ARTICLE 1 - INTRODUCTION

1.01 PURPOSE

- (a) The purpose of this Agreement is to set forth and establish the terms and conditions of employment for those Employees who come within the scope of this Agreement, so that stable and harmonious relationships may be established and maintained between the Employer and the Union, to the mutual benefit of the Parties to this Agreement.
- (b) Further, the purpose of the Agreement is to facilitate the peaceful adjustment of all disputes and grievances in accordance with Article 21 and Article 22 of this Agreement, to prevent strikes, lockouts, slowdowns or other interferences with work, unnecessary expense, and avoidable delays in carrying out the most efficient and effective operations of the Employer's business, and to enhance the living standards and working conditions of the Employees.

1.02 GENDER REFERENCES

All articles and Articles referred to in this Agreement apply equally to all Employees.

1.03 SPECIAL NATURE OF THE HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY

The Parties recognize and agree that the special nature of the hospitality industry dictates special and particular considerations in relation to the terms and conditions for the members of the Union employed by the Employer. These special and particular considerations are dictated by a need to ensure that the public will be attracted to the Employer's place of business and the public will view favourably the standards of service provided by the Employer, to the mutual benefit of the Parties to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2 - DURATION AND INTEGRITY OF AGREEMENT

2.01 DURATION

- (a) This Agreement will be effective May 1, 2021 to and including April 30, 2024.

Thereafter, the Agreement will continue in full force and effect from year to year subject to the right of either Party to serve notice to commence bargaining as provided for in the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.
- (b) During the period when negotiations are being conducted between the Parties for the renewal of this Agreement, the present Agreement will continue in full force and effect until:
 - (i) the Union commences a legal strike; or
 - (ii) the Employer commences a legal lockout; or
 - (iii) the Parties enter into a new or further Agreement.

2.02 LABOUR RELATIONS CODE - SECTION 50 (2) AND 50 (3) EXCLUDED

The operation of Section 50 (2) and 50 (3) of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia is hereby excluded.

2.03 STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

The Union agrees during the term of this Agreement there will be no slowdown or strike, stoppage of work or refusal to work or to continue to work. The Employer agrees that during the term of this Agreement there will be no lockout.

2.04 CONTRACTED SERVICES

The Employer agrees that work normally performed by members of the Bargaining Unit will not be contracted to third Parties. This prohibition is not intended to limit the Employer's ability to contract out the following functions:

- night cleaning;
- painting;
- indoor and outdoor vegetation maintenance;
- security (SC);
- contracted Banquet Servers and Bartenders;
- Shuttle Driver.

2.05 EXTENT

- (a) The Parties recognize and agree that they cannot be obligated or bound by any term, condition or provision, which would be contrary to any existing federal or provincial legislation or regulations passed pursuant thereto. In the event that any term, condition or provision, or part thereof, which is incorporated into this Agreement, whether be inadvertence, error or misunderstanding, is in fact or in law contrary to such federal or provincial legislation or regulation, then such term, condition or provision or part thereof, is void and of no effect.
- (b) In the event that existing federal or provincial legislation makes invalid any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions will remain in effect for the term of the Agreement. The Employer and the Union will confer to settle upon a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision(s) so altered or invalidated.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION RECOGNITION

3.01 RECOGNITION OF EXCLUSIVE BARGAINING AGENT

- (a) The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for the Employees in the Bargaining Unit described in the certification issued by the Labour Relations Board, subject to the exclusions subsequently ordered by the Labour Relations Board or recognized by the Parties.
- (b) For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "Employee" or "Employees" will be understood to mean those persons employed by the Employer for whom the Union is the recognized bargaining agent in (a) above.

- (c) The Employer agrees there will be no discrimination exercised or practised with respect to any Employee by reason of their membership in the Union or participation in its activities.

