ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

1.1 Purpose of Agreement

- (a) The purpose of this agreement is to establish and maintain orderly collective bargaining procedures between the Employer and the Union. The Employer and the Union agree it is in the best interest of both parties to cooperate fully, individually and collectively with one another.
- (b) The parties to this agreement share a desire to improve the quality of the services provided by the People's Law School. Accordingly, they are determined to establish, within the framework provided by the law, an effective working relationship based on mutual respect.

ARTICLE 2 - HUMAN RIGHTS

2.1 Employer Will Not Discriminate

- (a) The parties hereto subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.
- (b) The Employer and the Union agree that there will be no discrimination with respect to an employee's employment by reason of Indigenous identity, race, ancestry, place of origin, political belief, religion, marital status, family status, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, age, gender identity or expression, or criminal or summary of conviction that is unrelated to the employment of that person.
- (c) The Employer and the Union agree they will afford every employee covered by this agreement the right to equal benefit, protection and treatment.

ARTICLE 3 - HARASSMENT

3.1 Personal and Psychological Harassment

- (a) Personal and psychological harassment means objectionable conduct that:
 - (1) imposes a risk or threatens a worker's psychological or physical well-being, or causes a worker substantial distress or humiliation and/or intimidation; or
 - (2) is discriminatory behaviour based on a person's race, ancestry, place of origin, political beliefs, religion, marital status, physical or mental disability, sex, age, sexual orientation or gender identity that causes substantial distress; or
 - (3) is serious inappropriate conduct by a person that serves no legitimate work-related purpose; or
 - (4) is repeated or persistent or may be a single serious incident.
- (b) Reasonable conduct by a manager or supervisor in directing workers and carrying out management duties in good faith is not harassment.

3.2 Sexual Harassment

- (a) Sexual harassment includes sexually oriented verbal or physical behaviour which an individual would reasonably find to be unwanted or unwelcome.
- (b) To constitute sexual harassment, behaviour may be a single serious incident or a repeated or persistent incident.

- (c) Sexual harassment refers to behaviour initiated by both males and females and directed toward members of either sex.
- (d) Sexual harassment will often, but need not be accompanied by, an expressed or implied threat of reprisal or promise of reward.

3.3 Harassment Complaints

- (a) An employee with an allegation of harassment is called the complainant and the person who they are making a complaint against is called the respondent.
- (b) A harassment complaint is not a grievance. The complainant must follow this complaint process.
- (c) All complaints will be kept confidential by the complainant, the respondent, the Employer, the Union and witnesses.
- (d) The complainant and respondent (if a member of the Union) have the right to union representation.
- (e) A complainant may try to informally resolve their complaint with the assistance of a supervisor, manager, shop steward, union staff representative or mediator. If the complainant is satisfied with the outcome reached at this point, the complaint is resolved.
- (f) Until a harassment complaint is resolved, the Employer may take interim measures, including separating the complainant and the respondent.
- (g) A complainant has the right to file a complaint under the BC Human Rights Code.

3.4 Harassment Complaints Procedure

- (a) A formal complaint must be submitted in writing within one month of the last alleged occurrence.
- (b) A formal complaint must be submitted through the Union or directly to the Executive Director or designate. When the Executive Director has received a complaint, they will notify the respondent and the union staff representative of the substance of the complaint in writing within 15 days.
- (c) The complaint must contain the specific instance(s) and date(s) that the alleged harassment occurred, the names of any witnesses, an explanation of how the action constitutes a violation of this article, and the remedy sought.
- (d) The Executive Director or their designate will investigate the complaint and will complete their report in writing within 30 days.
- (e) The Employer will take action to resolve the complaint within 10 days of receiving the investigator's report.
- (f) The Employer will advise the respondent, the complainant and union in writing of the substance of the investigator's report and the resolution of the complaint.
- (g) If the resolution involves separating employees, reasonable efforts will be made to re-locate or reschedule the respondent. The complainant may agree in writing to be transferred or rescheduled.
- (h) If the resolution involves separating an employee and a respondent who is not an employee, reasonable efforts will be made to remedy the situation.
- (i) If the respondent is the Executive Director (or alternate) the Union will notify the Board Chair within 10 days of receiving the complaint. The Board Chair and the Union will appoint a mutually agreeable independent investigator. The Union will be apprised of the resolution. The independent investigator will investigate the complaint within 30 days of receiving it and submit their report to the Board Chair.

(j) The Employer may take appropriate action including discipline against a complainant if the investigation determines that the complaint is frivolous, vindictive or vexatious.

3.5 Appeal

(a) Disputes resulting from actions taken under this article may be grieved within 30 days at Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

(b) A grievance must be submitted through the Union to an arbitrator from Clause 12.2 (Arbitrator).

(c) The Arbitrator may first try to reach a resolution acceptable to the Employer and the Union.

3.6 Investigator

In the case of possible systemic issues or multiple complaints, the Employer and the Union may agree to seek the assistance of an independent investigator agreeable to the parties. The investigator will examine any underlying issues that may contribute to harassment in the workplace and recommend preventative and corrective measures to the parties. This provision does not preclude an employer from seeking an independent investigator if the Union does not agree to an appointment and/or the Employer deems one necessary on the merits of the situation.

3.7 Misuse of Managerial/Supervisory Authority

Misuse of managerial/supervisory authority takes place when a person who supervises or is in a position of authority exercises that authority in a manner which serves no legitimate work purpose and which ought reasonably to be known to be inappropriate.

Misuse of managerial/supervisory authority does not include action occasioned through the exercise, in good faith, of the Employer's managerial/supervisory rights and responsibilities. Nor does it include a single incident of a minor nature where the harm, by any objective standard is minimal.

Where the allegation is based on a matter for which another dispute resolution mechanism exists, then this process will not be utilized.

If an employee does not present a complaint within the prescribed time limits, or if the President of the Union, or their designate, does not present a complaint to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits, the complaint will be deemed to have been abandoned.

3.8 Misuse of Authority Procedure

(a) If there is an allegation of misuse of managerial/supervisory authority, the employee will approach their supervisor or the first level of excluded manager, not involved in the matter, for assistance in resolving the issue within 30 days of the alleged occurrence. The supervisor/manager will investigate the allegation and take steps to resolve the concern as appropriate within 30 days of the issue being raised by the employee. The supervisor/manager will discuss the proposed resolution with the employees directly involved. The employees directly involved may have a steward present during these discussions.

(b) If the proposed resolution is not acceptable, the complainant may refer the matter through the Union in writing to the Executive Director or, as appropriate, the board representatives on the Staff Liaison Committee or their designate within 30 days of receiving the supervisor's/manager's response or when the response was due. The written statement will provide full particulars of the allegation including:

- the name(s) of individual(s) involved;
- the specific actions and dates of the alleged misuse of managerial/supervisory authority;
- names of witnesses;
- an explanation as to why it should be considered misuse of authority;
- the remedy sought; and
- an outline of the steps which have been taken to resolve the matter in (a) above.

These particulars will form the basis of the Employer's consideration and/or investigation and will be those which are placed before the panel should the matter proceed pursuant to (d). The Employer will provide the respondent with a copy of the complaint.

(c) The Employer's designate will acknowledge, in writing, receipt of the written statement, including the particulars, and when required, will have the matter investigated and will take such steps as may be required to resolve the matter. The Union and the employees involved in the allegation will be advised in writing of any proposed resolution or other response within 30 days of providing notice to the Employer.

(d) Where the matter is not resolved pursuant to (c), the Union may refer the matter to a joint mediation/arbitration panel within 30 days of receiving the Employer's response or when the response was due. The Panel will be comprised of one member each from the Employer and the Union, and a chairperson who will be appointed jointly by the parties. By mutual agreement, the parties may agree upon a single mediator/arbitrator to hear and determine the complaint.

The referral to the panel will include the written statement presented at Step (b) above and the Employer's response.

(e) The Panel will review the written statement and the Employer's response. The Panel may make a decision based on these documents or if it determines that there is no basis for the complaint or there are insufficient particulars, the Panel will dismiss the case.

Where the Panel determines there is sufficient reason to conduct a hearing, the Panel will hear and determine any dispute between the parties over interpretation, application or any alleged violation of this article.

Hearings will be conducted so as to give those involved a fair hearing. The Panel may admit any evidence deemed necessary or appropriate. The Panel may:

- (1) make findings of fact;
- (2) decide if, on the facts, misuse of managerial/supervisory authority has occurred;
- (3) attempt to mediate a resolve;
- (4) dismiss the complaint.

