THIS AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO THIS 1st DAY OF JANUARY 2024

BETWEEN: COCA-COLA CANADA BOTTLING LIMITED
(hereinafter referred to as the "Company")
PARTY OF THE FIRST PART

AND: TEAMSTERS LOCAL UNION NO. 31
(hereinafter referred to as the "Union")
PARTY OF THE SECOND PART

1. BARGAINING AGENCY AND DEFINITION

- (a) The Company recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agency of all employees as set out in the Certificate of Bargaining Authority.
- (b) The term "employee" as used in this Agreement shall apply to any person performing work in any job which is covered by the Certificate and this Agreement. In the event that any person is taken into employment (i.e. performs work of any kind) and there is no classification or wage rate contained in this Agreement for the job which that person would be doing, then the Union and the Company shall immediately negotiate a classification and wage rate for that person. Failure to agree by the parties, either party shall have the right to have the matter referred to a Board of Arbitration as contained in this Agreement.
- (c) All work within the bargaining unit shall be performed only by Union persons coming within the bargaining unit who are members of the Union as prescribed herein, or who are eligible to become members under Article Three (3) herein, except for work of an instructional or emergency nature or due to the non-availability of bargaining unit personnel.

The Company agrees that there will be no layoff, reduction in the hours of work of any employee or postponement of recall of an employee on layoff by reason of the performance of work that is in the care and control of the Company by persons other than members of the bargaining unit.

- (d) A "probationary employee" shall mean a newly hired employee that has not completed sixty-five (65) accumulative days worked for the Company. There shall be no responsibility on the part of the Company in respect of the employment of probationary employees should they be laid off for lack of work or discharged during the probationary period. However, the Company shall inform the probationary employee as to whether they have been discharged or laid off and the reasons therefore. Probationary employees shall be called into work on an as needed basis, in accordance with their date of hire.
- (e) A "part time employee" shall:
 - (i) be an employee that has completed sixty-five (65) accumulative days worked for the Company.
 - (ii) be hired on an incidental and temporary basis to provide for additional workers.
 - (iii) be carried on a part time employee's seniority list from their original date of hire with the Company.

- (iv) be given first opportunity to qualify as a regular employee as openings become available, providing they meet all Company qualifications and requirements.
 - (v) not be covered under the provisions of the Health and Welfare Plan until such time as they becomes a regular employee.
- (f) A "regular employee" shall:
- (i) mean an employee that has completed fifteen hundred (1500) hours of work for the Company from their anniversary date of hire to the next succeeding anniversary date of hire. An employee that completes the fifteen hundred (1500) hours requirement shall be placed on the regular employee's seniority list, effective from the first day of calculation of the fifteen hundred (1500) hour period.
 - (ii) be entitled to coverage under the Health and Welfare Plan and the Pension Plan as per the Plan's text.
 - (iii) make himself available to the Company for full time employment.
 - (iv) have no other outside employment, except where such employment may be specifically permitted under the provisions of this Agreement.
 - (v) it shall not be a cause for discipline or discharge for an employee to seek and/or accept gainful employment while on lay off, provided the employee complies with sub-section "iii" herein.

2. DURATION OF AGREEMENT

- (a) This Agreement shall be in full force and effect from and including January 1, 2024 to and including December 31, 2030 and shall continue in full force and effect from year to year thereafter, subject to the right of either party to this Agreement within four (4) months immediately preceding the expiry date, or immediately preceding the anniversary date in any year thereafter, by written notice to the other party, require the other party to commence collective bargaining with a view to the conclusion of a renewal or revision of the collective agreement or a new collective agreement.
- (b) Should either party give written notice to the other party pursuant hereto, this Agreement shall thereafter continue in full force and effect until the Union shall give notice of strike and such strike has been implemented or the Company shall give notice of lockout and such lockout has been implemented, or the parties shall conclude a renewal or revision of the Agreement or a new collective agreement.
- (c) The operation of Section 50 (2) of the British Columbia Labour Code is hereby excluded.

3. UNION SECURITY

- (a) The Company agrees that when it does hire new employees it will have each new employee fill in the required membership cards supplied by the Union before commencing actual work and shall remit such cards directly to the Union.

All employees shall be required to be a member of the Union as a condition of employment with the Company.

- (b) Should any employee covered by this bargaining unit cease, at any time, to be a member in good standing of the Union, the Company shall, upon notification from the Union, discharge such employee.
- (c) The Company shall deduct from each employee an amount equal to the Union's dues and levies from the employee's first (1st) payroll cheque and add the employee's name and the said amount to be closest applicable checkoff. (i.e., If checkoff for that month has not been remitted to the Union it shall be added to that checkoff; if the month's checkoff has been remitted, it shall be added to the following month's checkoff and shown as the previous month worked.)

4. DEDUCTION OF DUES, ETC.

- (a) The Union shall each month mail to the Company a checkoff form, in duplicate, setting out the names of each employee in the Union and the amounts of dues, etc. they owe. The Company shall delete any names from such list of employees who have terminated since the previous list and shall also add the names of any new employees, as well as following the procedure set out in 3 (d) herein.
- (b) All employees referred to above will be required to sign authorization for checkoff of Union Dues and levies which may be levied by the Union in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws. Such checkoff shall be irrevocable during the term of this Agreement.
- (c) The Company shall deduct and pay over to the Secretary of the Union any monthly dues and levies levied in accordance with the Union's By-Laws, owing by said employees hereunder to the said Union. Monies deducted during any month shall be forwarded by the Company to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union, not later than the tenth (10th) day of each following month, and one (1) copy of the checkoff list as above mentioned.

5. UNION ACTIVITIES OF EMPLOYEES AND LEAVE OF ABSENCE

- (a) The Company shall allow time off work, without pay, to any employee who is serving as a Union delegate to any conference or function, provided all requests for time off are reasonable and do not interfere with the proper operation of the business. During such leave of absence in excess of one (1) week, the Company shall not be responsible for payment of wages to the employee nor for the making of contributions to pension funds, life insurance or any other payments required to be made by the Company under this Agreement.

No employee who acts within the scope of the above paragraph shall lose their job or be discriminated against for so acting.

- (b) During an authorized leave of absence, an employee shall maintain and accumulate seniority. When the employee returns from the leave of absence, they shall return to the same position held prior to the leave of absence commencing provided the employee could hold the position by their seniority in the case of layoff. If the position has been altered during their leave of absence the employee may exercise seniority to any position they are qualified for.

- (c) When an employee suffers an injury, whether on the job or not, or suffers any illness preventing them from reporting to work, they will automatically be granted leave of absence, without pay, until such time as their doctor states they can return to work. Such absence will not exceed two (2) calendar years except by mutual consent of the parties.

If an employee desires a leave of absence for reasons other than those referred to above, they must obtain permission in writing for the same from the Company and the Company will send a copy of same to the Union. However, no legitimate and reasonable request for a leave of absence will be denied.

In any instance where an employee accepts other employment without the consent of Management, when on leave of absence for any reason, their employment may be terminated, subject to proper proof of same.

- (d) When an employee suffers an injury or illness which requires their absence, they shall report the fact to the Company as soon as possible, prior to their actual starting time, so adequate replacement may be made if necessary. Employees must keep the Company notified of correct address and phone number at all times.
- (e) When death occurs to a member of a regular employee's immediate family, the employee will be granted, upon request, an appropriate leave of absence and if they attend the funeral they shall be compensated at their regular straight time hourly rate for hours lost from their regular schedule on any of the days prior to the funeral, the day of the funeral and the day after the funeral for a maximum of three (3) days.

