all professional development activities unless on an approved leave of absence. All professional development activities, including in-service training, curriculum development shall be scheduled by the Principal in consultation with teaching staff as per Article 26.1 Education Assistance/Capacity Enhancement.

Professional Development days will end at the regular scheduled workday.

31.5 Supervision

All School staff are required to participate in student supervision in the morning, at lunch and after school.

The supervision schedule shall be set annually by the Principal in consultation with school staff and will provide for the equitable distribution of the duties of student supervision among teachers, para-professionals and other school staff.

31.6 Staff Meetings

All teaching staff are required to attend a monthly staff meeting normally scheduled the first Tuesday of every month during the school year, which will end no later than 4:00 p.m.

31.7 Preparation Time

"Preparation time" is a scheduled period of the school day when teachers can, individually or collaboratively, plan and prepare for their classes, grade assignments, create or update curriculum, or otherwise engage in activities that further their professional responsibilities and ability to meet the Professional Standards for BC Educators.

- (a) Elementary teachers shall be entitled to an average of one hundred ten (110) minutes of preparation time per week.

- (b) A full-time teachers assigned to WSÁNEĆ Leadership Secondary or the Adult Learning Centre shall be entitled to a minimum of twelve and one-half percent (12 ½%) of the instructional time at their school.
- (c) Part-time classroom teachers with an assignment of 0.4 FTE or more shall be entitled to pro-rated non-instructional preparation time.
- (d) Preparation time will be allotted in blocks of not less than twenty (20) minutes.
- (e) For Elementary and WSÁNEĆ Leadership Secondary teachers, Friday 1:30 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. may be used for preparation time or for collaborative and other staff meetings, at the option of the Principal.
- (f) The schedule for each school shall be determined by its Principal or Director after consultation with the teaching staff, and shall identify preparation time in addition to instructional, supervisory, and collaborative/meeting time. In order to address operational and educational needs, the parties agree to approach issues of scheduling with flexibility, understanding, and a willingness to adapt to the ongoing and changing needs of the organization.

31.8 Reporting Requirements

All teaching staff are required to prepare regular reporting to parents on the progress of their children and to meet the reporting and record requirements as stipulated in the WSÁNEĆ School Board Practice.

31.9 Complaints

- (a) All complaints against staff, including complaints by students, will be in writing and provided to the staff immediately upon employer notification. The complaint shall be investigated by the Employer, who shall involve the staff in each step of the investigation. Any actions taken by the Employer shall be subject to the grievance procedure. Staff accused of misconduct and subsequently found to be not guilty shall be assisted to the fullest possible extent by the Employer in assuring the staff's successful return to work.
- (b) The parties agree that in certain situations it may be in the best interest of both students and employees that employees be reassigned or removed from the worksite during an investigation of conduct. In cases where an employee cannot be reassigned, then the employee shall be considered to be on leave of absence without loss of pay until the Employer has determined that is a prima facie case for imposing discipline.
- (c) The Employer will make every effort to complete its investigation within fourteen (14) days. The Employer will provide the Union with a summary of the investigation report. This summary sheet is on a "without prejudice" basis and shall not be referred to by either party in any third party proceedings.
- (d) The Employer agrees to, upon request, provide a clear written statement exonerating staff found to be falsely accused.

31.10 Severe Student Behaviour

Where a Teacher has been physically or verbally abused by a student, that Teacher shall refer the student to the Principal who will investigate the concern and take appropriate corrective measures. In every case, the Principal shall involve the Teacher, student and parent/guardian in the corrective plan.

33.4 Changes in Agreement

Any change deemed necessary in this agreement may be made by mutual agreement at any time during the life of this agreement.

Agreement to continue in force. Both parties shall adhere fully to the terms of this agreement during the period of bona fide collective bargaining.

ARTICLE 32 - EXTRA-CURRICULAR AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT ACTIVITIES

32.1 Vision of Board

In addition to an employee's regular job duties and responsibilities, employees are expected to contribute to the overall goals and vision of the WSÁNEĆ School Board.

32.2 Community Engagement

(a) The parties recognize that parents, family, leaders, elders and the broader WSÁNEĆ community are integral partners in the education of the community's students, and that the Board, management and staff have a shared responsibility to engage with this broader WSÁNEĆ community throughout the School Year.

(b) Community engagement is an ongoing responsibility, but includes participation in specific community engagement events such as Make-and-Take, Christmas Concert, Family Night, Open House, Talent Show, Parent Fair and School Opening Celebration.

(c) All staff are expected to attend at least two (2) community engagement events per school year to be held in the evening, which events will be chosen by the administration in consultation with staff.

32.3 Extra-Curricular Activities

(a) All teaching staff are expected to participate in at least two (2) extra-curricular activities per school year, to be selected from a list of activities prepared by the Employer prior to the start of the School Year, in consultation with teachers, or such other activities as may be approved by the Administrator.

(b) Extra-curricular activities include, but are not limited to, sponsorship or coaching of clubs, sports or arts outside of regular instructional hours.

(c) While involved in extra-curricular activities, staff shall be considered to be acting in the employ of the Employer for the purposes of liability coverage under the Employer's insurance.

ARTICLE 33 - TERM OF AGREEMENT

33.1 Duration

This agreement shall be binding and remain in effect to midnight August 31, 2024.

33.2 Notice to Bargain

(a) This agreement may be opened for collective bargaining by either party giving written notice to the other party on or after March 31, 2024, but in any event not later than midnight, August 31, 2024.

(b) Where no notice is given by either party prior to August 31, 2024, both parties shall be deemed to have given notice under this section on August 31, 2024 and thereupon Clause 32.3 of this agreement applies.

All notices on behalf of the Union shall be given by the staff representative of the Union and similar notice on behalf of the Employer shall be given by the Human Resources Manager.

33.3 Commencement of Bargaining

Where a party to this agreement has given notice under Clause 32.2 of this agreement, the parties shall, within thirty (30) calendar days after the notice was given, commence collective bargaining. This time frame may be extended by mutual agreement but the same must be in writing.