The decision of the Panel will be final and binding and consistent with the terms of the collective agreement.

(f) Where the complaint is found to be frivolous, vindictive or vexatious, the Employer may take appropriate action which may include discipline.

(g) Disciplinary action taken by the Employer which is consistent with the recommendations of the majority of the Panel will not form the basis of a grievance.

(h) Pending the determination of the complaint, the Employer's designate may take interim measures to separate the employees concerned, if deemed necessary. Any such action taken under this section will not be deemed disciplinary in nature or seen as presumption of guilt or innocence.

ARTICLE 4 - UNION RECOGNITION AND RIGHTS

4.1 Bargaining Unit Defined

(a) The bargaining unit is the unit for which the BCGEU is certified and includes all employees of the People's Law School except the Executive Director.

(b) Incumbents of new positions established by the Employer will automatically be included in the bargaining unit unless specifically excluded by mutual agreement or by virtue of a decision of the Labour Relations Board.

4.2 Bargaining Agent Recognition

The Employer recognizes the B.C. General Employees' Union as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for all of its employees in the bargaining unit and hereby agrees to negotiate with the Union, or any of its authorized committees, concerning all matters affecting the relationship between the parties, aiming towards a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between them.

4.3 Work of the Bargaining Unit

Persons other than those in the bargaining unit will not work in any bargaining position subject to continuation of the present practices respecting un-paid volunteers.

If the Union alleges that volunteers are unduly involved in bargaining unit duties, that issue will be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedures in the collective agreement.

4.4 Correspondence

(a) All correspondence between the parties, arising out of this agreement or incidental thereto, will pass to and from the Executive Director or their designate and the President of the Union or their designate.

(b) A copy of any correspondence between the Employer, or their designate, and any employee in the bargaining unit, pertaining to the interpretation, administration, or application of any part of this agreement will be forwarded to the President of the Union or their designate.

4.5 No Other Agreements

No employee will be required or permitted to make a written or verbal agreement with the Employer or their representative, which may conflict with the terms of this collective agreement.

4.6 Recognition and Rights of Stewards

4.8 Union Insignia

A union member will have the right to wear or display the recognized insignia of the Union.

4.9 Right to Refuse to Cross Picket Lines During Strike

An employee covered by this agreement will have the right to refuse to cross a picket line or refuse to do the work of striking or locked out employees, or refuse to handle goods from an employer where a strike or lockout is in effect. Failure to do so will not be considered a violation of this agreement, nor will it be grounds for disciplinary action, other than loss of wages for the period involved.

4.10 Right of Fair Representation

The Union will have the right at any time to have the assistance of representatives of the B.C. General Employees' Union or any other advisors when dealing or negotiating with the Employer. Such representative(s)/advisor(s) will have access to the Employer's premises in order to deal with any matters arising out of this collective agreement.

4.11 Meetings with Employer Considered Time Worked

Any time worked beyond the normal workday of seven hours, will be considered as time worked and paid accordingly, or equivalent time off given to the employee.

4.12 Conflict With Policy

- (a) In the event that any future legislation renders null and void or materially alters any provision of this agreement, the parties will negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision rendered null and void or materially altered. All other provisions of the agreement will remain in full force and effect.
- (b) In the event there is a conflict between the contents of the agreement and any regulation made by the Employer, or on behalf of the Employer, this agreement will take precedence over the said regulation.

4.13 Union Leave

Leave of absence without loss of pay will be granted for employees with a minimum of two weeks' notice at the request of the Union, and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for salary costs.

4.14 Union Meetings

The Union is permitted to conduct up to four one-hour meetings per year at the Employer's place of business. The Union agrees to provide the Employer with four weeks' notice of the meeting. Such meetings are permitted during work hours and are without loss of pay for employees to attend.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION SECURITY

5.1 Union Security

- (a) All employees in the bargaining unit who, on the date of certification, were members of the Union or thereafter became members of the Union, will, as a condition of continued employment, maintain such membership.
- (b) All employees hired on or after the date of certification will, as a condition of continued employment, become members of the Union, and maintain such membership, upon completion of 30 days as an employee.
- (c) Nothing in this agreement will be construed as requiring a person who was an employee prior to the date of certification to become a member of the Union.

5.2 Limitations on Contracting Out

The Employer will not contract out any work presently performed by the employees covered by this agreement which would result in the layoff of such employees, including a reduction in assigned workload.