Where excessive travel is required by an employee as a result of an occurrence of bereavement, then the Company may grant additional time off without pay to accommodate the situation, or with the approval of the employee, provide banked or vacation time off as appropriate.

Members of the employee's family are defined as the employee's spouse, mother, father, sons and daughters, brothers and sisters, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandparents, and grandchildren. Stepparents shall be deemed to mean father and mother.

Upon giving twenty-four (24) hours notice, an employee shall be granted time off, without pay, for the purpose of attending a funeral, provided that the granting of such time off shall not be inconsistent with the efficient operation of the business.

- (f) All time lost by an employee due to necessary attendance on Jury Duty or Court proceedings where subpoenaed as a witness shall be paid for at the rate of pay applicable to said employee. Any employee on Jury Duty shall, subject to this provision, make himself available for work before or after being required for such duty, wherever practicable. All Jury Duty pay or witness payments received by the employee from the Courts shall be reimbursed to the Company by endorsement of Jury Duty cheques and/or witness fees to the Company. In order to be paid under this Article an employee must meet all of the following eligibility requirements:
 - (i) The employee shall have passed their probationary period as of the date of commencement of the Jury Duty.
 - (ii) The employee shall have given prior notice to the Company that they have been summoned for Jury Duty.

- (iii) The employee shall furnish satisfactory evidence to the Company that they reported for or performed Jury Duty on the days for which they claim payment.
 - (iv) Employees on leave of absence, or on normal days off will not receive payment.
- (g) When an employee hereunder is either elected or appointed to a full time job with the Union, they shall be granted leave of absence for a period not to exceed five (5) years or until such time as their job with the Union ceases whichever is lesser. During such leave of absence, the Company shall not be responsible for payment of wages to the employee nor for the making of contributions to pension funds, life insurance or any other payments required to be made by the Company under this Agreement.
- (h) Parental Leave – Parental Leaves shall be provided in accordance with statutory requirements.
- (i) Any employee requiring a drivers license to perform their job shall be extended a leave of absence if they lose their license because of driving violations, for a maximum of twelve (12) months in any sixty (60) month period of time. Employees exceeding this maximum will be terminated.

In addition, any employee who loses their license for more than twelve (12) months, for one (1) offence, will also be terminated.

6. SHOP STEWARDS

- (a) There shall be a Shop Steward appointed, if the Union so wishes, to see whether the members of the Union and the Company live up to the provisions of this Agreement, and to report any infraction of such provisions to the Manager, who shall promptly deal with same. Such Shop Steward shall be appointed by the Union and shall be an employee of the place in which they are a Steward. There shall be no discrimination against the Shop Steward for lawful Union activities.
- (b) The Shop Steward shall have no authority to alter, amend, violate, or otherwise change any part of this Agreement. The Shop Steward shall report to the Union Officers any violation of this Agreement.
- (c) The Company shall recognize one Shop Steward selected in accordance with the Union rules and regulations, as the employees representative of the bargaining unit and hereby recognizes that the power to appoint and removal thereof is solely vested with the Union.
- (d) The Union will advise the Employer of the identity of the Steward and will also give notice within twenty-four (24) hours of any new appointment or removal thereof.
- (e) Shop Stewards shall be allowed to take up grievances during working hours but it shall be performed expeditiously, and the Shop Steward shall first request permission from their supervisor to leave their position, which will not be unduly withheld. The provisions of this Section shall not, in any event, be abused.
- (f) The Company shall recognize one (1) Shop Steward to be a member of the Union Negotiating Committee to attend meetings with the Company for the purposes of negotiating renewal Collective Agreements. The Company will ensure the steward's absence from work will be without loss of their regular rate, for their normal hours of work. Where negotiations occur outside of the Terrace, BC area, then the expenses of the steward shall be paid for by the Company, in accordance with Appendix "A" herein, dealing with overnight trips.

7. WORK CLOTHES AND EQUIPMENT, UNION PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

- (a) The Company shall provide and maintain for each employee at no cost to the employee each calendar year the following:

3 trousers; 3 shirts; 1 3-in-1 all weather jacket (to be replaced by the Company on an as required basis); 1 rain jacket (upon request).

Employees covered by this Agreement shall be supplied uniforms upon completion of their probationary period.

- (b) It is understood that the Company will bear all costs of supplying these articles of clothing and that they shall be its property at all times.

Employees will be required to sign for all uniforms, tools and equipment and will be held responsible for abuse, neglect or loss of such uniforms and equipment unless beyond employee's control and the Company has provided proper safeguards.

- (c) All uniforms and overalls, etc. shall be serviced by a Union Company if available and if service, terms, conditions, and costs are comparable then with a firm having an agreement with the Teamsters Union.

- (d) The Company shall supply any safety equipment as required by the Workers' Compensation Board, without charge, including safety glasses and earplugs, and shall include prescription lenses, if required.

- (e) The Company shall provide each regular employee in the bargaining unit with a safety footwear reimbursement of two hundred and twenty-five ($225) dollars per calendar year. Such amount shall be reimbursed to the employee upon presentation of a receipt for such purchase. Safety footwear must meet Company guidelines. It is mandatory that all regular employees furnished with safety footwear shall wear same at all times during working hours.

- (f) Wherever they are required to be used on the job, the Company shall supply, free of charge, gloves as required, provided worn out gloves are turned in for exchange.

- (g) Any employee working on a truck (Driver or Helper) shall be supplied a hand truck in good working condition.

- (h) If at any time the Company requires or uses Armoured Cars, outside Security or Watchperson Services the Company shall endeavour to use a company having an Agreement with the Teamsters Union, and the same shall apply if any Propane Gas services are required.

8. UNION NOTICES

The Company agrees to provide space that is readily accessible for the Official Union notices of direct interest to the employees and that there shall be no interference by the Company with said Notice Board. However, the Company shall have the right to be given a copy of any such notice prior to posting.

The following items must be posted on said Notice Board:

- (i) A copy of this Agreement
- (ii) A valid seniority list, to be revised every six (6) months and a copy to be sent to the Union
- (iii) Copies of the Welfare Plan and Sick Leave Pay provisions, with details as to when employees are eligible and who to see to obtain the coverage of the Welfare Plan.

9. CONFLICTING AGREEMENT

The Company agrees not to enter into any agreement or contract with employees covered by this Agreement, individually or collectively, which in any way conflicts with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, or any Statute of the Province of British Columbia or Canada; any such agreement will be null and void.

Management agrees that before affecting any wage rate other than those set out in this Agreement, they shall first discuss same with the Union Agent. No changes shall apply unless coming under the provisions of Articles 13, 14 or 34 of this Agreement.

10. PROTECTION OF RIGHTS - STRIKES AND WORK STOPPAGES

- (a) The Company shall not require any Union member hereunder to cross a legal picket line or to accept any products or goods from any person, or employees of any person with whom a Union has a legal picket or placard line around or against, or to deliver any products or goods to any person, or employees of any person with whom a Union has a legal picket line or placard line around or against, and in any event of any Employer obtaining an injunction against the Union having said picket or placard line, then the employee may consider that the picket or placard line is still in operation and may refuse to cross same until such time as the matter is settled in Court, and if the decision is found in favour of the Company obtaining the injunction, then it will be considered that there is no picket or placard line in existence.
- (b) The Union reserves the right to render assistance to other Labour Organizations and it shall not be considered a violation of this Agreement for the Union to do so.
- (c) The Union, its agents and members hereby agree not to engage in any strike, work stoppage or other interference with the Company's operations, except as outlined in (a) above, and the Company and its agents hereby agree not to engage in any lockout during the term of this Agreement or any renewal thereof.

