Every employee has the right to work in an environment of mutual respect, free from discrimination and harassment including sexual harassment. Action contravening this code of conduct will constitute grounds for discipline.

Properly discharged supervisory responsibilities, including the delegation of work assignments, and/or the assessment of discipline, do not constitute harassment. Neither is the intention of this language to inhibit free speech or interfere with normal social relations.

RE: ARTICLE 4.09 (d) OF THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

An employee's posted shift will not be changed by Management without the employee's agreement unless Management gives the employee at least four (4) hours personal notice. In case of a complete deletion of a shift, Management will first offer the employee an alternative shift equal to or greater than the original shift, on the same day as the completely deleted shift. This provision will not apply when the deletion of the shift is caused by an emergency.

In the interests of making the most effective schedule and minimizing disruptions to other employees as well as operations, it is the employee's responsibility to give as much notice as possible if they are unable to make their scheduled shift.

Subject to the operational needs of the business, employees who indicate in advance their availability for unscheduled straight time shifts and/or hours on a call in list posted weekly for that purpose, will be offered the additional hours and/or shifts as they become available, in order of seniority. The call in lists shall be posted not later than 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday of each week in the same location as the weekly work schedule.

If an employee has not indicated to the company that he/she wishes his/her name removed from the call in list, and refuses a call in, then his/her name will be placed at the bottom of the call in list on the next date the employee has signed the list.

RE: ARTICLE 4.18 AND 4.19 OF THE AGREEMENT

It is understood that Articles 4.18 and 4.19 shall be interpreted in accordance with the spirit and intent set out below:

The Company and the Union recognize that the restaurant business cycle fluctuates, and consequently that specific scheduling requirements will fluctuate to reflect this reality. The Company agrees that senior employees have an implicit right to obtain more hours through the work week than junior employees; this is a basic tenet of the employer employee relationship. Therefore to the greatest extent possible, senior employees are entitled to be scheduled to the maximum available straight time shifts through the work week consistent with the provision of Article 4 (Days and Hours of Work and Overtime).

Planned reductions in hours and/or shifts will affect the most junior employee in the classification except when a reduction to that employee's shifts or hours would impact on an acceptable level of staffing and except when more senior employees request, in writing, fewer or limited hours and/or shifts during that week.

To ensure that the joint commitment as stated above is put into practice, the Company and the Union agree to meet on a regular basis to develop, monitor and improve the specific scheduling process throughout the entire operation.

When there is a disagreement on a specific scheduling application it shall be grieved at step 2 and failing agreement at that level the matter shall be pursued in accordance with the provisions of Article 12.

RE: SET SHIFTS

The Company and the Union recognize that, over time, employees regularly scheduled (independent of requests) or temporarily assigned shifts come to rely upon that pattern of scheduling.

The parties agree that, while management is entitled to alter lengths of shifts and start and finishing times in accordance with Article 4 and the Letters of Understanding regarding Article 4 (Maximization/staffing levels and call-in), an employee's pattern of scheduling, which may include temporary assignments to other classifications, once established for a period of nine (9) months or more, shall not be changed unless:

- (i) Such change is necessary to preserve the entitlement to hours of a senior classified employee; or
- (ii) In accordance with articles 8.08 (b) and (c) because of the return to work of an employee who regularly worked the shifts prior to a temporary assignment; or
- (iii) The failure of the employee to return from an approved leave in accordance with article 8.08 (b) results in a posting to which the employee(s) who worked the temporary assignment is not the successful applicant.

Employees working set shifts or restricted schedules shall remain available to be scheduled for alternate shifts subject to the operating needs of the business unless:

- (a) Such employees were hired on a restricted schedule basis; or

A request for a restricted schedule has been agreed to in writing by management

- (b) In cases (a) above, if there is a bonafide business need to change an employee's pattern of scheduling, the employee will be provided at least four (4) weeks notice of such change.
- (c) An employee who restricts his/her availability as outlined in (a) above must wait for shifts to vacate (temporarily or otherwise) prior to increasing his/her hours.

