3.04 Gender/Singular and Plural

ARTICLE 4: EMPLOYEE CATEGORIES

4.01 Full-Time Regular Employees

(a) Definition of Full-Time Regular Employee

A "Full-Time Regular Employee" is an individual who is employed as a regular employee on a full-time basis. Full-Time Regular Employees shall be covered by all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement except those which apply specifically and exclusively to Full-Time Regular Floating Employees, Part-Time Regular Employees or Casual Employees as the case may be.

(b) Definition of Full-Time Regular Floating Employee

"Full-Time Regular Floating Employee" is an individual employed on a full-time basis to replace one (1) or more Regular Employees or another Full-Time Regular Floating Employee who is/are absent from work for any reason. To enhance continuity of employment for "Full-Time Regular Floating Employees", the Employer may also use such personnel for other purposes within existing job descriptions and job classifications.

The Parties' intention, and the primary purpose for establishment of the employee status of Full-Time Regular Floating Employee is to provide the Employer with an enhanced ability to cover absences from work by Full-Time Regular Employees (non-floating) without eroding hire or use by the Employer of Full-Time Regular Employees (non-floating) or diminishing their rights or entitlements under this Agreement. Accordingly, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Employer shall not hire or use Full-Time Regular Floating Employees to avoid the continuance, creating or filling of positions for or by Full-Time Regular Employees (non-floating).

(c) Application of Agreement

Full-Time Regular Employees (non-floating) shall be covered by all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, except those which apply specifically and exclusively to Full-Time Regular Floating Employees, Part-Time Regular Employees or Casual Employees, as the case may be.

Full-Time Regular Floating Employees shall be treated in all respects under this Agreement as if they were Full-Time Regular Employees (non-floating). The shifts to be worked and the work locations of Full-Time Regular Floating Employees shall be established by the Employer on an "as-needed" basis, which discretion must be exercised reasonably. All time spent traveling by a Full-Time Regular Floating Employee between work locations on any given workday shall be deemed to be time worked for all purposes under this Agreement.

4.02 Part-Time Regular

A Part-Time Regular Employee is an employee hired to work regular hours or days but who works less than a full-time shift schedule on a regular and continuing basis. A Part-Time Regular Employee shall not work more than thirty (30) hours per week unless otherwise agreed to by the Union. Part-Time Regular Employees shall be covered by all conditions of this Agreement, except as follows:

- (a) Sick leave entitlements for Part-Time Regular Employees shall be in accordance with Article 28.02(e).
- (b) Part-Time Regular Employees will receive Statutory Holiday pay on a pro-rata basis consistent with the proportion of hours normally worked in weeks not containing a holiday.
- (c) Part-Time Regular Employees will receive vacation pay and vacation time off work as provided in Article 26. Vacation pay and vacation time off work will be calculated on the same basis as for a Full-Time Regular Employee with the same calendar service.
- (d) Seniority for Part-Time Regular Employees shall be calculated on a pro-rata basis in accordance with the proportion of full-time equivalent hours worked. For the purposes of this calculation, it is agreed that the “full-time equivalent” hours on an annual basis shall be deemed to be 2,080. Notwithstanding anything, it is further agreed that wherever under this Agreement any entitlement for any Part-Time Regular Employee is to be determined on a pro rata basis such pro ration shall be calculated by using the number 2,080 hours as the “full-time equivalent” for any one (1) year period.
- (e) Such other provisions of this collective agreement which specifically identify differences in terms and conditions of employment between Full-Time Regular Employees and Part-Time Regular Employees.

4.03 Casual Employees

- (a) Definition Of Casual Employee

A Casual Employee is an employee who is employed to replace an incumbent Full-Time Regular Employee, Full-Time Regular Floating Employee or Part-Time Regular Employee who is absent from work for any reason. A Casual Employee may also be employed to provide short-term coverage during a period of unusual peak workload. The periods between May 1st to September 30th, inclusive, and December 15th to January 14th, inclusive, are acknowledged to be known peak workload periods for the Employer and are therefore not considered to be “unusual”; however, it is recognized that “unusual” peak workloads may occur from time to time during these known peak workload periods.

