THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into as of 1 January 2020

BETWEEN:

THE CITY OF VANCOUVER

(hereinafter called the "Employer")

OF THE FIRST PART

AND:

LOCAL 213, INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS

(hereinafter called the "Union")

OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS:

The Employer is an employer within the meaning of the Labour Relations Code, being Chapter 82 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1992;

The Union is the bargaining authority for those employees employed by the Employer as electronic technicians, lineworkers, wireworkers and helpers in the Electrical Operations Branch of the Electrical Division of the Engineering Department at Vancouver, B.C., except those excluded under the terms of the Labour Relations Code;

1. COVERAGE

THIS AGREEMENT shall constitute the wages and working conditions for the employees so certified.

2. TERM OF THE AGREEMENT

- (a) This Agreement shall be for a term of three (3) years with effect from 2020 January 01 to 2022 December 31 inclusive.

It is understood and agreed between the Employer and the Union that the operation of subsections (2) and (3) of Section 50 of the Labour Relations Code is hereby excluded from and shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

- (b) This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect and neither party shall make any change or alter the terms of this Agreement until:
- (i) the Union can lawfully strike in accordance with the provisions of Part 5 of the Labour Relations Code; or

- (ii) the Employer can lawfully lock out in accordance with the provisions of Part 5 of the Labour Relations Code; or
- (iii) the parties have concluded a renewal or revision of this Agreement or have entered into a new Collective Agreement;

whichever is the earliest.

3. UNION SECURITY

All present employees who are now members of the Union shall remain members of the Union. All persons employed on or after 26 June, 1975, shall apply to the Union to become members thereof by the pay period immediately following completion of thirty (30) calendar days of employment. All present employees who are now members of the Union and those employees who subsequently become members of the Union shall remain members of the Union as a condition of employment provided that no employee shall be deprived of employment by reason of loss of membership in the Union for reasons other than failure to pay the regular Union dues, in accordance with the Constitution of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the By-laws of Local 213 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, that all other members of the Union are required to pay to the Union nor shall any employee be deprived of employment by reason of the refusal of the Union to admit such employee to membership in the Union.

All employees covered by the Union Certificate of Bargaining Authority shall pay to the Union an amount equal to the Union's dues, such payment to be made by payroll deduction. This deduction shall become effective on the first day of the month coincident with or next following the date of appointment, but the deduction shall be made only if the employee is still in the employ of the Employer on the final day of the first pay period in that month. Deductions shall be made in respect of all subsequent months provided an employee works for a sufficient portion of the month to be required by the terms of the Union's Constitution and By-laws to contribute dues for that month. These arrangements shall remain in effect for so long as this Union remains the recognized bargaining authority.

4. RIGHTS OF MANAGEMENT

Any rights of management which are not specifically mentioned in this Agreement and are not contrary to its intention shall continue in full force and effect for the duration of this contract.

5. EMPLOYEE DEFINITIONS

The following terms defined in this Clause unless otherwise specifically provided herein, shall have for the purposes of this Agreement the meanings hereinafter specified:

- (a) "Regular Full-Time Employee" means an employee who is employed on a full-time basis of thirty-seven and one-half (37½) weekly hours for an indefinite period of time;
- (b) "Temporary Full-Time Employee" means an employee who is employed on a full-time basis as set forth above, for a definite and limited period of time (which may be extended or cut short by circumstances which could not be foreseen at the time of hiring).

6. REMUNERATION

6.1 Hourly Rates

The hourly rates of pay set out in Schedule "A" shall apply during the term of this Agreement and employees shall be paid bi-weekly.

6.2 Acting Pay

On every occasion that an employee is temporarily required to accept the responsibilities and carry out the full duties of a position covered by this Agreement which is at a higher rate of pay than the position which the employee normally holds, the employee shall be paid for every day that the duties of the higher rated position are carried out at the rate of pay for such position. Appointment of employees to a level of higher responsibility must be authorized in writing by the Superintendent.

6.3 Compensation for Instruction – Specialized Equipment

Employees designated by the Employer as instructors in the operation and/or maintenance of specialized equipment shall receive a premium of two dollars ($2.00) per hour while so instructing.