3.02 REFUSAL TO WORK WITH NON-UNION EMPLOYEES AND RECOGNITION OF LEGAL PICKET LINES

- (a) Except in the circumstances set out in Article 2.04 and 3.03 of this Agreement, refusal on the part of the Union members to work with non-union Employees, pertaining to the Bargaining Unit, will not be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement. In the event that any Employee or group of Employees intends to exercise this right, the Employer must first be served with written notice in advance of the exercise of the right. The written notice must be provided by the Union office.
- (b) No Employee will be required to cross a legal picket line arising from a strike or lockout. For purposes of this Article, a "legal picket line" will mean only those picket lines expressly permitted under Section 65 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

- (b) Management may continue to perform incidental amounts of Bargaining Unit work, where such work is required by immediate and unanticipated workload situations, provided that such performance will not result in the layoff or reduction in hours for any members of the Bargaining Unit.

3.04 UNION BUTTONS

An Employee may wear the Union button without being disciplined.

3.05 FAIR LABOUR SERVICES, PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS

The Employer undertakes, wherever possible and practical, to use services, products and other materials necessary to the proper functioning of the Hotel, which are manufactured, provided or produced under fair labour conditions.

3.06 UNION HOUSE CARD

The Employer agrees to post the Union House Card in a conspicuous place.

3.07 UNION INVESTIGATION OF THE STANDING OF EMPLOYEE'S CONDITIONS

- (a) The Employer will allow the properly authorized Representative of the Union to investigate the standing of all Employees' conditions, to see that this Agreement is being enforced. The Employer is entitled to require an individual to substantiate that they are an authorized Representative of the Union.

- (b) When access is required for purposes of such investigation, the Union Representative will notify the Employer in advance.
- (c) Access will not be unreasonably denied by the Employer.
- (d) The investigation must not result in any disruption with the Employer's operations of affairs, and it must not result in any Employee(s) neglecting their work duties and responsibilities.

3.08 BULLETIN BOARDS

The Union will have the exclusive use of one (1) latched bulletin board provided by the Company, which will be located in the lunchroom. This bulletin board will be used by the Union for the purpose of posting official Union notices concerning internal and administrative matters of the Union which may be of interest to members of the Bargaining Unit. All notices on the Union bulletin board will only be posted upon the authority of the Executive Committee of the Union.

- (b) All new Employees, as a condition of employment, will sign a Union Membership Application Card before commencing work.
- (c) The Union is entitled to determine the eligibility of newly hired Employees for admission into membership in the Union according to the Union's National Constitution, provided that the eligibility criteria and the manner of their administration are lawful in this Province.

- (d) The Employer will provide the Unit Chair immediately with the name, address, e-mail address (if known), telephone number, classification and first schedule of newly-hired Employees.

4.03 CHECK-OFF - ASSIGNMENT OF WAGES

- (a) All new Employees, as a condition of employment, will sign an authorization of check-off before commencing work.

4.04 CHECK-OFF PROCESS AND PROCEDURES

- (a) The Employer agrees to deduct initiation fees, union dues, fines, assessments and arrears, upon receipt of the appropriate assignment of wages form, signed by each Employee.
- (b) Upon commencement of employment, each new Employee will be required to sign the appropriate assignment of wages form. In the event that the Employer's files do not contain the necessary assignment of wages for any existing Employee, such Employees will, upon demand, sign and present the appropriate assignment of wages form.
- (c) All monies deducted from Employees' earnings pursuant to this Article, are to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Union, together with a list of Employees to whom the monies are to be credited, and the names, addresses and social insurance numbers of new Employees hired, on or before the 15th day of every month in which the monies were deducted.
- (d) It is the responsibility of the Union to advise the Employer in writing as to the amount of money to be deducted for initiation fees, union dues, fines, assessments and arrears, and of any changes in the amounts to be deducted. In the event that any amount to be deducted is changed from the amount specified in the assignment of wages form signed by the Employees, the Employer can require the Employees to sign new forms reflecting the new amounts to be deducted, prior to making such deductions.
- (e) The Union recognizes and agrees that the Employer's obligation to deduct such dues is expressly restricted to making only such deductions as are permitted by law, and as are authorized by valid assignment of wages form executed by each Employee.
- (f) Upon resignation, layoff, or termination for cause, the Employer will deduct the current month's dues from the Employee's final pay cheque and remit it as per Article 4.04(c).
- (g) In the event that the Union alleges any violation by the Employer of this Article, notice of such alleged violation will be given to the Employer in writing. If the matter is not resolved between the Employer and the Union, either Party may then refer the issue directly to arbitration.

