- (ii) The Board shall have the power to dispose of a discharge or discipline grievance by any arrangement which it deems just and equitable. However, the Board shall not have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify, or amend any of its provisions. The time limits established for the arbitration procedure in this Article may be extended by mutual consent of both parties.

12.07 On the Job Training

- (i) When, in the Employer's opinion, operational requirements both warrant and permit and when it is practical from a financial perspective to do so, the Employer shall endeavour to provide on-the-job training to Employees within their own functional work units during the normal working hours. The purpose of this training shall be primarily to maximize flexibility when assigning day-to-day work within the work unit and/or department and, secondly, to provide enhanced opportunity for Employees to advance within their own departments as permanent vacancies occur therein.

Regular part-time Employees may only bump other regular part-time Employees.

The position in question shall be evaluated by the Employer under the terms of the Job Evaluation Plan. The Employee and the Supervisor shall complete the job evaluation questionnaire prior to the Employer rating the job. Where a final rate of pay is higher than the Employee's regular rate of pay, the difference shall be paid retroactively to the date the Employee first requested the pay review. Pay reviews shall be completed by the Employer within ninety (90) days of the Employee making a request. The Employer shall send the results to the Union along with a copy of the job description, questionnaire, rating sheet and other documentation the Employer used in making its determination. When the Employer creates a new position or it changes the work of an existing position, the job description shall be forwarded to the Union in accordance with Article 26.01. The Employer shall determine an interim rate of pay for the position in question. Six (6) months after the new position was first filled by an Employee or the change took place in the work of an existing position, the Employer shall evaluate the position under the terms of the Job Evaluation Plan. The Employee and the Supervisor shall complete the job evaluation questionnaire prior to the Employer rating the job. Where the final rate of pay is higher than the interim rate of pay, the difference shall be paid retroactively to the date of the Employee's appointment to the position or the date of change of work of the position.

26.06 Dispute Resolution

Within thirty (30) days of receipt of a new or revised job description and/or the Employer's rating of a position the Union may reply, in writing, that it disagrees with the job description and/or the rating. Failure by the Union to file its disagreement with the Employer within the thirty (30) days shall render a dispute unarbitrable and the Employer's decision shall be implemented. When the Union files its disagreement with the Employer, a meeting shall be scheduled with up to two (2) representatives from each party to discuss the differences and attempt to reach agreement. If the parties are unable to reach agreement over a job description and/or a rating then the dispute shall be defined and referred to Article 10.09 Expedited Arbitration process pursuant to the BC Labour Relations Code. Up to two (2) Union representatives shall be granted leave of absence without loss of pay when involved in this dispute resolution process.

Should the Employer and Union agree, the position may be posted if a two (2) pay grade wage rate increase was the result of a re-evaluation.
- (ii) Where an incumbent Employee is not the successful applicant for the posted vacancy, then such Employee shall be laid off and exercise bumping rights pursuant to this Collective Agreement.

Salary Sharing for Auxiliary Employees

The parties agree, during the life of the current Collective Agreement, that the official signing officers of the Union may sign jointly with the Employer applications by the Employer to a senior government to enable the Employer to receive senior government assistance in salary sharing for auxiliary workers provided the work to be performed conforms with the following provisions:
