Land Acknowledgement

Royal Roads University members acknowledge that we learn, work, and live on the traditional lands of the Xwsepsum (Esquimalt) and Lekwungen (Songhees) ancestors and families who have lived here for thousands of years. This land has been part of the fabric of the life of Indigenous communities long before Hatley Castle was built, and it will be long into the future. It is with gratitude that we now learn and work here, where the past, present and future of Indigenous and non-Indigenous students, faculty and staff come together.

No individual employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the University without the proper authorization of the Union. In order that this may be carried out, the Union will provide the University with a written list of the names of those so authorized and any changes made from time to time to that list. ARTICLE 4: NO DISCRIMINATION OR HARASSMENT

4.01 Definitions of Discrimination and Harassment

(a) Discrimination

All employees have the right to work in an environment free from discrimination. Discrimination is defined as interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee in a discriminatory manner.

The University will foster a climate of understanding and mutual respect free from discrimination on the basis of the prohibited grounds of the Human Rights Code of British Columbia which prohibits discrimination because of the Indigenous identity, race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, political belief, religion, marital status, family status, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or age of that person or because that person has been convicted of a criminal or summary conviction offence that is unrelated to the employment or to the intended employment of that person.

The University is committed to upholding the Human Rights Code of British Columbia and will work together with the Union to develop regular staff education sessions.

(b) Personal Harassment

All employees have the right to work in an environment free from harassment. Personal harassment is defined as abusive, unfair or demeaning treatment of a person or group of persons that has the effect or purpose of unreasonably interfering with a person's or group's status or performance or creating a hostile or intimidating working or educational environment when such treatment abuses the power that one person holds over another, misuses authority, or has the effect or purpose of seriously threatening or intimidating a reasonable person.

(c) Sexual Harassment

All employees have the right to work in an environment free from sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is defined as unwanted sexual advances made by a person who knows or ought reasonably to know that such advances are unwanted, implied or expressed promises of reward for complying with a sexual advance or request, implied or expressed threat of reprisal, or the denial of opportunity, for refusal to comply with a sexual advance or request, or sexually oriented literature, or remarks and behaviour which may reasonably be perceived to create a negative psychological and emotional environment for work .

- (c) Where the required consent has been given to a Shop Steward for time off during working hours to perform Union duties, excluding bargaining and arbitration, such time off shall be given without loss of pay for:

- i. Stewards to perform their duties within the area in which they work, or in another work area in circumstances where the Steward for the other area is not available and consent is granted in accordance with Article [5.04(b)];
- ii. Any Union representatives whose presence is requested by the Committee at an ad hoc joint Committee meeting which has been requested by either party and agreed to by the Associate Vice-President, Human Resources, or their designate, subject to the approval of their Manager; and

All employees within the bargaining unit will be required to sign an authorization for dues, fees and assessments deductions. A copy of this authorization will be sent to the Union.

6.02 Deduction of Dues

The University shall deduct Union dues, fees and assessments in each regular pay period.

6.03 Direct Remittance

Deductions shall be forwarded in one (1) cheque to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union not later than ten (10) working days following the period for which the dues were deducted. The cheque shall be accompanied by a list in duplicate of the names, total wages and dues deducted.

6.04 T-4 Slips

T-4 income tax forms issued to employees will include the amount of Union dues deducted in that taxation year.

ARTICLE 7: EMPLOYER AND UNION SHALL ACQUAINT NEW EMPLOYEES

7.01 New Employees

The University agrees to acquaint new employees in their letter of offer with the fact that a Union Agreement is in effect, and with the conditions of employment set out in the Articles dealing with Union Security and Check-off of Union Dues. A letter from the Union welcoming new employees will also be included in the package sent to the new employee upon hiring.

7.02 Interviewing Opportunity

On commencing employment the employee's immediate supervisor shall introduce the new employee to their union officer or representative so that they are aware of the union, the existence of the collective agreement and the determination of the parties to maintain harmonious labour relations. The President of the union or their designate shall be given an opportunity once per month for a maximum of thirty minutes to meet with regular and temporary employees hired during the previous month for the purpose of acquainting the new employee with the benefits and duties of Union membership and their responsibilities and obligations to the University and the Union.

