9.5 Time Limits to Reply to Step 2

- (a) Within 10 calendar days of receiving the grievance at Step 2, the Executive Director (or designate), the employee and the shop steward shall meet to examine the facts, the nature of the grievance and attempt to resolve the dispute. This meeting may be waived by mutual agreement.
- (b) The Executive Director (or designate) shall reply in writing to the Union within 14 calendar days following the Step 2 meeting as per (a) above.

If the President of the Union (or designate) does not present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits, the grievance will be deemed to be abandoned. However, the Union shall not be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance.

9.9 Time Limit to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 3, and pursuant to Article 10, the President (or designate) may inform the Employer of his intention to submit the dispute to arbitration:

- (a) within 30 days after the Employer's reply is received;

Grievances and replies at Step 3 of the grievance procedure and notification to arbitrate shall be by Xpresspost, facsimile or agreed to email.

9.11 Dismissal or Suspension Grievances

- (a) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal, a suspension greater than 20 days or a suspension pending an investigation, the grievance may be filed directly at Step 3, within 30 days of the date on which the dismissal occurred, or within 30 days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal.

9.12 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

The Employer agrees that, after a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer's representative will not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly, with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union. In the event that after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that, pursuant to this clause, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.

9.13 Policy Grievance

Where either party to this agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an article of this agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, within 30 days of occurrence. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 10 of this agreement.

9.14 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties to this agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error, other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, an arbitration board shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

However, the Arbitrator shall not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.

10.5 Disagreement on Decision

10.7 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties but the same must be in writing.

10.8 Witnesses

At any stage of the grievance or arbitration, the parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses and any other witnesses. All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the concerned parties or the Arbitrator(s) to have access to the Employer's premises to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

10.9 Expedited Arbitration

- (a) The parties generally agree to refer to expedited arbitration any outstanding grievances considered suitable for this process, and shall set dates and locations for hearings of groups of grievances considered suitable for expedited arbitration.
- (b) All grievances shall be considered suitable for, and resolvable by, expedited arbitration except grievances in the nature of:
 - (1) grievances requiring substantial interpretation of a provision of the agreement;
 - (2) grievances requiring presentation of extrinsic evidence.

By mutual agreement a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process.

- (c) The Arbitrator shall be selected in accordance with the following:
 - All presentations shall be short and concise.

 - Where possible the parties will develop an agreed statement of facts.
 - All documents will be jointly submitted wherever possible.
 - The hearing will be conducted in an informal manner.
 - The parties may mutually agree to have the Arbitrator mediate the issues.

- (d) The Arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two workdays of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.
- (e) Expedited arbitration awards shall be of no precedential value and shall not thereafter be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter.
- (f) All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.
- (g) A grievance determined by either party to fall within one of the categories listed in (b) above may be removed from the expedited arbitration process at any time prior to hearing and forwarded to a regular arbitration hearing pursuant to Clause 10.3.
- (h) The parties shall equally share the cost of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator and hearing rooms.
- (i) The parties shall contact the LRB Mediation Division and request the services of a mediator to act in the capacity of arbitrator. - (a) The Employer, or any specifically authorized excluded representative of the Employer, may dismiss or suspend for just cause any employee who has completed her probationary period. Notice of dismissal or suspension shall be in writing and shall set forth the reasons for dismissal or suspension; when an employee is dismissed or suspended, she shall be given the reason in writing, in the presence of a steward providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. A copy of the written notice will be forwarded to the President of the Union or the designated staff representative within five workdays.
- (b) Suspension: A suspension of indefinite duration shall be considered a dismissal under Clause 11.1 above as soon as it exceeds 20 days and any grievance already filed shall be considered henceforth as a dismissal grievance.

11.2 Burden of Proof

In all cases of discipline, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer.

11.3 Right to Grieve Other Disciplinary Action

- (a) Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand and adverse reports.
- (b) An employee shall be given a copy of any document, report, incident or notation placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action.
- (c) Should an employee dispute any such entry in her file, she shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of her personnel record.

11.4 Personnel File

- (a) An employee or the President of the Union (or designate), with the written authority of the employee, shall be entitled to review an employee's personnel file, both paper and, if applicable, electronic. The file shall be reviewed in the place where the file is normally kept and in the presence of a designated management representative. The Employer will provide copies of the entries as requested. The employee or the President, as the case may be, shall give the Employer five workdays' notice prior to having access to such information.
- (b) Personnel files will be kept confidential and access will be given only to those supervisory personnel that require the information in the course of their duties. All employees are expected to promptly inform the Executive Director (or designate) of any changes to information on file in their personnel records (i.e., address or phone contact changes).
- (c) All disciplinary materials shall be removed after one year from date of incident, except for those materials relating to the safety and well-being of children in care. The employee may apply to the Board of Directors for a review to determine whether such materials shall be removed from the employee's file following the one-year period.
- (d) The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing.

11.5 Right to Have Union Representative Present

- (a) An employee shall have the right to have her steward present at any discussion with supervisory personnel, where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes. The supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact her steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken. This clause shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature.
- (b) A steward shall have the right to consult with a staff representative of the Union and to have a local union representative present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the steward believes might be the basis of disciplinary action against the steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

11.6 Abandonment of Position

An employee who fails to report for duty for five consecutive workdays without informing the Employer of the reason for her absence will be presumed to have abandoned her position. An employee shall be afforded the opportunity within 10 workdays to rebut such presumption and demonstrate that there were reasonable grounds for not informing the Employer.

- (b) Regular and casual employees shall be required to serve a probationary period, in accordance with this article. Where an employee has served a probationary period, pursuant to this article, they shall not be required to serve a further probationary period, except where they have bumped into a

(c) Each new employee shall serve a probationary period of three months worked or 350 hours, whichever occurs last.

(d) The Employer, with the agreement of the Union, may extend the probationary period for a further period not to exceed three months or 350 hours worked.

(e) Where an employee feels she has been aggrieved by the decision of the Employer to reject the employee during the probationary period, she may grieve the decision pursuant to the grievance procedure outlined in Article 9 of this agreement commencing at Step 3.

11.8 Employee Investigation

The parties agree that in certain situations it may be in the best interest of both clients and employees that employees be reassigned or removed from all job sites during an investigation of conduct. In cases where an employee cannot be reassigned, then the employee shall be considered to be on leave of absence without loss of pay until the Employer has determined there is a prima facie case for imposing discipline.

The Employer will make every effort to complete its investigation within 14 days. The Employer will notify the President of the Union (or designate) when an investigation of conduct has been initiated.