7. OVERTIME

- (a) The rate of pay for overtime on any regular working day shall be at the rate of 150% of the regular rate for the first two (2) hours of overtime immediately following an employee's regular shift or for the first two (2) hours of overtime immediately preceding an employee's regular shift where pre-scheduled by notice provided prior to the end of the employee's previous regular shift, and 200% of the regular rate for all other overtime worked.

It is understood that only two (2) hours of overtime on any regular working day shall be paid at the rate of 150% of the regular rate. Relief shall be for a period of not less than eight (8) hours.

- (b) Time worked by shift employees in excess of seven and one-half (7½) hours in twenty-four (24) hours (except when changing shift) shall be paid for as overtime.
- (c) Shift employees shall be paid at 200% of regular rates of pay for time worked on their scheduled days off.

PROVIDED THAT

(d) At the time of working overtime the employee may elect either:

- (i) to take time off equivalent to the overtime earned; or
- (ii) to receive pay for the overtime worked.
- (iii) Cost Recovery

Notwithstanding items (i) and (ii) above, where an employee works overtime to deal with situations where the Employer is able to recover the overtime costs from the Provincial Emergency Program, the Employer shall have the option of paying the employee for such overtime, or granting the employee compensating time off in lieu of being paid for such overtime.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 7(d):

- (i) should any employee at any time be entitled to twenty (20) days off as compensation for overtime worked, the Employer shall not allow such employee to work any further overtime until the employee has taken at least ten (10) days off;
- (ii) every employee shall be allowed to keep ten (10) days' overtime accumulated at all times except as provided in Clause 7(e)(iii); if an employee's overtime accumulates beyond fourteen (14) days, the Employer may schedule the employee's overtime off back to ten (10) days;
- (iii) after 1st October, the Employer shall, insofar as possible, schedule off all accumulated overtime earned before the end of each year and any overtime credit that still remains will be paid at 31st December. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that an employee shall be entitled to take time off equivalent to or receive payment for not more than five (5) working days' accumulated overtime remaining outstanding at 31st December in any calendar year not later than 1st September in the calendar year immediately following; such accumulated overtime to be credited to the employee at the rate of pay applicable in the calendar year in which it was earned.
- (iv) In each calendar year, an employee may request a single payment for previously earned overtime. Requests must be made to the General Manager or designate.

- (f) Every employee who works outside the employee's regular hours by prearrangement with the Employer shall be paid at 200% of regular rates, with a minimum of two (2) hours; provided however that:
 - (i) such minimum shall not apply to shift extensions prior to or following the employee's regular working hours, and
 - (ii) the employee shall not be entitled to payment for travel time to and from the place of work to which the employee is to report.

When scheduling pre-arranged overtime, the Employer will give preference to employees who have the fewest number of overtime hours, including those employees who reside outside the area shown outlined in black on the plan annexed hereto and marked Schedule "E". This preference shall not be given over an employee or employees who have prepared a job and have to "cut it in". The employees to whom preference is given under this Clause 7(g) shall be finally determined by the Employer or duly authorized representative. Pre-arranged overtime under this Clause 7(f) is not a callout within the meaning of Clause 8.

- (g) An employee who works overtime by prearrangement under (f) above commencing more than four (4) hours prior to the commencement of the employee's next regular working day shall:
 - (i) be entitled to a period of not less than eight (8) consecutive hours' relief calculated from the time the employee arrives home having proceeded directly thereto at the conclusion of the work the employee was prearranged to perform; and
 - (ii) report for work at the conclusion of such relief period or the commencement of the employee's next regular working day, whichever is the later, and carry on the employee's normal work at the appropriate rates of pay provided for in this Agreement until such time as the employee has earned the equivalent of the employee's normal day's pay, and if the Employer does not provide the employee with sufficient work to enable the employee to earn the employee's normal day's pay and the employee is available and able to work then in addition to the pay which the employee has earned for the time worked (if any), the Employer shall pay the employee for the time the employee would have worked had the Employer been able to provide the employee with work but such pay shall not exceed an amount equal to the employee's normal day's pay.
- (h) Notwithstanding the provisions of Clauses 7(d) and 7(e), no employee shall take time off in respect of overtime worked without first having obtained the approval of the Employer.