- (d) The Union shall not question the right of the Company to discipline or discharge employees engaging in, participating in or encouraging such illegal strike, stoppage or other interruption or curtailment of operation, provided, however, that the question of whether the employee engaged in, participated in or encouraged such illegal strike, stoppage or interruption of operations may be reviewed under the grievance and arbitration procedure set forth in Article 12.
- (e) All Union dues and Health and Welfare Plan contributions are to be trust monies and shall be paid to the party entitled thereto not later than fifteen (15) days after such deductions are made, and upon default of compliance with this Section, the Union may require the Company to post with the Union a cash bond in any amount, not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000.00). It shall be held by the Union to ensure future compliance with this Section during the terms of this Agreement.

11. TRANSFER OF COMPANY

- (a) This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties hereto, their successors, administrators, executors, and assigns. In the event the entire operation or any part thereof is sold, leased, transferred, or taken over by sale, transfer, lease assignment, receivership or bankruptcy proceedings, such operation shall continue to be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement for the life thereof.
- (b) It is understood by this Section that the parties hereto shall not use any leasing device to a third party to evade this contract.
- (c) The Company shall give notice of the existence of this Agreement to any purchaser, transferee, lessee, or assignee of the operation covered by this Agreement or any part thereof. Such notice shall be in writing and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the Union after the time the Company executed the contract of sale, transfer or lease. The Union shall also be informed of the nature of the transaction, not including financial details.

In the event the Company fails to give notice as herein required, or fails to provide the Union with particulars herein required, the Company shall be liable to the Union and to the employees covered by this Agreement for all loss or damages sustained as a result of such failure.

- (d) The Company shall not require, as a condition of continued employment, that an employee purchase or assume any proprietary interest or other obligation in the business or to provide any truck or vehicle to perform their job.
- (e) In the event that an employee provides a vehicle for use by the Company, the employee will be reimbursed by the Company according to the Company's travel and expense policy.

Employees hired after the date of ratification will be required to use their personal vehicle for merchandising at the request of the Company where their vehicle is reasonably available. The employee will be reimbursed for the use of their personal vehicle according to the Company's travel and expense policy.

12. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

SECTION 1 -

Whenever any dispute arises between the Company and the Union, or between the Company and one or more employees, the men shall continue to work, and the dispute shall be adjusted in accordance with the following procedures: A grievance shall not be considered where the grievance originated more than fifteen (15) calendar days after the employee and/or the Union became aware of the circumstances or ought reasonably to have been aware of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

The Company and the Union agree that a time limit shall exist from the completion of Step 1 to the completion of Step 3 of thirty (30) calendar days. Either the Company or the Union may request an extension of the time limits in writing.

In any dispute over a pay cheque or pay statement or any matter thereon the time limit shall be calculated from the date the employee received the pay cheque or pay statement.

- Step 1: Any grievance of an employee shall first be taken up between such employee and the Company Supervisor, however, the employee will be entitled to be represented by a Shop Steward or a Union Representative.
- Step 2: Failing settlement under Step 1, such grievance shall be taken up between a Representative of the Union or a Shop Steward and the Company Supervisor.
- Step 3: Failing settlement under Step 2, such grievance and any dispute arising between the Union and the Company over the interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement, including any dispute as to whether a matter is subject to this Grievance Procedure shall be referred to two (2) authorized representatives of the Union and two (2) authorized representatives of the Company. The representatives of the Union and the Company shall exchange statements in writing setting forth their respective positions relative to the matter(s) in dispute not later than at their initial meeting.
- Step 4: Failing settlement under Step 3, either Party may refer the matter to an agreed upon neutral who will meet with the authorized representatives of the Union and the Company to hear both sides of the case.

SECTION 2 - MINISTER OF LABOUR

If the Company and the Union fail to agree upon a neutral arbitrator within fifteen (15) days after one Party has served written notice on the other Party of its intention to refer the matter to a neutral arbitrator, the Minister of Labour will be requested to appoint a neutral arbitrator.

SECTION 3 - ARBITRATOR'S DECISION

The arbitrator shall be required to hand down their decision following completion of the hearing, and their decision will be final and binding on the two Parties to the dispute and shall be applied forthwith.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be specifically limited to the matter submitted to them, and they shall have no authority in any manner to amend, alter or change any provisions of this Agreement.

SECTION 4 - COSTS

The cost of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Union and by the Company.

13. JOB POSTING, ETC.

In the event that any regular employee leaves a job or a new job is created or new equipment is installed, the Company shall post a notice, within five (5) working days, on the Bulletin Board notifying that a vacancy exists in a particular job, giving the details of the job, rates of pay etc. Employees desiring such job shall then apply, in writing, within forty-eight (48) hours of such posting, excluding weekends, except that employees on vacation at such time shall have the privilege of applying when they return. The senior employee applying who has the ability to do the job with reasonable efficiency shall receive such job.

It is understood that employees may apply for lower paid jobs as well as higher paid jobs. It is understood that there shall be no job posting of part-time jobs.

Probationary or part time employees will not be used to deprive any of the regular employees the conditions of this Agreement.

14. TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE, RETRAINING AND SEVERANCE

- (a) In the event the Company proposes the introduction of equipment in its operation requiring specialized training, the Company agrees to give first opportunity to employees then on the payroll through the Job Posting procedure of this Agreement to operate this equipment and/or train to operate the equipment, provided the applicant qualifies with the requirements of an independent aptitude test, if required by the Company. Cost of such test to be borne by the Company. Any employee taking such a test is entitled to know the results of such test. The Company further agrees to notify the Union as soon as its final decision is made as to the introduction of new equipment or any procedural change prior to its installation. Failure on the part of the Company to comply with these provisions will automatically give cause for a grievance.
- (b) The Company agrees to work with the Union and with Canada Manpower in order to arrange for training of employees whose jobs no longer exist as a result of automation, but whose seniority entitles them to continued employment. Such employees shall have the choice of taking the training provided or accepting a layoff.
- (c) Full time employees with one (1) year or more of service, whose employment is terminated as a result of technological change, permanent loss of work as a direct result of changes to delivery modes (from Direct Store Delivery to any other method) as per the Letter of Understanding Re: Third Party Distribution, or of closure of the whole or any part of the operation or loss of business, shall receive termination pay of two (2) week's pay for each year of service, at the rate of pay the employee was receiving on the date of termination, to a maximum of forty-eight (48) weeks' pay. The above shall not apply when an employee resigns or is discharged for just cause.

- (d) Severance pay will not be applicable in the event of layoff of an employee unless the layoff without recall exceeds a period of three (3) months. However, the employee may choose to retain recall rights in three (3) month periods, thereby delaying the collection of severance pay.
- (e) Any employee who receives severance pay under the terms set out above shall forfeit all rights under this Agreement.