- (b) Casual Seniority And Its Application

A Casual Employee who accrues a minimum of 960 working hours (accumulated on a straight-time basis) shall become a Seniority-Rated Casual (“SRC”) Employee with Casual Seniority thereafter equivalent to hours worked. SRC Employees shall have the right to be called in to work before non-seniority-rated Casual Employees in order of Casual Seniority, provided they can perform the available work.

SRC Employees shall lose their seniority if any break in their service is longer than one hundred eighty (180) consecutive calendar days. All Casual Employees who refuse to work more than six (6) work assignments in a calendar year, (provided they are given in each case at least forty-eight (48) hours advance notice of the assignment) will lose all rights to employment and cannot re-apply for employment for a period of six (6) months from the time of the lost employment.

SRC Employees shall have the right to bid on posted job vacancies under Article 18 of the Collective Agreement, in which case they shall be deemed to have completed their probation period for the purposes of Article 18.05 and Article 16.

Seniority for Regular Employees shall prevail at all times for all purposes under the Collective Agreement over Casual Seniority.

(c) Application Of Collective Agreement

Casual Employees shall be covered by all of the terms and conditions of the Collective Agreement except (1) those provisions which apply specifically and exclusively to Full-Time Regular Employees, Full-Time Regular Floating Employees or Part-Time Regular Employees and (2) the following specific exceptions:

- 6.02 Contracting Out
- 8.03 – 8.04
- 19 - Displacement, Layoff and Recall
- 20 - Technological Change
- 21 - Job Evaluation
- 22.04 - Partial Reduction of Hours
- 24.05 - Overtime Banking
- 24.07 – Paid Sick Leave
- 24.08 – Call In Call Out
- 24.09 – Statutory Holidays
- 24.10 – Overtime
- 25 - Statutory Holidays
- 26 - Annual Vacations
- 28 - Sick Leave
- 29 - Leave of Absence
- 30 - Additional Leaves of Absence
- 34 - Benefit Plans
- 35 – Training and Education
- EAP Program
- Letter of Understanding on Conflict Resolution
- Letter of Understanding No. 7 - Benefits Package

Statutory Holiday pay entitlement for Casual Employees shall be determined on the basis of immediately prior to the given Statutory Holiday.

Casual Employees shall be entitled to vacation pay in accordance with Article 26 but not vacation time off work.

(d) Restrictions On Use Of Casual Employees

The Employer shall only have the right to use a Casual Employee to replace an incumbent Regular Employee or Full-Time Regular Floating Employee who is absent from work for any reason until such time as the Employer can reasonably be expected to engage a Full-Time Regular Floating Employee for that purpose.

- (e) It is the intention of the parties that the proper purposes of the Casual category is to replace (subject to Article 4.03 (d)) an incumbent Full-Time Regular Employee, Full-Time Regular Floating Employee or Part-Time Regular Employee who is absent from work for any reason and to provide short-term coverage during a period of unusual peak workload, without eroding hire or use by the Employer of Regular Employees or diminishing their rights or entitlements under this Agreement. Accordingly, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Employer shall not employ Casual Employees to avoid the continuance, creating or filling of positions for or by Regular Employees (floating or non-floating).

ARTICLE 5: UNION RECOGNITION & BARGAINING UNIT DESCRIPTION

5.01 Union Recognition

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for all persons to whom the Certification issued to the Union on August 15, 1996 applies, including any changes to said Certification made from time to time by the Labour Relations Board of British Columbia, or any of its successors, but excluding those persons expressly excluded by the Labour Relations Board of British Columbia, or any of its successors.

5.02 Application Of Agreement

- (a) This Agreement applies to all employees within the bargaining unit as defined in this Agreement and covered by the certification or any amendments thereto, issued by the Labour Relations Board of British Columbia, or any of its successors.
- (b) Where the Employer establishes a new position and a dispute arises as to whether the new position is within the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement, either party may submit the issue to the Labour Relations Board. Where such positions are determined to be within the bargaining unit, these positions will be posted in accordance with the provisions of the collective agreement.
- (c) Employees who are subject to this Agreement shall continue to be subject to this Agreement and the Union shall continue to be their sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent where such employees are required to perform their work functions anywhere within the province of British Columbia, or elsewhere when on temporary assignment and performing such work functions on behalf of the Employer.