8. CALLOUT OR EMERGENCY PAY

- (a) An employee called out to work at any time other than overtime pre-scheduled prior to the end of the employee's regular previous shift shall be paid double time without exception for the time actually worked plus one (1) hour's allowance for travelling to and from home, with a minimum of three (3) hours' pay X two (2). If additional calls are made upon the employee prior to the expiry of the three (3) hour period or prior to the employee's arrival home, whichever last occurs, such additional calls shall not attract an additional three (3) hours minimum, but the employee shall be paid for the time actually worked plus an additional one (1) hour's allowance for travelling to and from home. If two (2) separate callouts are completed within a three (3) hour period, the minimum payment shall be four (4) hours X two (2).

The operation of this subclause is subject to a Letter of Understanding between the parties and dated 3 December, 1982, incorporating examples of the callout provisions.

- (b) Remote Access/Assistance

When an employee is contacted for assistance and is able to resolve the problem over the telephone (or by computer) and does not have to report to a worksite, the employee shall be paid double the employee's regular rate of pay for the actual time worked, with a minimum of one (1) hour. Any subsequent contact that occurs within one (1) hour of the first call shall not result in any additional payments. A telephone call that occurs after the one (1) hour period shall result in another one (1) hour payment at double the employee's regular rate of pay. An employee shall not be eligible for this form of callout should a return to the worksite (Callout, Clause 8(a) above) result from the issue being discussed.

- (c) An employee called to work within a period of four (4) hours prior to the commencement of the employee's regular working day shall be paid at 200% of the regular rate until the commencement of the employee's regular working day and at the employee's regular rate for the next seven and one-half (7½) working hours.
- (d) Any employee covered by this Agreement who is required to work on poles, towers or fixtures, at an elevation exceeding eighty (80) feet above the level of the surrounding ground shall be paid double the employee's regular rate for the time while actually employed above the said height of eighty (80) feet.
- (e) An employee who is called to work outside of the employee's normal working hours more than four (4) hours prior to the commencement of the employee's next regular working day shall:
- (i) be entitled to a period of not less than eight (8) consecutive hours' relief calculated from the time the employee arrives home having proceeded directly thereto at the conclusion of the work the employee was called out to perform; and

- (ii) report for work at the conclusion of such relief period or the commencement of the employee's next regular working day whichever is the later and carry on the employee's normal work at the appropriate rates of pay provided for in this Agreement until such time as the employee has earned the equivalent of the employee's normal day's pay and if the Employer does not provide the employee with sufficient work to enable the employee to earn the employee's normal day's pay and the employee is available and able to work then in addition to the pay which the employee has earned for the time worked (if any), the Employer shall pay the employee for the time the employee would have worked had the Employer been able to provide the employee with work but such pay shall not exceed an amount equal to the employee's normal day's pay.

(f) Callout Staffing

Subject To Schedule "E":

- (i) The Employer shall maintain a callout list of employees wishing to be available for callouts.
- (ii) If a callout is required, the employer shall call qualified employees on the callout list in batting order rotation. If there are no volunteers, the Employer shall assign the work to the most junior qualified employee.
- (iii) Notwithstanding Clause 8(f)(ii), in an emergency situation, the Employer may assign the work to the employee(s) based on operational needs. The Employer shall notify the union after invoking this clause.
- (iv) The employer shall be entitled to rely on the latest contact information provided by the employee.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Clause 8, the Employer shall not be required to call out or include in any callout schedule any employee living outside the area shown outlined in black on the plan hereunto annexed and marked Schedule "E". Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Employer in its discretion, from calling out employees residing outside the said area.

Any difference concerning the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee or the interpretation, application or operation of this Agreement, or any alleged violation thereof, including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, shall be dealt with without stoppage of work in the following manner:

- (a) The aggrieved employee shall first take up the matter with the immediate supervisor within ten (10) calendar days of the occurrence of the incident, it being understood, however, that a grievance may be filed by the Shop Steward or the Union within ten (10) calendar days of their becoming aware of the occurrence. At the option of the aggrieved employee a Shop Steward or Union representative may be present at the meeting.
- (b) If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved within ten (10) calendar days of being referred to the immediate supervisor, the aggrieved employee, the Shop Steward or the Union representative shall, within a further ten (10) calendar days, give in writing full particulars of the grievance to the City Engineer.