15. PAY DAY AND PAY STATEMENTS, ETC.

- (a) All employees covered by this Agreement shall be paid not less frequently than on a bi-weekly basis all wages earned by such employees to a day not more than seven (7) days prior to the day of payment.
- (b) The Company shall provide every employee covered by this Agreement on each payday with an itemized electronic statement in respect of all wage payments to such employee that can be clearly interpreted by an employee. Electronic pay stubs will be available for confidential printing on the Company's portal. Such statement shall set forth the total hours worked, total overtime hours worked, the rate of wages applicable and all deductions made from the gross amount of wages.
- (c) When there is an error of short payment or any other type of error, this shall be corrected and any monies owing be paid not later than seven (7) days from the date the Company's payroll official is notified of the error providing that the amounts less than fifty dollars ($50.00) will be paid on the next payday.

16. ANNUAL VACATIONS

- (a) No later than January 1st of each year, the Company shall post a vacation list on the Bulletin Board, and each employee shall apply for their vacation on such list at a time same is desired, and such request must be completed, by February 15th of each year. If the employee does not submit their vacation by March 1st, such vacation shall be scheduled at the Company's discretion. Once such list is completed vacations shall not be altered except by mutual consent of both parties.

Such vacations shall be taken in one (1) unbroken period unless requested by the employee who shall have the sole right to decide whether their vacations shall be in one period or split. If employees so choose, their vacations must be given between May 1st and September 30th each year. However, employees so taking their vacation during the aforesaid period of time may only take three (3) consecutive weeks for such vacation. Employees taking their vacation either before or after the aforesaid period of time may take it in one (1) unbroken period.

No more than one (1) employee from each of the following groups may be off on vacation at the same time: Warehouse, Distribution and Cooler Service.

- (b) In January of the first year of employment and each January thereafter vacations will be taken in advance of the employee's anniversary date on a calendar year basis: January to December. An employee's anniversary date of latest hiring shall be used as the date to calculate an employee's vacation entitlement.

- (c) Employees who have previously completed or subsequently complete one (1) year and up to two (2) years as an employee shall receive two (2) consecutive weeks' vacation of fourteen (14) days with eighty (80) hours' pay at the rate they were receiving at the date of taking their vacation, or four percent (4%) of their annual gross earnings for the calendar year for which they are receiving their vacation, whichever is the greater. This payment shall be made by March 1st annually.
- (d) Employees who have previously completed or subsequently complete three (3) years as an employee shall receive three (3) consecutive weeks' vacation of twenty-one (21) days with one hundred and twenty (120) hours' pay at the rate they were receiving at the date of taking their vacation, or six percent (6%) of their annual gross earnings for the calendar year for which they are receiving their vacation, whichever is the greater. This payment shall be made by March 1st annually.
- (e) Employees who have previously completed or subsequently complete eight (8) years as an employee shall receive four (4) weeks' vacation of twenty-eight (28) days with one hundred and sixty (160) hours' pay at the rate they were receiving at the date of taking their vacation, or eight percent (8%) of their annual gross earnings for the calendar year for which they are receiving their vacation, whichever is the greater. This payment shall be made by March 1st annually.
- (f) Employees who have previously completed or subsequently complete thirteen (13) or more years of continuous service with the Company shall receive five (5) weeks' vacation of thirty-five (35) days with two hundred (200) hours' pay at the rate they were receiving at the date of taking their vacation, or ten percent (10%) of their annual gross earnings for the calendar year for which they are receiving their vacation, whichever is the greater. This payment shall be made by March 1st annually.
- (g) Employees who have previously completed or subsequently complete nineteen (19) or more years of continuous service with the Company shall receive six (6) weeks' vacation of forty-two (42) days with two hundred and forty (240) hours pay at the rate they were receiving at the date of taking their vacation, or twelve percent (12%) of their annual gross earnings for the calendar year for which they are receiving their vacation, whichever is the greater. This payment shall be made by March 1st annually.
- (h) For the purpose of determining a calendar year's employment to qualify an employee for vacations and vacation pay, the parties agree that when an employee has worked a minimum of fifteen hundred (1500) hours (including time paid by WC) in an employee's calendar year, running from anniversary to anniversary date, they shall be eligible for vacation as above set forth. An employee who does not work fifteen hundred (1500) hours in a calendar year shall be credited with a year of service.
- (i) Continuous service shall include absence due to any illness or accident for a period of less than thirty (30) days, and such absence will be deemed to be time worked for the purpose of vacation entitlement and pay.
- (j) In the event that an employee leaves the employ of the Company before they are entitled to two (2) weeks' vacation, they shall receive four percent (4%) of the gross earnings they received while in the employ of the Company, as in (c) herein.

- (k) In the event of an employee leaving the employ of the Company after they had their vacation they earned for the previous year, they shall receive four percent (4%), six percent (6%), eight percent (8%), ten percent (10%), or twelve percent (12%), as the case may be, of their pay for the year in which they end their employment for which no vacation has been paid.
- (l) Prior to March 1st, the Company shall furnish the employee with a statement showing how the adjustment was calculated.
- (m) Part time employees shall be entitled to vacations based on the calendar years of service they have with the Company, regardless of the hours they work in each or any calendar year during this employment. Their holiday pay shall only be calculated on the percentage basis and entitlement as set out in Section (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) herein.

17. GENERAL HOLIDAYS

- (a) It is agreed that all employees after fifteen (15) working days employment shall be entitled to the following General Holidays, with pay, based on eight (8) hours of their applicable rate plus any applicable shift premiums. Those employees working on a ten (10) hour day shall receive General Holiday pay based on ten (10) hours plus any applicable premiums.

New Year's Day	Victoria Day	Family Day
Christmas Day	Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
B.C. Day	Boxing Day	Canada Day
Labour Day	Truth & Reconciliation Day
Remembrance Day	2 Floaters

A request for a Floater shall be made in writing at least in ten (10) days in advance of the date requested and shall be mutually agreed to by the employee and the Company.

- (i) All Employees who work fifteen (15) days during the thirty (30) day period prior to being laid off before a General Holiday or who are recalled from a lay-off within fifteen (15) days subsequent to a General Holiday shall receive pay for such holiday, based on eight (8) hours of their applicable rate.
- (b) The Company agrees that if during the life of this Agreement or any subsequent Agreement that either the Federal or Provincial Government declares any other day than those listed herein as a Holiday, then employees covered by this Agreement shall exchange a floater for the new Holiday.
- (c) Paid Holidays falling on an employee's regular day off, or on Jury Duty, shall be at the employee's option:
 - (i) Be paid for at the employee's regular rate of pay, during that pay period, or take the next working day following the Statutory Holiday as a day in lieu of the Statutory Holiday.
 - (ii) Be banked and given to the employee at a mutually convenient date within the period October 1st to March 31st.
 - (iii) Where a paid holiday falls during an employee's annual vacation period, the employee shall be permitted to take the day immediately preceding the commencement of vacation off or extend their vacation by mutual agreement or be paid for the day.

- (d) Graveyard shift may commence two (2) hours prior to the end of a General Holiday at straight time rates.
- (e) Employees who are required to work a shift which commences at any time during the General Holiday, or a shift which carries over into a General Holiday for at least two (2) hours, shall in addition to their regular Holiday Pay receive double their hourly rate for all hours worked during that shift (i.e. triple time), but shall not be entitled to this for hours in both shifts which fall during the General Holiday period of twenty-four hours. If shifts are worked in both of these days, then the shift which contains the majority of hours in the General Holiday shall be the shift paid for as the General Holiday.
- (f) It is agreed that should the General Holiday take place on a weekend that the following Monday shall be specified as the holiday.
- (g) Employees shall be entitled to be paid for all holidays specified in 17 (a) whether they fall on a regular scheduled work day or not provided that to qualify for all the benefits of this Section in respect to any of the said holidays, an employee must have worked the last scheduled work day preceding such holiday and the first scheduled working day following such holiday, except as set forth in (h) below.
- (h) Each employee who is absent due to (a) verified illness, (b) non-compensable accident or (c) compensable accident when a General Holiday set out above occurs shall be paid a full day's wages for such day based on the rate of pay they were receiving the last day they worked prior to their absence for one (1) of the three (3) reasons set out herein.