- (h) The Employer agrees to show on each Employee's T4 Slip the amount of Union dues deducted.

4.05 AN EMPLOYEE'S FAILURE TO MAINTAIN MEMBERSHIP IN GOOD STANDING

Upon notice in writing from the Union to the Employer that an Employee:

ARTICLE 5 - UNION STEWARDS

5.01 SHOP STEWARDS

- (a) The Union will appoint from among the Employees, and the Employer will recognize Shop Stewards and a Unit Chair. The duties of the Shop Steward and Unit Chair will be to assist in the reporting and resolution of all grievances as well as disseminating bona fide information of the Union to the Employees. It is understood that when dealing with the Employer each grievance will ordinarily be handled by one (1) Shop Steward regardless of the number of Shop Stewards in the workplace.
- (b) The Employer agrees to recognize a duly appointed or elected Shop Steward and Unit Chair provided that the Union has first advised the Employer in writing of the name of the Employee(s) so appointed. The Union agrees to advise the Employer in writing of any changes made by appointment or election from time to time.
- (c) The Shop Steward's, as well as the Unit Chair's, first obligation is the fulfillment of their responsibility as an Employee. During their working hours, the Shop Steward and Unit Chair are not entitled to engage in Union activities other than is necessary in order to receive, investigate and resolve grievances.
- (d) The Union Steward and the Unit Chair must not leave their assigned work area on Union business, without prior permission from the Employer. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld.
- (e) The necessary time which is spent by Stewards and the Unit Chair during their regular working hours in reporting and resolving grievances, or in

The features of this Committee will be as follows:

- (a) The Employer and the Union will each have three (3) Representatives on the Committee;

- (d) An agenda will be prepared at least two (2) days in advance of the meeting. Only items on the Agenda will be discussed at the meeting.
- (e) Minutes of the meeting will be kept, and distributed to all participating members.

- (f) This Committee will not take the place of the Grievance-Arbitration provisions of the Collective Agreement, nor will any decisions of this Committee be permitted to alter any of the terms and conditions of employment contained in the Collective Agreement. It is agreed that promoting wellness in the workplace will also be an objective of this Committee.

5.04 SECTION 53 OF THE LABOUR RELATIONS CODE

The Parties agree that this provision meets the requirements of Section 53 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

ARTICLE 6 - RESERVATIONS TO MANAGEMENT

6.01 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

6.03 RIGHT TO MAKE RULES

The Employer also reserves the right to establish, supplement and alter, from time to time, reasonable rules and regulations to be observed by the Employees.

6.04 CONSISTENT WITH THIS AGREEMENT

Such Management rights will be exercised in a manner which will not be inconsistent with the express terms of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - PROBATIONARY PERIOD

7.01 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

A new Employee's first sixty (60) work shifts with the Hotel will be the Employee's probationary period to a maximum of four (4) months. The purpose of the probationary period is to provide the Employer with an opportunity to review the Employee's performance level and afford the new Employee an opportunity to determine whether job requirements and duties match the new Employee's expectations.

During the probationary period, the new Employee may be terminated on the basis of suitability for continued employment with the Employer. If an Employee is released from employment during this period, the Employer agrees that the probationary Employee will not be given a negative reference.

During the first eight (8) months of employment the following will apply:

First four (4) months	87.5% of the classification rate
After four (4) months	100% of the classification rate

The probationary period and rate may be extended by mutual agreement of the Parties.

ARTICLE 8 - EMPLOYEE TRAINING PROGRAMMES

8.01 EMPLOYEE ATTENDING A TRAINING PROGRAMME

Where the Employer requires an Employee to attend a training programme either on or outside the premises, the Employer will pay for all fees and associated expenses of the programme. The Employee will be paid regular straight time wages when attending such training courses.

The Employer agrees that the regular hours of Employees will not be reduced as a result of the provision of training to other Employees.