- (c) If the alleged grievance is not settled within ten (10) calendar days of being referred to the City Engineer, the matter shall, within a further ten (10) calendar days, be referred to the City Manager who shall arrange for meetings with the Union within ten (10) calendar days from receipt of such request.
- (d) If the alleged grievance is not settled within ten (10) calendar days of the meeting with the City Manager, then within a further ten (10) calendar days, the Union may refer the matter to a Board of Arbitration for final and conclusive determination, without stoppage of work.
- (e) The time limits set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) above may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties.

13.2 General Application Dispute

When a "dispute", as defined in the Labour Relations Code, arises between the parties, including any difference concerning the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement which does not specifically involve an employee, the matter may be submitted in writing by the Union to the City Engineer or General Manager, Human Resources or, alternatively, by the Employer to the Union, as the case may be. If a satisfactory settlement is not reached with the City Engineer or General Manager, Human Resources and the Union within ten (10) calendar days of being submitted in writing, such matter may, within a further ten (10) calendar days, be referred to the City Manager as provided for in Clause 13.1(c).

If a satisfactory settlement is not reached within ten (10) calendar days of being referred to the City Manager then, within a further ten (10) calendar days, such matter may be referred to Arbitration under Clause 13.1(d) and as provided for in Clause 13.3.

13.3 Arbitration

A board of arbitration shall consist of three (3) persons, one (1) to be chosen by each party and the third, who shall be chairperson, to be selected by the two (2) so appointed. The representatives of the parties concerned must meet within ten (10) calendar days of appointment and are allowed a further ten (10) calendar days to agree upon a chairperson. If they are unable to agree upon or otherwise fail to appoint a chairperson either party may apply to the Minister of Labour to appoint a chairperson. In all other respects the provisions of the Labour Relations Code shall apply. The decision of the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding on both parties. Each party shall bear the expenses of the arbitrator appointed by such party and shall pay half the expense of the chairperson.

14. AGREEMENT AS TO CONDITIONS NOT MENTIONED

Any working conditions, holiday benefits, welfare benefits or other conditions of employment at present in force and recognized by both parties which are not specifically mentioned in this Agreement and are not contrary to its intention shall continue in full force and effect for the duration of this contract.

15. OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH PLAN

All employees covered by this Agreement shall be subject to the provisions of the Occupational Health Plan as agreed to between the Employer and the Union.

16. EMPLOYMENT EQUITY

The Employer and the Union agree with the concept of employment equity which will assist visible minorities, persons with disabilities, First Nations people, and women in gaining entry into employment and which will provide opportunities for advancement.

17. SHOP STEWARD

The Union shall keep the Employer informed of the names of Shop Stewards representing the employees, such information to be provided on a current basis and in writing.

18. HUMAN RIGHTS

The Employer and Union agree that any form of discrimination (including sexual harassment) under the prohibited grounds of the B.C. Human Rights Code shall not be tolerated in the workplace. The prohibited grounds of discrimination under the BC Human Rights Code are: race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, political belief, religion, marital status, family status, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age and criminal or summary conviction for an offence that is unrelated to the employment of that person.

19. CONTRACTING OUT OF WORK

It is agreed between the Employer and the Union that the Employer shall be free so far as it desires to do so to enter into a contract or contracts with any bona fide electrical or electronic contractor or contractors for the performance or provision of the work and/or services or any part of such work and/or services presently performed by the electronic technicians, lineworkers, wireworkers and helpers in the Electrical Operations Branch of the Electrical Division of the Engineering Department of the Employer under the terms of this Agreement, or such other work and/or services or any part of such other work and/or services coming within the jurisdiction of the Union.

If the Employer takes a decision to enter into any contract or contracts as hereinbefore provided then the Employer shall be at liberty at any time thereafter as it sees fit to lay off any or all of the employees covered by this Agreement in accordance with Clause 20.

Nothing contained in this Clause shall in any way restrict, hinder, limit or impede the Employer's right to dismiss or lay off an employee covered by this Agreement for any other lawful reason or grounds.

20. LAYOFF AND RECALL

In the event of a conflict between this Clause 20 and any other provision of the Agreement, this Clause shall apply.