In the case of absence due to injury or illness on a General Holiday where the employee is receiving Weekly Indemnity payments under the appropriate welfare plan provision, then the Company shall pay the difference between the net regular earnings of such employee and what they were receiving from the other source for such General Holiday. It is the intention of this clause that no employee shall suffer a loss of net (take home) pay during such absence.

- (i) If the employee wishes, they may have the Company use such monies that they would be entitled to in paragraph (h) above to pay their Union dues and any other payment required by law or the terms of this Agreement.
- (j) Employees required to work on a paid holiday shall at the employee's option:
 - (i) Receive payment thereof at double their regular hourly rate of pay, for time worked, or;
 - (ii) Receive payment thereof at their rate of pay for all time worked together with one (1) banked day which shall be taken at a mutually convenient date within the period October 1st to March 31st.
 - (iii) Receive two (2) banked days, which shall be taken at a mutually convenient date within the period October 1st to March 31st.

Payment for the paid holiday itself shall be in addition to the foregoing. Employee must notify Company of their intentions prior to payroll closing date.

Banked paid holidays owing at March 31st from the preceding calendar year shall be paid for at the employee's regular rate of pay.

18. SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

- (a) If an employee is discharged by the Company, they shall be paid in full for all monies owing to them by the Company.
- (b) If an employee quits the Employer of their own accord, the Company may withhold payment for five (5) calendar days after the employee quitting but must pay on the sixth (6th) day.
- (c) The Company shall give a Record of Employment to any employee who separates from employment for at least seven (7) days for any reason within five (5) days of the last day worked or terminated.
- (d) The Company reserves the right to discharge any employee without notice for just cause.
- (e) All disciplinary notices in an employee's file will be disregarded after twelve (12) months of occurrence.
- (f) The Shop Steward shall be present when an employee receives a verbal or written reprimand or suspension. The employee shall receive these notices within fifteen (15) days of the infraction becoming known to the Company or such other longer period of time to allow for a full and proper investigation of the matter by the Company and such extension is to be agreed to by the Union.
- (g) The Shop Steward or alternate Union employee shall be present when an investigation interview takes place that may be disciplinary in nature. The employee involved in the investigation interview may request that the Shop Steward not attend the investigation interview.

19. SENIORITY

- (a) There shall be two (2) seniority lists: one for part time employees and one for regular employees.
- (b) The Company shall immediately, and every six (6) months thereafter, supply the Union with a Seniority List setting out the name, classification, date of employment, rate of pay, and social security number of all employees regardless of how long they have been employed or how many hours they worked.
- (c) Seniority shall be applied with respect to layoff and recall to work in each of the above seniority groups separately provided the employee having the greater seniority has the ability to perform the work in a satisfactory manner. All probationary and part time employees will be laid off first before any regular employee is so affected. All regular employees shall receive twenty-four (24) hours' notice prior to lay off.
- (d) Seniority shall be lost if an employee:
 - (i) Voluntarily leaves the employ of the Company, or

- (ii) Is discharged for just cause, or
 - (iii) After a layoff of more than thirty (30) days fails to report for four (4) working days after being recalled by telephone and registered letter or after a layoff of less than thirty (30) days fails to report for work for two (2) working days after being recalled by telephone and registered letter, or
 - (iv) If absent without leave for two (2) working days without a legitimate reason, or
 - (v) Two (2) years absence due to sickness or disability, or
 - (vi) A lay off exceeding eighteen (18) months
 - (vii) Accepts severance pay under Article 14 (d) and (e).
- (e) Any employee who is the successful bidder to a different classification shall be allowed a reasonable period of trial up to sixty (60) days, and if found unsatisfactory shall be given the opportunity of going back to their former position without loss of seniority. During the sixty (60) days worked trial period, the employee shall receive notice of their progress from the supervisor on a bi-weekly basis wherever possible and the Shop Steward shall be present when notice of progress is being given.
- (f) If the Company lays off or discharges the Shop Steward, the Union shall be advised prior to such lay off or discharge.

20. DAYS AND HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

- (a) (i) Each regular employee shall work and be guaranteed eight (8) hours each day, provided that they commence work at the start of their shift, with a minimum of one-half hour off for lunch which will be unpaid, unless the failure of the Company to supply work is beyond the Company's control. All regular employees who have completed their probationary period who are laid off shall receive twenty-four (24) hours notice of lay off or eight (8) hours pay in lieu thereof.
- (ii) Each probationary or part time employee who is called to work shall be guaranteed a minimum of four (4) hours work or pay in lieu thereof.

Shifts shall be arranged on a Monday to Friday or Tuesday to Saturday basis.

The Company may schedule employees to a four (4) day week, each day to consist of ten (10) hours. For such employees the above guarantees shall be ten (10) hours.

Notwithstanding other provisions contained herein, in order to respond to an extraordinary business demand or to provide staffing for a special promotional event, the Company may schedule a limited number of employees to work on a Saturday and or Sunday as part of their regular workweek, at straight time hourly rates of pay. Employees shall not be required to work on a Saturday in conjunction with Sunday work, unless they agree to do so. This shall not be interpreted to mean that the Company will schedule a seven (7) day workweek as part of its normal operations.

- (iii) All regular employees shall be notified on Friday morning prior to 10:30AM of their shift schedule for the following week.

- (iv) Full Time employees shall not be required to work on Sundays. A Sunday shift signup sheet will be posted on a weekly basis. Any employee who would be willing to work on the following Sunday shall sign the sheet by 9AM on the Friday morning. Should no employee sign the Sunday shift signup sheet, the shift shall be assigned to the most junior qualified employee. In such a situation, a junior employee may work on a Sunday while a senior Full Time employee does not reach 40 hours worked in the week.
- (b) Any hours worked in excess of eight (8) for employees on a 5 x 8 schedule or ten (10) for employees on a 4 x 10 schedule Monday to Friday, as defined in Section (a) above, in any one (1) day shall be at the rate of time and one-half (1 1/2) for the first two (2) hours and double time thereafter, except as set out below.
- (c) The first four (4) hours worked on the sixth (6th) day, Saturday, shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1 1/2) with the subsequent hours paid at the rate of double time and all hours worked on the seventh (7th) day, Sunday, shall be paid at the rate of double time with a minimum of four (4) hours guarantee, but the employee may book off with a two (2) hour payment at overtime rates.
- (d) Any employee called into work in any emergency after their regular working day has been completed and they have gone home shall be paid a minimum of three (3) hours' pay at double time.
- (e) If an employee reports late for work or leaves before their shift is completed, that employee will only be paid from the time they commenced work and for the time actually worked but persistent tardiness will subject them to dismissal.
- (f) All overtime shall be broken down into five (5) minute units, based on one-twelfth (1/12) of the applicable hourly rates, times an appropriate overtime rate.
- (g) When employees are advised to report for work at a specified time on any day, they shall be paid for that day, even though there may be no work for them to do, provided they are ready for work, excepting as set out in Sections (a) and (d) herein.
- (h) The Company agrees that if it becomes necessary to work overtime such overtime will be distributed as equally as possible amongst those employees concerned who normally perform such work.
- (i) No person other than an employee who is covered by the Certificate of Bargaining Authority and this Agreement, who is a member of the Union, shall be allowed to take inventory, book in loads, the foregoing does not prohibit management from verifying or adjusting the work done.
- (j) In order that an accurate record of hours worked are kept, the Company shall provide an electronic time keeping system which the employee shall be required to activate at the beginning and end of their shift as well as when the employee leaves and returns to the building during their shift. Where an employee is on an overnight trip, the Company will ensure that their time is appropriately recorded. Except that employees will not be paid for time prior to or after completion of their normal shift except when overtime is authorized.