ARTICLE 9 - HOURS OF WORK

9.01 NORMAL STRAIGHT TIME HOURS OF WORK

(a) The normal straight time hours of work assigned by the Employer will exclude one-half (½) hour unpaid lunch break and will conform with the following guidelines:

- (ii) not more than five (5) working days in a work week; and
- (iii) not more than forty (40) hours in a work week.

(b) Any hours which the Employer requires an Employee to work in excess of the above will be paid at time and one-half (1½) the hourly rate for the first three (3) hours worked and double time for all hours worked in excess of eleven (11) hours in a day. Upon written request by the Employee, hours worked as overtime will be accrued as banked hours. Banked overtime may be paid out in whole or in part with seven (7) days' notice or taken as time off with pay. An Employee who is to receive compensating time off will be given time off equivalent to the number of hours for which they would have been paid. Requests for time off will not be unreasonably denied. On December 31st of each year, Employees will have their banked hours paid out.

(c) The Employer agrees that every Employee will be guaranteed eight (8) hours of rest free from work. If an Employee is called in and the Employee voluntarily complies with said request then time and one-half (1½) will be paid for all hours worked.

- (c) The Premiums will be as follows:
 - (i) seven (7) hours worked for eight (8) hours straight time pay; and
 - (ii) eight (8) hours worked for nine (9) hours straight time pay.

9.03 SHIFT HOURS

All shifts assigned by the Employer must conform with the following guidelines:

- (a) Four (4) hour shifts will be the minimum shift permitted in any one (1) day.
- (b) Shifts of between four (4) to eight (8) hours may be assigned in thirty (30)-minute increments, subject to the provisions of 9.05.

9.04 MAXIMIZING THE LENGTH OF SHIFTS

- (a) While the Employer is entitled to schedule shifts of various lengths as provided for in this Agreement, the Employer is obligated to first schedule the maximum number of eight (8) hour shifts before instituting shifts of lesser hours.
- (b) The obligation outlined in (a) above will not be construed as requiring the Employer to create split shifts.

9.05 ASSIGNMENT OF SHIFTS BY SENIORITY

Within departments and classifications, the Employer must offer and assign the longest shifts to Employees with the most seniority. If a more senior Employee declines a longer shift in favour of an available shorter shift, then the longer shift will be again offered on a seniority basis.

The Employer must offer and assign all available forty (40) hour shifts to the Employees with the most seniority before implementing shifts of lesser hours.

If a more senior Employee declines the forty (40) hour shift in favour of an available shorter shift, then the forty (40) hour shift will again be reassigned on a seniority basis.

Clarification on Scheduling

- (1) The Employer will determine the staff complement to work at any given time and in any given department.
- (2) Once the Employer has determined the staff complement, the Employer will create work schedules that maximize hours in keeping with Article 9.04.
- (3) Employees will be supplied with shift preference forms and same will be submitted to the Employer on a quarterly basis.
- (4) Subject to the foregoing, shift preferences including preferences for days off will be determined by seniority. (Note: The maximization of hours takes precedence over accommodations needed to select days off, in the development of work schedules.)

- (5) All schedules will be posted by Thursday noon and finalized by Saturday at 2 p.m. All requests for shift changes or revisions must be communicated to the Supervisor or their Designate by, at the latest, four (4) hours prior to the time that the schedule is to be finalized except for shift exchanges.
- (6) A Joint Committee comprised of three (3) Representatives from the Employer and three (3) Representatives from the Union will meet on a quarterly basis to review the work schedules and Employees' requests.
- (7) Consistent with the provisions of the Collective Agreement which requires the Employer, to the extent possible, to maximize the length of daily shifts, and recognizing that many Employees desire to have weekend days off, the Employer will endeavour to establish as many blocks of shifts as possible which will permit Employees first of all to have both weekend days off, and secondly, to have at least one (1) weekend day off.

Where an Employee is scheduled for less than eight (8) hours in a day, the shift cannot be extended unless by consent of the Employee. Should shifts of comparable length be available, the senior Employee will have the choice of determining the preferable shift. Employees may opt to select another available shift when their shift is abolished.