ARTICLE 6 - CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

6.1 Check-off

- (a) The Employer will, as a condition of employment, deduct from the wages or salary of each employee in the bargaining unit, whether or not the employee is a member of the Union, the amount of the regular dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union.

- (c) Deductions will be made for each semi-monthly payroll period and membership dues or payments in lieu thereof will be considered as owing in the period for which they are so deducted.

When the change cannot reasonably be accommodated by the Employer's existing payroll system, then the cost of implementation will be borne by the Union. In all cases, the Union will provide the Employer with a reasonable notice period to implement any change.

Any such investigation shall not occur more than once in a fiscal year. The Employer agrees to provide to the Union such public information that is available relating to employees in the bargaining unit, as may be required by the Union for collective bargaining purposes. The Union recognizes the need for confidentiality of certain information prior to announcements by the provincial government, and such information is excluded from the operation of this clause.

ARTICLE 10 - UNION/EMPLOYER COMMITTEE

10.1 Establishment of Union/Employer Committee

(a) A joint union/employer committee will be established with one representative of the Union and one representative of the Employer plus the servicing staff representative and an employer's advisor. (c) Minutes of meetings will be prepared and distributed as promptly as possible after the meeting to the committee members.

10.2 Function of the Committee

- (a) The parties understand and agree that the Committee is not intended to serve as a supplement or an alternative to the grievance/arbitration process, nor to interfere with or attempt to re-negotiate any provisions of the agreement between the parties.
- (b) It is intended by the parties that the Committee will be limited to serving as a vehicle for joint discussion and consultation, with a view to exploring possible solutions to mutual problems and concerns.

ARTICLE 11 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

11.1 Grievance Procedure

The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise concerning:

- (a) differences between the parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation, or any alleged violation of a provision of this agreement, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration; or
- (b) the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an employee bound by this agreement.

The procedure for resolving a grievance will be the grievance procedure in this article.

11.2 Step 1

In the first step of the grievance procedure, every effort will be made to settle the dispute with the designated supervisor. The aggrieved employee will have the right to have their steward present at such a discussion. If the dispute is not resolved orally, the aggrieved employee may submit a written grievance, through the union steward, to Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

11.3 Time Limits to Present Initial Grievance

An employee who wishes to present a grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, in the manner prescribed in Clause 11.4 (Step 2), must do so no later than 30 days after the date:

- (a) on which they were notified orally or in writing, of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance;
- (b) on which they first became aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

11.4 Step 2

(a) Subject to the time limits in Clause 11.3 (Time Limits to Present Initial Grievance), the employee may present a grievance at this level by:

- (1) recording this grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;
- (2) stating the article or articles of the agreement infringed upon or alleged to have been violated, and the remedy or correction required; and
- (3) transmitting this grievance to the designated supervisor through the union steward.

(b) The supervisor will:

- (1) forward the grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with grievances at Step 2; and

- (2) provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received.

11.5 Time Limit to Reply at Step 2

- (a) Within 10 days of receiving the grievance at Step 2, the representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 2 and the designated union representative will meet to examine the facts, the nature of the grievance and attempt to resolve the dispute. This meeting may be waived by mutual agreement.
- (b) The representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 2 will reply in writing to an employee's grievance within 21 days of receiving the grievance at Step 2.

11.6 Step 3

The President of the Union or designate may present a grievance at Step 3:

- (a) within 14 days after the decision has been conveyed to the grievor by the representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 2;

11.7 Time Limit to Reply at Step 3

- (a) Within 10 days of receiving the grievance at Step 3, the representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 3 and the designated union representative will meet to examine the facts, the nature of the grievance and attempt to resolve the dispute. This meeting may be waived by mutual agreement.
- (b) The representative designated by the Employer to handle grievances at Step 3 will reply in writing to an employee's grievance within 21 days of receiving the grievance at Step 3.

11.8 Failure to Act

If the President of the Union, or designate, does not present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits, the grievance will be deemed to have been abandoned.

11.9 Time Limits to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 3, and pursuant to Article 12 (Arbitration), the President, or their designate, may inform the Employer of their intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:

- (a) 30 days after the Employer's decision has been received; or
- (b) 30 days after the Employer's decision was due.