ARTICLE 6: SECURITY OF BARGAINING UNIT WORK

6.01 Exclusivity Of Bargaining Unit Work

Duties normally performed by employees within the bargaining unit will not be assigned to or be performed by non-bargaining unit employees except to overcome immediate, short term cases of absenteeism, emergencies, training and peak rental periods when bargaining unit employees capable of performing the work are not available.

6.02 No Contracting Out

The Employer will not contract out any bargaining unit work if such contracting out will result in the displacement or lay-off of any bargaining unit employees.

ARTICLE 7: UNION MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

7.01 Union Membership

- (a) The Employer agrees that all employees covered by this Agreement shall, as a condition of employment, become and remain members of the Union. New employees, hired subsequent to the signing of this Agreement, shall become and remain members of the Union as a condition of employment on the first (1st) day of employment by the Employer.
- (b) The Employer shall advise the Union of all newly hired employees within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date of their employment.

7.02 Union Dues Authorization

An employee who is prevented from responding to a recall notice because of illness or other reason beyond the employee's control, or who declines recall to a lower position, may be bypassed for the position available, but such employee shall not lose seniority and recall rights thereby. Where more than one (1) employee is on the recall list in similar classifications, recall shall be made in order of seniority. 19.15 Death In Service

Severance pay shall be payable by the Employer to the estate or named beneficiary of a deceased employee who is eligible for such payment.

19.16 Acceptance Of Severance Pay

It is understood and agreed that at such time as a Regular Employee's severance pay is paid in full, the employee's employment shall be terminated and such employee shall have no further rights or entitlements under this Agreement, except for the following:

- (i) any vested rights or entitlements under the Retirement Plan; and

RE: IMPLEMENTING NEGOTIATED CHANGES IN EMPLOYEE TYPES

With respect to the above-cited subject matter, the Employer and the Union ("the Parties") do hereby expressly and mutually agree as follows:

- (1) During collective bargaining in the year 2000 for a revised Collective Agreement, the Parties agreed to changes in employee types by modifying the definition and usage of Casual Employees and creating an employee type called Full-Time Regular Floating Employee. Given the complexity of predicting and addressing all of the ramifications of these changes, the Parties agree to establish a mechanism by which unanticipated problems or issues can be discussed and resolved.
- (2) Either party will be free to bring up with the other any issues which that party believes was unanticipated and should have been addressed during collective bargaining. The parties will meet to discuss the issues with a view to resolving them. Problems arising out of the implementation of the negotiated changes described in Paragraph (1) above which cannot be resolved in this way may be referred immediately by either Party to med-arbitration pursuant to the provisions of Article 13 of the Collective Agreement. If arbitration is necessary, the arbitrator shall have the authority and the jurisdiction to change or add to the terms and conditions of the Collective Agreement only to the extent required to rectify a problem which should have but was not resolved in collective bargaining.
- (3) This Letter Of Understanding may be changed at any time by the written mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.
- (4) This Letter Of Understanding shall be deemed to be incorporated into the Collective Agreement between the Employer and the Union as if set forth in full therein in writing, and shall so apply.

RE: CONFLICT RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Employer and the Union share a common desire to promote harmonious interpersonal relationships in the workplace among all persons employed by the Employer, both inside and outside of the bargaining unit represented by MoveUP (Canadian Office and Professional Employees Union, Local 378); and

WHEREAS, the Union and the Employer recognize that, from time to time, some interpersonal relationships in the workplace can be or become dysfunctional; and

WHEREAS, the Parties agree that dysfunctional interpersonal relationships in the workplace may be helped by conflict resolution undertaken by persons with appropriate professional expertise;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Employer and the Union ("the Parties") do hereby expressly and mutually agree as follows:

- (1) The Parties agree to establish a program of conflict resolution to provide employees of the Employer, both inside and outside of the bargaining unit represented by MoveUP (Canadian Office and Professional Employees Union, Local 378), with a process for resolving dysfunctional interpersonal relationships in the workplace.
- (2) The Parties shall develop and maintain a list containing the names of up to five (5) but not less than (3) persons with appropriate professional expertise in workplace conflict resolution who make their services available in and around Vancouver, B.C.
- (3) When the Employer and the Union concur that a particular interpersonal relationship in the workplace is dysfunctional and may benefit from intervention in the form of conflict resolution, one of the conflict resolution specialists referred to in item number 2 above shall be selected by mutual agreement between the Parties and engaged to provide appropriate professional services. Notwithstanding anything, involvement by any employee in the bargaining unit in any such conflict resolution shall be on a strictly voluntary basis.
- (4) Conflict resolution arising out of this Letter Of Understanding shall be done on a confidential basis, save and except that the Employer and the Union shall retain the right to require such reporting by any conflict resolution specialist engaged under this Letter Of Understanding as they in their sole discretion may, by mutual agreement, deem appropriate. Such reports shall themselves be treated by both Parties as confidential. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no report by any conflict resolution specialist operating under this Letter Of Understanding shall be reflected in any manner in the personal file maintained by the Employer in respect of any employee in the bargaining unit and the Employer shall not use any such report for any purpose related to the discipline or discharge of any bargaining unit employee or for the purpose of any job selection or displacement, layoff or recall under the Collective Agreement.

- (5) Bargaining unit employees who participate in conflict resolution under this Letter Of Understanding shall be granted the necessary time off work by the Employer for such purpose and this time shall be deemed to be time worked to be paid for by the Employer.
- (6) The costs for all conflict resolution undertaken pursuant to this Letter Of Understanding shall be borne in full by the Employer including, but not limited to, the costs for any and all conflict resolution specialists who are engaged hereunder to provide professional services.
- (7) This Letter Of Understanding may be changed at any time by the written mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.
- (8) This Letter Of Understanding shall be deemed to be incorporated into the Collective Agreement between the Employer and the Union as if set forth in full therein in writing, and shall so apply.
- (9) This Letter Of Understanding shall remain in full force and effect for a minimum period of one (1) year, commencing from the effective date of the Collective Agreement executed by and between Parties in the year 2000. At any time after this one (1) year period, this Letter Of Understanding may be terminated and rendered null and void by either the Employer or the Union giving the other Party at least thirty (30) calendar days prior written notice of such termination.

RE: ADDRESSING UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES ADVERSELY AFFECTING INDIVIDUAL EMPLOYEES

WHEREAS, the Employer and the Union agree that adherence to the Collective Agreement is a prerequisite to maintaining good labour relations between the Parties; and

WHEREAS, the Parties' recognize and agree that from time to time rigid application of the Collective Agreement may cause inordinate adversity to individual employees confronted by unusual circumstances; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the Employer and the Union agree as follows:

(1) Process

When the Employer and the Union mutually agree that an individual employee or group of employees is or will be adversely affected to a significant degree by unusual circumstances which could be ameliorated reasonably by changing the Collective Agreement, the Parties will endeavour in good faith to provide such relief on a "without prejudice or precedent" temporary basis, taking into consideration the impact, in each case, that any such change will have on the bargaining unit as a whole, the operations of the Employer, the overall integrity of the Collective Agreement and the relationship between the Parties. These "without prejudice or precedent" agreements temporarily modifying the Collective Agreement may be undertaken in each case either orally or in writing, depending upon the mutual wishes of the Parties at the time. It is specifically understood and agreed that neither the Employer nor the Union is obliged to agree to any particular contractual change with respect to implementation of the provisions of the Letter Of Understanding. Any change to the Collective Agreement arising out of this Letter Of Understanding must be approved by a Business Representative of the Union unless, in a particular case, such authority is delegated to a local Union Councillor or Job Steward.

This Letter Of Understanding may be changed at any time by the written mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.

RE: IMPACT OF ENTERPRISE BRAND RELOCATION TO THE VANCOUVER INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

By the signature(s) of their duly authorized representative(s) set forth below, the Employer and the Union mutually acknowledge and agree as follows:

1. The Airport Authority has established late 2019 as the timeframe for Rental Car Companies to submit bids for space at the Vancouver International Airport rental car facility.
2. In the event Enterprise bids for and is awarded the opportunity to place all three (3) brands on-site at the Vancouver International Airport the Enterprise "YVR operation," currently located at the off-airport 9051 Beckwith Road, Richmond, BC site (the "Beckwith Branch"), Enterprise reserves the right to transfer the Enterprise brand airport rental operation to the Vancouver International Airport on a date to be determined (the "Transfer Date"). In the event that Enterprise is not awarded the opportunity to place the Enterprise brand on-site at the YVR Operation, this LOU will have no force or effect.
3. It is not the intent of the Employer, nor is it the intent of this Letter of Understanding, to cause either a reduction in the number of employees in the bargaining unit or rental volume for the National/Alamo brands at the Vancouver International Airport. To the contrary, and while this cannot be guaranteed, it is anticipated that the placement of the Enterprise brand at the Vancouver International Airport will result in an increased number of employees in the bargaining unit and, further, will result in an increased rental volume at the Vancouver International Airport.
4. Effective with the transfer date, Handheld Agents covered by the Collective Agreement will be responsible, subject to the terms of the collective agreement, for return functions of all vehicles returned to the Vancouver Airport, regardless of whether the vehicle is returned by an Alamo, National or Enterprise customer.
5. Effective with the transfer date, the shuttling of all vehicles for rental by Enterprise customers (regardless of whether derived from or for an Alamo, National or Enterprise customer) within the Vancouver International Airport will be exclusively performed by employees within the bargaining unit, subject to the terms of the collective agreement.
6. Effective with the transfer date, the servicing of all vehicles leased by Enterprise brand customers from or returned to the Vancouver International Airport will be performed by

Automotive Detailers, subject to the terms of the collective agreement, regardless of whether the vehicle is the product of a National, Alamo or Enterprise customer rental.

7. Effective with the transfer date, the Employer will transfer, if any, the necessary Handheld Agents, Automotive Detailers and Launch Pad Rental Agents from Beckwith to the Vancouver International Airport. Transferred employees shall retain their seniority (Enterprise start date) for vacation and wages only. Transferred employees shall begin accruing bargaining unit seniority on the transfer date. It is agreed that any vacancies that arise after the transfer process shall be subject to the terms of the collective agreement.
8. The Enterprise employees classified and transferred as Launch Pad Rental Agents will be considered members of the bargaining unit represented by the Union and subject to, except as modified herein, the Collective Agreement negotiated by the Union and the Employer. Consistent with the establishment of the position of Launch Pad Rental Agent, the Union and the Employer agree that the recognition provision of the Collective Agreement will be amended to include the job classification “Launch Pad Rental Agent.”
9. The duties of a “Launch Pad Rental Agent” have been outlined in a separate job description, but, for purposes of this Letter of Understanding, will include a variety of sales related functions including completing all forms relating to the rental of vehicles; responding to potential customer and customer inquiries; completing clerical and auditing duties as required; completing “paperwork,” as necessary; escorting customers to, or meeting and greeting customers at the Enterprise vehicle ready line, to select the customer vehicle, conduct the necessary “walk-around” and finalize all paperwork and all other customer-facing tasks up to the customer exiting the Vancouver International Airport; move vehicles to assist a customer within the rental ready space; ensuring the security of company assets; maintaining a safe and clean work environment; performing concierge services for FBO and VIP customers, as well as valet and FBO and VIP pickup services; following instructions from Supervisors, Managers and Lead Agents regarding operational needs; and performing other duties, as assigned, related to the primary duties outlined above. (Job Description attached)
10. Upon transfer of the Enterprise YVR operation to the Vancouver International Airport Rental Car facility and, subject to future operational needs, Enterprise Rent-A-Car signage will be located adjacent to the existing National and Alamo rental counters, directing Enterprise brand customers to an Enterprise “Customer Sales Booth.” The Enterprise Customer Sales Booth will be staffed by employees classified as “Launch Pad Rental Agents” who will be represented by the Union and subject to the Collective Agreement. In addition, in the event additional space becomes available in the future, Enterprise reserves the right to establish an Enterprise Rent-A-Car sales counter at the Vancouver International Airport, which shall be staffed by bargaining unit members.
11. National/Alamo CSA’s are eligible (after Launch Pad Rental Agents), to fill Launch Pad Rental Agents vacancies. In addition, if Launch Pad Rental Agents are not present, a National/Alamo RSA may be asked to write an ERAC ticket on the computer.
12. The Launch Pad Rental Agent Classification will have shift and vacation bidding rights only within their classification and other employees/classifications will not have bidding rights within the Enterprise Launch Pad Rental Agent Classification.