Shift Exchanges

Employees may arrange for another Employee to work their shift subject to the following conditions with prior authorization of Management;

- (i) The Employee covering the shift must be qualified and capable of performing the work.
- (ii) Advice of the exchange will be provided to the Supervisor in writing twenty-four (24) hours in advance and will be signed by the Employees involved.
- (iii) Once signed, the Employee who accepts the shift will assume full responsibility for the shift they have agreed to work.
- (iv) All work time credits will apply to the Employee who actually works.
- (v) Overtime worked prior to or following an exchanged shift and premium credits on a holiday will be credited to the Employee who worked the shift as though the shift had been the Employee's scheduled shift.
- (vi) Sick leave provisions will apply to the Employee who has agreed to work the shift.
- (vii) There will be no increased cost to the Employer should Employees exchange shifts.
- (viii) An Employee's ability to exchange shifts is not intended to allow Employees to be absent from the work place for extended periods of time.
- (ix) Any issues that are anticipated or arise from the exercise of shift exchanges will be reviewed by the Company and the Union.

- (x) Recognizing from time to time, Employees may be denied a requested day off or may be unable to request a day before the Tuesday deadline, Employees may give up that shift to another Employee who is willing to work. This provision is intended for unexpected and emergency situations only and is not intended to allow Employees to be absent from work for extended periods of time or to set a pattern of absence.

9.06 DAYS OFF

All Employees will receive two (2) consecutive days off unless otherwise mutually agreed-to.

9.07 TIME WORKED ON SIXTH (6TH) AND SEVENTH (7TH) CONSECUTIVE DAYS

Time and one-half (1½) will be paid for all work performed on an Employee's sixth (6th) consecutive day worked and double time will be paid for all hours worked on an Employee's seventh (7th) consecutive day worked.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 9.01, the Parties have agreed that in an attempt to provide additional hours of work to Employees working less than forty (40) hours per week, the following arrangement will be in force for the duration of the Collective Agreement. Employees who would otherwise work less than forty (40) hours in a five (5) day work week can be offered additional straight time hours of work on the sixth (6th) consecutive day, provided that the additional hours do not result in the Employee working more than forty (40) hours in the six (6) days at straight time. Such an Employee may decline the additional hours without affecting their rights under this Agreement. All sixth (6th) shifts will be offered in order of seniority in the classification where the work is available.

9.08 PAYMENT FOR TIME IN LIEU OF BREAKS

Employees who cannot get rest periods or meal breaks will be paid five and one-half (5½) hours worked – six (6) hours pay; six (6) hours worked – six and one-half (6½) hours pay; seven and one-half (7½) hours worked – eight (8) hours pay; eight (8) hours worked – eight and one-half (8½) hours pay. There will be no deliberate bankrolling of purported violations of this Article by any Employee.

9.09 UNPAID MEAL BREAKS

Unless otherwise agreed, all Employees working shifts of five (5) to eight (8) hours are entitled to an unpaid meal break between the third (3rd) and sixth (6th) hour of work. Such meal breaks will be one-half hour (½) on the Employee's own time and will not be interrupted once the lunch period has begun.

9.10 REST PERIODS

- (a) All Employees are entitled to rest periods in accordance with the following schedule:
 - (i) Four (4) hours – one (1) ten (10) minute rest period;
 - (ii) Five (5) hours – one (1) ten (10) minute rest period;
 - (iii) Six (6) hours – one (1) ten (10) minute rest period;
 - (iv) Seven (7) hours – two (2) ten (10) minute rest periods; and

- (v) Eight (8) hours – two (2) ten (10) minute rest periods.
- (b) Such rest periods are part of the Employee's assigned hours of work and the rest period time is paid for by the Employer.
- (c) Time to commence when the Employee arrives at the assigned rest areas or a total of fifteen (15) minutes from the Employee's work station.