- (k) If a graveyard shift is employed, the hours of work shall be eight (8) hours per shift with a designated thirty (30) minute lunch period on Company time, and a sixty-five cents ($.65) premium will be paid for each hour paid for on the third shift.

Any shift commencing after 5:30 p.m., and prior to 6:00 a.m., shall be considered a third or graveyard shift.

Any shift differentials shall be included in overtime calculations.

- (l) It is understood that every employee shall have a minimum of ten (10) hours rest between the end of one (1) shift and the commencement of another. In the event that any employee is recalled to work before a period of ten (10) hours elapses, they shall be paid at overtime rates of double time for the entire shift that they were called into work before they received their full ten (10) hour break. If the break is due to overtime then the employee will receive eight (8) hours break. It will be the employee's responsibility not to report to work before the eight (8) or ten (10) hours has elapsed and the employees will be paid from the regular starting time.
- (m) The Company shall give to each employee whose shift is to be changed a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours advance notice prior to such shift change becoming applicable.
- (n) Employees may, for what they consider to be a legitimate reason, refuse to work overtime, however, if insufficient volunteers are available, the junior employees who are qualified will be required to work, but will not be required to work more than eight (8) hours overtime during the normal work week (excluding Saturday).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may require its distribution employees to work a maximum of eight (8) hours overtime per week. An employee shall not be required to work more than two (2) hours of overtime in any one (1) day unless agreeing to do so.

Where such practice becomes consistent, then the Parties shall meet to discuss the continuance of this practice.

- (o) Employees must work a minimum of eight (8) hours per day on their regularly scheduled shift to qualify for overtime pay on the sixth or seventh day. General Holidays and vacation time to be counted as time worked towards overtime. An employee who misses a regularly scheduled shift during the regular work week will not be forced to work overtime on the sixth or seventh day at straight time rates. However, if the employee volunteers to work on the sixth or seventh day, they will be paid at straight time rates. Saturday and Sunday overtime will continue to be filled by seniority.

21. LUNCH AND REST PERIOD

- (a) No employee shall be worked longer than five (5) hours during their regular shift without a minimum half (1/2) hour off for the purpose of eating a meal. This shall be exclusive of rest breaks, which must be given as follows.

- (b) Each employee shall receive an uninterrupted fifteen (15) minute break in each half (1/2) of their daily shift. The time for said breaks to be determined by Management. However, such shall not be scheduled earlier than one and one-half (1 1/2) hours from the commencement of each half of an employee's work shift.

Any employee who is required to work more than one (1) hour overtime but not more than two (2) hours overtime shall be entitled to a ten minute paid break.

- (c) When it becomes necessary to work overtime of more than two (2) working hours beyond their regular shift, the Company shall see that each employee so worked shall have the option of receiving a meal break of thirty (30) minutes without pay, but shall receive a meal allowance of ten (10) dollars per meal for the life of the agreement.

Employees that are working away from the Plant who anticipate working more than two (2) hours but less than three (3) hours overtime shall call in, in order to receive permission to forego their meal breaks and meal allowance and instead receive payment for all hours worked.

Where meals are purchased and consumed at the start or after the work-shift the employee shall be reimbursed as long as the receipt is submitted into their supervisor within seventy-two (72) hours.

22. COMPENSATION COVERAGE

- (a) When an employee is injured at work and goes on Compensation, they shall, when their doctor signifies that the employee may go to work, be returned to the payroll at their previous job and rate of pay for a period of one (1) week to see if they are able to do the job they held at the time of the injury.
- (b) If after that time it is proven to the Company that the employee is unable to do the job the employee held at the time of injury, the Company will try to place the employee in a job which said employee can do. If this is impractical, then the employee shall be entitled to two (2) weeks' notice.

23. SAVINGS CLAUSE

- (a) If any Article or Section of this contract should be held invalid by operation of law or by a tribunal of competent jurisdiction, or if compliance with or enforcement of any Article or Section should be restrained by such tribunal, pending a final determination as to its validity, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such Article or Section to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it has been held invalid or as to which compliance with or enforcement of has been restrained, shall not be affected thereby.
- (b) In the event that any Article or Section is held invalid or enforcement of or compliance with which has been restrained, as above set forth, the parties affected thereby shall enter into immediate collective bargaining negotiations, upon the request of the Union or the Company, for the purpose of arriving at a mutually satisfactory replacement for such Article or Section during the period of invalidity or restraint. If the parties do not agree on a mutually satisfactory replacement, they shall submit the dispute to the procedure as outlined in Article 12 herein.

24. INSPECTION PRIVILEGES

An authorized Agent of the Union shall, upon first notifying the person in charge, have access to the Company's establishment during working hours of the purpose of adjusting disputes, investigating working conditions and ascertaining the Agreement is being adhered to, and in no event shall the provisions of this Section be abused.

25. SAFETY AND HEALTH

- (a) The Company shall make reasonable provisions for the safety and health of its employees during the hours of their employment and proper First-Aid kits, including a proper First-Aid kit in each vehicle.

Any employee suffering any injury or employment induced illness while in the employ of the Company must report same to the First-Aid Attendant immediately, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and a complete record of all such cases must be kept indefinitely by the First-Aid Attendant.

- (b) It is not the policy of management to require an employee to work under unsafe conditions. Being of a factual question, each case must be decided on its own merits and shall be referred to the Safety Committee for final determination if necessary. No employee shall be disciplined for utilizing this provision when questions of safety arise.
- (c) In the event of an employee becoming ill during their shift, the employee shall report directly to their Supervisor stating their illness, and if the employee wishes to go home or to a doctor, due to such illness, permission to do so will be granted by the Supervisor and shall be so entered into a record book. No person shall refuse the right to any employee to go home or to a doctor due to any illness or injury, which will be charged against the employee's sick leave.
- (d) If an employee suffers from an allergy or a recurring illness, the employee shall furnish a medical letter to the effect, and such a letter shall be kept on file in the office.
- (e) If the Company requests any employee to take a First-Aid course, the Company shall reimburse the said employee for the full cost of the fees and course expenses (receipts must be presented). However, the employee shall have the sole right to decide if they wish to take the course. The employee shall also be paid at their hourly rate of pay at straight time rates (no premium or shift differentials) for all hours that the employee attends classes. This does not include travel time or travel expenses.
- (f) Whenever any Plant employee or vending driver or whomsoever is required to lift any item or machinery or equipment which the employee feels is too heavy for them, they shall be given assistance.
- (g) The Company agrees to establish a Joint Safety Committee. The rules and regulations governing this Committee shall be in accordance with the Workers' Compensation Board requirements.
- (h) The Company agrees that there shall be a minimum number of two (2) persons in the Plant at all times, or a monitoring system will be provided.