For the purpose of this Clause 20, the following definitions apply:

"classification" means one of those as set out in Schedule "B", except that Trades Supervisor and Leadhand shall be considered in their respective journeypersons classifications, and apprentices, including completed apprentices, shall be considered in the helper classification;

"classification seniority" means the length of continuous regular full-time employment since the last date of hire in the classification held at the time of layoff;

"competent" means having the skills, knowledge and abilities, as evaluated by the Employer, and the requisite trades qualifications to perform the duties and fulfill the responsibilities of a position, and "competence" has a similar meaning;

"laid off employee" means an employee who ceases work as a result of a layoff but does not include a terminated employee;

"layoff" means a reduction in the work force for an indefinite period of time;

"other employment" means work that may be made available by the Employer to laid off employees and does not constitute a recall as herein defined;

"recall" means the return of a laid off employee, as the regular incumbent, to a regular full-time position in the same classification as that held at the time of layoff;

"terminated employee" means an employee who is terminated pursuant to paragraph (b)(vi) of this Clause 20, or who elects or is deemed to have elected compensation pursuant to paragraph (a)(iv);

"work force" means Regular Full-Time Employees, it being understood that temporary employees and probationary employees shall be eliminated by classification subject to their competence before a layoff occurs in that classification.

(a) The following principles shall apply in the event of a layoff:

(i) A layoff shall be effected by the Employer in accordance with the principle that in each classification to be reduced the least senior employee(s) shall be laid off provided that the remaining employees possess the competence for the remaining positions.

- (ii) Employees who are to be laid off shall be given at least ten (10) working days' written notice (or pay in lieu of notice or combination of both) advising them of their effective date of layoff.
- (iii) Benefits for laid off employees shall cease on the effective date of layoff with the exception of medical, extended health and dental, which shall be discontinued effective the end of the month in which the effective date of layoff occurs.
- (iv) At least five (5) working days prior to their effective date of layoff employees will be required to elect in writing to avail themselves of the procedures set forth under paragraph (b) Recall OR paragraph (c) Compensation. If an employee fails to make such election within the specified time period the employee shall be deemed to have elected (c) Compensation.

(b) Recall

The following shall apply only to laid off employees who have elected this process pursuant to paragraph (a)(iv) of this Clause 20:

- (i) Laid off employees shall be eligible for recall for a period of six (6) months following their effective date of layoff.
- (ii) The Employer shall make every reasonable attempt to contact and recall laid off employees in order of classification seniority, subject to their competence.
- (iii) In recalling a laid off employee, the Employer shall advise the employee by double-registered letter directed to the latest mailing address provided by the employee. If any employee intends to be out of town during the recall period the Employer shall be advised and the Employer may make alternate arrangements for the provision of recall notice. A laid off employee who does not respond within two (2) working days of the Employer's attempt to make contact shall no longer be eligible for recall and shall be deemed terminated.
- (iv) The Employer shall specify the time when a laid off employee shall report for recall, providing that the Employer shall, upon request allow the employee to report to work up to five (5) working days from the date of the Employer's initial attempt to contact the employee. A laid off employee who refuses to, or does not report as specified by the Employer, as determined in this paragraph, shall be deemed terminated, provided however that an employee who cannot report solely due to illness or injury shall be bypassed, but shall otherwise remain eligible for recall.
- (v) Benefits for employees who are recalled shall be reinstated effective their first day of work, with the exception of medical, extended health and dental which shall be reinstated effective the first day of the month following recall, provided the eligibility period has been met. Service related benefits shall be prorated by the period of layoff.

- (vi) Laid off employees shall be deemed terminated upon the earliest of: refusal of recall, failure to respond to recall pursuant to paragraph (b)(iii), failure to report for recall pursuant to paragraph (b)(iv), or failure to be recalled within six (6) months of layoff PROVIDED THAT an employee shall not be deemed terminated pursuant to this paragraph while working at other employment as defined herein. Terminated employees shall receive written notice of the effective date of termination.
- (vii) No new Regular Full-Time Employees shall be hired in a classification while competent employees are eligible for recall.
- (viii) A laid off employee's acceptance or refusal of other employment as herein defined shall not affect recall rights under this Clause 20.

(c) Compensation

The following shall apply only to laid off employees who have elected this process, or who are deemed to have elected this process, pursuant to paragraph (a)(iv) of this Clause 20:

- (i) For the purpose of paragraph (ii) only:

"week's pay" means a laid off employee's straight time hourly classified rate of pay, excluding all premium pay, times thirty-seven and one half (37½) normal weekly hours.
- (ii) Laid off employees shall be entitled to compensation of two (2) weeks' pay for between six (6) months and up to and including two (2) years of continuous service, and one (1) additional week's pay for each completed continuous year of service thereafter, subject to a total maximum of sixteen (16) weeks' pay.
- (iii) Employees who elect or are deemed to have elected compensation pursuant to paragraph (a)(iv) shall be considered terminated on the effective date of layoff.

21. TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF WORK

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement in cases of circumstances beyond the control of the Employer, for example, but not limited to, strikes, lockouts or work shortages, the Employer may temporarily reduce or suspend the hours of work of employees for a period of time not to exceed twenty (20) continuous working days. Commencing on the second day the Employer shall attempt to adjust the application of the temporary suspension so that in each classification the least senior employees are affected subject to their competence. Seniority and benefits shall be unaffected by the temporary reduction or suspension. Following the commencement of a temporary reduction or suspension of hours of work pursuant to this Clause, the Employer and the Union may mutually agree to another method of effecting the temporary reduction or suspension of hours.

22. NEGOTIATIONS

It is understood between the Union and the Employer that Schedule "F" annexed hereto containing certain items from the 1995 and 2000 negotiations shall form an integral part of this Agreement.

 - d. The plan will be financed by the Employer's general revenues.

 7. An apprentice who has obtained a Certificate of Qualification and a Certificate of Apprenticeship shall be assigned to the position of Journeyperson in their respective trade. If no Journeyperson's position is immediately open in the Electrical Branch, subject to the availability of work, the apprentice will be retained on staff in the branch for a maximum of six (6) months at the final step of the appropriate apprentice pay scale as provided in Schedule "A". After expiration of the said six (6) month period, the Employer shall have no obligation to continue the apprentice's employment. If the employment should end pursuant to this clause it will not be considered a layoff.
 8. Apprentices who are retained will not obtain seniority until permanently assigned to a Journeyperson position.
 9. Where an apprentice is absent from work by reason of sickness or injury, the term of such apprentice's contract shall be extended accordingly, PROVIDED THAT such extension shall not exceed six (6) months in duration without the approval of the City Engineer.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING between the

CITY OF VANCOUVER

(the "Employer")

and the

INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS, LOCAL 213

(ELECTRICAL DIVISION)

(the "Union")

RE: JOB SHARING

The Employer and the Union agree that where a Regular Full-Time Employee wished to share their full-time position, that such job sharing agreements be mutually agreed upon using the following principles PROVIDED HOWEVER, that nothing in this Letter of Understanding shall be construed as altering the existing rights and/or obligations of either party under the Collective Agreement, except as specifically provided herein:

1. General

Where a Regular Full-Time Employee occupying a regular full-time position wishes to share their position with another employee and has received formal approval from the Department Head and the Union, the employee shall be entitled to do so in accordance with the provisions of this Letter of Understanding.

2. Procedure

- (a) A Regular Full-Time Employee shall apply in writing to their Department Head indicating the reason for the request including the hours and days of the week the employee wishes to share and with whom the employee contemplates the job sharing arrangement. A copy of this request shall be forwarded to the Chief Human Resources Officer or designate and the Union.
- (b) The employee with whom it is contemplated the position shall be shared must be qualified to perform the duties and responsibilities of the position.
- (c) Where an employee's request is approved and results in an acceptable job sharing arrangement, the Chief Human Resources Officer or designate shall provide each affected employee with a letter covering the terms and conditions of the Job Sharing arrangement signed by the Employer and Union.

- (d) Under normal circumstances, the regular daily and weekly hours of the position shall remain unchanged as a result of the Job Sharing arrangement unless otherwise varied by the terms and conditions as provided by the letter referred to in paragraph (c) above.
- (e) Where an employee's request is denied, the Union may request a meeting with the Department Head and Chief Human Resources Officer or designate to discuss the matter.

3. Duration

- (a) Each Job Sharing arrangement shall be for a maximum period of one (1) year unless extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.
- (b) A Job Sharing arrangement may be terminated earlier than expected by either of the employees or by the Employer provided thirty (30) calendar days' written notice has been served to the other parties, unless otherwise provided for in the letter referred to in paragraph 2(c). Other employees temporarily appointed to fill positions vacated as a direct result of job sharing shall be advised at the time of their temporary appointment that their term in the position could be cut short as a result of an early cancellation.
- (c) Upon the expiry or termination of the Job Sharing arrangement, the Regular Full-Time Employee shall revert to working in their position on a full-time basis under the terms and conditions applicable to Regular Full-Time Employees unless some other Job Sharing arrangement has been agreed upon.