9.11 EMPLOYEE'S RESPONSIBILITY: WORK START TIME

Employees will be in their respective assigned working locations, ready to commence work at their designated starting times, and they will not leave their working locations at times or in a manner inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

9.12 WORK SCHEDULES

- (a) A work schedule will be posted in a conspicuous place for the information of all scheduled Employees. The work schedule will contain the following information for each scheduled Employee:
 - Employee's name
 - classification
 - classification seniority
 - days off
 - starting and finishing times
- (b) It is the Employer's responsibility to keep the work schedule up to date and to ensure that any changes are clearly noted and legible. It is the responsibility of every scheduled Employee to check the posted work schedule for changes.
- (c) In the event that the Employer changes the next scheduled shift of an Employee who is not at work because of a scheduled absence, the Employer will be responsible for notifying the Employee of the change.
- (d) The Employer will provide the Unit Chair or their Designate with a copy of the work schedule, and any changes thereof, on a weekly basis. All changes to the work scheduled will be dated.

9.13 CHANGES IN WORK SCHEDULES

- (a) In situations other than emergencies, the scheduled Employees are entitled to forty-eight (48) hours' notice of any change in their respective work schedules.
- (b) In emergency situations which are beyond the control of the Employer, as in the case of the failure of an Employee to report for an assigned schedule, the Employer may give notice of less than forty-eight (48) hours, but not less than twenty-four (24) hours, when changing work schedules.
- (c) Employees who become aware that they are not going to be able to report for work as scheduled are obligated to provide Management with notice at the earliest possible time, or to have someone else notify the Employer on their behalf, to allow the Employer time to cover the absence.

- (d) Employees whose schedules are changed without the advance notice specified cannot be disciplined if they advise that they cannot comply with the changed starting and finishing times for the first shift of the new schedule.
- (e) In situations where an Employee has not been provided with notice of a change in their work schedule, and the Employee reports as scheduled before the change, the Employee will be provided with work and/or pay as follows:
 - (i) two (2) hours pay unless the Employee is unfit to perform their duties or they have failed to comply with the Industrial Health and Safety Regulations of the Workers' Compensation Board; or
 - (ii) once an Employee reports for work in accordance with the Employee's schedule, the Employee will be provided with work and/or pay for their entire scheduled shift. The Employer, based on business conditions, may request that Employee(s) leave work before the end of their scheduled shift. If the Employee voluntarily agrees to leave work before the end of their shift at the Employer's request then the Employee will only be paid for the actual time worked that day.

If work is suspended because of inclement weather or other Acts of God, then the provisions of paragraph (i) above will be applied.
- (f) Any Employee whose schedule has been modified due to illness or injury as defined in Article 17.04 will receive notice required in Article 9.13 (b) and (c).

ARTICLE 10 - SENIORITY

10.01 SENIORITY ENTITLEMENT DEFINED

- (a) Department Defined: For purposes of this Agreement, the term "department" will be understood to mean those departments identified within this Agreement.
- (b) Seniority Defined: For the purpose of this Agreement, "seniority" will be defined as an Employee's total length of continuous service at the hotel identified in terms of their date of hire within their department. In addition, Employees will maintain "classification seniority". Classification seniority will be defined as an Employee's total length of continuous service in their current classification identified in terms of the date when the Employee began working in the classification.
- (c) Use of Seniority: Department Seniority is used to determine the order of layoff and recall within a classification within a particular department. Classification seniority is used for preference for scheduled blocks of shifts within a classification with a particular department.

- (d) Service and Vacation Entitlement: Annual vacation entitlement will be determined by the Employee's total years of service in the hotel, and the Employee will be granted holidays according to that established service.
- (e) Seniority in More Than One (1) Classification within a Department: In order to provide experience to Employees in another classification within the same Department and in order to maximize hours up to a maximum of forty (40) hours per week, Employees may select, in order of seniority, to work certain days in their weekly block of shifts in another classification in the same department, provided that the Employee possesses the minimum skill and ability to perform the full measure of the work required. An Employee working both classifications will continue to accumulate seniority in their current position and will begin to accumulate seniority in the new position. Once each year, on January 31st, all Employees working in more than one (1) classification, will declare in which classification their seniority will be assigned to for the next year. Should the Employee select to apply their seniority in the new classification, then their seniority for classification purposes will begin from the date they first worked in the new classification.
- (f) Extra Work: The Parties agree that from time to time extra work, in addition to regular staffing levels, on a short-term basis, will become available. The Employer agrees to offer this extra work to Employees from other departments who have indicated in writing their willingness to pick up extra work in the department in question. Such indications of interest are to be renewed every three (3) months. Work will be offered to Employees on the list in order of seniority, provided the Employee possesses the necessary skill and ability to perform the work required and provided no overtime premiums are required. Once an Employee has accepted and has been scheduled for extra work they will be required to perform the extra work in the classification where they have been scheduled. It is agreed that this provision will be used in addition to and not in lieu of Article 10.01(e) and that an Employee's seniority standing is not affected by the performance of extra work. Pay for such work will be at the applicable classification wage rate established in Appendix "A".
- (g) No hiring From the Outside Until: The Employer agrees not to hire from the outside until the provisions of Article 10.01 and Article 11.01 are exhausted.