ARTICLE 8: CORRESPONDENCE

8.01 Correspondence

All correspondence between the parties shall pass between the Associate Vice-President, Human Resources of the University and the President of the Union.

ARTICLE 9: LABOUR MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

Intent: It is the intent of both parties to encourage on-going dialogue between the parties aimed at prompt and effective response to all issue and opportunities. This will most often occur during regular interaction between members of the Union Executive and members of management. In addition, a more formal Structure will be established as follows:

9.01 Labour Management Committee

A Labour Management Committee shall be established consisting of not more than the four (4) executive committee members and the National Representative of the Union and an equal number of representatives of the University. Union representatives shall not suffer any loss of pay for time spent at committee meetings. An executive committee member of the LMC who is scheduled to work on the day of an LMC meeting will be paid at their straight time rate for any time in attendance at the LMC meeting that is outside of their scheduled shift. The meetings will be held six times per year or at the request of either party at a mutually acceptable time and place. Meetings may be cancelled by mutual agreement if there are no agenda items. The Committee shall be empowered to discuss any issue arising between the parties but shall not have the power to open the collective agreement.

ARTICLE 10: BARGAINING RELATIONS

The following provisions will apply only to the bargaining associated with the renewal of the Collective Agreement under the terms of the Labour Relations Code.

10.01 Representatives

The University shall not bargain with or enter into any agreement with an employee or group of employees in the bargaining unit unless they are authorized representatives of the Union per Article 3.03. In representing an employee or group of employees, an elected or appointed representative of the Union shall be the Spokesperson.

10.02 Union Bargaining Committee

A Union Bargaining Committee shall be elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of the Union constitution and shall consist of not more than four (4) members of the Union. The Union will advise the University of the names of these Committee members.

10.03 Time Off for Meetings

Union Bargaining Committee members shall have the right to attend Collective Bargaining sessions held during working hours without loss of pay (excluding shift differentials or premiums) or benefits but shall be responsible for advising their Supervisor in advance of their intended absence. Such notice should be given as much in advance of the intended absence as possible. The Union and the University shall share equally the costs of pay for the members of the Union Bargaining Committee, to a maximum of three (3) members, and with the understanding that the current practice of employees attending bargaining sessions on a regularly scheduled day off without remuneration for those days will continue.

The parties will attempt to schedule bargaining days so that Bargaining Committee members do not have to come off a night shift before bargaining or go onto an afternoon or night shift after bargaining.

However, if such proves necessary this Article will apply and the parties will share equally the cost of pay for the member(s) so affected.

10.04 Technical Information

To encourage the mutual understanding of the parties, the University will entertain requests to provide the Union such information that may be required by the Union for collective bargaining. Such requests will not be unreasonably denied. The University shall not be required to provide information that it considers confidential.

ARTICLE 14: SENIORITY

14.01 Seniority Defined

Regular Employees - regular employee seniority is defined as the length of service in the bargaining unit of a regular full-time or regular part-time employee since the employee's date of hire to a position in the bargaining unit, except as expressly provided herein. Under no circumstances will an employee's date of hire for seniority purposes be prior to the union's certification date of May 30, 1996. Employees who have the common hire date of May 30, 1996 shall be placed in preferential seniority order in the following fashion:

- (a) First, in order of the last date of hire into a permanent position with the D.N.D. before the transfer of property, under the lease agreement, to the University;
- (b) Second, for those not covered by (a) above, the date of hire by the University before the Union's certification date of May 30, 1996.
- (c) Third, for those not covered by (b) above, a one time only lottery name draw to be done in the presence of a designate from the Union and one from the Employer.
- (d) Conversion to Regular Employee

When an Employee becomes a Regular Employee, that Employee will be assigned a seniority date which reflects their total hours worked converted to calendar days and backdated according to the following formula:

Step 1: Hours of Work to Regular Days:
$$\text{Total hours worked up to the date the employee becomes a Regular Employee} / 7.5 \text{ hours} = \text{Regular Days}$$

Step 2: Regular Days to Calendar Days:
$$\text{Total \# of Regular Days times } 1.4 = \text{Calendar Days}$$

Step 3: Backdate Calendar Days:
Take the Total Calendar Days and backdate from the first day of the effective date the employee becomes a Regular Employee.

The above calculation will occur on a one-time basis when the Employee becomes a Regular Employee and will be this employee's seniority date under the collective agreement.