4. Employee Status and Working Conditions

- (a) A Regular Full-Time Employee in a Job Sharing arrangement shall continue to maintain the status of a Regular Full-Time Employee during the period of time covered by the Job Sharing arrangement and shall accumulate seniority in proportion to the scheduled hours compared to the full-time hours of the position. Such an employee shall be entitled to exercise bidding rights as a Regular Full-Time Employee and to use accumulated seniority for all applicable purposes including layoff, and recall.

- (b) The general principles with respect to wage rates, employee benefit entitlements and premium payments for Regular Full-Time Employees in Job Sharing arrangements are as follows:
 - (1) Wages shall be paid in accordance with the ratio that the employee's scheduled weekly hours bears to the full-time hours of the position being shared.
 - (2) Paid leave benefits, such as Vacation, Public Holidays, Sick Leave and Gratuity shall be earned on a proportionate basis in accordance with the ratio that the employee's scheduled weekly hours bears to the full-time hours of the position being shared.
 - (3) The employee's share of the premium payments for Health and Welfare benefits, such as Medical, Extended Health, Dental and Group Life shall increase proportionately as the number of scheduled weekly hours decrease in relation to the full-time hours of the position being shared.
- (c) In accordance with the general principles outlined in paragraph 4(b), except as otherwise stated, the following shall apply to Regular Full-Time Employees:
 - (1) Vacation Entitlement and Special Leave

The employee's annual vacation and special leave entitlement shall be prorated according to the number of weekly hours the employee is scheduled to work in comparison to the full-time hours of the position being shared. It is understood that the Employer shall not adjust the start date of the employee for the period of time spent in the Job Sharing arrangement and as such any future vacation entitlement shall not be delayed as a result of time spent in a Job Sharing arrangement.
 - (2) Public Holidays
 - (a) Where an employee's normal hours of work are based on a five (5) day week, the employee shall take public holidays as they occur. The employee's public holiday entitlement and pay shall be earned on a proportionate basis in accordance with the ratio that the employee's scheduled weekly hours bears to the full-time hours of the position being shared.
 - (b) Where the employee has not received sufficient public holiday hours as part of their work schedule or been credited with sufficient hours as a result of the proration or made alternate arrangements to the satisfaction of the department to use public holiday hours to which they were entitled as a result of the proration, the employee's public holiday account shall be credited with the appropriate number of hours at year end.

- (c) Where the employee has received an overage on the number of paid hours, the employee may be scheduled to work without pay to make up the equivalent number of overpaid hours. Where the Employer is not able to schedule work for the employee, arrangements shall be made to deduct the overage either from the employee's compensating time off account or from the employee's normal pay and such deduction is to be done at year end or at the expiry of the Job Sharing arrangement, whichever is the earlier.

(3) Medical Services Plan, Extended Health, Dental and Group Life

The Employer shall pay a prorated share of the premiums for the above-noted benefits based on the proportion of the employee's new scheduled hours compared to the full-time hours of the position being shared and the premiums normally paid by the Employer for a full-time employee. The employee shall pay the balance in order to maintain full coverage.

An example of the calculation of the Employer's share is as follows:

$$\text{Employer's share} = 19 \text{ (scheduled hours)} / 37.5 \text{ (normal full-time hours)} \times 75\% \text{ (employer's portion of premium)} = 3\% \text{ of premium}$$

(4) Sick Leave and Gratuity

For the period of the Job Sharing arrangement, the employee shall have sick leave and gratuity days credited on a prorated basis, calculated on the same proportionate basis as the employee's new scheduled hours bears to the full-time hours of the position being shared.

(5) VESP

The employee shall continue to be entitled to VESP on the basis of 1½% of the reduced earnings.

(6) Superannuation

Where an employee is contributing to superannuation and enters a Job Sharing arrangement, the employee shall be required to continue making payments toward superannuation. The cost sharing arrangement shall continue on the same percentage basis applied to the reduced earnings.

6. Termination

Either party may cancel this Letter of Understanding by providing at least thirty (30) calendar days' written notice to the other party.