10.02 SENIORITY LISTS

- (a) The Employer agrees to post departmental seniority lists on or before the first day of February and the first day of August in each year. The Seniority List will contain the following information:
 - (i) the Employee's name;
 - (ii) the Employee's department seniority;
 - (iii) the Employee's Hotel seniority;
 - (iv) the Employee's classification.

- (b) The Seniority List will be posted by the Employer for a minimum of thirty (30) days. Any objection to the accuracy of a posted Seniority List must be lodged with the Employer during the thirty (30) days in which the list is posted. Thereafter, the posted list will be deemed to be valid and correct for all purposes of this Agreement.
- (c) At the time of posting, a copy of the Seniority Lists will be given to the Unit Chair and one (1) copy to the Union Staff Representative.

In such cases, any Employee who changed job positions in consequence of the promotion will move back into their job positions and wage rates, which they occupied prior to the promotion.
- (vii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, when an Employee is laid off because of a pandemic, state of emergency, wildfire, earthquake, tsunami or renovations, the Employee's seniority will be frozen for the duration of that layoff period, even if the layoff period is longer than twelve (12) months.

- (b) Employees, who restrict their availability for hours of work or work scheduled, will not be protected by their seniority for recall.
- (c) In the event of a layoff, the order of layoff within the affected classification will be as follows:
Probationary Employees,
then Employees with the least seniority.
- (d) An Employee who has been laid off and wishes to be recalled must ensure that the Employer has a current phone number and address for purposes of recall. Failure on the part of the Employee to provide this information may result in the Employee forfeiting their recall rights.

But the hotel may not, by virtue of this rule, evade the hiring of an Employee in a higher classification where such Employees in a higher classification would normally be hired according to the usages of the trade. If the Employee works at the higher classification for less than four (4) hours they will then be paid the higher rates for the actual amount of time, accordingly.

ARTICLE 22 - ARBITRATION

Each party to the arbitration will be responsible for its own costs and will share equally, the cost associated with the Arbitrator.

22.06 OPTIONAL GRIEVANCE INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE

The Parties have agreed to initiate an Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure for the specified term of the Agreement, in accordance with the following:

- (a) Purpose and Scope
 - (i) Recognizing that there are times and circumstances in which it may be necessary to seek third-party assistance in the resolution of grievances, and in an attempt to find a way in which to bring about such resolutions without incurring the costs and delays associated with formal arbitration proceedings, the Parties have agreed to provide for an Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure.
 - (ii) The process is intended to complement the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures otherwise provided for in this Agreement. It is not intended to replace those other procedures.
- (b) Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure
 - (i) Where a difference arises between the Parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an Employee during the term of the Collective Agreement, the Parties will appoint one (1) of the persons named herein as "Investigators", or a substitute agreed to by the Parties, to:
 - (1) investigate the difference;
 - (2) define the issue in the difference; and
 - (3) make written recommendations to resolve the difference within (5) days of the date of receipt of the request and, for those (5) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.
- (c) Cost Sharing

Each party to the investigation will be responsible for its own costs and will share equally the cost associated with the Investigator or single Arbitrator.
- (d) Investigators - Alternates Agreed to, and Selection
 - (i) The Parties have agreed that for the term of this Agreement, the persons named in a Letter of Understanding will be recognized as their "Investigators" for the purposes of this investigation procedure, subject to receiving their respective consents to their appointment.