11.10 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties but the same must be in writing. Where a grievance or a reply is presented by mail, it will be deemed to be presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it will be deemed to have been received on the day it was delivered to the appropriate office of the Employer or the Union.

11.11 Dismissal or Suspension Grievance

In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal or suspension, the grievance may commence at Step 3 of the grievance procedure within 15 days of the date on which the suspension occurred, or within 15 days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal or notice of suspension.

11.12 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

- (a) The Employer agrees that after a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer's representative will not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employee, without the consent of the Union. In the event that after having initiated a grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that pursuant to this article, the grievance will be considered to have been abandoned.
- (b) Notwithstanding (a) above, an employee who has filed a complaint with the Human Rights Tribunal will not have their grievance deemed abandoned through the filing of the complaint.

11.13 Policy Grievance

Where either party to this agreement disputes the general application, interpretation or alleged violation of this agreement, the dispute will be discussed between the bargaining Principals within 60 days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached the Union may submit the matter to arbitration as set out in Article 12 (Arbitration).

11.14 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties to this agreement that no grievance will be defeated merely because of a technical error other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end an arbitration board will have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

11.15 Retroactive Settlements

Settlements reached at any step of the grievance procedure in this article, other than Clause 11.13 (Policy Grievance), will be applied retroactively to the date of the occurrence or situation which gave rise to the grievance, but not prior to the effective date of the agreement in effect at the time of the occurrence or the date set by a board of arbitration.

ARTICLE 12 - ARBITRATION12.1 Notification

12.3 Procedure

- (a) The Arbitrator may determine their own procedure in accordance with the Labour Relations Code and will give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. They will hear and determine the difference or allegation and will make every effort to render a decision within 30 days of their first meeting.
- (b) A grievance or arbitration will not be deemed invalid by reason of a defect in form, a technical irregularity, or an error of procedure if it results in a denial of natural justice. An arbitration may relieve against those defects, irregularities or errors of procedure on just and reasonable terms.

12.4 Decision of the Arbitrator

The decision of the Arbitrator will be final, binding and enforceable on all parties, and may not be changed. The Arbitrator will not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions or make decision contrary to the provisions of this agreement. However, they will have the power to amend a grievance, modify penalties or dispose of a grievance by any arrangement which they deem just and equitable.

12.5 Disagreement on Decision

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the Arbitrator's decision, either party may apply to the Arbitrator to clarify the decision.

12.6 Expenses of the Arbitrator

Each party will pay one-half of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.

12.7 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits in both the grievance and arbitration procedure may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties in writing.

12.8 Witnesses

- (a) At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the parties will have the assistance of the employee or employees involved and any necessary witnesses.
- (b) All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties or arbitrator(s) to have access to the Employer's premises to view any working conditions, which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

- (8) demotions.

By mutual agreement, a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process. Agreement will not be unreasonably withheld.

(d) The Arbitrator will hear the grievances and will render a decision within two working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision will be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.

(e) Arbitration awards will be of no precedential value and will not thereafter be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter.

(f) All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing will be without prejudice.

(g) A grievance determined by either party to fall within one of the categories listed in (b) above, may be removed from the expedited arbitration process at any time prior to hearing and forwarded to a regular arbitrator hearing pursuant to Clause 12.2 (Arbitrator).

(h) The parties will equally share the cost of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator and hearing rooms.

ARTICLE 13 - DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

13.1 Justice and Dignity

The parties agree that in certain situations, it may be in the best interest of both employer and employees that employees be reassigned or removed from all job sites during an investigation of conduct. In cases where an employee cannot be reassigned, the employee will be considered on a leave of absence without loss of pay until the Employer makes a decision relative to imposing discipline.

13.2 Discipline Procedure

(a) No employee will be disciplined, suspended or discharged except for just cause, and an employee will be discharged only upon the written authority of the Employer. Dismissal of a probationary employee will be subject to Clause 15.5 (Probation for Newly Hired Employees).

(c) The Employer will inform the union steward verbally prior to imposing a suspension of more than five days.

13.6 Right to Grieve Other Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary action grievable by employees will include written censures, letters of reprimand and adverse reports or performance evaluation. Employees will be given a copy of any such document placed on their file which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should employees dispute any such entry in their file, they will be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof will become part of their personnel record. Any such document, other than official evaluation reports, will be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of 18 months from the date it was issued, provided there has not been a similar further infraction.