- (d) All employees subject to schedule changes shall be notified of the need for the change at least two (2) days in advance of the posting of the work schedule where the change will occur.

RE: IMPLEMENTATION OF GREETER/SEATER AND BUSSE CLASSIFICATIONS

Upon ratification of this agreement the following letter of understanding will be observed. Should there be any concerns or issues at the time of the implementation of this letter of understanding then the Company and Union representatives will meet to address these concerns or issues.

The Company and the Union recognize that there are employees who will be reclassified to the Greeter/Seater classification whose established pattern of scheduling includes shifts or hours for which they have been paid Host differential.

The Company will continue this pattern of differential payment to these individuals subject to the letter of understanding regarding business cycle fluctuations and the application of seniority.

Grandfathered Hosts, and all Greeter/Seaters will exist as a combined classification for as long as there are grandfathered Hosts and all applicable seniority provisions will apply. Grandfathered Hosts will continue their current pattern of scheduling, as per the letters of understanding regarding seniority and set shifts.

A Busser will not be scheduled independently of a Greeter/Seater or a grandfathered Host.

The classification of Service Assistant will be deleted. Existing employees will be reclassified into the Greeter/Seater and Busser classifications. No employee will receive a lesser wage than he/she is currently receiving as a result of this reclassification, and all employees will receive the agreed upon increases for non gratuity employees for the duration of the collective agreement.

Employees currently in the Host category will maintain their classification and rate (and will continue to progress through the wage scale in place prior to ratification) and in addition will receive all negotiated percentage increases for non gratuity employees for the duration of the collective agreement. No new employees will be hired into the category.

Note: The Employer has reviewed the employee lists to determine which employees are to be classified as Bussers upon ratification of this agreement. We feel the list is accurate however if an employee has been identified in error as a Busser rather than a Greeter/Seater, we will reclassify him/her appropriately. No additional current employees will be designated as Bussers, the balance of Service Assistants will be reclassified as Greeter/Seaters.

RE: OPTION TO WORK A 6TH SHIFT IF AVAILABLE

Notwithstanding the provisions of articles 4.01, 4.02 and 4.03 and the letters of understanding regarding 4.09d (call-in list) and 9.09/9.10 (maximization/ staffing levels), the parties agree that in an attempt to provide employees the opportunity to maximize their hours, employees may voluntarily opt to be scheduled for, or pick up, a maximum of 6 shifts at straight time, provided they do not exceed 40 hours within one week.

Employees must indicate, in writing prior to the posting of the schedule, their request to be scheduled a 6th shift, if available.

In addition, employees scheduled less than 40 hours in a week may indicate on the call in list posted for this purpose their interest in picking up additional straight time shifts and hours including a 6th shift, provided doing so does not place them in an over 40 hour position.

6th shifts, whether scheduled or by call in, must be offered in order of seniority to those who have indicated their interest in working 6th shifts.

RE: RED SEAL

During the collective bargaining process the parties discussed the evolution of the Red Seal Program. The parties recognize the program has undergone major changes, the scope of which is not yet clear.

White Spot continues to be committed to culinary training and is working with Propel, the industry training organization (ITO) for the culinary trade, on the evolution of White Spot's pilot program offering Professional Cook 1 and Professional Cook 2 training in house. It is White Spot's goal to be designated as a training provider. If feasible, White Spot intends to continue to provide training up to the level required to challenge the Red Seal exam.

The parties have agreed to ongoing dialogue regarding the program and:

- To continue to recognize the importance of this nationally recognized Industry Training Authority program (ITA) jointly.
- Subject to White Spot's successful accreditation, to offer, during the lifetime of this agreement, a minimum of two (2) additional Professional Cook and or Red Seal certification opportunities to members of the bargaining unit who have the educational and other requirements to pursue this designation.
- That the arrangements implemented through the pilot with regard to wages, scheduling and course materials will continue.
- That the Company and the Union will support initiatives to seek Employment Insurance to offset costs for employees involved in the program.
- That any employee chosen for the program will agree by contract to remain with the employer for the lifetime of the apprenticeship program (if applicable) or for a pre-agreed period post certification, unless otherwise agreed.