- (i) No employee other than a qualified Maintenance Cooler Repair Person shall make repairs on any sales equipment, or install new fountain equipment owned by the Company except in an emergency situation.

26. BONDING

If at any time, the Company requires an employee hereunder to be bonded, it is agreed that the Company shall then request the employee to fill in an application to a recognized bonding firm selected by the Employer, and provided that the bonding form is sanctioned by the Union. It is further agreed that the cost of such bonding shall be paid by the Company.

27. MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

The Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive right of the Company to:

- (i) Maintain order, discipline and efficiency.
- (ii) Hire, discharge, transfer, promote, demote or discipline employees, provided that a claim of discriminatory promotion or transfer, or a claim that an employee has been discharged or disciplined without just cause, may be the subject of a grievance and dealt with as herein provided.
- (iii) Generally manage the industrial enterprise in which the Company is engaged, and without restricting the generality of the foregoing, determine the products to be manufactured, processed, packaged, shipped and distributed, the methods of manufacturing, processing, packaging, shipping and distribution, the sources, quantities and kind of ingredients, supplies and other material used in the manufacturing, processing, packaging, shipping and distribution, and the kinds and locations of machinery, equipment and tools used throughout the Company's operations.
- (iv) Provided however, that the Company agrees that any exercising of these rights and powers in conflict with any provisions of this Agreement shall be subject to the provisions of the Grievance Procedure including any rules or regulations, which in the opinion of the Union are unjust or discriminating.

28. HEALTH AND WELFARE PLAN

Subject to eligibility requirements, employees in the bargaining unit are entitled to participate in the benefits plan(s) (currently "Benefits Plus") maintained by the Company for hourly employees at its Terrace operations. The terms and conditions of participation and benefits entitlements shall be governed by the official text of the plan(s) (as from time to time amended). For clarity, the Company's obligation in respect to such plans is limited to the payment of premiums only and the Company reserves the right to amend, modify or alter these plan(s) in the future at its discretion.

29. SICK/PERSONAL PAY PLAN

- (a) Every regular employee who has completed one or more years of continuous employment with the Company shall be entitled to an annual sick pay of six (6) days to a maximum of fifty (50) hours, as at January 1st of each calendar year. For employees who complete their first year of service with the Company after January 1st, they shall receive their annual sick pay bank on a pro-rated basis calculated on the number of months remaining in the year after having completed their first year of service.

Sick pay due to an employee for the calendar year shall be paid to them, on the days they are sick for their normal scheduled hours of work at their regular hourly rate of pay.

Any unused sick pay left over at the end of the calendar year shall be paid out to the employee by the first pay period following March 1st. The sick pay payout of an employee who achieves perfect attendance (i.e. takes no sick days) by working the complete calendar year shall be at the rate of 125% of their accrued sick time provided that the employee has not received a written warning regarding their attendance in that calendar year. Perfect attendance excludes days lost due to Workers Compensation and any other approved leaves for bereavement, jury duty or other approved time off (e.g. vacation or statutory holiday pay).

Any employee absent from work due to illness shall report such absence to the Company management and the Company shall provide all employees with contact telephone numbers. Where an employee fails to notify management, they shall be subject to discipline.

If an employee is terminated for any reason or resigns, they shall receive all accrued sick pay to date of termination.

An employee may utilize sick days for personal days so long as the reason provided is legitimate.

- (b) It is agreed that in consideration of improvements contained in this and prior Agreements, and subject to the provisions of the Unemployment Act, the Company shall retain in full the "Premium Reduction" which is or may become available from the Unemployment Insurance Commission upon their acceptance of the Company's W.I.B./L.T.D. Benefit Plans as qualifying registered plan.

30. ARTICLE HEADINGS

Article Headings shall be used for purposes of reference only and may not be used as an aid in the interpretation of this Agreement.

31. TRANSPORTATION

No employee hired prior to the date of ratification may be required to use their car on Company business.

32. MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS

- (a) Any medical examinations requested by the Company shall be promptly complied with by all employees, provided however, that the Company shall pay for all such examinations. The Company reserves the right to select its own medical examiner or physician and the Union may, if in their opinion they think an injustice has been done by an employee, have said employee re-examined at the Union's expense.

When a medical examination is required by the Company, the following conditions shall apply:

- (i) If an employee takes a medical examination during their normal working hours, they shall be paid for the time involved and thus not lose any pay as a result of their taking a medical examination.

- (ii) If the medical examination is taken after working hours, or on Saturday, the employee shall be paid three (3) hours' pay at straight time rates of pay.
- (b) If following a Company requested medical examination, any employee is deemed to be physically incapable of carrying out their regularly assigned duties, the following procedure shall be followed:
- (i) The Company shall notify the Union of the medical findings in respect to the employee. Should the Union or the employee disagree with said findings, the employee, at their own expense, shall have the right to be examined by their personal physician.
 - (ii) Where there is no agreement between the Company appointed physician and the employee's physician on the condition of the employee, the two (2) physicians shall select a medical consultant to examine the employee with respect to the dispute.
 - (iii) The findings of the consultant shall be final and binding upon all parties.
 - (iv) The remuneration of the consultant shall be borne by the Company and the Union equally.
 - (v) Should the consultant deem the employee to be capable of carrying on their assigned duties, then the employee shall not suffer any loss of earnings caused by them having been removed from or temporarily suspended from their regularly assigned duties. In the interest of all parties this shall be done as expeditiously as possible.
- (c) In addition to the above procedure on Company required medical examinations, the Company agrees that where any employee who drives a Motor Vehicle in the course of their employment coming under Sections 1 to 5 of the Motor Vehicle Classifications Licenses, is required by an agency, insurance or whatsoever to take medical examination to verify their rights to drive such motor vehicles coming under the aforesaid Sections 1 to 5 or to obtain an Air Ticket, the Company hereunder shall, where same is not paid for by any part of the Welfare Plan under which the employee is covered, pay for such medical examinations.

33. TRUCK MAINTENANCE AND SAFETY

It is to the mutual advantage of both the Company and the employees that employees should not operate vehicles, which are not in safe operating condition and not equipped with safety appliances required by law. The maintenance of equipment with a sound operating condition is not only a function, but a responsibility of Management, and in respect thereto the Company agrees to the following:

- (i) The Company shall not require employees to take out on the streets or highways any vehicle that is not in safe operating condition or equipped with the safety appliances or stickers prescribed by law. It shall not be a violation of this Agreement where employees refuse to operate such equipment. Employees who knowingly operate such unsafe equipment may be liable to disciplinary action.
- (ii) All trucks owned or leased by the Company must have steps or other similar devices to enable drivers to get in and out of the body for safety purposes and shall also be fitted with safety belts. Failure of employees to use the safety belts may result in disciplinary action.

- (iii) It is agreed between the Company and the Union, having regard for the safety and driver health factor, that all units shall have heaters, windshield wipers and defrosters installed.
- (iv) No driver shall be asked or required to service or maintain trucks or equipment. This shall not apply to changing of flat tires when away from the Plant.
- (v) It is mutually agreed that a form shall be supplied to the driver on which to report defects in equipment with sufficient copies so that the driver may retain a copy, and so that the head office of the Company will have a copy of this report on file.

When a driver reports a defect in equipment, they must tag or mark the vehicle involved in such a manner so that any other employee will notice the defective equipment. It shall be the Company's responsibility to supply such tags or other marking devices. This tag to be left on the vehicle in order to show the work has been completed and shall be removed by the outgoing driver.