Seniority shall operate on a bargaining unit wide basis.

14.02 Seniority List

(a) Seniority for Regular Employees

The University shall maintain, on a monthly basis, a seniority list showing the date upon which each Regular employee's service commenced. Where two (2) or more employees commence work on the same day, their relative seniority shall be determined pursuant to Article 14.01(c).

(b) Seniority for Casual/Temporary Employees

Employees in casual/temporary appointments shall accrue seniority based on hours worked. The University shall maintain a seniority list for this purpose which shall be updated at least quarterly. This seniority shall apply only for:

- i. casual employees pursuant to Schedule B; and,
- ii. casual and temporary employees pursuant to Article 15 Job Posting Process.

(c) Current seniority lists shall be maintained in a "read only" computer file which may be accessed electronically by any employee at any time. The lists shall also be posted by the union, on union bulletin boards.

(d) Employees shall have fifteen (15) days from the posting of the lists to appeal their placement on the list and, if necessary, to file a grievance through the union.

(e) Moving from Regular to Casual

When a regular full-time or regular part-time employee resigns their position and is subsequently re-hired by the University as a casual employee in the same classification, without a break in service, the employee's regular seniority will be converted to hours for the purpose of placing the employee on the call-in list, as follows:

- i. For each completed year of full-time service from the employee's regular seniority date to the resignation date, the employee will be credited with 1950 hours of seniority for call-in purposes. Partial years and/or part-time service will be pro-rated accordingly.

- ii. If the regular employee converting to casual status were to become the “#1 casual” on the list following the conversion of hours, their seniority would be capped upon placement on the list such that they are only 37.5 hours ahead of the next casual on the list. For example, if the converting employee’s seniority would be 6000 hours after calculating their regular seniority, but the next casual on the list has only 700 hours of casual seniority, then the converting employee’s seniority would be capped at 737.5 hours upon placement on the list.

The University is under no obligation to re-hire the resigning employee as a casual employee, and the decision to re-hire is at the sole discretion of the University, subject to the language of Article 15.

The University and the Union shall ensure that the application of this Article is in compliance with Municipal Pension Plan rules regarding the employment of an employee who has retired and is receiving pension payment.

14.03 Loss of Seniority

An employee shall not lose seniority if they are absent from work because of sickness, disability, accident, layoff or leave approved by the University.

An employee shall only lose their seniority in the event that:

- (a) they are discharged and are not reinstated;
- (b) they resign their position;
- (c) they are absent from work without authority for more than two (2) working days unless they had a justifiable reason for having failed to notify their supervisor;
- (d) they fail to return to work within two (2) working days following a strike or lockout unless they had a justifiable reason for having failed to request permission to delay their return to work;
- (e) they accept a permanent position outside of the bargaining unit and successfully complete the probation period pursuant to Article 14.04 or if they refuse to return to their former position after the expiry of a temporary appointment pursuant to Article 14.04;
- (f) they fail to return to work on the dates specified following an approved leave of absence (extenuating circumstances excepted);
- (g) they are laid off for more than one year;
- (h) they are sent notice of recall from lay-off and fails to report for duty within four (4) working days of receipt of recall notice (extenuating circumstances excepted);
- (i) Casual employees who refuse eight (8) call-ins within a twelve (12) month period or who do not work in a RRU bargaining unit position in any six (6) month period shall lose accrued seniority and be struck from the list as outlined in Schedule B(2)(f)(i). In this instance, the casual employee’s employment is deemed to be terminated. The University may re-hire the casual employee, however, the employee's seniority for call-in purposes would start back at zero hours.

- (j) an external applicant who is appointed to a temporary appointment shall lose accrued seniority and be terminated upon the expiry of the temporary appointment.

14.04 Transfer and Seniority Outside Bargaining Unit

No employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without their consent. If an employee is transferred to a position outside of the bargaining unit, they shall retain their seniority accumulated up to the date of leaving the unit, but will not accumulate any further seniority. If the position to which the employee is transferred is a permanent position, they shall only have the right to return to their former position in the bargaining unit during the trial period in the employee's new position. If the position to which the employee is transferred is for a fixed term, the employee shall have the right to return to their former position in the bargaining unit at the completion of the term.
