 - (c) measure changes in job content; and,
 - (d) assign jobs into their proper pay grade in the salary schedule.
- 3.15 The JJEC is able to make changes to notes to raters section but not to the factors or degrees sections within the plan. If the committee chooses to make changes to the notes to raters section, the parties should be informed of the changes.
- 3.16 In the application of the job evaluation plan, the following general rules shall apply:

- (a) it is the content of the job, and not the performance of the incumbent(s), that is being rated;
 - (b) jobs are evaluated without regard to existing wage rates;
 - (c) jobs are placed at the appropriate degree level in each sub-factor by comparing the specific requirements of the job to the sub-factor definition, and the description of each degree level;
 - (d) the job analysis and rating of each job shall be relative to and consistent with the job descriptions and ratings of all other jobs rated under the plan; and,
 - (e) no interpolation of sub-factor degrees (i.e. mid-points) is permitted.
- 3.17 When the JJEC has arrived at a consensus regarding the rating for a job, the resulting rating sheet must be signed by each member of the JJEC verifying that the degree factors, the points and the final total of the points on the rating sheet are correct and accurate.
- 3.18 Should there be a significant change to the rating and, therefore, a change in the pay grade, the incumbent, the manager and the manager of payroll and benefits will be notified through a letter signed off by the co-chairs.
- 3.19 No employee shall have his/her wages reduced as a result of the job evaluation program being implemented, providing that the employee chooses to remain in the same job. However, should an employee apply for a transfer, posting, or accept a promotion to another job, then that employee shall be paid the rate of pay commensurate with the new job. All persons who accept this job after it has been through the job evaluation program will be paid at the newly evaluated rate. All economic adjustments negotiated from time-to-time shall be calculated upon the revised job rate.