- (ii) Selection of a particular named individual to serve in each instance will be by agreement of the Parties. Should the Parties fail to agree on the selection, then the person next on the list will be chosen.
- (e) Option Choice and Timing
 - (i) Either Party may choose to implement the investigation procedure provided that all Steps of the Grievance Procedure, prior to reference to arbitration, have been exhausted without a resolution of the difference.
 - (ii) The Party wishing to use the investigation procedure will notify the other Party of the decision, within five (5) working days of the receipt of the reply at the last step of the Grievance Procedure. Such notification must be in writing.
 - (iii) The Party receiving notification may refuse to accept the Investigation Procedure, in which case, the arbitration provisions of this Agreement are then available and the time limit contained in that Article begins to run from the date of the refusal decision being delivered in writing. No reasons for the refusal need be given, and such refusal must be submitted within five (5) working days.

22.07 BINDING RECOMMENDATIONS

While the grievance investigation process is intended to yield only non-binding recommendations, the Parties may agree that the recommendations will represent a binding award, in the manner of an arbitration award. Such agreement must be made in advance of the appointment of the Investigator or Officer.

22.08 FAST TRACK MEDIATION/ARBITRATION PROCESS

- (a) Recognizing that there are times when an expedited arbitration may be desirable, the Parties agree that the following process may be used as a substitute for the formal Grievance Procedure outlined in Article 22 of the Collective Agreement:
 - (1) The process can only be used by mutual agreement between the Parties who are signatory to this Collective Agreement.
 - (2) The outcome will be binding on both Parties.
 - (3) Each Party to the arbitration will be responsible for its own costs and will share equally the cost associated with the Arbitrator.
 - (4) The procedure cannot be used should an application for a Settlement Officer, under Section 87 of the Labour Relations Code, have been made by either Party.
 - (5) No legal counsel will be used by either Party. The Union will use elected officers or Union Representatives. The Employer will use Employees of their Human Resources Office.
 - (6) The number of cases to be heard at any given time will not exceed three (3).

- (7) The Parties or their Representatives will try to get an agreed statement of facts for presentation to the arbitrator.
 - (8) Wherever possible, the arbitrator will attempt to mediate a settlement between the Parties.
 - (9) In such case that the arbitrator must write a decision, such decision will be brief and to the point.
 - (10) An agreed schedule for the process will be arranged in advance based on a mutual assessment of the length of time needed to present each case.
 - (11) General rules of evidence will be waived except for the rule of "onus".
 - (12) The offices of the Parties will be used for the process on an alternating basis.
 - (13) Procedure Guidelines
 - (i) The Opening Statement: This should basically set out the case from each Party's perspective. The Arbitrator will aggressively seek, at this point, to define the issue and to determine what evidence is agreed to and what is not.
 - (ii) The Hearing: Sufficient witnesses should be called to ensure the "story" is properly told. Where it is an issue of credibility or conflicting evidence, the key individuals must testify.
 - (iii) The Argument: As agreed, the Parties will not cite legal precedents but may refer to Brown and Beatty, Palmer, etc. However, it is imperative that the relevant provisions of the Collective Agreement be canvassed by counsel to ensure that all relevant Articles are put before the Arbitrator.
 - (iv) Mediation: Counsel must accept some responsibility at this stage to assist the Arbitrator in assessing the evidence before the Arbitrator. Specifically, if counsel can assist in assessing credibility and/or contradictory evidence, they should do so.
 - (v) The Decision: If mediation fails, or is not appropriate, and if the decision can be rendered after a short deliberation, the Arbitrator will do so. By meeting first with counsel to explain the framework of the Arbitrator's decision, the Parties are provided with an opportunity to influence the exact terms of resolution. Within the framework of settlement as outlined by the Arbitrator, the Parties can work out exact terms which best suit the specifics of the case. Such an opportunity should not be wasted by continuing to argue the merits of the case.
- (b) The Mediator/Arbitrator will be selected from the list contained in Letter of Understanding #5.

The Employer will however, expect that the Room Attendant will ensure that the room is free of any hair as per Brand Standards. All Room Attendants will be managed on an individual basis and subject to appropriate action as necessary.
