ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.1 Definition

"Grievance" means any difference or dispute arising between the parties concerning the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement, including a question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.

8.2 Grievance Procedure

The following grievance procedure shall apply:

(a) Step 1

Within 21 calendar days of the alleged violation, the employee, together with a union steward, at the employee's option, shall attempt to resolve the grievance through discussion with his or her supervisor.

A grievance shall not be submitted, or advanced to Step 2 of the grievance procedure until the matter has been discussed by the employee and the General Manager, or their designate, in accordance with Step 1 of the grievance procedure unless the dispute includes the discharge or suspension of an employee.

(b) Step 2

If the matter is not resolved at Step 1, the employee, or a union representative at the employee's option, shall present the grievance in writing to the Employer's Regional Manager or designate, clearly setting forth full particulars of the alleged violation, including the article(s) involved and the remedy sought. The written grievance must be presented within 21 calendar days of the alleged violation. Within 21 calendar days following receipt of the written grievance, the Employer's Regional Manager or designate shall provide the employee and the Union with a written reply.

8.3 Time Limits to Submit to Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 2, and pursuant to Article 9, the President or his/her designate, may inform the Employer of his/her intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:

- (a) 21 calendar days after the Employer's decision has been received; or
- (b) 21 calendar days after the Employer's decision was due, whichever occurs first.

8.4 Dismissal or Suspension Grievance

- (a) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's discharge, the Union shall meet with the Employer within 14 calendar days to discuss the dismissal, and failing resolution, may submit the matter to arbitration within 14 calendar days of the meeting.
- (b) In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's suspension, the grievance may commence at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within 14 days of the date on which the suspension occurred, or within 14 calendar days of the employee receiving notice of suspension.

8.5 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

- (a) The Employer agrees that, after the Union has initiated a grievance, the Employer's representative will not enter into discussion with respect to the grievance, whether directly or indirectly, with the aggrieved employee without the consent of the Union.
- (b) In the event that after having initiated a grievance an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, the Union agrees that, pursuant to this article, the grievance shall be abandoned.

8.6 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the grievance/arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual agreement of the parties, but the same must be in writing.

8.7 Policy Grievance

- (a) Where either party to this Agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an article of this Agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer or designate and the Union within 21 days of the occurrence.
- (b) Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party, within 21 calendar days, may submit the dispute to arbitration and shall then set forth the particulars in writing of the alleged violation to the other party.

8.8 Failure to Observe Time Limits

Grievances which are not processed from one step to another within the time limits set out in this article shall be considered abandoned. However, neither party will be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance.

8.9 Management Grievance

- (a) The Employer may initiate a grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure by the General Manager or their designate presenting the grievance to the President of the Union or their representative.
- (b) Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 2 and pursuant to Article 9, the Employer may inform the President or their designate of their intention to submit the dispute to arbitration within:
 - (1) 21 days after the Union's response has been received; or
 - (2) 21 days after the Union's decision was due.

8.10 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties to this Agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end, an arbitrator shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance, in order to determine the real matter in dispute, and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

8.11 Section 104 Procedure

As part of the grievance procedure, the parties may agree to the following;

If a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee, or the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the term of this Agreement, a single arbitrator agreed to by the parties shall, at the request of either party:

- (1) investigate the difference,
- (2) define the issue in the difference, and
- (3) make written recommendations to resolve the difference

within 45 days of the completion of the steps of the grievance procedure preceding a reference to arbitration and the grievance procedure under the Collective Agreement has been exhausted.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION

9.1 Appointment of a Single Arbitrator

When a party has requested that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the parties shall have 14 calendar days to agree on a single arbitrator. Failing such agreement, either party may request that a single arbitrator be appointed pursuant to the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

9.2 Binding Decision

The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the grievance, and shall issue a decision which is final and binding on the parties and any person affected by it.

9.3 Jurisdiction of the Arbitrator

The Arbitrator shall not have jurisdiction to add to, delete from, change, modify or make any decision contrary to any provisions of this Agreement.

9.4 Cost of Arbitrator

The Union and the Employer shall bear equally the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator. Each of the parties shall pay its own other expenses including costs and pay for witnesses.

9.5 Amending Time Limits

- (c) The employee shall be given a copy of any disciplinary document that will be placed in his/her Personnel File.
- (d) In all cases of discipline and dismissal, except in the case of a probationary employee, the burden of proof of just cause shall rest with the Employer.

Letters of suspension shall be removed after 18 months has expired, provided there has been no subsequent disciplinary action of the same nature. An employee or the President of the Union or his designate, with the employee's written authority, shall be entitled to view the employee's Personnel File provided that the Employer is given adequate notice. Access to the Personnel File shall be provided within seven calendar days of the request. Once determined all disciplinary action in regards to resident abuse will remain on file permanently.

10.4 Right to Have Steward Present

An employee, who is subject to verbal warnings, or disciplinary action, shall have the right to the presence of a union steward. The employee shall be notified in advance of the purpose of such meeting. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to contact the steward. A union steward, who is subject to verbal warnings, or disciplinary action shall have the right to the presence of a union representative or another union steward. This provision shall not apply to those discussions that are of an operational nature and do not involve imposition of disciplinary action.

10.5 Employment Abandoned

Any employee who fails to report for work and does not notify the General Manager, or their designate, within three workdays, shall be considered as having abandoned their position. An employee shall be afforded the opportunity to rebut such presumption and demonstrate that there was an acceptable reason for not having informed the Employer.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

11.1 Seniority Defined

Seniority will be recognized and will accrue based on an employee's length of continuous service from their most recent date of hire, inclusive of all paid leaves, on a straight-time hours basis.

11.2 Leaving the Bargaining Unit

An employee who accepts a temporary assignment with the Employer outside the bargaining unit shall not continue to accumulate seniority. When the temporary assignment ends, the employee shall be credited with bargaining unit seniority accrued prior to the assignment.

- (b) is discharged for just and reasonable cause;
- (c) is on layoff for more than 12 consecutive months;
- (d) after a layoff, fails to report to work within three working days after being recalled by telephone or registered letter addressed to the address last provided by the employee to the Employer;

ARTICLE 12 - VACANCY POSTING