- (vi) The Company shall not compel any driver to operate a vehicle in excess of the legal load limits. If a driver is stopped by the Police or at any scales, and is fined, the Company shall pay such fines. In addition thereto, if a driver is stopped by the Police or held up at the scales, due to overloading or any other reason involving the equipment and that driver is working on other than an hourly rate, they shall be paid for all such time on the basis of the working time rate of pay.
- (vii) If a driver is charged improperly for a violation of traffic laws while working, and is found not guilty in Court, the Company shall pay that employee's loss of wages. However, if the employee is found guilty, they shall not be entitled to wages lost.
- (viii) No driver shall be permitted to allow other than employees of the Company, who are on duty to ride in their truck or vehicle, except with authorization of the Company or in the event of a bona fide emergency.

34. CLASSIFICATION AND WAGE RATES, ETC.

- (a) The classifications, job descriptions and minimum wage rates for the effective period of this Agreement shall be those as set out in Appendix "A", attached hereto and forming part of this Agreement.
- (b) Time shall be computed from the time the employee commences their day's work until they are released from duty by the Company, except that employees shall not be paid for time prior to the starting or after the ending time of their shift, unless authorized.
- (c) When an employee meets with an accident at work, they shall be paid a full day's wages for the day of the accident.
- (d) If an employee is required to take time off during working hours to consult a doctor, chiropractor or whatever in regard to any compensable injury or illness they received or incurred on the job, they shall be paid for such time off in a manner that will ensure they receive a minimum of eight (8) hours' pay for that day and any other day or days they are also required to fill such commitment or requirement.

- (e) When an employee is temporarily removed from their regular work and placed on other work for the Company's convenience, for a period in excess of two (2) hours, they shall be paid their regular rate of pay or the rate of the other work, whichever is the greater, for the entire shift worked, and no employee's rate may be reduced below their regular rate.
- (f) Each employee hired under a specific classification shall immediately when they commence work be paid the rate for the classification and no employee shall be paid less than the rate as set out in this Agreement for such classification.

35. PENSION PLAN

Effective January 1, 2003, all eligible employees in the bargaining unit shall be provided with the Company's "Pensions Plus" pension program.

All regular full-time employees hired after the date of ratification will be enrolled in the Company's Defined Contribution Pension Plan subject to eligibility requirements. These employees are not eligible to participate in the "Pension Plus" pension program.

36. TOOLS

All tools and equipment required by employees to properly perform the functions of their job shall be furnished by the Company and shall be its property at all times.

37. MONEY DEPOSIT

When drivers check their cash into the drop safe, they shall record their deposit.

38. BANKING OF OVERTIME

- (a) All regular hourly paid employees may make arrangements with the Company to bank accumulated overtime to a maximum of eighty (80) hours. The employee may then request in writing overtime in time off. Notice must be given at least three (3) weeks in advance and will be honoured by a first come basis. Upon request by the employee, such time off will be taken at the Company's discretion, consistent with the efficient operations of the business during the period October 1st through March 31st. The minimum unit of banked overtime to be utilized will be forty (40) regular hours either in time off or pay. Employees may not utilize this clause in conjunction with Article 5 (h).
- (b) Any hourly paid employee who wishes to bank overtime will make a request in writing and this decision will be binding until the last pay period of March.
- (c) Overtime which is banked shall be credited in terms of complete hours (overtime less than one (1) hour per week will be paid in their current pay cheque), and when taken as time off, shall be paid out on the regular weekly pay cheque at the same hourly rate as banked. When an employee leaves the Company, all banked hours shall be paid out in total.
- (d) The Company will keep a record of all banked overtime. Employees wishing to confirm the amount of accumulated overtime they have banked may do so through their supervisor.

(e) Example of banked hours:

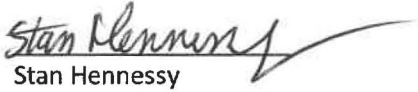

1 hour at 1 1/2 times	1 1/2 hours banked
1 hour at double time	2 hours banked

(f) The Company will pay out all unused banked hours in the last pay period of each March and these hours will be paid out at the same rate as banked.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Party of the First Part has hereunto affixed its signature(s) in the presence of its Officers duly authorized therefore and the Party of the Second Part has hereunto affixed its signature(s) and seal by its Officers duly authorized, therefore.

RE: SALES EQUIPMENT SERVICE TRAINEES

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement which may be to the contrary, it is mutually understood and agreed that the following arrangements and conditions shall apply to the position of Sales Equipment Service Trainee:

1. Candidates for a posted job vacancy as a Sales Equipment Service Trainee shall:
 - (a) Successfully complete an appropriate aptitude test prior to appointment; and
 - (b) Hold a valid, appropriate driver's license.
2. The successful candidate for a posted vacancy in the position of Sales Equipment Service Trainee will undertake such training as described in the training manual.
3. Failure to maintain a satisfactory degree of progress or failure to successfully complete the training program shall lead to the demotion of a Sales Equipment Service Trainee. In such event, the employee shall revert to their former position and, in so doing, may displace the employee who succeeded them in that position.
4. The training program referred to herein currently consists of a correspondence course administered by an independent organization (I.C.S.), various training sessions organized by the Company and/or equipment suppliers and on-the-job training totalling 2000 hours or practical experience as a Sales Equipment Service Trainee.
5. On completion of the training programs (2000 hours, including demonstration of the required knowledge, skills, etc.) a Sales Equipment Service Trainee shall thereupon be reclassified and paid as a Sales Equipment Serviceperson.

RE: 3 X 12 HOUR WORKWEEK

In the event that a 3 X 12 hour workweek is introduced, The Company will be limited to implementing a maximum of one (1) position. Any additional positions may only be implemented on a voluntary basis in Sales and Distribution and the following guidelines shall apply.

- (a) Notice of change to or from a 3 X 12 scheduled will be given through the normal posting procedure for shift schedules.
- (b) The 3 X 12 workweek shall be rotated on a three (3) week basis as follows:

Week 1 - 3 consecutive 12 hour days	36 hours
Week 2 - 3 consecutive 12 hour days	36 hours
Week 3 - 4 consecutive 12 hour days	48 hours
	120 hours
- (c) Daily overtime (in excess of 12 hours) shall be at double time.
- (d) The first four (4) hours worked on a 4th day will be paid at time and one-half and double time thereafter, excluding the 4th day of the 3rd week of the rotation. A minimum of four (4) hours will be guaranteed if scheduled to work on a 4th day.
- (e) Each employee on the 3 x 12 workweek shall receive three (3) fifteen (15) minute paid breaks.
- (f) 3 x 12 shifts will be staffed by those employees who would be normally scheduled to work on the shift which is changed from either a 5 x 8 or 4 x 10 or 3 x 12.
- (g) If a General Holiday is observed on a 3 x 12 employee's day off, the employee will have the option of receiving 12 hours' pay or a day off, with 12 hours pay, at a time mutually agreed between the Company and the Employee.
- (h) The 8 hour limit on required overtime referred to in Article 20 (n) shall apply to the 12 hour days constituting the normal 3 x 12 work week.

In addition, on a Monday to Wednesday shift, overtime may be required on Thursday; on a Thursday to Saturday shift overtime may be required on Sunday.
- (i) In the event of a Wednesday to Saturday 3 X 12 workweek, the Premium provided for in Article 20 (a) shall apply to all hours worked in such work week.

- (j) Such opportunities to be posted and filled on a voluntary basis, by seniority.
